ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him.
The court was seated,
and the books[c] were opened.

11"Then I continued to watch because of the boastful words the horn was speaking.[d] I kept looking until the beast was slain and its body destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire.[e] 12(The other beasts had been stripped of their authority, but were allowed to live for a period of time.) 13"In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man,[f] coming[g] with the clouds of heaven.[h] He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence.
14He was given authority,[i] glory and sovereign power; all peoples, nations and men of every language worshiped him.[j] His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom[k] is one that will never be destroyed.[l]

The Interpretation of the Dream

15"I, Daniel, was troubled in spirit, and the visions that passed through my mind disturbed me.[m] 16I approached one of those standing there and asked him the true meaning of all this.
"So he told me and gave me the interpretation[n] of these things: 17'The four great beasts are four kingdoms that will rise from the earth. 18But the saints[o] of the Most High will receive the kingdom[p] and will possess it forever—yes, for ever and ever.'[q] 19"Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others and most terrifying, with its iron teeth and bronze claws—the beast that crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left. 20I also wanted to know about the ten horns[r] on its head and about the other horn that came up, before which three of them fell—the horn that looked more imposing than the others and that had eyes and a mouth that spoke boastful-ly.[s] 21As I watched, this horn was waging war against the saints and defeating them,[t] 22until the Ancient of Days came and pronounced judgment in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came when they possessed the kingdom.[u] a28 Or Darius, that is, the reign of Cyrus 23"He gave me this explanation: 'The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms and will devour the whole earth, trampling it down and crushing it.[a] 24The ten horns[b] are ten kings who will come from this kingdom. After them another king will arise, different from the earlier ones; he will subdue three kings.

25He will speak against the Most High[c] and oppress his saints[d] and try to change the set times[e] and the laws.
The saints will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time.[a][f] 26" 'But the court will sit, and his power will be taken away and completely destroyed[g] forever.
27Then the sovereignty, power and greatness of the kingdoms[h] under the whole heaven will be handed over to the saints,[i] the people of the Most High.[j] His kingdom will be an everlasting[k] kingdom, and all rulers will worship[l] and obey him.' 28"This is the end of the matter. I, Daniel, was deeply troubled[m] by my thoughts,[n] and my face turned pale,[o] but I kept the matter to myself."

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8 In the third year of King Belshaz-zar's[p] reign, I, Daniel, had a vision,[q] after the one that had already appeared to me.
2In my vision I saw myself in the citadel of Susa[r] in the province of Elam;[s] in the vision I was beside the Ulai Canal.
3I looked up,[t]
and there before me was a ram[u] with two horns, standing beside the canal, and the horns were long. One of the horns was longer than the other but grew up later.
4I watched the ram as he charged toward the west and the north and the south. No animal could stand against him, and none could rescue from his power.[v] He did as he pleased[w] and became great.
5As I was thinking about this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between his eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground.
6He came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and charged at him in great rage.
7I saw him attack the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering his two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against him; the goat knocked him to the ground and trampled on him,[x] and none could rescue the ram from his power.[y] 8The goat became very great, but at the height of his power his large horn was broken off,[z] and in its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven.[a] 9Out of one of them came another horn, which started small[b] but grew in power to the south and to the east and toward the Beautiful Land.[c] 10It grew until it reached[d] the host of the heavens, and it threw some of the starry host down to the earth[e] and trampled[f] on them.
11It set itself up to be as great as the Prince[g] of the host;[h] it took away the daily sacrifice[i] from him, and the place of his sanctuary was brought low.[j] 12Because of rebellion, the host of the saints[b] and the daily sacrifice were given over to it. It prospered in everything it did, and truth was thrown to the ground.[k] 13Then I heard a holy one[l] speaking, and another holy one said to him, "How long will it take for the vision to be fulfilled[m]—the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, and the surrender of the sanctuary and of the host that will be trampled[n] underfoot?" 14He said to me, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be reconsecrated."[o]

The Interpretation of the Vision

15While I, Daniel, was watching the vision[p] and trying to understand it, there before me stood one who looked like a man.[q] 16And I heard a man's voice from the Ulai[r] calling, "Gabriel,[s] tell this man the meaning of the vision."[t] 17As he came near the place where I was standing, I was terrified and fell prostrate.[u] "Son of man," he said to me, "understand that the vision concerns the time of the end."[v] 18While he was speaking to me, I was in a deep sleep, with my face to the ground.[w] Then he touched me and raised me to my feet.[x] 19He said: "I am going to tell you what will happen later in the time of wrath,[y] because the vision concerns the appointed time[z] of the end.[c][a] 20The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia.[b] 21The shaggy goat is the king of Greece,[c] and the large horn between his eyes is the first king.[d]

Daniel's Prayer

9 In the first year of Darius[k] son of Xerxes[y][l] (a Mede by descent), who was made ruler over the Babylonian[z] kingdom— 2in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood from the Scriptures, according to the word of the LORD given to Jeremiah the prophet, that the desolation of Jerusalem would last seventy[m] years. 3So I turned to the Lord God and pleaded with him in prayer and petition, in fasting,[n] and in sackcloth and ashes.[o] 4I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed:[p]

"O Lord, the great and awesome God,[q] who keeps his covenant of love[r] with all who love him and obey his commands, 5we have sinned[s] and done wrong.[t] We have been wicked and have rebelled; we have turned away[u] from your commands and laws.[v] 6We have not listened[w] to your servants the prophets,[x] who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes and our fathers,[y] and to all the people of the land.
7"Lord, you are righteous,[z] but this day we are covered with shame[a]—the men of Judah and people of Jerusalem and all Israel, both near and far, in all the countries where you have scattered[b] us because of our unfaithfulness[c] to you.[d] 8O LORD, we and our kings, our princes and our fathers are covered with shame because we have sinned against you.[e] 9The Lord our God is merciful and forgiving,[f] even though we have rebelled against him;[g] 10we have not obeyed the LORD our God or kept the laws he gave us through his servants the prophets.[h] 11All Israel has transgressed[i] your law[j] and turned away, refusing to obey you.
"Therefore the curses[k] and sworn judgments[l] written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out on us, because we have sinned[m] against you. 12You have fulfilled[n] the words spoken against us and against our rulers by bringing upon us great disaster.[o] Under the whole heaven nothing has ever been done like[p] what has been done to Jerusalem.[q] 13Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us, yet we have not sought the favor of the LORD[r] our God by turning from our sins and giving attention to your truth.[s] 14The LORD did not hesitate to bring the disaster[t] upon us, for the LORD our God is righteous in everything he does;[u] yet we have not obeyed him.[v] 15"Now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand[w] and who made for yourself a name[x] that endures to this day, we have sinned, we have done wrong. 16O Lord, in keeping with all your righteous acts,[y] turn away[z] your anger and your wrath[a] from Jerusalem,[b] your city, your holy hill.[c] Our sins and the iniquities of our fathers have made Jerusalem and your people an object of scorn[d] to all those around us.
17"Now, our God, hear the prayers and petitions of your servant. For your sake, O Lord, look with favor[e] on your desolate sanctuary. 18Give ear,[f] O God, and hear;[g] open your eyes and see[h] the desolation of the city that bears

The Seventy "Sevens"

20While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and making my request to the LORD my God for his holy hill—21while I was still in prayer, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the earlier vision, came to me in swift flight about the time of the evening sacrifice.
22He instructed me and said to me, "Daniel, I have now come to give you insight and understanding.
23As soon as you began to pray, an answer was given, which I have come to tell you, for you are highly esteemed. Therefore, consider the message and understand the vision: 24"Seventy 'sevens'[a] are decreed for your people and your holy city to finish[b] transgression, to put an end to sin, to atone for wickedness, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy and to anoint the most holy.[c] 25"Know and understand this: From the issuing of the decree[d] to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the Anointed One,[e] the ruler, comes, there will be seven 'sevens,' and sixty-two 'sevens.' It will be rebuilt with streets and a trench, but in times of trouble.
26After the sixty-two 'sevens,' the Anointed One will be cut off and will have nothing.[f] The people of the ruler who will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood: War will continue until the end, and desolations have been decreed.
27He will confirm a covenant with many for one 'seven.'[g] In the middle of the 'seven'[h] he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. And on a wing of the temple he will set up an abomination that causes desolation, until the end that is decreed is poured out on him.[i]"

Daniel's Vision of a Man

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a revelation was given to Daniel (who was called Belteshazzar). Its message was true[j] and it concerned a great war. The understanding of the message came to him in a vision.
2At that time I, Daniel, mourned for three weeks.
3I ate no choice food; no meat or wine touched my lips; and I used no lotions at all until the three weeks were over.
4On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Tigris, 5I looked up and there before me was a man dressed in linen, with a belt of the finest gold around his waist.
6His body was like chrysolite, his face like lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and his voice like the sound of a multitude.
7I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision; the men with me did not see it, but such terror overwhelmed them that they fled and hid themselves.
8So I was left alone, gazing at this great vision; I had no strength left, my face turned deathly pale and I was helpless.
9Then I heard him speaking, and as I listened to him, I fell into a deep sleep, my face to the ground.
10A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees.
11He said, "Daniel, you who are highly esteemed, consider carefully the words I am about to speak to you, and stand up, for I have now been sent to you." And when he said this to me, I stood up trembling.
12Then he continued, "Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them.
13But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days.
Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia.
14Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future, for the vision concerns a time yet to come." 15While he was saying this to me, I bowed with my face toward the ground and was speechless.
16Then one who looked like a man[k] touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and began to speak.[a] I said to the one standing before me, "I am overcome with anguish[b] because of the vision, my lord, and I am helpless. 17How can I, your servant, talk with you, my lord? My strength is gone and I can hardly breathe."[c]

18Again the one who looked like a man touched[d] me and gave me strength.[e] 19"Do not be afraid, O man highly esteemed,"[f] he said. "Peace![g] Be strong now; be strong."[h]

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "Speak, my lord, since you have given me strength."[i] 20So he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Soon I will return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I go, the prince of Greece[j] will come; 21but first I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth.[k] (No one supports me against them except Michael,[l] your prince.

11 1And in the first year of Darius[m] the Mede, I took my stand to support and protect him.)

The Kings of the South and the North

2"Now then, I tell you the truth:[n] Three more kings will appear in Persia, and then a fourth, who will be far richer than all the others. When he has gained power by his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece.[o] 3Then a mighty king will appear, who will rule with great power and do as he pleases.[p] 4After he has appeared, his empire will be broken up and parceled out toward the four winds of heaven.[q] It will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the power he exercised, because his empire will be uprooted[r] and given to others.

5"The king of the South will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he and will rule his own kingdom with great power. 6After some years, they will become allies. The daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to make an alliance, but she will not retain her power, and he and his power[l] will not last. In those days she will be handed over, together with her royal escort and her father[m] and the one who supported her.

7"One from her family line will arise to take her place. He will attack the forces of the king of the North[s] and enter his fortress; he will fight against them and be victorious. 8He will also seize their gods,[t] their metal images and their valuable articles of silver and gold and carry them off to Egypt.[u] For some years he will leave the king of the North alone. 9Then the king of the North will invade the realm of the king of the South but will retreat to his own country. 10His sons will prepare for war and assemble a great army, which will sweep on like an irresistible flood[v] and carry the battle as far as his fortress.

11"Then the king of the South will march out in a rage and fight against the king of the North, who will raise a large army, but it will be defeated.[w] 12When the army is carried off, the king of the South will be filled with pride and will slaughter many thousands, yet he will not remain triumphant. 13For the king of the North will muster another army, larger than the first; and after several years, he will advance with a huge army fully equipped.

14"In those times many will rise against the king of the South. The violent men among your own people will rebel in fulfillment of the vision, but without success. 15Then the king of the North will come and build up siege ramps[x] and will capture a fortified city. The forces of the South will be powerless to resist; even their best troops will not have the strength to stand. 16The invader will do as he pleases;[y] no one will be able to stand against him.[z] He will establish himself in the Beautiful Land and will have the power to destroy it.[a] 17He will determine to come with the might of his entire kingdom and will make an alliance with the king of the South. And he will give him a daughter in marriage in order to overthrow the kingdom, but his plans[n] will not succeed[b] or help him. 18Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands[c] and will take many of them, but a commander will put an end to his insolence and will turn his insolence back upon him.[d] 19After this, he will turn back toward the fortresses of his own country but will stumble and fall,[e] to be seen no more.[f]

20"His successor will send out a tax collector to maintain the royal splendor.[g] In a few years, however, he will be destroyed, yet not in anger or in battle.

21"He will be succeeded by a contemptible[a] person who has not been given the honor of royalty.[b] He will invade the kingdom when its people feel secure, and he will seize it through intrigue. 22Then an overwhelming army will be swept away[c] before him; both it and a prince of the covenant will be destroyed.[d] 23After coming to an agreement with him, he will act deceitfully,[e] and with only a few people he will rise to power. 24When the richest provinces feel secure, he will invade them and will achieve what neither his fathers nor his forefathers did. He will distribute plunder, loot and wealth among his followers.[f] He will plot the overthrow of fortresses—but only for a time.

25"With a large army he will stir up his strength and courage against the king of the South. The king of the South will wage war with a large and very powerful army, but he will not be able to stand because of the plots devised against him. 26Those who eat from the king's provisions will try to destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall in battle. 27The two kings, with their hearts bent on evil,[g] will sit at the same table and lie[h] to each other, but to no avail, because an end will still come at the appointed time.[i] 28The king of the North will return to his own country with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action against it and then return to his own country.

29"At the appointed time he will invade the South again, but this time the outcome will be different from what it was before. 30Ships of the western coastlands[a][j] will oppose him, and he will lose heart.[k] Then he will turn back and vent his fury[l] against the holy covenant. He will return and show favor to those who forsake the holy covenant.

31"His armed forces will rise up to desecrate the temple fortress and will abolish the daily sacrifice.[m] Then they will set up the abomination that causes desolation.[n] 32With flattery he will corrupt those who have violated the covenant, but the people who know their God will firmly resist[o] him.

33"Those who are wise will instruct[p] many, though for a time they will fall by the sword or be burned or captured or plundered.[q] 34When they fall, they will receive a little help, and many who are not sincere[r] will join them. 35Some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined,[s] purified and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.

The King Who Exalts Himself

36"The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself[t] above every god and will say unheard-of things[u] against the God of gods.[v] He will be successful until the time of wrath[w] is completed, for what has been determined must take place.[x] 37He will show no regard for the gods of his fathers or for the one desired by women, nor will he regard any god, but will exalt himself above them all. 38Instead of them, he will honor a god of fortresses; a god unknown to his fathers he will honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts. 39He will attack the mightiest fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honor those who acknowledge him. He will make them rulers over many people and will distribute the land at a price.[b]

40"At the time of the end the king of the South[y] will engage him in battle, and the king of the North will storm[z] out against him with chariots and cavalry and a great fleet of ships. He will invade many countries and sweep through them like a flood.[a] 41He will also invade the Beautiful Land.[b] Many countries will fall, but Edom,[c] Moab[d] and the leaders of Ammon will be delivered from his hand. 42He will extend his power over many countries; Egypt will not escape. 43He will gain control of the treasures of gold and silver and all the riches of Egypt,[e] with the Libyans[f] and Nubians in submission. 44But reports from the east and the north will alarm him, and he will set out in a great rage to destroy and annihilate many. 45He will pitch his royal tents between the seas at[c] the beautiful holy mountain.[g] Yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

The End Times

Hosea

1 The word of the LORD that came[a] to Hosea son of Beeri during the reigns of Uzziah,[b] Jotham,[c] Ahaz[d] and Hezekiah,[e] kings of Judah,[f] and during the reign of Jeroboam[g] son of Jehoash[a] king of Israel:[h]

Hosea's Wife and Children

2When the LORD began to speak through Hosea, the LORD said to him, "Go, take to yourself an adulterous[i] wife and children of unfaithfulness, because the land is guilty of the vilest adultery[j] in departing from the LORD." 3So he married Gomer[k] daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

4Then the LORD said to Hosea, "Call him Jezreel,[l] because I will soon punish the house of Jehu for the massacre at Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel. 5In that day I will break Israel's bow in the Valley of Jez-reel.[m]"

6Gomer[n] conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. Then the LORD said to Hosea, "Call her Lo-Ruhamah,[b][o] for I will no longer show love to the house of Israel,[p] that I should at all forgive them. 7Yet I will show love to the house of Judah; and I will save them—not by bow,[q] sword or battle, or by horses and horsemen, but by the LORD their God.[r]"

8After she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah,[s] Gomer had another son.
9Then the LORD said, "Call him Lo-Ammi,[c] for you are not my people, and I am not your God.[t]

10"Yet the Israelites will be like the sand on the seashore, which cannot be measured or counted.[u] In the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.'[v][w] 11The people of Judah and the people of Israel will be reunited,[x] and they will appoint one leader[y] and will come up out of the land,[z] for great will be the day of Jez-reel.[a]

2 "Say of your brothers, 'My people,' and of your sisters, 'My loved one.'[b]

Israel Punished and Restored

2"Rebuke your mother,[c] rebuke her, for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband.
Let her remove the adulterous[d] look from her face and the unfaithfulness from between her breasts.
3Otherwise I will strip[e] her naked and make her as bare as on the day she was born;[f] I will make her like a desert,[g] turn her into a parched land, and slay her with thirst.
4I will not show my love to her children,[h] because they are the children of adultery.[i] 5Their mother has been unfaithful and has conceived them in disgrace.
She said, 'I will go after my lovers,[j] who give me my food and my water, my wool and my linen, my oil and my drink.'[k] 6Therefore I will block her path with thornbushes;
I will wall her in so that she cannot find her way.[l] 7She will chase after her lovers but not catch them;
she will look for them but not find them.[m]
Then she will say,
'I will go back to my husband[n] as at first,[o] for then I was better off[p] than now.' 8She has not acknowledged[q] that I was the one who gave her the grain, the new wine and oil,[r]

and they will respond to the earth;
22 and the earth will respond to the grain, the new wine and oil,[m] and they will respond to Jezreel.[i][n]
23 I will plant[o] her for myself in the land;
I will show my love to the one I called 'Not my loved one.[j][p]' I will say to those called 'Not my and they will say, 'You are my

Hosea's Reconciliation With His Wife

3 The LORD said to me, "Go, show your love to your wife again, though she is loved by another and is an adulteress.[s] Love her as the LORD loves the Israelites, though they turn to other gods and love the sacred raisin cakes.[t]" 2 So I bought her for fifteen shekels[l] of silver and about a homer and a lethek[m] of barley. 3 Then I told her, "You are to live with[n] me many days; you must not be a prostitute or be intimate with any man, and I will live with[n]
you."
4 For the Israelites will live many days without king or prince,[u] without sacrifice[v] or sacred stones,[w] without ephod[x] or idol.[y] 5 Afterward the Israelites will return and seek[z] the LORD their God and David their king.[a] They will come trembling[b] to the LORD and to his blessings in the last days.[c]

The Charge Against Israel

4 Hear the word of the LORD, you Israelites, because the LORD has a charge[a] to bring against you who live in the land:[b]
"There is no faithfulness,[c] no love, no acknowledgment[d] of God in the land.[e] 2There is only cursing,[a] lying[f] and murder,[g] stealing[h] and adultery;[i] they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.[j] 3Because of this the land mourns,[b][k] and all who live in it waste away;[l] the beasts of the field and the birds of the air and the fish of the sea are dying.[m]

4"But let no man bring a charge, let no man accuse another, for your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.[n] 5You stumble[o] day and night, and the prophets stumble with you.
So I will destroy your mother[p]— 6 my people are destroyed from lack of knowledge.[q]

"Because you have rejected knowledge, I also reject you as my priests; because you have ignored the law[r] of your God, I also will ignore your children.
7The more the priests increased, the more they sinned against me; they exchanged[c] their[d] Glory[s] for something disgraceful.[t] 8They feed on the sins of my people and relish their wickedness.[u] 9And it will be: Like people, like priests.[v] I will punish both of them for their ways and repay them for their deeds.[w]

10"They will eat but not have enough;[x] they will engage in prostitution[y] but not increase, because they have deserted[z] the LORD to give themselves 11to prostitution,[a] to old wine[b] and new, which take away the understanding[c] 12of my people.
They consult a wooden idol[d] and are answered by a stick of wood.[e] A spirit of prostitution[f] leads them astray;[g] they are unfaithful[h] to their God.
13They sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn offerings on the hills, under oak,[i] poplar and terebinth, where the shade is pleasant.[j] Therefore your daughters turn to prostitution[k] and your daughters-in-law to adultery.[l]

14"I will not punish your daughters when they turn to prostitution, nor your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery, because the men themselves consort with harlots[m] and sacrifice with shrine prostitutes[n]— a people without understanding[o] will come to ruin![p]

15"Though you commit adultery, O Israel,

How then can the LORD pasture them like lambs[v] in a meadow?
17Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone!
18Even when their drinks are gone, they continue their prostitution; their rulers dearly love shameful ways.
19A whirlwind[w] will sweep them away, and their sacrifices will bring them shame.[x]

Judgment Against Israel

Punishment for Israel

9 Do not rejoice, O Israel; do not be jubilant[q] like the other nations.
For you have been unfaithful[r] to your God;
you love the wages of a prostitute[s] at every threshing floor.
2Threshing floors and winepresses will not feed the people; the new wine[t] will fail them.
3They will not remain[u] in the LORD's
land;
Ephraim will return to Egypt[v] and eat unclean[x] food in Assyria.[w] 4They will not pour out wine nor will their sacrifices please[y]

him.
Such sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners;[z] all who eat them will be unclean.[a] This food will be for themselves; it will not come into the temple of the LORD.[b]

5What will you do[c] on the day of your appointed feasts,[d] on the festival days of the LORD?
6Even if they escape from destruction, Egypt will gather them,[e] and Memphis[f] will bury them.[g] Their treasures of silver[h] will be taken over by briers, and thorns[i] will overrun their tents.
7The days of punishment[j] are coming,
the days of reckoning[k] are at hand.
Let Israel know this.
Because your sins[l] are so many and your hostility so great, the prophet is considered a fool,[m] the inspired man a maniac.[n] 8The prophet, along with my God, is the watchman over Ephraim,[y] yet snares[o] await him on all his paths, and hostility in the house of his 11Ephraim's glory[y] will fly away like a conception.[a] 12Even if they rear children, I will bereave[b] them of every one.

3 Then they will say, "We have no king because we did not revere the
LORD.
But even if we had a king, what could he do for us?" 4 They make many promises, take false oaths and make agreements; therefore lawsuits spring up like poisonous weeds in a plowed field.
5 The people who live in Samaria fear for the calf-idol of Beth Aven.[a] Its people will mourn over it, and so will its idolatrous priests, those who had rejoiced over its splendor, because it is taken from them into exile.
6 It will be carried to Assyria as tribute for the great king.
Ephraim will be disgraced; Israel will be ashamed of its wooden idols.[b] 7 Samaria and its king will float away like a twig on the surface of the waters.
8 The high places of wickedness[c] will be destroyed—

it is the sin of Israel.
Thorns and thistles will grow up and cover their altars.
Then they will say to the mountains, and to the hills, "Fall on us!" 9 "Since the days of Gibeah, you have sinned, O Israel, and there you have remained.[d] Did not war overtake the evildoers in Gibeah?

10 When I please, I will punish them; nations will be gathered against them to put them in bonds for their double sin.
11 Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh; so I will put a yoke on her fair neck.
I will drive Ephraim, Judah must plow, and Jacob must break up the ground.
12 Sow for yourselves righteousness, reap the fruit of unfailing love, and break up your unplowed
ground;
for it is time to seek the LORD, until he comes and showers righteousness on
you.
13 But you have planted wickedness, you have reaped evil, you have eaten the fruit of deception.
Because you have depended on your own strength and on your many warriors, 14 the roar of battle will rise against your people, so that all your fortresses will be devastated—as Shalman devastated Beth Arbel on the day of battle, when mothers were dashed to the ground with their children.
15 Thus will it happen to you, O Bethel,
because your wickedness is great.
When that day dawns, the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

God's Love for Israel

11 "When Israel was a child, I loved him,

a5 Beth Aven means house of wickedness (a name for Bethel, which means house of God). b6 Or its counsel c8 Hebrew aven, a reference to Beth Aven (a derogatory name for Bethel) d9 Or there a stand was taken and out of Egypt I called my son.[a] 2But the more I[d] called Israel, the further they went from me.[e] [b] They sacrificed to the Baals[c] and they burned incense to images.[d] 3It was I who taught Ephraim to walk, taking them by the arms;[e] but they did not realize it was I who healed[f] them.

4I led them with cords of human kindness, with ties of love;[g] I lifted the yoke[h] from their neck and bent down to feed[i] them.[j]

5"Will they not return to Egypt[k]

6Swords[n] will flash in their cities, will destroy the bars[o] of their gates and put an end to their plans.
7My people are determined to turn[p] from me.[q]
Even if they call to the Most High, he will by no means exalt them.

8"How can I give you up,[r] Ephraim?[s]
How can I hand you over, Israel?
How can I treat you like Admah?
How can I make you like Zeboiim?[t]
My heart is changed within me; all my compassion[u] is aroused.[v] 9I will not carry out my fierce anger,[w] nor will I turn and devastate[x] Ephraim.
For I am God, and not man[y]— the Holy One[z] among you.
I will not come in wrath.[f] 10They will follow the LORD; he will roar[a] like a lion.[b] When he roars, his children will come trembling[c] from the west.[d] 11They will come trembling like birds from Egypt, like doves[e] from Assyria.[f] I will settle them in their homes,"[g] declares the LORD.

The LORD's Anger Against Israel

13 When Ephraim spoke, men trembled;[d] he was exalted[e] in Israel.
But he became guilty of Baal worship[f] and died.
2Now they sin more and more; they make[g] idols for themselves from their silver,[h] cleverly fashioned images, all of them the work of craftsmen.[i]
It is said of these people,
"They offer human sacrifice and kiss[j][j] the calf-idols.[k]" 3Therefore they will be like the morning mist, like the early dew that disappears,[l] like chaff[m] swirling from a threshing floor,[n] like smoke[o] escaping through a window.

4"But I am the LORD your God, ⌞who brought you⌟ out of[k] Egypt.[p] You shall acknowledge[q] no God but me,[r]
no Savior[s] except me.
5I cared for you in the desert,[t] in the land of burning heat.
6When I fed them, they were satisfied;
when they were satisfied, they became proud;[u] then they forgot[v] me.[w] 7So I will come upon them like a lion,[x] like a leopard I will lurk by the path.
8Like a bear robbed of her cubs,[y] I will attack them and rip them open.
Like a lion[z] I will devour them; a wild animal will tear them apart.[a]

9"You are destroyed, O Israel,

"I will have no compassion, 15 even though he thrives[o] among his brothers.
An east wind[p] from the LORD will come,
blowing in from the desert; his spring will fail and his well dry up.[q] His storehouse will be plundered[r] of all its treasures.
16The people of Samaria[s] must bear their guilt,[t] because they have rebelled[u] against their God.
They will fall by the sword;[v] their little ones will be dashed[w] to their pregnant women[x] ripped

Repentance to Bring Blessing

14 Return,[y] O Israel, to the LORD your God.
Your sins[z] have been your downfall![a] 2Take words with you and return to the LORD.
Say to him:
"Forgive[b] all our sins and receive us graciously,[c] that we may offer the fruit of our

Joel[b] son of Pethuel.

An Invasion of Locusts

2Hear this,[c] you elders;[d] listen, all who live in the land.[e] Has anything like this ever happened in your days or in the days of your forefathers?[f] 3Tell it to your children,[g] and let your children tell it to their children, and their children to the next generation.[h] 4What the locust[i] swarm has left the great locusts have eaten; what the great locusts have left the young locusts have eaten; what the young locusts have left[j] other locusts[a] have eaten.[k]

5Wake up, you drunkards, and weep!
Wail, all you drinkers of wine;[l] wail because of the new wine, for it has been snatched[m] from your lips.
6A nation has invaded my land, powerful and without number;[n] it has the teeth[o] of a lion, the fangs of a lioness.
7It has laid waste[p] my vines and ruined my fig trees.[q] It has stripped off their bark and thrown it away, leaving their branches white.

8Mourn like a virgin[b] in sackcloth[r] grieving for the husband[c] of her youth.
9Grain offerings and drink offerings[s] are cut off from the house of the
LORD.
The priests are in mourning,[t] those who minister before the
LORD.
10The fields are ruined, the ground is dried up[d];[u] the grain is destroyed, the new wine[v] is dried up, the oil fails.[w]

11Despair, you farmers,[x] wail, you vine growers; grieve for the wheat and the barley,[y] because the harvest of the field is destroyed.[z] 12The vine is dried up and the fig tree is withered;[a] the pomegranate,[b] the palm and the apple tree—all the trees of the field—are dried up.[c] Surely the joy of mankind is withered away.

A Call to Repentance

13Put on sackcloth,[d] O priests, and mourn;
wail, you who minister[e] before the altar.
Come, spend the night in sackcloth, you who minister before my God; for the grain offerings and drink offerings[f] are withheld from the house of your God.
14Declare a holy fast;[g] call a sacred assembly.
Summon the elders and all who live in the land[h] to the house of the LORD your God, and cry out[i] to the LORD.[j]

15Alas for that[k] day!
For the day of the LORD[l] is near; it will come like destruction from the Almighty.[e][m]

16Has not the food been cut off[n] before our very eyes—joy and gladness[o] from the house of our God?[p] 17The seeds are shriveled beneath the clods.[f][q] The storehouses are in ruins, the granaries have been broken down, for the grain has dried up.

18How the cattle moan!
The herds mill about because they have no pasture;[a] even the flocks of sheep are suffering.[b]

19To you, O LORD, I call,[c] for fire[d] has devoured the open pastures[e]
and flames have burned up all the trees of the field.
20Even the wild animals pant for you;[f] the streams of water have dried up[g]
and fire has devoured the open pastures.[h]

An Army of Locusts

2 Blow the trumpet[i] in Zion;[j] sound the alarm on my holy hill.[k] Let all who live in the land tremble, for the day of the LORD[l] is coming.
It is close at hand[m]— 2 a day of darkness[n] and gloom,[o][p] a day of clouds[q] and blackness.[r] Like dawn spreading across the mountains a large and mighty army[s] comes, such as never was of old[t] nor ever will be in ages to come.

3Before them fire[u] devours, behind them a flame blazes.
Before them the land is like the garden of Eden,[v] behind them, a desert waste[w]— nothing escapes them.
4They have the appearance of horses;[x]
they gallop along like cavalry.
5With a noise like that of chariots[y] they leap over the mountaintops, like a crackling fire[z] consuming stubble, like a mighty army drawn up for battle.

6At the sight of them, nations are in anguish;[a] every face turns pale.[b] 7They charge like warriors;[c] they scale walls like soldiers.
They all march in line,[d] not swerving[e] from their course.
8They do not jostle each other; each marches straight ahead.
They plunge through defenses without breaking ranks.
9They rush upon the city; they run along the wall.
They climb into the houses;[f] like thieves they enter through the windows.[g]

10Before them the earth shakes,[h] the sky trembles,[i] the sun and moon are darkened,[j]
and the stars no longer shine.[k] 11The LORD[l] thunders[m] at the head of his army;[n] his forces are beyond number, and mighty are those who obey his command.
The day of the LORD is great;[o] it is dreadful.
Who can endure it?[p]

Rend Your Heart

12"Even now," declares the LORD, "return[q] to me with all your heart,[r] with fasting and weeping and mourning."

13Rend your heart[s] and not your garments.[t] Return[u] to the LORD your God, for he is gracious and compassionate,[v] slow to anger and abounding in love,[w]
and he relents from sending calamity.[x] 14Who knows? He may turn[y] and have pity[z]
and leave behind a blessing[a]— grain offerings and drink offerings[b] for the LORD your God.

15Blow the trumpet[c] in Zion,[d] declare a holy fast,[e] call a sacred assembly.[f] 16Gather the people, consecrate[g] the assembly; bring together the elders,[h] gather the children, those nursing at the breast.
Let the bridegroom[i] leave his room and the bride her chamber.
17Let the priests, who minister[j] before the LORD,
weep[k] between the temple porch and the altar.[l] Let them say, "Spare your people, O LORD.
Do not make your inheritance an object of scorn,[m] a byword[n] among the nations.
Why should they say among the peoples,
'Where is their God?[o]' "

The LORD's Answer

18 Then the LORD will be jealous[a] for his land and take pity[b] on his people.[g] 19 The LORD will reply[g] to them:

"I am sending you grain, new wine[c] and oil,[d] enough to satisfy you fully;[e] never again will I make you an object of scorn[f] to the nations.
20 "I will drive the northern army[g] far from you, pushing it into a parched and barren land, with its front columns going into the eastern[h] sea[h] and those in the rear into the western sea.[i] And its stench[i] will go up; its smell will rise."

Surely he has done great things.[j] 21 Be not afraid,[j] O land; be glad and rejoice.[k] Surely the LORD has done great things.[l] 22 Be not afraid, O wild animals, for the open pastures are becoming green.[m]
The trees are bearing their fruit; the fig tree[n] and the vine[o] yield their riches.[p] 23 Be glad, O people of Zion, rejoice[q] in the LORD your God, for he has given you the autumn rains in righteousness.[k r] He sends you abundant showers,[s] both autumn[t] and spring rains,[u] as before.
24 The threshing floors will be filled with grain; the vats will overflow[v] with new wine[w] and oil.

25 "I will repay you for the years the locusts[x] have eaten[y]— the great locust and the young locust, the other locusts and the locust swarm[l]— my great army[z] that I sent among you.
26 You will have plenty to eat, until you are full,[a] and you will praise[b] the name of the LORD your God, who has worked wonders[c] for you; never again will my people be shamed.[d] 27 Then you will know[e] that I am in Israel, that I am the LORD[f] your God, and that there is no other; never again will my people be shamed.[g]

The Day of the LORD

28 "And afterward,
I will pour out my Spirit[h] on all people.[i] Your sons and daughters will prophesy,[j] your old men will dream dreams,[k] your young men will see visions.
29 Even on my servants,[l] both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days.[m] 30 I will show wonders in the heavens[n] and on the earth,[o] blood and fire and billows of smoke.
31 The sun will be turned to darkness[p] and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.[q] 32 And everyone who calls on the name of the LORD[r] will be saved;[s] for on Mount Zion[t] and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance,[u] as the LORD has said, among the survivors[v] whom the LORD calls.[w]

The Nations Judged

3 "In those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes[x] of Judah[y] and Jerusalem, 2 I will gather[z] all nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.[m a] There I will enter into judgment[b] against them concerning my inheritance, my people Israel, for they scattered[c] my people among the nations
and divided up my land.
3 They cast lots[d] for my people and traded boys for prostitutes; they sold girls for wine[e] that they might drink.

Judgment on Israel's Neighbors

3This is what the LORD says:

"For three sins of Damascus,[l] even for four, I will not turn back ⌞my wrath⌟.[m]
Because she threshed Gilead with sledges having iron teeth, 4I will send fire[n] upon the house of Hazael[o] that will consume the fortresses[p] of Ben-Hadad.[q] 5I will break down the gate[r] of Damascus;
I will destroy the king who is in[c] the Valley of Aven[d] and the one who holds the scepter in Beth Eden.[s]
The people of Aram will go into exile to Kir,[t]" says the LORD.[u]

"For three sins of Gaza,[v]
even for four, I will not turn back ⌞my wrath⌟.[w]
Because she took captive whole communities and sold them to Edom,[x] 7I will send fire upon the walls of Gaza that will consume her fortresses.
8I will destroy the king[e] of Ashdod[y] and the one who holds the scepter in Ashkelon.
I will turn my hand[z] against Ekron, till the last of the Philistines[a] is dead,"[b] says the Sovereign LORD.[c]

9This is what the LORD says:

"For three sins of Tyre,[d]
even for four, I will not turn back ⌞my wrath⌟.[e]
Because she sold whole communities of captives to Edom, disregarding a treaty of brotherhood,[f]
Tyre
that will consume her fortresses.[g]"

11This is what the LORD says:

"For three sins of Edom,[h]
⌞my wrath⌟.
Because he pursued his brother with a sword,[i] stifling all compassion,[f] because his anger raged continually and his fury flamed unchecked,[j] 12I will send fire upon Teman[k] that will consume the fortresses of Bozrah.[l]"

13This is what the LORD says:

"For three sins of Ammon,[m]
Because he ripped open the pregnant women[n] of Gilead in order to extend his borders, 14I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah[o] that will consume[p] her fortresses amid war cries[q] on the day of battle, amid violent winds[r] on a stormy day.
15Her king[g] will go into exile, says the LORD.[t]

Judgment on Israel

6This is what the LORD says:

"For three sins of Israel,
even for four, I will not turn back ⌞my wrath⌟.[r]
They sell the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals.[s] 7They trample on the heads of the poor as upon the dust of the ground and deny justice to the oppressed.
Father and son use the same girl and so profane my holy name.[t] 8They lie down beside every altar on garments taken in pledge.[u] In the house of their god they drink wine[v] taken as fines.[w]

9"I destroyed the Amorite[x] before
them, though he was tall[y] as the cedars and strong as the oaks.[z] I destroyed his fruit above and his roots[a] below.

10"I brought you up out of Egypt,[b] and I led[c] you forty years in the desert[d] to give you the land of the Amorites.[e] 11I also raised up prophets[f] from among your sons and Nazirites[g] from among your young men.
Is this not true, people of Israel?"
declares the LORD.
12"But you made the Nazirites drink wine and commanded the prophets not to prophesy.[h]

13"Now then, I will crush you as a cart crushes when loaded with grain.[i] 14The swift will not escape,[j] the strong[k] will not muster their strength, and the warrior will not save his life.[l] 15The archer[m] will not stand his ground,
the fleet-footed soldier will not get away,
and the horseman[n] will not save his life.[o] 16Even the bravest warriors[p] will flee naked on that day,"
declares the LORD.

Witnesses Summoned Against Israel

3 Hear this word the LORD has spoken against you,[q] O people of Israel—against the whole family I brought up out of Egypt:[r]

2"You only have I chosen[s] of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish[t] you for all your sins.[u]"

3Do two walk together unless they have agreed to do so?
4Does a lion roar[v] in the thicket when he has no prey?[w] Does he growl in his den when he has caught nothing?
5Does a bird fall into a trap on the
where no snare[x] has been set?
Does a trap spring up from the earth when there is nothing to catch?
6When a trumpet[y] sounds in a city, do not the people tremble?
When disaster[z] comes to a city, has not the LORD caused it?[a] 7Surely the Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan[b] to his servants the prophets.[c] ear, so will the Israelites be saved, those who sit in Samaria on the edge of their beds you women who oppress the the last of you with fishhooks.

3You will each go straight out through breaks in the wall,[e] declares the Sovereign LORD.

6"I gave you empty stomachs[n] in every city and lack of bread in every town, yet you have not returned to me," declares the LORD.[m]

7"I also withheld[n] rain from you when the harvest was still three months away.
I sent rain on one town, but withheld it from another.[o] One field had rain;
another had none and dried up.
8People staggered from town to town declares the LORD.[s]

9"Many times I struck your gardens

A Lament and Call to Repentance

5 Hear this word, O house of Israel, this lament[k] I take up concerning
you:

2 "Fallen is Virgin[l] Israel, never to rise again, deserted in her own land, with no one to lift her up."[m]

3 This is what the Sovereign LORD
says:

"The city that marches out a thousand strong for Israel will have only a hundred left; the town that marches out a hundred strong will have only ten left."[n]

4 This is what the LORD says to the house of Israel:

"Seek[o] me and live;[p] 5 do not seek Bethel, do not go to Gilgal,[q] do not journey to Beersheba.[r] For Gilgal will surely go into exile, and Bethel will be reduced to nothing.[p][s]" 6 Seek[t] the LORD and live,[u] or he will sweep through the house of Joseph like a fire;[v] it will devour, and Bethel[w] will have no one to quench it.[x]

and pours them out over the face
the LORD is his name[e] — 9 he flashes destruction on the stronghold and brings the fortified city to ruin),[f] 10 you hate the one who reproves in court[g]
and despise him who tells the truth.[h]

11 You trample on the poor[i] and force him to give you grain.
Therefore, though you have built stone mansions,[j] you will not live in them;[k] though you have planted lush vineyards,
you will not drink their wine.[l] 12 For I know how many are your offenses and how great your sins.[m]

You oppress the righteous and take bribes[n]
and you deprive the poor[o] of justice in the courts.[p] 13 Therefore the prudent man keeps quiet[q] in such times, for the times are evil.[r]

14 Seek good, not evil, that you may live.[s] Then the LORD God Almighty will be with you, just as you say he is.
15 Hate evil,[t] love good;[u] maintain justice in the courts.[v] Perhaps[w] the LORD God Almighty will have mercy[x]
on the remnant[y] of Joseph.

16 Therefore this is what the Lord, the LORD God Almighty, says:

"There will be wailing[z] in all the streets[a] and cries of anguish in every public square.
The farmers[b] will be summoned to weep and the mourners to wail.
17 There will be wailing[c] in all the vineyards,

[o]11 Hebrew God [p]5 Or grief; or wickedness; Hebrew aven, a reference to Beth Aven (a derogatory name for Bethel) for I will pass through[a] your midst," says the LORD.[b]

18Woe to you who long for the day of the LORD![c] Why do you long for the day of the LORD?[d]
That day will be darkness,[e] not light.[f] 19It will be as though a man fled from a lion only to meet a bear,[g] as though he entered his house and rested his hand on the wall only to have a snake bite him.[h] 20Will not the day of the LORD be darkness,[i] not light—pitch-dark, without a ray of brightness?[j]

21"I hate,[k] I despise your religious feasts;[l] I cannot stand your assemblies.[m] 22Even though you bring me burnt offerings[n] and grain offerings, I will not accept them.[o][p] Though you bring choice fellowship offerings,[q] I will have no regard for them.[q][r] 23Away with the noise of your songs!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.[s] 24But let justice[t] roll on like a river, righteousness[u] like a never-failing stream![v]

25"Did you bring me sacrifices[w] and offerings forty years[x] in the desert, O house of Israel?
26You have lifted up the shrine of your king, the pedestal of your idols,[y] the star of your god[r]— which you made for yourselves.
27Therefore I will send you into exile[z] beyond Damascus," says the LORD, whose name is God Almighty.[a]

Woe to the Complacent

6 Woe to you[b] who are complacent[c] in Zion, and to you who feel secure[d] on Mount Samaria,[e] you notable men of the foremost nation, to whom the people of Israel come![f] 2Go to Calneh[g] and look at it; go from there to great Hamath,[h] and then go down to Gath[i] in Philistia.
Are they better off than[j] your two kingdoms?
Is their land larger than yours?
3You put off the evil day and bring near a reign of terror.[k] 4You lie on beds inlaid with ivory and lounge on your couches.[l] You dine on choice lambs and fattened calves.[m] 5You strum away on your harps[n] like David and improvise on musical instruments.[o] 6You drink wine[p] by the bowlful and use the finest lotions, but you do not grieve[q] over the ruin of Joseph.[r] 7Therefore you will be among the first to go into exile;[s] your feasting and lounging will end.[t]

The LORD Abhors the Pride of Israel

8The Sovereign LORD has sworn by himself[u]—the LORD God Almighty declares:

"I abhor[v] the pride of Jacob[w] and detest his fortresses;[x] I will deliver up[y] the city and everything in it.[z]"

9If ten[a] men are left in one house, they too will die. 10And if a relative who is to burn the bodies[b] comes to carry them out of the house and asks anyone still hiding there, "Is anyone with you?" and he says, "No," then he will say, "Hush![c] We must not mention the name of the LORD."

11For the LORD has given the command, and he will smash[d] the great house[e] into pieces and the small house into bits.[f] 12Do horses run on the rocky crags?

Does one plow there with oxen?
But you have turned justice into poison[g]

Locusts, Fire and a Plumb Line

showed me:[e] He was preparing swarms of locusts[f] after the king's share had been harvested and just as the second crop was coming up. 2When they had stripped the land clean,[g] I cried out, "Sovereign LORD, forgive!
How can Jacob survive?[h] He is so small![i]"

3So the LORD relented.[j]

"This will not happen," the LORD said.[k]

4This is what the Sovereign LORD showed me: The Sovereign LORD was calling for judgment by fire;[l] it dried up the great deep and devoured[m] the land. 5Then I cried out, "Sovereign LORD, I beg you, stop! How can Jacob survive? He is so small![n]"

6So the LORD relented.[o]

"This will not happen either," the Sovereign LORD said.[p]

7This is what he showed me: The Lord was standing by a wall that had been built true to plumb, with a plumb line in his hand. 8And the LORD asked me, "What do you see,[q] Amos?[r]"

"A plumb line,[s]" I replied.

Then the Lord said, "Look, I am setting a plumb line among my people Israel; I will spare them no longer.[t]

9"The high places[u] of Isaac will be destroyed and the sanctuaries[v] of Israel will be ruined;
with my sword I will rise against the house of Jeroboam.[w]"

Amos and Amaziah

10Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel[x] sent a message to Jeroboam[y] king of Israel: "Amos is raising a conspiracy[z] against you in the very heart of Israel.
The land cannot bear all his words.[a] 11For this is what Amos is saying:

" 'Jeroboam will die by the sword,
and Israel will surely go into exile,[b]
away from their native land.' "[c] 12Then Amaziah said to Amos, "Get out, you seer![d] Go back to the land of Judah. Earn your bread there and do your prophesying there.[e] 13Don't prophesy anymore at Bethel,[f] because this is the king's sanctuary and the temple[g] of the kingdom.[h]" 14Amos answered Amaziah, "I was neither a prophet[i] nor a prophet's son, but I was a shepherd, and I also took care of sycamore-fig trees.[j] 15But the LORD took me from tending the flock[k] and said to me, 'Go,[l] prophesy[m] to my people Israel.'[n] 16Now then, hear[o] the word of the LORD. You say,

" 'Do not prophesy against[p] Israel, and stop preaching against the house of Isaac.'

17"Therefore this is what the LORD
says:

" 'Your wife will become a prostitute[q] in the city, and your sons and daughters will fall by the sword.
Your land will be measured and divided up, and you yourself will die in a pagan[v] country.
And Israel will certainly go into exile,[r] away from their native land.[s]' "

A Basket of Ripe Fruit

showed me:[t] a basket of ripe fruit.
2"What do you see,[u] Amos?[v]" he asked.

"A basket[w] of ripe fruit," I answered.

Then the LORD said to me, "The time is ripe for my people Israel; I will spare them no longer.[x]

3"In that day," declares the Sovereign LORD, "the songs in the temple will turn to wailing.[w][y] Many, many bodies—flung everywhere! Silence![z]"

[1]The vision[a] of Obadiah.

1-4pp — Jer 49:14-16

This is what the Sovereign LORD says about Edom[b]—

We have heard a message from the
LORD:
An envoy[c] was sent to the nations to say,
"Rise, and let us go against her for battle"[d]—

[2]"See, I will make you small[e] among the nations;
you will be utterly despised.
[3]The pride[f] of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rocks[a][g]
and make your home on the heights,
you who say to yourself,
'Who can bring me down to the ground?'[h] [4]Though you soar like the eagle and make your nest[i] among the stars, from there I will bring you down,"[j] declares the LORD.[k] [5]"If thieves came to you, if robbers in the night—Oh, what a disaster awaits you—would they not steal only as much as they wanted?
If grape pickers came to you, would they not leave a few grapes?[l] [6]But how Esau will be ransacked, his hidden treasures pillaged!
[7]All your allies[m] will force you to the border;
your friends will deceive and overpower you;
those who eat your bread[n] will set a trap for you,[b] but you will not detect it.
[8]"In that day," declares the LORD, "will I not destroy[o] the wise men of Edom, men of understanding in the mountains of Esau?
[9]Your warriors, O Teman,[p] will be terrified, and everyone in Esau's mountains will be cut down in the slaughter.
[10]Because of the violence[q] against your brother Jacob,[r] you will be covered with shame; you will be destroyed forever.[s] [11]On the day you stood aloof while strangers carried off his wealth and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots[t] for Jerusalem, you were like one of them.[u] [12]You should not look down[v] on your brother in the day of his misfortune,[w] nor rejoice[x] over the people of Judah in the day of their destruction,[y] nor boast[z] so much in the day of their trouble.[a] [13]You should not march through the gates of my people in the day of their disaster, nor look down on them in their calamity[b]
in the day of their disaster, nor seize their wealth
in the day of their disaster.
[14]You should not wait at the crossroads to cut down their fugitives,[c] nor hand over their survivors in the day of their trouble.

[15]"The day of the LORD is near[d] for all nations.
As you have done, it will be done to
you;
your deeds[e] will return upon your own head.
[16]Just as you drank[f] on my holy hill,[g] so all the nations will drink[h] continually;
they will drink and drink consume[f] it.

There will be no survivors[g] from the house of Esau."[h]
The LORD has spoken.

19 People from the Negev will occupy the mountains of Esau, and people from the foothills will possess the land of the Philistines.[h] They will occupy the fields of Ephraim and Samaria,[i] and Benjamin will possess Gilead.
20 This company of Israelite exiles who are in Canaan will possess ⌊the land⌋ as far as Zarephath;[k]
the exiles from Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will possess the towns of the Negev.[l]
21 Deliverers[m] will go up on[a] Mount Zion
to govern the mountains of Esau.
And the kingdom will be the LORD's.[n]

Jonah

Jonah Flees From the LORD

1 The word of the LORD came to Jonah[a] son of Amittai:[b] 2 "Go to the great city of Nineveh[c] and preach against it, because its wickedness has come up before me."

3 But Jonah ran[d] away from the LORD and headed for Tarshish[e]. He went down to Joppa,[f] where he found a ship bound for that port. After paying the fare, he went aboard and sailed for Tarshish to flee from the LORD.[g]

4 Then the LORD sent a great wind on the sea, and such a violent storm arose that the ship threatened to break up.[h] 5 All the sailors were afraid and each cried out to his own god. And they threw the cargo into the sea to lighten the ship.[i]

But Jonah had gone below deck, where he lay down and fell into a deep sleep. 6 The captain went to him and said, "How can you sleep? Get up and call[j] on your god! Maybe he will take notice of us, and we will not perish."[k]

7 Then the sailors said to each other, "Come, let us cast lots to find out who is responsible for this calamity."[l] They cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah.[m]

8 So they asked him, "Tell us, who is responsible for making all this trouble for us? What do you do? Where do you come from? What is your country? From what people are you?"

9 He answered, "I am a Hebrew and I worship the LORD,[n] the God of heaven,[o] who made the sea[p] and the land.[q]"

10 This terrified them and they asked, "What have you done?" (They knew he was running away from the LORD, because he had already told them so.)

11 The sea was getting rougher and rougher. So they asked him, "What should we do to you to make the sea calm down for us?"

12 "Pick me up and throw me into the sea," he replied, "and it will become calm. I know that it is my fault that this great storm has come upon you."[r]

13 Instead, the men did their best to row back to land. But they could not, for the sea grew even wilder than before.[s] 14 Then they cried to the LORD, "O LORD, please do not let us die for taking this man's life. Do not hold us accountable for killing an innocent man,[t] for you, O LORD, have done as you pleased."[u] 15 Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the raging sea grew calm.[v] 16 At this the men greatly feared[w] the LORD, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows[x] to him.

17 But the LORD provided[y] a great fish to swallow Jonah,[z] and Jonah was inside the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah's Prayer

2 From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God. 2 He said:

"In my distress I called[a] to the LORD,[b] and he answered me.
From the depths of the grave[a][c] I called for help,
 and you listened to my cry.
3 You hurled me into the deep,[d] into the very heart of the seas, and the currents swirled about me; all your waves[e] and breakers swept over me.[f] 4 I said, 'I have been banished from your sight;[g] yet I will look again toward your holy temple.'[h] 5 The engulfing waters threatened me,[b]
 the deep surrounded me; seaweed was wrapped around my head.[i] 6 To the roots of the mountains[j] I sank down;
 the earth beneath barred me in forever.
But you brought my life up from the pit,[k]
 O LORD my God.

to your holy temple.[c]

8"Those who cling to worthless idols[d] forfeit the grace that could be will sacrifice[f] to you.

What I have vowed[g] I will make good.
Salvation[h] comes from the LORD."

10And the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Jonah Goes to Nineveh

3 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah[i] a second time: 2"Go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim to it the message I give you." 3Jonah obeyed the word of the LORD and went to Nineveh. Now Nineveh was a very important city—a visit required three days. 4On the first day, Jonah started into the city. He proclaimed:[j] "Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned." 5The Ninevites believed God. They declared a fast, and all of them, from the greatest to the least, put on sackcloth.[k] 6When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his royal robes, covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the dust.[l] 7Then he issued a proclamation in Nineveh:

"By the decree of the king and his nobles:

Do not let any man or beast, herd or flock, taste anything; do not let them eat or drink.[m] 8But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth. Let everyone call[n] urgently on God. Let them give up[o] their evil ways[p] and their violence.[q] 9Who knows?[r] God may yet relent[s] and with compassion turn[t] from his fierce anger[u] so that we will not perish."

10When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, he had compassion[v] and did not bring upon them the destruction[w] he had threatened.[x]

Jonah's Anger at the LORD's Compassion

4 But Jonah was greatly displeased and became angry.[y] 2He prayed to the LORD, "O LORD, is this not what I said when I was still at home? That is why I was so quick to flee to Tarshish. I knew[z] that you are a gracious[a] and compassionate God, slow to anger and abounding in love,[b] a God who relents[c] from sending calamity.[d] 3Now, O LORD, take away my life,[e] for it is better for me to die[f] than to live."[g] 4But the LORD replied, "Have you any right to be angry?"[h] 5Jonah went out and sat down at a place east of the city. There he made himself a shelter, sat in its shade and waited to see what would happen to the city. 6Then the LORD God provided[i] a vine and made it grow up over Jonah to give shade for his head to ease his discomfort, and Jonah was very happy about the vine. 7But at dawn the next day God provided a worm, which chewed the vine so that it withered.[j] 8When the sun rose, God provided a scorching east wind, and the sun blazed on Jonah's head so that he grew faint. He wanted to die,[k] and said, "It would be better for me to die than to live." 9But God said to Jonah, "Do you have a right to be angry about the vine?"[l]
"I do," he said. "I am angry enough to die." 10But the LORD said, "You have been concerned about this vine, though you did not tend it or make it grow. It sprang up overnight and died overnight. 11But Nineveh[m] has more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left, and many cattle as well.
Should I not be concerned[n] about that great city?"

Micah

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah of Moresheth[a] during the reigns of Jotham,[b] Ahaz[c] and Hezekiah,[d] kings of Judah[e]—the vision[f] he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

[2]Hear,[g] O peoples, all of you,[h] listen, O earth[i] and all who are in it, that the Sovereign LORD may witness[j] against you, the Lord from his holy temple.[k]

Judgment Against Samaria and Jerusalem

[3]Look! The LORD is coming from his dwelling[l] place; he comes down[m] and treads the high places of the earth.[n] [4]The mountains melt[o] beneath him[p]
and the valleys split apart,[q] like wax before the fire, like water rushing down a slope.
[5]All this is because of Jacob's transgression, because of the sins of the house of Israel.
What is Jacob's transgression?
Is it not Samaria?[r]
What is Judah's high place?
Is it not Jerusalem?

[6]"Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of rubble, a place for planting vineyards.[s] I will pour her stones[t] into the valley and lay bare her foundations.[u] [7]All her idols[v] will be broken to pieces;[w] all her temple gifts will be burned with fire;
I will destroy all her images.[x] Since she gathered her gifts from the wages of prostitutes,[y] as the wages of prostitutes they will again be used."

Weeping and Mourning

[8]Because of this I will weep[z] and wail;
I will go about barefoot[a] and naked.
I will howl like a jackal and moan like an owl.
[9]For her wound[b] is incurable;[c] it has come to Judah.[d] It[a] has reached the very gate[e] of my people, even to Jerusalem itself.
[10]Tell it not in Gath[b]; weep not at all.[c]
In Beth Ophrah[d] roll in the dust.
[11]Pass on in nakedness[f] and shame, you who live in Shaphir.[e] Those who live in Zaanan[f] will not come out.
Beth Ezel is in mourning; its protection is taken from you.
[12]Those who live in Maroth[g] writhe in pain, waiting for relief,[g] because disaster[h] has come from the LORD,
even to the gate of Jerusalem.
[13]You who live in Lachish,[h i] harness the team to the chariot.
You were the beginning of sin to the Daughter of Zion,[j] for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.
[14]Therefore you will give parting gifts[k] to Moresheth[l] Gath.
The town of Aczib[i m] will prove deceptive[n]
to the kings of Israel.
[15]I will bring a conqueror against you who live in Mareshah.[j o]

Man's Plans and God's

2 Woe to those who plan iniquity, to those who plot evil[d] on their beds![e]
At morning's light they carry it out because it is in their power to do it.
[2]They covet fields[f] and seize them,[g] and houses, and take them.
They defraud[h] a man of his home, a fellowman of his inheritance.[i]

[3]Therefore, the LORD says:

"I am planning disaster[j] against this
people, from which you cannot save yourselves.
You will no longer walk proudly,[k] for it will be a time of calamity.
[4]In that day men will ridicule you; they will taunt you with this mournful song:
'We are utterly ruined;[l] my people's possession is divided up.[m]
He takes it from me!
He assigns our fields to traitors.' "

[5]Therefore you will have no one in the assembly of the LORD to divide the land[n] by lot.[o]

False Prophets

[6]"Do not prophesy," their prophets say.
"Do not prophesy about these things;
disgrace[p] will not overtake us.[q]" [7]Should it be said, O house of Jacob:
"Is the Spirit of the LORD angry?
Does he do such things?"

"Do not my words do good[r] to him whose ways are upright?[s] [8]Lately my people have risen up like an enemy.
You strip off the rich robe from those who pass by without a care, like men returning from battle.
[9]You drive the women of my people from their pleasant homes.[t] You take away my blessing from their children forever.
[10]Get up, go away!
For this is not your resting place,[u] because it is defiled,[v] it is ruined, beyond all remedy.
[11]If a liar and deceiver[w] comes and says,
'I will prophesy for you plenty of wine and beer,'[x] he would be just the prophet for this people![y]

Deliverance Promised

[12]"I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob; I will surely bring together the remnant[z] of Israel.
I will bring them together like sheep in a pen, like a flock in its pasture; the place will throng with people.[a] [13]One who breaks open the way will go up before[b] them; they will break through the gate[c] and go out.
Their king will pass through before
them,
the LORD at their head."

Leaders and Prophets Rebuked

3 Then I said,
"Listen, you leaders[d] of Jacob, you rulers of the house of Israel.
Should you not know justice, [2] you who hate good and love evil; who tear the skin from my people and the flesh from their bones;[e] [3]who eat my people's flesh,[f] strip off their skin and break their bones in pieces;[g] who chop[h] them up like meat for the pan, like flesh for the pot?[i]" [4]Then they will cry out to the LORD, but he will not answer them.[j] At that time he will hide his face[k] from them because of the evil they have done.[l]

[5]This is what the LORD says:

"As for the prophets who lead my people astray,[m] if one feeds them, they proclaim 'peace';[n] if he does not, they prepare to wage war against
him.

rubble,[s]
the temple[t] hill a mound overgrown with thickets.[u]

The Mountain of the LORD

4:1-3pp — Isa 2:1-4

4 In the last days the mountain[v] of the LORD's temple will be established as chief among the mountains; it will be raised above the hills,[w] and peoples will stream to it.[x] [2]Many nations will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,[y] to the house of the God of Jacob.[z] He will teach us[a] his ways,[b] so that we may walk in his paths." The law[c] will go out from Zion, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

[3]He will judge between many peoples and will settle disputes for strong nations far and wide.[d] They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.[e] Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war[f] anymore.[g] [4]Every man will sit under his own vine and under his own fig tree,[h] and no one will make them afraid,[i] for the LORD Almighty has spoken.[j] [5]All the nations may walk in the name of their gods;[k] we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.[l]

The LORD's Plan

[6]"In that day," declares the LORD,

"I will gather the lame;[m] I will assemble the exiles[n] and those I have brought to grief.[o] [7]I will make the lame a remnant,[p] those driven away a strong nation.[q]
The LORD will rule over them in Mount Zion[r]
from that day and forever.[s] [8]As for you, O watchtower of the flock, O stronghold[k] of the Daughter of Zion,
the former dominion will be restored[t] to you; kingship will come to the Daughter of Jerusalem."[u] [9]Why do you now cry aloud—have you no king?[v]
Has your counselor perished, that pain seizes you like that of a woman in labor?[w] [10]Writhe in agony, O Daughter of Zion,
like a woman in labor, for now you must leave the city to camp in the open field.
You will go to Babylon;[x] there you will be rescued.
There the LORD will redeem[y] you out of the hand of your enemies.
[11]But now many nations are gathered against you.
They say, "Let her be defiled, let our eyes gloat[z] over Zion!" [12]But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD; they do not understand his plan,[a]

A Promised Ruler From Bethlehem

5 Marshal your troops, O city of troops,[l] for a siege is laid against us.
They will strike Israel's ruler on the cheek[d] with a rod.

2"But you, Bethlehem[e] Ephrathah,[f] though you are small among the clans[m] of Judah, out of you will come for me one who will be ruler[g] over Israel, whose origins[n] are from of old,[h] from ancient times.[o]"[i] 3Therefore Israel will be abandoned[j] until the time when she who is in labor gives birth and the rest of his brothers return to join the Israelites.

4He will stand and shepherd his flock[k]
in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God.
And they will live securely, for then his greatness[l]
will reach to the ends of the earth.
5 And he will be their peace.[m]

Deliverance and Destruction

When the Assyrian invades[n] our land
and marches through our fortresses, we will raise against him seven shepherds,
even eight leaders of men.[o] 6They will rule[p] the land of Assyria with the sword, the land of Nimrod[p] with drawn sword.[q] [q]
He will deliver us from the Assyrian when he invades our land and marches into our borders.[r] 7The remnant[s] of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples like dew[t] from the LORD, like showers on the grass,[u] which do not wait for man or linger for mankind.

8The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,
in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest,[v] like a young lion among flocks of sheep, which mauls and mangles[w] as it goes,
and no one can rescue.[x] 9Your hand will be lifted up[y] in triumph over your enemies, and all your foes will be destroyed.

10"In that day," declares the LORD,
"I will destroy your horses from among you and demolish your chariots.[z] 11I will destroy the cities[a] of your land and tear down all your strongholds.[b] 12I will destroy your witchcraft and you will no longer cast spells.[c] 13I will destroy your carved images[d] and your sacred stones from among you;[e] you will no longer bow down to the work of your hands.[f] 14I will uproot from among you your Asherah poles[r] [g]
and demolish your cities.
15I will take vengeance[h] in anger and wrath upon the nations that have not obeyed me."

The LORD's Case Against Israel

6 Listen to what the LORD says:
"Stand up, plead your case before the mountains;[i] let the hills hear what you have to say.
2Hear,[j] O mountains, the LORD's accusation;[k] listen, you everlasting foundations of the earth.
For the LORD has a case[l] against his
people;
he is lodging a charge[m] against Israel.

you?

Israel's Guilt and Punishment

9 Listen! The LORD is calling to the city—and to fear your name is wisdom—
"Heed the rod[u] and the One who appointed it.[s]

and you have followed their traditions.[i] Therefore I will give you over to you will bear the scorn[k] of the

Israel's Misery

7 What misery is mine!
I am like one who gathers summer fruit at the gleaning of the vineyard; there is no cluster of grapes to eat, none of the early figs[l] that I crave.
2 The godly have been swept from the land;[m]
not one[n] upright man remains.
All men lie in wait[o] to shed blood;[p] each hunts his brother[q] with a net.[r] 3 Both hands are skilled in doing evil;[s] the ruler demands gifts, the judge accepts bribes,[t] the powerful dictate what they desire—they all conspire together.
4 The best of them is like a brier,[u] the most upright worse than a thorn[v] hedge.
The day of your watchmen has
come,
the day God visits you.
Now is the time of their confusion.[w] 5 Do not trust a neighbor; put no confidence in a friend.[x] Even with her who lies in your embrace be careful of your words.
6 For a son dishonors his father, a daughter rises up against her mother,[y] a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law—

Israel Will Rise

[8]Do not gloat over me, my enemy!
Though I have fallen, I will rise.
Though I sit in darkness, the LORD will be my light.
[9]Because I have sinned against him, I will bear the LORD's wrath, until he pleads my case and establishes my right.
He will bring me out into the light;
I will see his righteousness.
[10]Then my enemy will see it and will be covered with shame, she who said to me,
"Where is the LORD your God?" My eyes will see her downfall; even now she will be trampled

come,
the day for extending your

Prayer and Praise

[14]Shepherd your people with your staff,
the flock of your inheritance, which lives by itself in a forest, in fertile pasturelands.[w] Let them feed in Bashan and [16]Nations will see and be ashamed, deprived of all their power.

They will lay their hands on their mouths
and their ears will become deaf.
[17]They will lick dust like a snake, like creatures that crawl on the ground.
They will come trembling out of their dens;
they will turn in fear to the LORD our God and will be afraid of you.
[18]Who is a God like you, who pardons sin and forgives the transgression of the remnant of his inheritance?
You do not stay angry forever but delight to show mercy.
[19]You will again have compassion on us;
you will tread our sins underfoot and hurl all our iniquities into the depths of the sea.
[20]You will be true to Jacob, and show mercy to Abraham, as you pledged on oath to our fathers in days long ago.

Nahum

1 An oracle[a] concerning Nineveh.[b] The book of the vision[c] of Nahum the Elkoshite.

The Lord's Anger Against Nineveh

2The Lord is a jealous[d] and avenging God; the Lord takes vengeance[e] and is filled with wrath.
The Lord takes vengeance on his foes and maintains his wrath against his enemies.[f] 3The Lord is slow to anger[g] and great in power; the Lord will not leave the guilty unpunished.[h] His way is in the whirlwind[i] and the storm,[j] and clouds[k] are the dust of his feet.
4He rebukes[l] the sea and dries it up;[m] he makes all the rivers run dry.
Bashan and Carmel[n] wither and the blossoms of Lebanon fade.
5The mountains quake[o] before him and the hills melt away.[p] The earth trembles[q] at his presence, the world and all who live in it.[r] 6Who can withstand[s] his indignation?
Who can endure[t] his fierce anger?[u] His wrath is poured out like fire;[v] the rocks are shattered[w] before him.

7The Lord is good,[x] a refuge in times of trouble.[y] He cares for[z] those who trust in him,[a] 8 but with an overwhelming flood[b] he will make an end of ⌊Nineveh⌋; he will pursue his foes into darkness.

9Whatever they plot[c] against the Lord he[a] will bring to an end; trouble will not come a second time.
10They will be entangled among thorns[d] and drunk[e] from their wine; they will be consumed like dry stubble.[b][f] 11From you, ⌊O Nineveh,⌋ has one come forth who plots evil against the Lord and counsels wickedness.

12This is what the Lord says:

"Although they have allies and are numerous, they will be cut off[g] and pass away.
Although I have afflicted you, ⌊O Judah,⌋ I will afflict you no more.[h] 13Now I will break their yoke[i] from your neck and tear your shackles away."[j]

14The Lord has given a command concerning you, ⌊Nineveh⌋:
"You will have no descendants to bear your name.[k] I will destroy the carved images[l] and cast idols that are in the temple of your gods.
I will prepare your grave,[m] for you are vile."

15Look, there on the mountains, the feet of one who brings good news,[n] who proclaims peace![o] Celebrate your festivals,[p] O Judah, and fulfill your vows.
No more will the wicked invade you;[q] they will be completely destroyed.

Nineveh to Fall

2 An attacker[r] advances against you, ⌊Nineveh⌋.

declares the LORD Almighty.

Woe to Nineveh

3 Woe to the city of blood,[s] full of lies,[t] full of plunder, never without victims!
2 The crack of whips, the clatter of wheels, galloping horses and jolting chariots!
3 Charging cavalry, flashing swords
and glittering spears!
Many casualties,
piles of dead, bodies without number, people stumbling over the corpses[u]— 4 all because of the wanton lust of a harlot, alluring, the mistress of sorceries,[v] who enslaved nations by her prostitution[w]
and peoples by her witchcraft.

5 "I am against[x] you," declares the LORD Almighty.
"I will lift your skirts[y] over your face.
I will show the nations your nakedness[z]
and the kingdoms your shame.
6 I will pelt you with filth,[a] I will treat you with contempt[b] and make you a spectacle.[c] 7 All who see you will flee[d] from you and say,
'Nineveh[e] is in ruins[f]—who will mourn for her?'[g] Where can I find anyone to comfort[h] you?"

8 Are you better than[i] Thebes,[e][j] situated on the Nile,[k] with water around her?
The river was her defense, the waters her wall.
9 Cush[f][l] and Egypt were her boundless strength; Put[m] and Libya[n] were among her allies.
10 Yet she was taken captive[o] and went into exile.

when they are shaken, the figs[g] fall into the mouth of the eater.
13 Look at your troops—they are all women![h]
The gates[i] of your land your endless cruelty?[x]

Habakkuk

1 The oracle[a] that Habakkuk the prophet received.

Habakkuk's Complaint

2How long,[b] O LORD, must I call for help, but you do not listen?[c] Or cry out to you, "Violence!" but you do not save?[d] 3Why do you make me look at injustice?
Why do you tolerate[e] wrong?[f] Destruction and violence[g] are before me; there is strife,[h] and conflict abounds.
4Therefore the law[i] is paralyzed, and justice never prevails.
The wicked hem in the righteous, so that justice[j] is perverted.[k]

5"Look at the nations and watch—and be utterly amazed.[l] For I am going to do something in your days
that you would not believe, even if you were told.[m] 6I am raising up the Babylonians,[a][n] that ruthless and impetuous
people,
who sweep across the whole earth[o] to seize dwelling places not their own.[p] 7They are a feared and dreaded people;[q]
they are a law to themselves and promote their own honor.
8Their horses are swifter[r] than leopards, fiercer than wolves[s] at dusk.
Their cavalry gallops headlong; their horsemen come from afar.
They fly like a vulture swooping to devour;
9 they all come bent on violence.
Their hordes[b] advance like a desert wind and gather prisoners[t] like sand.
10They deride kings and scoff at rulers.[u] They laugh at all fortified cities; they build earthen ramps[v] and capture them.
11Then they sweep past like the wind[w] and go on—guilty men, whose own strength is their god."[x]

Habakkuk's Second Complaint

12O LORD, are you not from everlasting?[y]
My God, my Holy One,[z] we will not die.[a] O LORD, you have appointed[b] them to execute judgment; O Rock,[c] you have ordained them to punish.
13Your eyes are too pure[d] to look on evil;
you cannot tolerate wrong.[e] Why then do you tolerate[f] the treacherous?[g]
Why are you silent while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than themselves?[h] 14You have made men like fish in the sea,
like sea creatures that have no ruler.
15The wicked[i] foe pulls all of them up with hooks,[j] he catches them in his net,[k] he gathers them up in his dragnet; and so he rejoices and is glad.
16Therefore he sacrifices to his net and burns incense[l] to his dragnet, for by his net he lives in luxury and enjoys the choicest food.
17Is he to keep on emptying his net, destroying nations without mercy?[m]

2 I will stand at my watch[n] and station myself on the ramparts;[o]
I will look to see what he will say[p]
to me,

[a]6 Or Chaldeans [b]9 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

and what answer I am to give to this complaint.[c] [a]

[2]Then the LORD replied:

"Write[b] down the revelation and make it plain on tablets so that a herald[d] may run with it.
[3]For the revelation awaits an appointed time;[e] it speaks of the end[d] and will not prove false.
Though it linger, wait[f] for it; it[c] will certainly come and will not delay.[f]

[4]"See, he is puffed up; his desires are not upright—but the righteous[g] will live by his faith[f] [h]— [5]indeed, wine[i] betrays him; he is arrogant[j] and never at rest.
Because he is as greedy as the grave[e] and like death is never satisfied,[k] he gathers to himself all the nations
and takes captive[l] all the peoples.

[6]"Will not all of them taunt[m] him with ridicule and scorn, saying,

" 'Woe to him who piles up stolen goods and makes himself wealthy by extortion![n]
How long must this go on?'
[7]Will not your debtors[h] suddenly arise?
Will they not wake up and make you tremble?
Then you will become their victim.[o] [8]Because you have plundered many nations,
the peoples who are left will plunder you.[p]
For you have shed man's blood;[q] you have destroyed lands and cities and everyone in them.[r] [9]"Woe to him who builds[s] his realm by unjust gain[t]

to set his nest[u] on high, to escape the clutches of ruin!
[10]You have plotted the ruin[v] of many peoples, shaming[w] your own house and forfeiting your life.
[11]The stones[x] of the wall will cry out, and the beams of the woodwork will echo it.

[12]"Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed[y]
and establishes a town by crime!
[13]Has not the LORD Almighty determined that the people's labor is only fuel for the fire,[z] that the nations exhaust themselves for nothing?[a] [14]For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory[b] of
the LORD,
as the waters cover the sea.[c] [15]"Woe to him who gives drink[d] to his neighbors, pouring it from the wineskin till they are drunk, so that he can gaze on their naked bodies.

[16]You will be filled with shame[e] instead of glory.[f] Now it is your turn! Drink[g] and be exposed![i] [h]
The cup[i] from the LORD's right hand is coming around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory.
[17]The violence[j] you have done to Lebanon will overwhelm
you,
and your destruction of animals will terrify you.[k] For you have shed man's blood;[l]
cities and everyone in them.

[18]"Of what value[m] is an idol,[n] since a man has carved it?
Or an image[o] that teaches lies?
For he who makes it trusts in his own creation;
he makes idols that cannot speak.[p] [19]Woe to him who says to wood, 'Come to life!'
Or to lifeless stone, 'Wake up!'[q]
Can it give guidance?
It is covered with gold and silver;[r] there is no breath in it.[s] [20]But the LORD is in his holy temple;[t] let all the earth be silent[u] before
him."

4"I will stretch out my hand[h] against Judah
and against all who live in Jerusalem.
I will cut off from this place every remnant of Baal,[i] the names of the pagan and the idolatrous priests[j] — those who bow down and swear by

and who also swear by Molech,[b][l] 6those who turn back from following[m]
and neither seek[n] the LORD nor inquire[o] of him.
7Be silent[p] before the Sovereign LORD, for the day of the LORD[q] is near.
The LORD has prepared a sacrifice;[r] he has consecrated those he has invited.

I will punish[s] the princes and the king's sons[t] all your merchants will be wiped out, all who trade with[e] silver will be ruined.[a] 12At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish those who are complacent,[b] who are like wine left on its dregs,[c] who think, 'The LORD will do nothing,[d]

either good or bad.'[e] 13Their wealth will be plundered,[f] their houses demolished.
They will build houses but not live in them; they will plant vineyards but not drink the wine.[g]

The Great Day of the LORD

14"The great day of the LORD[h] is near[i] — near and coming quickly.
Listen! The cry on the day of the LORD will be bitter, the shouting of the warrior there.
15That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness[j] and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness,[k] 16a day of trumpet and battle cry[l] against the fortified cities and against the corner towers.[m]

17I will bring distress on the people and they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against
the LORD.
Their blood will be poured out like dust and their entrails like filth.
18Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath.
In the fire of his jealousy the whole world will be consumed, for he will make a sudden end of all who live in the earth.

2 Gather together, gather together, O shameful nation, 2before the appointed time arrives and that day sweeps on like chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD comes upon you, before the day of the LORD's wrath comes upon you.
3Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land,
you who do what he commands.
Seek righteousness, seek humility; perhaps you will be sheltered on the day of the LORD's anger.

Against Philistia

4Gaza will be abandoned and Ashkelon left in ruins.
At midday Ashdod will be emptied and Ekron uprooted.
5Woe to you who live by the sea, O Kerethite people;
the word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, land of the Philistines.

"I will destroy you, and none will be left." 6The land by the sea, where the Kerethites[f] dwell, will be a place for shepherds and sheep pens.
7It will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah;
there they will find pasture.
In the evening they will lie down in the houses of Ashkelon.
The LORD their God will care for
them;
he will restore their fortunes.[g]

Against Moab and Ammon

8"I have heard the insults of Moab and the taunts of the Ammonites, who insulted my people and made threats against their land.
9Therefore, as surely as I live," declares the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel,
"surely Moab will become like Sodom,
the Ammonites like Gomorrah—a place of weeds and salt pits, a wasteland forever.
The remnant of my people will plunder them;
the survivors of my nation will inherit their land." 10This is what they will get in return for their pride, for insulting and mocking the people of the LORD Almighty.
11The LORD will be awesome to them when he destroys all the gods of the land.
The nations on every shore will worship him, every one in its own land.

Against Cush

12"You too, O Cushites,[k] will be slain by my sword."

Against Assyria

13He will stretch out his hand against the north and destroy Assyria, leaving Nineveh utterly desolate and dry as the desert.
14Flocks and herds will lie down there,
creatures of every kind.
The desert owl and the screech owl will roost on her columns.
Their calls will echo through the windows, rubble will be in the doorways, the beams of cedar will be exposed.
15This is the carefree city that lived in safety.
She said to herself,
"I am, and there is none besides me."
What a ruin she has become, a lair for wild beasts!
All who pass by her scoff and shake their fists.

The Future of Jerusalem

3 Woe to the city of oppressors,[a] rebellious[b] and defiled![c] 2She obeys[d] no one, she accepts no correction.[e] She does not trust[f] in the LORD, she does not draw near[g] to her God.
3Her officials are roaring lions,[h] her rulers are evening wolves,[i] who leave nothing for the morning.[j] 4Her prophets are arrogant; they are treacherous[k] men.
Her priests profane the sanctuary and do violence to the law.[l] 5The LORD within her is righteous;[m] he does no wrong.[n] Morning by morning[o] he dispenses his justice, and every new day he does not fail,[p] yet the unrighteous know no shame.[q]

6"I have cut off nations; their strongholds are demolished.
I have left their streets deserted, with no one passing through.
Their cities are destroyed;[r] no one will be left—no one at all.
7I said to the city,
'Surely you will fear me and accept correction!'[s] Then her dwelling would not be cut off, nor all my punishments come upon her.
But they were still eager to act corruptly[t] in all they did.
8Therefore wait[u] for me," declares
the LORD,
"for the day I will stand up to testify.[i] I have decided to assemble[v] the nations,[w]
to gather the kingdoms and to pour out my wrath[x] on them—
all my fierce anger.[y]
The whole world will be consumed[z] by the fire of my jealous anger.

9"Then will I purify the lips of the peoples, that all of them may call[a] on the name of the LORD[b] and serve[c] him shoulder to shoulder.
10From beyond the rivers of Cush[j] [d] my worshipers, my scattered
people,
will bring me offerings.[e] 11On that day you will not be put to shame[f] for all the wrongs you have done to me,[g] because I will remove from this city those who rejoice in their pride.[h] Never again will you be haughty on my holy hill.[i] 12But I will leave within you the meek[j] and humble, who trust[k] in the name of the
LORD.
13The remnant[l] of Israel will do no wrong;[m] they will speak no lies,[n] nor will deceit be found in their mouths.[o]
They will eat and lie down[p] and no one will make them afraid."[q]

14Sing, O Daughter of Zion;[r] shout aloud,[s] O Israel!
Be glad and rejoice[t] with all your heart,
O Daughter of Jerusalem!
15The LORD has taken away your punishment, he has turned back your enemy.
The LORD, the King of Israel, is with you;[u] never again will you fear[v] any harm.[w] 16On that day they will say to Jerusalem,
"Do not fear, O Zion;
do not let your hands hang limp.[x] 17The LORD your God is with you, he is mighty to save.[y] He will take great delight[z] in you, he will quiet you with his love,[a] he will rejoice over you with singing."[b]

18"The sorrows for the appointed feasts
I will remove from you; they are a burden and a reproach to you.[k] 19At that time I will deal with all who oppressed[c] you; I will rescue the lame and gather those who have been scattered.[d]
I will give them praise[e] and honor in every land where they were put to shame.

Haggai

A Call to Build the House of the Lord

1 In the second year of King Darius,[a] on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the Lord came through the prophet Haggai[b] to Zerubbabel[c] son of Shealtiel, governor[d] of Judah, and to Joshua[a][e] son of Jehozadak,[f] the high priest:[g] 2This is what the Lord Almighty[h] says: "These people[i] say, 'The time has not yet come for the Lord's house to be built.[j]' " 3Then the word of the Lord came through the prophet Haggai:[k] 4"Is it a time for you yourselves to be living in your paneled houses,[l] while this house remains a ruin?[m]" 5Now this is what the Lord Almighty says: "Give careful thought[n] to your ways. 6You have planted much, but have harvested little.[o] You eat, but never have enough.[p] You drink, but never have your fill.[q] You put on clothes, but are not warm. You earn wages,[r] only to put them in a purse with holes in it."
7This is what the Lord Almighty says: "Give careful thought[s] to your ways. 8Go up into the mountains and bring down timber[t] and build the house, so that I may take pleasure[u] in it and be honored,[v]" says the Lord.
9"You expected much, but see, it turned out to be little.[w] What you brought home, I blew[x] away. Why?" declares the Lord Almighty. "Because of my house, which remains a ruin,[y] while each of you is busy with his own house. 10Therefore, because of you the heavens have withheld[z] their dew[a] and the earth its crops.[b] 11I called for a drought[c] on the fields and the mountains,[d] on the grain, the new wine,[e] the oil[f] and whatever the ground produces, on men and cattle, and on the labor of your hands.[g]" 12Then Zerubbabel[h] son of Shealtiel, Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the whole remnant[i] of the people obeyed[j] the voice of the Lord their God and the message of the prophet Haggai, because the Lord their God had sent him. And the people feared[k] the Lord.
13Then Haggai,[l] the Lord's messenger,[m] gave this message of the Lord to the people: "I am with[n] you," declares the Lord. 14So the Lord stirred up[o] the spirit of Zerubbabel[p] son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak,[q] the high priest, and the spirit of the whole remnant[r] of the people. They came and began to work on the house of the Lord Almighty, their God, 15on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month[s] in the second year of King Darius.[t]

The Promised Glory of the New House

2 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month,[u] the word of the Lord came through the prophet Haggai:[v] 2"Speak to Zerubbabel[w] son of She-altiel, governor of Judah, to Joshua son of Jehozadak,[x] the high priest, and to the remnant[y] of the people. Ask them, 3'Who of you is left who saw this house[z] in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Does it not seem to you like nothing?[a] 4But now be strong, O Zerubbabel,' declares the Lord. 'Be strong,[b] O Joshua son of Jehozadak,[c] the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,' declares the Lord, 'and work. For I am with[d] you,' declares the Lord Almighty. 5'This is what I covenanted[e] with you when you came out of Egypt.[f] And my Spirit[g] remains among you. Do not fear.'[h] 6"This is what the Lord Almighty says: 'In a little while[i] I will once more shake the heavens and the earth,[j] the sea and the dry land. 7I will shake all

Blessings for a Defiled People

10On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month,[h] in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Haggai: 11"This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'Ask the priests[i] what the law says: 12If a person carries consecrated meat[j] in the fold of his garment, and that fold touches some bread or stew, some wine, oil or other food, does it become consecrated?[k]' " The priests answered, "No." 13Then Haggai said, "If a person defiled by contact with a dead body touches one of these things, does it become defiled?"
"Yes," the priests replied, "it becomes defiled.[l]" 14Then Haggai said, " 'So it is with this people[m] and this nation in my sight,' declares the LORD. 'Whatever they do and whatever they offer[n] there is defiled.
15" 'Now give careful thought[o] to this from this day on[b]—consider how things were before one stone was laid[p] on another in the LORD's temple.[q] 16When anyone came to a heap[r] of twenty measures, there were only ten.
When anyone went to a wine vat[s] to draw fifty measures, there were only twenty.[t] 17I struck all the work of your hands[u] with blight,[v] mildew and hail,[w] yet you did not turn[x] to me,' declares the LORD.[y] 18'From this day on, from this twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, give careful thought[z] to the day when the foundation[a] of the LORD's temple was laid. Give careful thought: 19Is there yet any seed left in the barn? Until now, the vine and the fig tree, the pomegranate[b] and the olive tree have not borne fruit.[c]
" 'From this day on I will bless[d]
you.' "

Zerubbabel the LORD's Signet Ring

20The word of the LORD came to Haggai[e] a second time on the twenty-fourth day of the month:[f] 21"Tell Zerubbabel[g] governor of Judah that I will shake[h] the heavens and the earth.
22I will overturn[i] royal thrones and shatter the power of the foreign kingdoms.[j] I will overthrow chariots[k] and their drivers; horses and their riders[l] will fall, each by the sword of his brother.[m] 23" 'On that day,[n]' declares the LORD Almighty, 'I will take you, my servant[o] Zerubbabel[p] son of Shealtiel,' declares the LORD, 'and I will make you like my signet ring,[q] for I have chosen you,'

Zechariah

A Call to Return to the Lord

1 In the eighth month of the second year of Darius,[a] the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah[b] son of Berekiah,[c] the son of Iddo:[d] 2"The LORD was very angry[e] with your forefathers. 3Therefore tell the people: This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'Return[f] to me,' declares the LORD Almighty, 'and I will return to you,'[g] says the LORD Almighty. 4Do not be like your forefathers,[h] to whom the earlier prophets[i] proclaimed: This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'Turn from your evil ways[j] and your evil practices.' But they would not listen or pay attention to me,[k] declares the LORD.[l] 5Where are your forefathers now? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6But did not my words[m] and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, overtake your forefathers?[n]

determined to do.' "[p]

The Man Among the Myrtle Trees

eleventh month, the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berekiah, the son of Iddo.[q] 8During the night I had a vision—and there before me was a man riding a red[r] horse! He was standing among the myrtle trees in a ravine. Behind him were red, brown and white horses.[s] 9I asked, "What are these, my lord?"

The angel[t] who was talking with me answered, "I will show you what they are."[u] 10Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained, "They are the ones the LORD has sent to go throughout the earth."[v] 11And they reported to the angel of the LORD,[w] who was standing among the myrtle trees, "We have gone throughout the earth and found the whole world at rest and in peace."[x] 12Then the angel of the LORD said, "LORD Almighty, how long[y] will you withhold mercy[z] from Jerusalem and from the towns of Judah,[a] which you have been angry with these seventy[b] years?" 13So the LORD spoke[c] kind and comforting words[d] to the angel who talked with me.[e] 14Then the angel who was speaking to me said, "Proclaim this word: This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'I am very jealous[f] for Jerusalem and Zion, 15but I am very angry with the nations that feel secure.[g] I was only a little angry,[h] but they added to the calamity.'[i] 16"Therefore, this is what the LORD says: 'I will return[j] to Jerusalem with mercy, and there my house will be rebuilt. And the measuring line[k] will be stretched out over Jerusalem,' declares the LORD Almighty.[l] 17"Proclaim further: This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'My towns will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort[m] Zion and choose[n] Jerusalem.' "[o]

Four Horns and Four Craftsmen

18Then I looked up—and there before me were four horns! 19I asked the angel who was speaking to me, "What are these?"

He answered me, "These are the horns[p] that scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem."
20Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen. 21I asked, "What are these coming to do?"

He answered, "These are the horns that scattered Judah so that no one could raise his head, but the craftsmen have come to terrify them and throw down these horns of the nations who lifted up their horns[q] against the land of Judah to scatter its people."[r]

A Man With a Measuring Line

2 Then I looked up—and there before me was a man with a measuring line in his hand! 2I asked, "Where are you going?"
He answered me, "To measure Jerusalem, to find out how wide and how long it is."[a] 3Then the angel who was speaking to me left, and another angel came to meet him 4and said to him: "Run, tell that young man, 'Jerusalem will be a city without walls[b] because of the great number[c] of men and livestock in it.[d] 5And I myself will be a wall[e] of fire[f] around it,' declares the LORD, 'and I will be its glory[g] within.'[h i] 6"Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north," declares the LORD, "for I have scattered[j] you to the four winds of heaven,"[k] declares the LORD.[l] 7"Come, O Zion! Escape,[m] you who live in the Daughter of Babylon!"[n] 8For this is what the LORD Almighty says:
"After he has honored me and has sent me against the nations that have plundered you—for whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye[o]— 9I will surely raise my hand against them so that their slaves will plunder them.[a p] Then you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me.[q] 10"Shout[r] and be glad, O Daughter of Zion.[s] For I am coming,[t] and I will live among you,"[u] declares the LORD.[v] 11"Many nations will be joined with the LORD in that day and will become my people.[w] I will live among you and you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you.[x] 12The LORD will inherit[y] Judah[z] as his portion in the holy land and will again choose[a] Jerusalem.
13Be still[b] before the LORD, all mankind, because he has roused himself from his holy dwelling."[c]

Clean Garments for the High Priest

3 Then he showed me Joshua[b d] the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan[c e] standing at his right side to accuse him. 2The LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you,[f] Satan! The LORD, who has chosen[g] Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is not this man a burning stick[h] snatched from the fire?"[i] 3Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes as he stood before the angel.
4The angel said to those who were standing before him, "Take off his filthy clothes." Then he said to Joshua, "See, I have taken away your sin,[j] and I will put rich garments[k] on you." 5Then I said, "Put a clean turban[l] on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him, while the angel of the LORD stood by.
6The angel of the LORD gave this charge to Joshua: 7"This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'If you will walk in my ways and keep my requirements,[m] then you will govern my house[n] and have charge[o] of my courts, and I will give you a place among these standing here.[p] 8" 'Listen, O high priest[q] Joshua and your associates seated before you, who are men symbolic[r] of things to come: I am going to bring my servant, the Branch.[s] 9See, the stone I have set in front of Joshua![t] There are seven eyes[d u] on that one stone,[v] and I will engrave an inscription on it,' says the LORD Almighty, 'and I will remove the sin[w] of this land in a single day.
10" 'In that day each of you will invite his neighbor to sit[x] under his vine and fig tree,[y] declares the LORD Almighty.' "

The Gold Lampstand and the Two Olive Trees

4 Then the angel who talked with me returned and wakened[z] me, as a man is wakened from his sleep.[a] 2He asked me, "What do you see?"[b] I answered, "I see a solid gold lamp-stand[c] with a bowl at the top and seven lights[d] on it, with seven channels to the lights. 3Also there are two olive trees[e] by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left." 4I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?" 5He answered, "Do you not know what these are?"
"No, my lord," I replied.[f] 6So he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel:[g] 'Not[h] by might nor by power,[i] but by my Spirit,'[j] says the LORD Almighty.
7"What[e] are you, O mighty mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become level ground.[k] Then he will bring out the capstone[l] to shouts[m] of 'God bless it! God bless it!' "

me: 9"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation[z] of this temple; his hands will also complete it.[a] Then you
sent me[b] to you.

10"Who despises the day[c] of small things?[d] Men will rejoice when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel.[e]

"(These seven are the eyes[f] of the LORD, which range throughout the earth.[g])"

11Then I asked the angel, "What are these two olive trees[h] on the right and the left of the lampstand?"

12Again I asked him, "What are these two olive branches beside the two gold pipes that pour out golden oil?"

13He replied, "Do you not know what these are?"

"No, my lord," I said.

14So he said, "These are the two who are anointed[a] to[i] serve the Lord of all the earth."

The Flying Scroll

5 I looked again—and there before me was a flying scroll![j]

2He asked me, "What do you see?"[k]

I answered, "I see a flying scroll, thirty feet long and fifteen feet wide.[g]" 3And he said to me, "This is the curse[l] that is going out over the whole land; for according to what it says on one side, every thief[m] will be banished, and according to what it says on the other, everyone who swears falsely[n] will be banished. 4The LORD Almighty declares, 'I will send it out, and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of him who swears falsely[o] by my name. It will remain in his house and destroy it, both its timbers and its stones.[p]' "

The Woman in a Basket

me came forward and said to me, "Look up and see what this is that is appearing."

6I asked, "What is it?"

He replied, "It is a measuring basket.[h][q]" And he added, "This is the iniquity[i] of the people throughout the land."

7Then the cover of lead was raised, and there in the basket sat a woman!
8He said, "This is wickedness," and he pushed her back into the basket and pushed the lead cover down over its mouth.[r]

me were two women, with the wind in their wings! They had wings like those of a stork,[s] and they lifted up the basket between heaven and earth.

10"Where are they taking the basket?" I asked the angel who was speaking to me.

11He replied, "To the country of Babylonia[j][t] to build a house[u] for it. When it is ready, the basket will be set there in its place."[v]

Four Chariots

6 I looked up again—and there before me were four chariots[w] coming out from between two mountains—mountains of bronze! 2The first chariot had red horses, the second black,[x] 3the third white,[y] and the fourth dappled—all of them powerful. 4I asked the angel who was speaking to me, "What are these, my lord?"

5The angel answered me, "These are the four spirits[k][z] of heaven, going out from standing in the presence of the Lord of the whole world.[a] 6The one with the black horses is going toward the north country, the one with the white horses toward the west,[l] and the one with the dappled horses toward the south."

7When the powerful horses went out, they were straining to go throughout the earth.[b] And he said, "Go throughout the earth!" So they went throughout the earth.

8Then he called to me, "Look, those going toward the north country have given my Spirit[m] rest[c] in the land of the north."[d]

A Crown for Joshua

9The word of the LORD came to me: 10"Take silver and gold from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon.[e] Go the same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. 11Take the silver and gold and make a crown,[f] and set it on the head of the high priest, Joshua[g] son of Jehozadak.[h] 12Tell him this is what the LORD Almighty says: 'Here is the man will branch out from his place and build the temple of the LORD.[j] 13It is he who will build the temple of the LORD, dai,[n] Tobijah, Jedaiah and Hen[o] son of Zephaniah as a memorial[b] in the temple of the LORD. 15Those who are far away will come and help to build the temple of the LORD,[c] and you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you.[d] This will happen if you diligently obey[e] the LORD your God."

Justice and Mercy, Not Fasting

7 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah[f] on the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Kislev.[g] 2The people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-Melech, together with their men, to entreat[h] the LORD[i] 3by asking the priests of the house of the LORD Almighty and the prophets, "Should I mourn[j] and fast in the fifth[k] month, as I have done for so many years?" 4Then the word of the LORD Almighty came to me: 5"Ask all the people of the land and the priests, 'When you fast-ed[l] and mourned in the fifth and seventh[m] months for the past seventy years,[n] was it really for me that you fasted? 6And when you were eating and drinking, were you not just feasting for yourselves?[o] 7Are these not the words the LORD proclaimed through the earlier prophets[p] when Jerusalem and its surrounding towns were at rest[q] and prosperous, and the Negev and the western foothills[r] were settled?' "[s] 8And the word of the LORD came again to Zechariah: 9"This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'Administer true justice;[t] show mercy and compassion to one another.[u] 10Do not oppress the widow[v] or the fatherless, the alien[w] or the poor.[x] In your hearts do not think evil of each other.'[y] 11"But they refused to pay attention; stubbornly[z] they turned their backs[a] and stopped up their ears.[b] 12They made their hearts as hard as flint[c] and would not listen to the law or to the words that the LORD Almighty had sent by his Spirit through the earlier prophets.[d] So the LORD Almighty was very angry.[e] 13" 'When I called, they did not listen;[f] so when they called, I would not listen,'[g] says the LORD Almighty.[h] 14'I scattered[i] them with a whirlwind[j] among all the nations, where they were strangers. The land was left so desolate behind them that no one could come or go.[k] This is how they made the pleasant land desolate.[l]' "

The LORD Promises to Bless Jerusalem

8 Again the word of the LORD Almighty came to me. 2This is what the LORD Almighty says: "I am very jealous[m] for Zion; I am burning with jealousy for her." 3This is what the LORD says: "I will return[n] to Zion[o] and dwell in Jerusalem.[p] Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth,[q] and the mountain[r] of the LORD Almighty will be called the Holy Mountain.[s]"
4This is what the LORD Almighty says: "Once again men and women of ripe old age will sit in the streets of Jerusalem,[t] each with cane in hand because of his age. 5The city streets will be filled with boys and girls playing there.[u]"
6This is what the LORD Almighty says: "It may seem marvelous to the remnant of this people at that time,[v] but will it seem marvelous to me?[w]" declares the LORD Almighty.
7This is what the LORD Almighty says: "I will save my people from the countries of the east and the west.[x] 8I will bring them back[y] to live[z] in Jerusalem; they will be my people,[a] and I will be faithful and righteous to them as their God.[b]"
9This is what the LORD Almighty says: "You who now hear these words spoken by the prophets[c] who were there when the foundation[d] was laid for the house of the LORD Almighty, let your hands be strong[e] so that the temple may be built. 10Before that time there were no wages[f] for man or beast.
No one could go about his business safely[g] because of his enemy, for I had turned every man against his neighbor.
11But now I will not deal with the remnant of this people as I did in the past,"[h] declares the LORD Almighty.
12"The seed will grow well, the vine will yield its fruit,[i] the ground will produce its crops,[j] and the heavens will drop their dew.[k] I will give all these things as an inheritance[l] to the remnant of this people.[m] 13As you have

[14]This is what the LORD Almighty says: "Just as I had determined to bring says the LORD Almighty, [15]"so now I have determined to do good[g] again to Almighty. I myself am going.' [22]And many peoples and powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to seek the LORD Almighty and to entreat him."[v]

[23]This is what the LORD Almighty says: "In those days ten men from all and say, 'Let us go with you, because we have heard that God is with Judgment on Israel's Enemies

An Oracle[x]

9 The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest upon Damascus[y]— for the eyes of men and all the tribes of Israel
are on the LORD—[p] [2]and upon Hamath[z] too, which borders on it, and upon Tyre[a] and Sidon,[b] though they are very skillful.
[3]Tyre has built herself a stronghold; she has heaped up silver like dust, and gold like the dirt of the streets.[c] [4]But the Lord will take away her possessions and destroy[d] her power on the sea,
and she will be consumed by fire.[e] [5]Ashkelon[f] will see it and fear; Gaza will writhe in agony, and Ekron too, for her hope will wither.
Gaza will lose her king and Ashkelon will be deserted.
[6]Foreigners will occupy Ashdod, and I will cut off[g] the pride of the Philistines.
[7]I will take the blood from their mouths,
the forbidden food from between their teeth.
Those who are left will belong to our God[h] and become leaders in Judah, and Ekron will be like the Jebusites.[i] [8]But I will defend[j] my house against marauding forces.[k] Never again will an oppressor overrun my people, for now I am keeping watch.[l]

The Coming of Zion's King

[9]Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion![m]
Shout,[n] Daughter of Jerusalem!
See, your king[o] comes to you,[p] righteous and having salvation,[p] gentle and riding on a donkey,[q] on a colt, the foal of a donkey.[r] [10]I will take away the chariots from Ephraim
and the war-horses from Jerusalem,
and the battle bow will be broken.[s] He will proclaim peace[t] to the nations.
His rule will extend from sea to sea
and from the River[r] to the ends of the earth.[s][u] [11]As for you, because of the blood of my covenant[v] with you, I will free your prisoners[w] from the waterless pit.[x] [12]Return to your fortress,[y] O prisoners of hope;
even now I announce that I will restore twice[z] as much to
you.

The LORD Will Appear

[14]Then the LORD will appear over them;[k]
his arrow will flash like lightning.[l] The Sovereign LORD will sound the trumpet;[m] he will march in the storms[n] of the south, [15] and the LORD Almighty will shield[o] them.
They will destroy and overcome with slingstones.[p] They will drink and roar as with they will be full like a bowl[r]

[16]The LORD their God will save them

They will sparkle in his land like jewels in a crown.[v] [17]How attractive and beautiful they will be!

and new wine the young women.

The LORD Will Care for Judah

10 Ask the LORD for rain in the springtime;
it is the LORD who makes the storm clouds.
He gives showers of rain[p] to men, and plants of the field[q] to everyone.
[2]The idols[r] speak deceit, diviners[s] see visions that lie; they tell dreams[t] that are false, they give comfort in vain.[u] Therefore the people wander like sheep
oppressed for lack of a shepherd.[v]

[3]"My anger burns against the shepherds,
and I will punish the leaders;[w] for the LORD Almighty will care for his flock, the house of Judah, and make them like a proud horse in battle.[x] [4]From Judah will come the cornerstone,[y] from him the tent peg,[z] from him the battle bow,[a] from him every ruler.
[5]Together they[a] will be like mighty men trampling the muddy streets in battle.[b]
Because the LORD is with them, they will fight and overthrow the horsemen.[c]

[6]"I will strengthen[d] the house of Judah
and save the house of Joseph.
I will restore them because I have compassion[e] on them.[f]
They will be as though I had not rejected them, for I am the LORD their God and I will answer[g] them.
[7]The Ephraimites will become like mighty men, and their hearts will be glad as with wine.[h]
Their children will see it and be joyful;
their hearts will rejoice[i] in the
LORD.
[8]I will signal[j] for them and gather them in.
Surely I will redeem them; they will be as numerous[k] as before.
[9]Though I scatter them among the peoples,
yet in distant lands they will remember me.[l]
They and their children will survive, and they will return.
[10]I will bring them back from Egypt and gather them from Assyria.[m] I will bring them to Gilead[n] and Lebanon, and there will not be room[o] enough for them.
[11]They will pass through the sea of trouble;
the surging sea will be subdued and all the depths of the Nile will dry up.[p] Assyria's pride[q] will be brought down and Egypt's scepter[r] will pass away.[s] [12]I will strengthen[t] them in the LORD and in his name they will walk,[u]" declares the LORD.

11 Open your doors, O Lebanon,[v] so that fire[w] may devour your cedars!

Two Shepherds

4 This is what the LORD my God says: "Pasture the flock marked for slaughter.[f] 5 Their buyers slaughter them and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Praise the LORD, I am rich!' Their own shepherds do not spare them.[g] 6 For I will no longer have pity on the people of the land," declares the LORD.
"I will hand everyone over to his neighbor[h] and his king. They will oppress the land, and I will not rescue them from their hands."[i] 7 So I pastured the flock marked for slaughter,[j] particularly the oppressed of the flock. Then I took two staffs and called one Favor and the other Union, and I pastured the flock.
8 In one month
I got rid of the three shepherds.
The flock detested[k] me, and I grew weary of them 9 and said, "I will not be your shepherd. Let the dying die, and the perishing perish.[l] Let those who are left eat[m] one another's flesh." 10 Then I took my staff called Favor[n] and broke it, revoking[o] the covenant I had made with all the nations.
11 It was revoked on that day, and so the afflicted of the flock who were watching me knew it was the word of the LORD.
12 I told them, "If you think it best, give me my pay; but if not, keep it." So they paid me thirty pieces of silver.[p] 13 And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter"—the handsome price at which they priced me! So I took the thirty pieces of silver[q] and threw them into the house of the LORD to the potter.[r] 14 Then I broke my second staff called Union, breaking the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.
15 Then the LORD said to me, "Take again the equipment of a foolish shepherd.
16 For I am going to raise up a shepherd over the land who will not care for the lost, or seek the young, or heal the injured, or feed the healthy, but will eat the meat of the choice sheep, tearing off their hoofs.

Jerusalem's Enemies to Be Destroyed

An Oracle[v]

12 This is the word of the LORD concerning Israel. The LORD, who stretches out the heavens,[w] who lays the foundation of the earth,[x] and who forms the spirit of man[y] within him, declares:
2 "I am going to make Jerusalem a cup[z] that sends all the surrounding peoples reeling.[a] Judah[b] will be besieged as well as Jerusalem.
3 On that day, when all the nations[c] of the earth are gathered against her, I will make Jerusalem an immovable rock[d] for all the nations. All who try to move it will injure[e] themselves.
4 On that day I will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness," declares the LORD. "I will keep a watchful eye over the house of Judah, but I will blind all the horses of the nations.[f] 5 Then the leaders of Judah will say in their hearts, 'The people of Jerusalem are strong,[g] because the LORD Almighty is their
God.' 6 "On that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a firepot[h] in a woodpile, like a flaming torch among sheaves.
They will consume[i] right and left all the surrounding peoples, but Jerusalem will remain intact[j] in her place.
7 "The LORD will save the dwellings of Judah first, so that the honor of the house of David and of Jerusalem's inhabitants may not be greater than that of Judah.[k] 8 On that day the LORD will shield[l] those who live in Jerusalem, so that the feeblest[m] among them will be like David, and the house of David will be like God,[n] like the Angel of the LORD going before[o] them.
9 On that day I will set out to destroy all the nations[p] that attack Jerusalem.[q]

Mourning for the One They Pierced

10 "And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit[v][r] of grace and supplication.[s] They will look on[w] me, the one they have pierced,[t] and they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only child,[u] and grieve bitterly for him

[v]10 Or the Spirit [w]10 Or to as one grieves for a firstborn son.[a] 11 On that day the weeping[b] in Jerusalem will be great, like the weeping of Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megid-do.[c] 12 The land will mourn,[d] each clan by itself, with their wives by themselves: the clan of the house of David and their wives, the clan of the house of Nathan and their wives, 13 the clan of the house of Levi and their wives, the clan of Shimei and their wives, 14 and all the rest of the clans and their wives.[e]

Cleansing From Sin

13 "On that day a fountain[f] will be opened to the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to cleanse[g] them from sin and impurity.
2 "On that day, I will banish the names of the idols[h] from the land, and they will be remembered no more,"[i] declares the LORD Almighty. "I will remove both the prophets[j] and the spirit of impurity from the land. 3 And if anyone still prophesies, his father and mother, to whom he was born, will say to him, 'You must die, because you have told lies[k] in the LORD's name.' When he prophesies, his own parents will stab him.[l] 4 "On that day every prophet will be ashamed[m] of his prophetic vision. He will not put on a prophet's garment[n] of hair[o] in order to deceive.[p] 5 He will say, 'I am not a prophet. I am a farmer; the land has been my livelihood since my youth.[a][q] 6 If someone asks him, 'What are these wounds on your body[b]?' he will answer, 'The wounds I was given at the house of my friends.'

The Shepherd Struck, the Sheep Scattered

7 "Awake, O sword,[r] against my shepherd,[s]
against the man who is close to me!"
declares the LORD Almighty.
"Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered,[t] and I will turn my hand against the little ones.
8 In the whole land," declares the
LORD,
"two-thirds will be struck down and perish;
yet one-third will be left in it.[u] 9 This third I will bring into the fire;[v] I will refine them like silver[w] and test them like gold.[x] They will call[y] on my name[z] and I will answer[a] them; I will say, 'They are my people,'[b] and they will say, 'The LORD is our God.'[c]"

The LORD Comes and Reigns

14 A day of the LORD[d] is coming when your plunder[e] will be divided among you.
2 I will gather all the nations[f] to Jerusalem to fight against it;[g] the city will be captured, the houses ransacked, and the women raped.[h] Half of the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be taken from the city.[i] 3 Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as he fights in the day of battle.[k] 4 On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives,[l] east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split[m] in two from east to west, forming a great valley, with half of the mountain moving north and half moving south. 5 You will flee by my mountain valley, for it will extend to Azel. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake[c][n] in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come,[o] and all the holy ones with him.[p]
6 On that day there will be no light,[q] no cold or frost. 7 It will be a unique[r] day, without daytime or nighttime[s]—a day known to the LORD. When evening comes, there will be light.[t] 8 On that day living water[u] will flow[v] out from Jerusalem, half to the eastern[d] sea[w] and half to the western sea,[e] in summer and in winter.[x] 9 The LORD will be king[y] over the whole earth.[z] On that day there will be one LORD, and his name the only name.[a] 10 The whole land, from Geba[b] to Rimmon,[c] south of Jerusalem, will become like the Arabah. But Jerusalem will be raised up[d] and remain in its place,[e] from the Benjamin Gate[f] to the site of the First Gate, to the Corner Gate,[g] and from the Tower of Hananel[h] to the royal winepresses. 11 It will be inhabited;[i] never again will it be destroyed. Jerusalem will be secure.[j] 12This is the plague with which the LORD will strike[a] all the nations that fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.[b] 13On that day men will be stricken by the LORD with great panic.[c] Each man will seize the hand of another, and they will attack each other.[d] 14Judah[e] too will fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected[f]—great quantities of gold and silver and clothing. 15A similar plague[g] will strike the horses and mules, the camels and donkeys, and all the animals in those camps.

16Then the survivors[h] from all the nations that have attacked Jerusalem will go up year after year to worship[i] the King,[j] the LORD Almighty, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.[k] 17If any of the peoples of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship[l] the King, the LORD Almighty, they will have no rain.[m] 18If the Egyptian people do not go up and take part, they will have no rain. The LORD[c] will bring on them the plague[n] he inflicts on the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.[o] 19This will be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.[p] 20On that day HOLY TO THE LORD[q] will be inscribed on the bells of the horses, and the cooking pots[r] in the LORD's house will be like the sacred bowls[s] in front of the altar. 21Every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy[t] to the LORD Almighty, and all who come to sacrifice will take some of the pots and cook in them. And on that day[u] there will no longer be a Canaanite[d][v] in the house[w] of the LORD Almighty.[x]

Malachi

1 An oracle:[a] The word[b] of the LORD to Israel through Malachi.[a]

Jacob Loved, Esau Hated

2 "I have loved[c] you," says the LORD.
"But you ask,[d] 'How have you loved us?'
"Was not Esau Jacob's brother?" the LORD says. "Yet I have loved Jacob,[e] 3 but Esau I have hated,[f] and I have turned his mountains into a wasteland[g] and left his inheritance to the desert jackals.[h]" 4 Edom[i] may say, "Though we have been crushed, we will rebuild[j] the ruins."
But this is what the LORD Almighty says: "They may build, but I will demolish.[k] They will be called the Wicked Land, a people always under the wrath of the LORD.[l] 5 You will see it with your own eyes and say, 'Great[m] is the LORD—even beyond the borders of Israel!'[n]

Blemished Sacrifices

6 "A son honors his father,[o] and a servant his master.[p] If I am a father, where is the honor due me? If I am a master, where is the respect[q] due me?" says the LORD Almighty.[r] "It is you, O priests, who show contempt for my name.
"But you ask,[s] 'How have we shown contempt for your name?' 7 "You place defiled food[t] on my altar.
"But you ask,[u] 'How have we defiled you?'
"By saying that the LORD's table[v] is contemptible. 8 When you bring blind animals for sacrifice, is that not wrong?
When you sacrifice crippled or diseased animals,[w] is that not wrong?
Try offering them to your governor!
Would he be pleased[x] with you?
Would he accept you?" says the LORD Almighty.[y] 9 "Now implore God to be gracious to us. With such offerings[z] from your hands, will he accept[a] you?"—says the LORD Almighty.
10 "Oh, that one of you would shut the temple doors,[b] so that you would not light useless fires on my altar! I am not pleased[c] with you," says the LORD Almighty, "and I will accept[d] no offering[e] from your hands. 11 My name will be great[f] among the nations,[g] from the rising to the setting of the sun.[h] In every place incense[i] and pure offerings[j] will be brought to my name, because my name will be great among the nations," says the LORD Almighty.
12 "But you profane it by saying of the Lord's table,[k] 'It is defiled,' and of its food,[l] 'It is contemptible.' 13 And you say, 'What a burden!'[m] and you sniff at it contemptuously,[n]" says the LORD Almighty.
"When you bring injured, crippled or diseased animals and offer them as sacrifices,[o] should I accept them from your hands?"[p] says the LORD.
14 "Cursed is the cheat who has an acceptable male in his flock and vows to give it, but then sacrifices a blemished animal[q] to the Lord. For I am a great king,[r]" says the LORD Almighty,[s] "and my name is to be feared[t] among the nations.[u]

Admonition for the Priests

2 "And now this admonition is for you, O priests.[v] 2 If you do not listen,[w] and if you do not set your heart to honor[x] my name," says the LORD Almighty, "I will send a curse[y] upon you, and I will curse your blessings.[z] Yes, I have already cursed them, because you have not set your heart to honor me.
3 "Because of you I will rebuke[b] your descendants[c]; I will spread on your faces the offal[a] from your festival sacrifices, and you will be carried off with it.[a] 4And you will know that I have sent you this admonition so that my covenant with Levi[b] may continue," says the LORD Almighty. 5"My covenant was with him, a covenant[c] of life and peace,[d] and I gave them to him; this called for reverence[e] and he revered me and stood in awe of my name. 6True instruction[f] was in his mouth and nothing false was found on his lips. He walked[g] with me in peace[h] and uprightness,[i] and turned many from sin.[j] 7"For the lips of a priest[k] ought to preserve knowledge, and from his mouth men should seek instruction[l]—because he is the messenger[m] of the LORD Almighty. 8But you have turned from the way[n] and by your teaching have caused many to stumble;[o] you have violated the covenant[p] with Levi,"[q] says the LORD Almighty.

9"So I have caused you to be despised[r] and humiliated[s] before all the people, because you have not followed my ways but have shown partiality[t] in matters of the law."[u]

Judah Unfaithful

10Have we not all one Father[d]?[v] Did not one God create us?[w] Why do we profane the covenant[x] of our fathers by breaking faith[y] with one another?
11Judah has broken faith. A detestable[z] thing has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: Judah has desecrated the sanctuary the LORD loves,[a] by marrying[b] the daughter of a foreign god.[c] 12As for the man who does this, whoever he may be, may the LORD cut him off[d] from the tents of Jacob[e][e]—even though he brings offerings[f] to the LORD Almighty.
13Another thing you do: You flood the LORD's altar with tears.[g] You weep and wail[h] because he no longer pays attention[i] to your offerings or accepts them with pleasure from your hands.[j] 14You ask,[k] "Why?" It is because the LORD is acting as the witness[l] between you and the wife of your youth,[m] because you have broken faith with her, though she is your partner, the wife of your marriage covenant.[n] 15Has not the LORD made them one?[o] In flesh and spirit they are his.
And why one? Because he was seeking godly offspring.[f][p] So guard yourself[q] in your spirit, and do not break faith[r] with the wife of your youth.
16"I hate divorce,[s]" says the LORD God of Israel, "and I hate a man's covering himself[g] with violence[t] as well as with his garment," says the LORD Almighty.
So guard yourself in your spirit,[u] and do not break faith.

The Day of Judgment

17You have wearied[v] the LORD with your words.
"How have we wearied him?" you ask.[w]
By saying, "All who do evil are good in the eyes of the LORD, and he is pleased[x] with them" or "Where is the God of justice?[y]"

3 "See, I will send my messenger,[z] who will prepare the way before me.[a] Then suddenly the Lord[b] you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant,[c] whom you desire,[d] will come," says the LORD Almighty.
2But who can endure[e] the day of his coming?[f] Who can stand[g] when he appears? For he will be like a refiner's fire[h] or a launderer's soap.[i] 3He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver;[j] he will purify[k] the Levites and refine them like gold and silver.[l] Then the LORD will have men who will bring offerings in righteousness,[m] 4and the offerings[n] of Judah and Jerusalem will be acceptable to the LORD, as in days gone by, as in former years.[o] 5"So I will come near to you for judgment. I will be quick to testify against sorcerers,[p] adulterers[q] and perjurers,[r] against those who defraud laborers of their wages,[s] who oppress the widows[t] and the fatherless, and deprive aliens[u] of justice, but do not fear[v] me," says the LORD Almighty.

Robbing God

6"I the LORD do not change.[w] So you, O descendants of Jacob, are not destroyed.[x] 7Ever since the time of your forefathers you have turned away[y]

"But you ask,[c] 'How are we to re-

"But you ask, 'How do we rob you?'
"In tithes[e] and offerings. 9You are under a curse[f]—the whole nation of 10Bring the whole tithe[g] into the store-

Almighty, "and see if I will not throw open the floodgates[i] of heaven and pour out[j] so much blessing[k] that you will not have room enough for it.[l] 11I will prevent pests from devouring[m]

Almighty. 12"Then all the nations will call you blessed,[o] for yours will be a about like mourners[w] before the LORD Almighty? 15But now we call the arrogant[x] blessed. Certainly the evildoers[y] prosper,[z] and even those who challenge God escape.' " 16Then those who feared the LORD talked with each other, and the LORD listened and heard.[a] A scroll[b] of remembrance was written in his presence concerning those who feared[c] the LORD and honored his name.

17"They will be mine,[d]" says the LORD Almighty, "in the day when I make up my treasured possession.[h][e] I a man spares his son[g] who serves him.

18And you will again see the distinction between the righteous[h] and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not.[i]

4 "Surely the day is coming;[j] it will burn like a furnace.[k] All the arrogant[l] and every evildoer will be stub-

The Genealogy of Jesus

1:1-17pp — Lk 3:23-38
1:3-6pp — Ru 4:18-22
1:7-11pp — 1Ch 3:10-17

1 A record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ the son of David,[a] the son of Abraham:[b]

2Abraham was the father of Isaac,[c] Isaac the father of Jacob,[d] Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,[e] 3Judah the father of Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar,[f] Perez the father of Hezron, Hezron the father of Ram, 4Ram the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon, 5Salmon the father of Boaz, whose mother was Rahab,[g] Boaz the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth,
Obed the father of Jesse, 6and Jesse the father of King David.[h]

David was the father of Solomon, whose mother had been Uriah's wife,[i] 7Solomon the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, Abijah the father of Asa, 8Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Jehoram, Jehoram the father of Uzziah, 9Uzziah the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah, 10Hezekiah the father of Manasseh,[j] Manasseh the father of Amon, Amon the father of Josiah, 11and Josiah the father of Jeconiah[a] and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.[k]

12After the exile to Babylon:

Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel,[l] Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel,[m] 13Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, Abiud the father of Eliakim, Eliakim the father of Azor, 14Azor the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Akim, Akim the father of Eliud, 15Eliud the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, Matthan the father of Jacob, 16and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary,[n] of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.[o]

17Thus there were fourteen generations in all from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Christ.[b]

The Birth of Jesus Christ

18This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about: His mother Mary was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit.[p] 19Because Joseph her husband was a righteous man and did not want to expose her to public disgrace, he had in mind to divorce[q] her quietly.
20But after he had considered this, an angel[r] of the Lord appeared to him in a dream[s] and said, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.
21She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus,[c][t] because he will save his people from their sins."[u] 22All this took place to fulfill[v] what the Lord had said through the prophet: 23"The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel"[d]—which means, "God with us." 24When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel[c] of the Lord had commanded him and took Mary home as his wife.

25But he had no union with her until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name Jesus.[d]

The Visit of the Magi

2 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea,[e] during the time of King Herod,[f] Magi[e] from the east came to Jerusalem 2and asked, "Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews?[g] We saw his star[h] in the east[f] and have come to worship him." 3When King Herod heard this he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him.
4When he had called together all the people's chief priests and teachers of the law, he asked them where the Christ[g] was to be born. 5"In Bethlehem[i] in Judea," they replied, "for this is what the prophet has written:

6" 'But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for out of you will come a ruler who will be the shepherd of my people Israel.'[h]"[j]

7Then Herod called the Magi secretly and found out from them the exact time the star had appeared. 8He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and make a careful search for the child. As soon as you find him, report to me, so that I too may go and worship him." 9After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star they had seen in the east[i] went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was. 10When they saw the star, they were overjoyed. 11On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him.[k] Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts[l] of gold and of incense and of myrrh. 12And having been warned[m] in a dream[n] not to go back to Herod, they returned to their country by another route.

The Escape to Egypt

13When they had gone, an angel[o] of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream.[p] "Get up," he said, "take the child and his mother and escape to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to search for the child to kill him."[q] 14So he got up, took the child and his mother during the night and left for Egypt, 15where he stayed until the death of Herod. And so was fulfilled[q] what the Lord had said through the prophet: "Out of Egypt I called my son."[j][r] 16When Herod realized that he had been outwitted by the Magi, he was furious, and he gave orders to kill all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity who were two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had learned from the Magi. 17Then what was said through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:[s]

18"A voice is heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel[t] weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more."[k][u]

The Return to Nazareth

19After Herod died, an angel[v] of the Lord appeared in a dream[w] to Joseph in Egypt 20and said, "Get up, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who were trying to take the child's life are dead."[x]
mother and went to the land of Israel.
22But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there.
Having been warned in a dream,[y] he withdrew to the district of Galilee,[z] 23and he went and lived in a town called Nazareth.[a] So was fulfilled[b] what was said through the prophets:
"He will be called a Nazarene."[c]

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3:1-12pp — Mk 1:3-8; Lk 3:2-17

3 In those days John the Baptist[d] came, preaching in the Desert of Judea 2and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven[e] is near." 3This is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah:

"A voice of one calling in the desert,
'Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.' "[l][f] el's hair, and he had a leather belt around his waist.[a] His food was locusts[b] and wild honey. 5People went out to him from Jerusalem and all Judea and the whole region of the Jordan. 6Confessing their sins, they were baptized[c] by him in the Jordan River.

7But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to where he was baptizing, he said to them: "You brood of vipers![d] Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?[e] 8Produce fruit in keeping with repentance.[f] 9And do not think you can say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.'[g] I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. 10The ax is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.[h]

11"I baptize you with[m] water for repentance.[i] But after me will come one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not fit to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit[j] and with fire.[k] 12His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire."[l]

The Baptism of Jesus

3:13-17pp — Mk 1:9-11; Lk 3:21,22; Jn 1:31-34

13Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John.[m] 14But John tried to deter him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?"

15Jesus replied, "Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfill all righteousness." Then John consented.

16As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened,[n] and he saw the Spirit of God[o] descending like a dove and lighting on him. 17And a voice from heaven[p] said, "This is my Son,[q] whom I love; with him I am well pleased."[r]

The Temptation of Jesus

4 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted[s] by the devil.[t] 2After fasting forty days and forty nights,[u] he was hungry. 3The tempter[v] came to him and said, "If you are the Son of God,[w] tell these stones to become bread."

4Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'[n]"[x]

5Then the devil took him to the holy city[y] and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. 6"If you are the Son of God,"[z] he said, "throw yourself down. For it is written:

"'He will command his angels concerning you,
and they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'[o]"[a]

7Jesus answered him, "It is also written: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'[p]"[b]

8Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. 9"All this I will give you," he said, "if you will bow down and worship me."

10Jesus said to him, "Away from me, Satan![c] For it is written: 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.'[q]"[d]

11Then the devil left him,[e] and angels came and attended him.[f]

Jesus Begins to Preach

12When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison,[g] he returned to Galilee.[h] 13Leaving Nazareth, he went and lived in Capernaum,[i] which was by the lake in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali— 14to fulfill[j] what was said through the prophet Isaiah:

15"Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
the way to the sea, along the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles—16the people living in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned."[r][k]

17From that time on Jesus began to preach, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven[l] is near."

The Calling of the First Disciples

4:18-22pp — Mk 1:16-20; Lk 5:2-11; Jn 1:35-42

Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen.
19"Come, follow me,"[a] Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." 20At once they left their nets and followed him.[b] 21Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John.[c] They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them, 22and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.[d]

Jesus Heals the Sick

23Jesus went throughout Galilee,[e] teaching in their synagogues,[f] preaching the good news[g] of the kingdom,[h] and healing every disease and sickness among the people.[i] 24News about him spread all over Syria,[j] and people brought to him all who were ill with various diseases, those suffering severe pain, the demon-possessed,[k] those having seizures,[l] and the paralyzed,[m] and he healed them. 25Large crowds from Galilee, the Decapolis,[s] Jerusalem, Judea and the region across the Jordan followed him.[n]

The Beatitudes

5:3-12pp — Lk 6:20-23

5 Now when he saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, 2and he began to teach them, saying:

3"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.[o] 4Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.[p] 5Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.[q] 6Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.[r] 7Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.[s] 8Blessed are the pure in heart,[t] for they will see God.[u] 9Blessed are the peacemakers,[v] for they will be called sons of God.[w] 10Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness,[x]
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.[y]

11"Blessed are you when people insult you,[z] persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.[a] 12Rejoice and be glad,[b] because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.[c]

Salt and Light

13"You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled by men.[d] 14"You are the light of the world.[e] A city on a hill cannot be hidden.
15Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house.[f] 16In the same way, let your light shine before men,[g] that they may see your good deeds[h] and praise[i] your Father in heaven.

The Fulfillment of the Law

17"Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.[j] 18I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished.[k] 19Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments[l] and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.[m]

Murder

5:25,26pp — Lk 12:58,59

21"You have heard that it was said to the people long ago, 'Do not murder,[t][n] and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.' 22But I tell you that anyone who is angry[o] with his brother[u] will be subject to judgment.[p] Again, anyone who says to his brother, 'Raca,[v]' is answerable to the Sanhedrin.[q] But anyone who says, 'You fool!' will be in danger of the fire of hell.[r] 23"Therefore, if you are offering your [25]"Settle matters quickly with your adversary who is taking you to court. Do it while you are still with him on the way, or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. [26]I tell you the truth, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.[w]

Adultery

[27]"You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.'[x][a] [28]But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart.[b] [29]If your right eye causes you to sin,[c] gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. [30]And if your right hand causes you to sin,[d] cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

Divorce

[31]"It has been said, 'Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce.'[y][e] [32]But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for marital unfaithfulness, causes her to become an adulteress, and anyone who marries the divorced woman commits adultery.[f]

Oaths

[33]"Again, you have heard that it was said to the people long ago, 'Do not break your oath,[g] but keep the oaths you have made to the Lord.'[h] [34]But I tell you, Do not swear at all:[i] either by heaven, for it is God's throne;[j] [35]or by the earth, for it is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King.[k] [36]And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make even one hair white or black. [37]Simply let your 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No,' 'No';[l] anything beyond this comes from the evil one.[m]

An Eye for an Eye

[38]"You have heard that it was said, 'Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth.'[z][n] [39]But I tell you, Do not resist an evil person. If someone strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also.[o] [40]And if someone wants to sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. [41]If someone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. [42]Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.[p]

Love for Enemies

[43]"You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor[a][q] and hate your enemy.'[r] [44]But I tell you: Love your enemies[b] and pray for those who persecute you,[s] [45]that you may be sons[t] of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.[u] [46]If you love those who love you, what reward will you get?[v] Are not even the tax collectors doing that? [47]And if you greet only your brothers, what are you doing more than others? Do not even pagans do that? [48]Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.[w]

Giving to the Needy

6 "Be careful not to do your 'acts of righteousness' before men, to be seen by them.[x] If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

[2]"So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. [3]But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, [4]so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.[y]

Prayer

[5]"And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing[z] in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. [6]But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father,[a] who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what

14For if you forgive men when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.[k] 15But if you do not forgive men their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.[l]

Fasting

16"When you fast,[m] do not look somber[n] as the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces to show men they are fasting. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. 17But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, 18so that it will not be obvious to men that you are fasting, but only to your Father, who is unseen; and your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.[o]

Treasures in Heaven

19"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth,[p] where moth and rust destroy,[q] and where thieves break in and steal. 20But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven,[r] where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal.[s] 21For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.[t]

22"The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are good, your whole body will be full of light. 23But if your eyes are bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

24"No one can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money.[u]

Do Not Worry

25"Therefore I tell you, do not worry[v] about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes? 26Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them.[w] Are you not much more valuable than they?[x] 27Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life[d]?[y]

28"And why do you worry about clothes? See how the lilies of the field grow. They do not labor or spin. 29Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor[z] was dressed like one of these. 30If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?[a] 31So do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' 32For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them.[b] 33But seek first his kingdom[c] and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.[d] 34Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Judging Others

7 "Do not judge, or you too will be judged.[e] 2For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.[f]

3"Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? 4How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? 5You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

Ask, Seek, Knock

7 "Ask and it will be given to you;[d] seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. 8 For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds;[e] and to him who knocks, the door will be opened.

9 "Which of you, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone? 10 Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? 11 If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts[f] to those who ask him! 12 So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you,[g] for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.[h]

The Narrow and Wide Gates

13 "Enter through the narrow gate.[i] For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. 14 But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

A Tree and Its Fruit

15 "Watch out for false prophets.[j] They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves.[k] 16 By their fruit you will recognize them.[l] Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?[m] 17 Likewise every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit.[n] 19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.[o] 20 Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them.

21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,'[p] will enter the kingdom of heaven,[q] but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.[r] 22 Many will say to me on that day,[s] 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?'[t] 23 Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'[u]

The Wise and Foolish Builders

24 "Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice[v] is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. 25 The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock. 26 But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. 27 The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash."

28 When Jesus had finished saying these things,[w] the crowds were amazed at his teaching,[x] 29 because he taught as one who had authority, and not as their teachers of the law.

The Man With Leprosy

8 When he came down from the mountainside, large crowds followed him. 2 A man with leprosy[a][y] came and knelt before him[z] and said, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

3 Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. "I am willing," he said. "Be clean!" Immediately he was cured[b] of his leprosy. 4 Then Jesus said to him, "See that you don't tell anyone.[a] But go, show yourself to the priest[b] and offer the gift Moses commanded,[c] as a testimony to them."

The Faith of the Centurion

8:5-13pp — Lk 7:1-10

5 When Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking for help. 6 "Lord," he said, "my servant lies at home paralyzed[d] and in terrible suffering."

7 Jesus said to him, "I will go and heal him."

8 The centurion replied, "Lord, I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed.[e] 9 For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and that one, 'Come,' and he comes. I say to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

10 When Jesus heard this, he was astonished and said to those following him, "I tell you the truth, I have not

Jesus Heals Many

8:14-16pp — Mk 1:29-34; Lk 4:38-41

14When Jesus came into Peter's house, he saw Peter's mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever. 15He touched her hand and the fever left her, and she got up and began to wait on him.
16When evening came, many who were demon-possessed were brought to him, and he drove out the spirits with a word and healed all the sick.[g] 17This was to fulfill[h] what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

"He took up our infirmities and carried our diseases."[g][i]

The Cost of Following Jesus

18When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he gave orders to cross to the other side of the lake.[j] 19Then a teacher of the law came to him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go." 20Jesus replied, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man[k] has no place to lay his head." 21Another disciple said to him, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." 22But Jesus told him, "Follow me,[l] and let the dead bury their own dead."

Jesus Calms the Storm

8:23-27Ref — Mt 14:22-33

23Then he got into the boat and his disciples followed him. 24Without warning, a furious storm came up on the lake, so that the waves swept over the boat. But Jesus was sleeping. 25The disciples went and woke him, saying, "Lord, save us! We're going to drown!" 26He replied, "You of little faith,[m] why are you so afraid?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the waves, and it was completely calm.[n] 27The men were amazed and asked, "What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the waves obey him!"

The Healing of Two Demon-possessed Men

8:28-34pp — Mk 5:1-17; Lk 8:26-37

28When he arrived at the other side in the region of the Gadarenes,[h] two demon-possessed[o] men coming from the tombs met him. They were so violent that no one could pass that way.
29"What do you want with us,[p] Son of God?" they shouted. "Have you come here to torture us before the appointed time?"[q] 30Some distance from them a large herd of pigs was feeding. 31The demons begged Jesus, "If you drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs." 32He said to them, "Go!" So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and died in the water. 33Those tending the pigs ran off, went into the town and reported all this, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. 34Then the whole town went out to meet Jesus.
And when they saw him, they pleaded with him to leave their region.[r]

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

9:2-8pp — Mk 2:3-12; Lk 5:18-26

9 Jesus stepped into a boat, crossed over and came to his own town.[s] 2Some men brought to him a paralytic,[t] lying on a mat. When Jesus saw their faith,[u] he said to the paralytic, "Take heart,[v] son; your sins are forgiven."[w] 3At this, some of the teachers of the law said to themselves, "This fellow is blaspheming!"[x] 4Knowing their thoughts,[y] Jesus said, "Why do you entertain evil thoughts in your hearts? 5Which is easier: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? 6But so that you may know that the Son of Man[z] has authority on earth to forgive sins. . . ." Then he said to the paralytic, "Get up, take your mat and go home." 7And the man got up and went home.
8When the crowd saw this, they were filled with awe; and they praised

The Calling of Matthew

9:9-13pp — Mk 2:14-17; Lk 5:27-32

9As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector's booth. "Follow me,"[b] he told him, and Matthew got up and followed him.
10While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew's house, many tax collectors and "sinners" came and ate with him and his disciples. 11When the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and 'sinners'?"[c] 12On hearing this, Jesus said, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. 13But go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.'[i][d] For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."[e]

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

14Then John's[f] disciples came and asked him, "How is it that we and the Pharisees fast,[g] but your disciples do not fast?" 15Jesus answered, "How can the guests of the bridegroom mourn while he is with them?[h] The time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast.[i] 16"No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch will pull away from the garment, making the tear worse. 17Neither do men pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst, the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

A Dead Girl and a Sick Woman

18While he was saying this, a ruler came and knelt before him[j] and said, "My daughter has just died. But come and put your hand on her,[k] and she will live." 19Jesus got up and went with him, and so did his disciples.
20Just then a woman who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak.[l] 21She said to herself, "If I only touch his cloak, I will be healed." 22Jesus turned and saw her. "Take heart,[m] daughter," he said, "your faith has healed you."[n] And the woman was healed from that moment.[o] 23When Jesus entered the ruler's house and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd,[p] 24he said, "Go away.
The girl is not dead[q] but asleep."[r] But they laughed at him. 25After the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took the girl by the hand, and she got up.[s] 26News of this spread through all that region.[t]

Jesus Heals the Blind and Mute

27As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, calling out, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"[u] 28When he had gone indoors, the blind men came to him, and he asked them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"
"Yes, Lord," they replied.[v] 29Then he touched their eyes and said, "According to your faith will it be done to you";[w] 30and their sight was restored. Jesus warned them sternly, "See that no one knows about this."[x] 31But they went out and spread the news about him all over that region.[y] 32While they were going out, a man who was demon-possessed[z] and could not talk[a] was brought to Jesus. 33And when the demon was driven out, the man who had been mute spoke. The crowd was amazed and said, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel."[b] 34But the Pharisees said, "It is by the prince of demons that he drives out demons."[c]

The Workers Are Few

35Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and sickness.[d] 36When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them,[e] because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.[f] 37Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest[g] is plentiful but the workers are few.[h] 38Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field."

Jesus and John the Baptist

11:2-19pp — Lk 7:18-35

11 After Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples,[f] he went on from there to teach and preach in the towns of Galilee.[o] 2When John[g] heard in prison[h] what Christ was doing, he sent his disciples 3to ask him, "Are you the one who was to come,[i] or should we expect someone else?" 4Jesus replied, "Go back and report to John what you hear and see: 5The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy[p] are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor.[j] 6Blessed is the man who does not fall away on account of me."[k] 7As John's[l] disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the desert[m] to see? A reed swayed by the wind? 8If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes?
No, those who wear fine clothes are in kings' palaces. 9Then what did you go out to see? A prophet?[n] Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. 10This is the one about whom it is written:

" 'I will send my messenger ahead of you,[o]
who will prepare your way before you.'[q][p]

11I tell you the truth: Among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful men lay hold of it. 13For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John.[q] 14And if you are willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who was to come.[r] 15He who has ears, let him hear.[s] 16"To what can I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling out to others:

17" 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance;
we sang a dirge,
and you did not mourn.'

18For John came neither eating[t] nor drinking,[u] and they say, 'He has a demon.' 19The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and "sinners." '[v] But wisdom is proved right by her actions."

Woe on Unrepentant Cities

20Then Jesus began to denounce the cities in which most of his miracles had been performed, because they did not repent. 21"Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida![w] If the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon,[x] they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.[y] 22But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you.[z] 23And you, Capernaum,[a] will you be lifted up to the skies? No, you will go down to the depths.[r][b] If the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Sodom, it would have remained to this day. 24But I tell you that it will be more bearable for Sodom on the day of judgment than for you."[c]

Rest for the Weary

25At that time Jesus said, "I praise you, Father,[d] Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children.[e] 26Yes, Father, for this was your good pleasure.
27"All things have been committed to Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.[h]

Lord of the Sabbath

12 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick some heads of grain[f] and eat them. 2When the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, "Look! Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath."[g]

3He answered, "Haven't you read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?[h] 4He entered the house of God, and he and his companions ate the consecrated bread—which was not lawful for them to do, but only for the priests.[i] 5Or haven't you read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple desecrate the day[j] and yet are innocent? 6I tell you that one[s] greater than the temple is here.[k] 7If you had known what these words mean, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice,'[t][l] you would not have condemned the innocent. 8For the Son of Man[m] is Lord of the Sabbath."

9Going on from that place, he went into their synagogue, 10and a man with a shriveled hand was there. Looking for a reason to accuse Jesus,[n] they asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"[o]

11He said to them, "If any of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will you not take hold of it and lift it out?[p] 12How much more valuable is a man than a sheep![q] Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

13Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." So he stretched it out and it was completely restored, just as sound as the other. 14But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.[r]

God's Chosen Servant

15Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from that place. Many followed him, and he healed all their sick,[s] 16warning them not to tell who he was.[t] 17This was to fulfill[u] what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

18"Here is my servant whom I have chosen, the one I love, in whom I delight;[v] I will put my Spirit on him,[w] and he will proclaim justice to the nations.
19He will not quarrel or cry out; no one will hear his voice in the streets.
20A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out, till he leads justice to victory.
21 In his name the nations will put their hope."[w][x]

Jesus and Beelzebub

22Then they brought him a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute, and Jesus healed him, so that he could both talk and see.[y] 23All the people were astonished and said, "Could this be the Son of David?"[z]

24But when the Pharisees heard this, they said, "It is only by Beelzebub,[x][a] the prince of demons, that this fellow drives out demons."[b]

25Jesus knew their thoughts[c] and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand. 26If Satan[d] drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom stand? 27And if I drive out demons by Beelzebub,[e] by whom do your people[f] drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. 28But if I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God[g] has come upon you.

29"Or again, how can anyone enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can rob his house.

30"He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters.[h] 31And so I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.[i] 32Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age[j] or in the age to come.[k] fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit.[a] 34You brood of vipers,[b] how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks.[c] 35The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. 36But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. 37For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned."[d]

The Sign of Jonah

12:43-45pp — Lk 11:24-26

38Then some of the Pharisees and teachers of the law said to him, "Teacher, we want to see a miraculous sign[e] from you."[f] 39He answered, "A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a miraculous sign! But none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.[g] 40For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish,[h] so the Son of Man[i] will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.[j] 41The men of Nineveh[k] will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah,[l] and now one[w] greater than Jonah is here. 42The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for she came[m] from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom, and now one greater than Solomon is here.
43"When an evil[x] spirit comes out of a man, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. 44Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.'
When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order. 45Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there.
And the final condition of that man is worse than the first.[n] That is how it will be with this wicked generation."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

46While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother[o] and brothers[p] stood outside, wanting to speak to him. 47Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you."[y]

The Parable of the Sower

13:1-15pp — Mk 4:1-12; Lk 8:4-10
13:16,17pp — Lk 10:23,24

13 That same day Jesus went out of the house[r] and sat by the lake.
2Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat[s] and sat in it, while all the people stood on the shore. 3Then he told them many things in parables, saying: "A farmer went out to sow his seed. 4As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. 5Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. 6But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. 7Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants. 8Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop—a hundred,[t] sixty or thirty times what was sown. 9He who has ears, let him hear."[u] 10The disciples came to him and asked, "Why do you speak to the people in parables?" 11He replied, "The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven[v] has been given to you,[w] but not to them.
12Whoever has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.[x] 13This is why I speak to them in parables:

"Though seeing, they do not see; though hearing, they do not hear or understand.[y]

14In them is fulfilled[z] the prophecy of Isaiah:

" 'You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.
15For this people's heart has become calloused;
they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.

[w]41 Or something; also in verse 42 [x]43 Greek unclean [y]47 Some manuscripts do not have verse 47.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.'[a] [a] 16But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear.[b] 17For I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see[c] but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

18"Listen then to what the parable of the sower means: 19When anyone hears the message about the kingdom[d] and does not understand it, the evil one[e] comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the seed sown along the path. 20The one who received the seed that fell on rocky places is the man who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. 21But since he has no root, he lasts only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, he quickly falls away.[f] 22The one who received the seed that fell among the thorns is the man who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the de-ceitfulness of wealth[g] choke it, making it unfruitful. 23But the one who received the seed that fell on good soil is the man who hears the word and understands it. He produces a crop, yielding a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown."[h]

The Parable of the Weeds

24Jesus told them another parable:
"The kingdom of heaven is like[i] a man who sowed good seed in his field. 25But while everyone was sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away. 26When the wheat sprouted and formed heads, then the weeds also appeared.

27"The owner's servants came to him and said, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where then did the weeds come from?'

28" 'An enemy did this,' he replied.
"The servants asked him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?'

29" 'No,' he answered, 'because while you are pulling the weeds, you may root up the wheat with them. 30Let both grow together until the harvest.
At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat and bring it into my barn.' "[j]

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast

13:31,32pp — Mk 4:30-32
13:31-33pp — Lk 13:18-21

31He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like[k] a mustard seed,[l] which a man took and planted in his field. 32Though it is the smallest of all your seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and perch in its branches."[m] 33He told them still another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like[n] yeast that a woman took and mixed into a large amount[b] of flour[o] until it worked all through the dough."[p] 34Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd in parables; he did not say anything to them without using a parable.[q] 35So was fulfilled[r] what was spoken through the prophet:

"I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world."[c] [s]

The Parable of the Weeds Explained

36Then he left the crowd and went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, "Explain to us the parable[t] of the weeds in the field."

37He answered, "The one who sowed the good seed is the Son of Man.[u] 38The field is the world, and the good seed stands for the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one,[v] 39and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest[w] is the end of the age,[x] and the harvesters are angels.[y]

40"As the weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age. 41The Son of Man[z] will send out his angels,[a] and they will weed out of his kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil.
42They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.[b] 43Then the righteous will shine like the sun[c] in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear.[d] value, he went away and sold every-

The Parable of the Net

47 "Once again, the kingdom of heaven is like[c] a net that was let down into the lake and caught all kinds[d] of fish. 48 When it was full, the fishermen pulled it up on the shore. Then they sat down and collected the good fish in baskets, but threw the bad away. 49 This is how it will be at the end of the age.
The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous[e] 50 and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.[f] 51 "Have you understood all these things?" Jesus asked.
"Yes," they replied.
52 He said to them, "Therefore every teacher of the law who has been instructed about the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of his storeroom new treasures as well as old."

A Prophet Without Honor

53 When Jesus had finished these parables,[g] he moved on from there.
54 Coming to his hometown, he began teaching the people in their synagogue,[h] and they were amazed.[i]
"Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers?" they asked. 55 "Isn't this the carpenter's son?[j] Isn't his mother's[k] name Mary, and aren't his brothers[l] James, Joseph, Simon and Judas? 56 Aren't all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all these things?" 57 And they took offense[m] at him.
But Jesus said to them, "Only in his hometown and in his own house is a prophet without honor."[n] 58 And he did not do many miracles there because of their lack of faith.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14:1-12pp — Mk 6:14-29

14 At that time Herod[o] the tetrarch heard the reports about Jesus,[p] 2 and he said to his attendants, "This is John the Baptist;[q] he has risen from the dead! That is why miraculous powers are at work in him." 3 Now Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him in prison[r] because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife,[s] 4 for John had been saying to him: "It is not lawful for you to have her."[t] 5 Herod wanted to kill John, but he was afraid of the people, because they considered him a prophet.[u] 6 On Herod's birthday the daughter of Herodias danced for them and pleased Herod so much 7 that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. 8 Prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist." 9 The king was distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he ordered that her request be granted 10 and had John beheaded[v] in the prison.

11 His head was brought in on a platter and given to the girl, who carried it to her mother. 12 John's disciples came and took his body and buried it.[w] Then they went and told Jesus.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

14:13-21Ref — Mt 15:32-38

13 When Jesus heard what had happened, he withdrew by boat privately to a solitary place. Hearing of this, the crowds followed him on foot from the towns. 14 When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them[x] and healed their sick.[y] 15 As evening approached, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a remote place, and it's already getting late. Send the crowds away, so they can go to the villages and buy themselves some food." 16 Jesus replied, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat." 17 "We have here only five loaves[z] of bread and two fish," they answered.
18 "Bring them here to me," he said.
19 And he directed the people to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves.[a] Then he gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people. 20 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. 21 The number of those who ate was about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Jesus Walks on the Water

14:22-33pp — Mk 6:45-51; Jn 6:15-21

22 Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowd. 23 After he had dismissed them, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray.[a] When evening came, he was there alone, 24 but the boat was already a considerable distance[c] from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it.

25 During the fourth watch of the night Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. 26 When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. "It's a ghost,"[b] they said, and cried out in fear.

27 But Jesus immediately said to them: "Take courage![c] It is I. Don't be afraid."[d]

28 "Lord, if it's you," Peter replied, "tell me to come to you on the water."

29 "Come," he said.

Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. 30 But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!"

31 Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. "You of little faith,"[e] he said, "why did you doubt?"

32 And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. 33 Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."[f]

34 When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret. 35 And when the men of that place recognized Jesus, they sent word to all the surrounding country. People brought all their sick to him 36 and begged him to let the sick just touch the edge of his cloak,[g] and all who touched him were healed.

15 Then some Pharisees and teachers of the law came to Jesus from Jerusalem and asked, 2 "Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? They don't wash their hands before they eat!"[h]

3 Jesus replied, "And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition? 4 For God said, 'Honor your father and mother'[d][i] and 'Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.'[e][j] 5 But you say that if a man says to his father or mother, 'Whatever help you might otherwise have received from me is a gift devoted to God,' 6 he is not to 'honor his father[f]' with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. 7 You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

8 " 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.
9 They worship me in vain;
their teachings are but rules taught by men.'[k][l][g]"

10 Jesus called the crowd to him and said, "Listen and understand. 11 What goes into a man's mouth does not make him 'unclean,'[m] but what comes out of his mouth, that is what makes him 'unclean.' "[n]

12 Then the disciples came to him and asked, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?"

13 He replied, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted[o] will be pulled up by the roots. 14 Leave them; they are blind guides.[h][p] If a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit."[q]

15 Peter said, "Explain the parable to us."[r]

16 "Are you still so dull?"[s] Jesus asked them. 17 "Don't you see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body? 18 But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart,[t] and these make a man 'unclean.' 19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander.[u] 20 These are what make a man 'unclean';[v] but eating with unwashed hands does not make him 'unclean.' "

The Faith of the Canaanite Woman

21 Leaving that place, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon.[w] 22 A Canaanite woman from that vicinity came to him, crying out, "Lord, Son of David,[x] have mercy on me! My daughter is suffering terribly from demon-possession."[y]

23 Jesus did not answer a word. So his

Jesus Feeds the Four Thousand

29 Jesus left there and went along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up on a mountainside and sat down. 30 Great crowds came to him, bringing the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute and many others, and laid them at his feet; and he healed them.[d] 31 The people were amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking and the blind seeing. And they praised the God of Israel.[e]

32 Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I have compassion for these people;[f] they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, or they may collapse on the way."

33 His disciples answered, "Where could we get enough bread in this remote place to feed such a crowd?"

34 "How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked.

"Seven," they replied, "and a few small fish."

35 He told the crowd to sit down on the ground. 36 Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, and when he had given thanks, he broke them[g] and gave them to the disciples, and they in turn to the people. 37 They all ate and were satisfied. Afterward the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.[h] 38 The number of those who ate was four thousand, besides women and children. 39 After Jesus had sent the crowd away, he got into the boat and went to the vicinity of Magadan.

The Demand for a Sign

16 The Pharisees and Sadducees[i] came to Jesus and tested him by asking him to show them a sign from heaven.[j]

2 He replied,[i2] "When evening comes, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,' 3 and in the morning, 'Today it will be stormy, for the sky is red and overcast.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.[k] 4 A wicked and adulterous generation looks for a miraculous sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah."[l] Jesus then left them and went away.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees

5 When they went across the lake, the disciples forgot to take bread. 6 "Be careful," Jesus said to them. "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."[m]

7 They discussed this among themselves and said, "It is because we didn't bring any bread."

8 Aware of their discussion, Jesus asked, "You of little faith,[n] why are you talking among yourselves about having no bread? 9 Do you still not understand? Don't you remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered?[o] 10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered?[p] 11 How is it you don't understand that I was not talking to you about bread? But be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees." 12 Then they understood that he was not telling them to guard against the yeast used in bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.[q]

Peter's Confession of Christ

13 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?"

14 They replied, "Some say John the Baptist;[r] others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets."[s]

15 "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?"

i2 Some early manuscripts do not have the rest of verse 2 and all of verse 3.

16Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ,[j][r] the Son of the living God."[s] 17Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man,[t] but by my Father in heaven.[u] 18And I tell you that you are Peter,[k][v] and on this rock I will build my church,[w] and the gates of Hades[l] will not overcome it.[m] 19I will give you the keys[x] of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be[n] bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be[n] loosed in heaven."[y] 20Then he warned his disciples not to tell anyone[z] that he was the Christ.

Jesus Predicts His Death

21From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem[a] and suffer many things[b] at the hands of the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law,[c] and that he must be killed[d] and on the third day[e] be raised to life.[f] 22Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. "Never, Lord!" he said.
"This shall never happen to you!" 23Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan![g] You are a stumbling block to me; you do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men." 24Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.[h] 25For whoever wants to save his life[o] will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it.[i] 26What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? 27For the Son of Man[j] is going to come[k] in his Father's glory with his angels, and then he will reward each person according to what he has done.[l] 28I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

The Transfiguration

17:1-8pp — Lk 9:28-36
17:1-13pp — Mk 9:2-13

17 After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James and John[m] the brother of James, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. 2There he was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light. 3Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus.
4Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." 5While he was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.[n] Listen to him!"[o] 6When the disciples heard this, they fell facedown to the ground, terrified.
7But Jesus came and touched them.
"Get up," he said. "Don't be afraid."[p] 8When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus.
9As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone[q] what you have seen, until the Son of Man[r] has been raised from the dead."[s] 10The disciples asked him, "Why then do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first?" 11Jesus replied, "To be sure, Elijah comes and will restore all things.[t] 12But I tell you, Elijah has already come,[u] and they did not recognize him, but have done to him everything they wished.[v] In the same way the Son of Man is going to suffer[w] at their hands." 13Then the disciples understood that he was talking to them about John the Baptist.[x]

The Healing of a Boy With a Demon

17:14-19pp — Mk 9:14-28; Lk 9:37-42

14When they came to the crowd, a man approached Jesus and knelt before him. 15"Lord, have mercy on my son," he said. "He has seizures[y] and is suffering greatly. He often falls into the fire or into the water. 16I brought him to your disciples, but they could not heal
him." 17"O unbelieving and perverse generation," Jesus replied, "how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy here to me." 18Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of the boy, and he was healed from that moment.
19Then the disciples came to Jesus in private and asked, "Why couldn't we drive it out?" 20He replied, "Because you have so with grief.

The Temple Tax

[24]After Jesus and his disciples arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma tax[z] came to Peter and asked, "Doesn't your teacher pay the temple tax[b]?" [25]"Yes, he does," he replied.
When Peter came into the house, Jesus was the first to speak. "What do you think, Simon?" he asked. "From whom do the kings of the earth collect duty and taxes[a]—from their own sons or from others?" [26]"From others," Peter answered.
"Then the sons are exempt," Jesus said to him. [27]"But so that we may not offend[b] them, go to the lake and throw out your line. Take the first fish you catch; open its mouth and you will find a four-drachma coin. Take it and give it to them for my tax and yours."

The Greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven

18:1-5pp — Mk 9:33-37; Lk 9:46-48

18 At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" [2]He called a little child and had him stand among them. [3]And he said: "I tell you the truth, unless you change and become like little children,[c] you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.[d] [4]Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.[e] [5]"And whoever welcomes a little child like this in my name welcomes me.[f] [6]But if anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin,[g] it would be better for him to have a large millstone hung around his neck and to be drowned in the depths of the sea.[h] [7]"Woe to the world because of the things that cause people to sin! Such things must come, but woe to the man through whom they come![i] [8]If your hand or your foot causes you to sin,[j] cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life maimed or crippled than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire. [9]And if your eye causes you to sin,[k] gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.[l]

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

[10]"See that you do not look down on one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels[m] in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven.[c] [12]"What do you think? If a man owns a hundred sheep, and one of them wanders away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off? [13]And if he finds it, I tell you the truth, he is happier about that one sheep than about the ninety-nine that did not wander off. [14]In the same way your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should be lost.

A Brother Who Sins Against You

[15]"If your brother sins against you,[d] go and show him his fault,[n] just between the two of you. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over.
[16]But if he will not listen, take one or two others along, so that 'every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.'[e][p] [17]If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church;[q] and if he refuses to listen even to the church, treat him as you would a pagan or a tax collector.[r] [18]"I tell you the truth, whatever you bind on earth will be[f] bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be[f] loosed in heaven.[s] [19]"Again, I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you[t] by my Father in heaven. [20]For where two or three come together in my name, there am I with them."[u]

23 "Therefore, the kingdom of heaven is like[d] a king who wanted to settle accounts[e] with his servants. 24 As he began the settlement, a man who owed him ten thousand talents[w] was brought to him. 25 Since he was not able to pay,[f] the master ordered that he and his wife and his children and all that he had be sold[g] to repay the debt.

26 "The servant fell on his knees before him.[h] 'Be patient with me,' he begged, 'and I will pay back everything.' 27 The servant's master took pity on him, canceled the debt and let him go.

28 "But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii.[x] He grabbed him and began to choke him. 'Pay back what you owe me!' he demanded.

29 "His fellow servant fell to his knees and begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.'

30 "But he refused. Instead, he went off and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay the debt. 31 When the other servants saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed and went and told their master everything that had happened.

32 "Then the master called the servant in. 'You wicked servant,' he said, 'I canceled all that debt of yours because you begged me to. 33 Shouldn't you have had mercy on your fellow servant just as I had on you?' 34 In anger his master turned him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should pay back all he owed.

35 "This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother from your heart."[i]

19 When Jesus had finished saying these things,[j] he left Galilee and went into the region of Judea to the other side of the Jordan. 2 Large crowds followed him, and he healed them[k] there.

3 Some Pharisees came to him to test him. They asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife[l] for any and every reason?"

4 "Haven't you read," he replied, "that at the beginning the Creator 'made them male and female,'[y] [m] 5 and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh'[z]?[n] 6 So they are no longer two, but one. Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate."

7 "Why then," they asked, "did Moses command that a man give his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away?"[o]

8 Jesus replied, "Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because your hearts were hard. But it was not this way from the beginning. 9 I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for marital unfaithfulness, and marries another woman commits adultery."[p]

10 The disciples said to him, "If this is the situation between a husband and wife, it is better not to marry."

11 Jesus replied, "Not everyone can accept this word, but only those to whom it has been given.[q] 12 For some are eunuchs because they were born that way; others were made that way by men; and others have renounced marriage[a] because of the kingdom of heaven. The one who can accept this should accept it."

The Little Children and Jesus

13 Then little children were brought to Jesus for him to place his hands on them[r] and pray for them. But the disciples rebuked those who brought them.

14 Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs[s] to such as these."[t] 15 When he had placed his hands on them, he went on from there.

The Rich Young Man

19:16-29pp — Mk 10:17-30; Lk 18:18-30

16 Now a man came up to Jesus and asked, "Teacher, what good thing must I do to get eternal life[u]?"[v]

17 "Why do you ask me about what is good?" Jesus replied. "There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, obey the commandments."[w]

18 "Which ones?" the man inquired.

Jesus replied, "'Do not murder, do not commit adultery,[x] do not steal, do not give false testimony, 19 honor your

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard 20 "For the kingdom of heaven is like[h] a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire men to work in his vineyard.[i] 2He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard.

3"About the third hour he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. 4He told them, 'You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' 5So they went.
"He went out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour and did the same thing. 6About the eleventh hour he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, 'Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?' 7"'Because no one has hired us,' they answered.
"He said to them, 'You also go and work in my vineyard.' 8"When evening came,[j] the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.' 9"The workers who were hired about the eleventh hour came and each received a denarius. 10So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius. 11When they received it, they began to grumble[k] against the landowner. 12'These men who were hired last worked only one hour,' they said, 'and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat[l] of the day.' 13"But he answered one of them,
'Friend,[m] I am not being unfair to you.
Didn't you agree to work for a denari-us? 14Take your pay and go. I want to give the man who was hired last the same as I gave you. 15Don't I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?'[n] 16"So the last will be first, and the first will be last."[o]

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

17Now as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside and said to them, 18"We are going up to Jerusalem,[p] and the Son of Man[q] will be betrayed to the chief priests and the teachers of the law.[r] They will condemn him to death 19and will turn him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged[s] and crucified.[t] On the third day[u] he will be raised to life!"[v]

A Mother's Request

20Then the mother of Zebedee's sons[w] came to Jesus with her sons and, kneeling down,[x] asked a favor of him.
21"What is it you want?" he asked.
She said, "Grant that one of these two sons of mine may sit at your right dom." 22"You don't know what you are asking," Jesus said to them. "Can you drink the cup I am going to drink?"

"We can," they answered.
23Jesus said to them, "You will indeed drink from my cup, but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant.
These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared by my Father."
24When the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers. 25Jesus called them together and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. 26Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, 27and whoever wants to be first must be your slave— 28just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Two Blind Men Receive Sight

29As Jesus and his disciples were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him. 30Two blind men were sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was going by, they shouted, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!" 31The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!"
32Jesus stopped and called them.
"What do you want me to do for you?" he asked.
33"Lord," they answered, "we want our sight." 34Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed him.

The Triumphal Entry

21:4-9pp — Jn 12:12-15

21 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, 2saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me. 3If anyone says anything to you, tell him that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away."

4This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:

5"Say to the Daughter of Zion, 'See, your king comes to you, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'"[e]

6The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. 7They brought the donkey and the colt, placed their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them.
8A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. 9The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted,

"Hosanna[f] to the Son of David!"

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"[g]

"Hosanna[f] in the highest!"

10When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, "Who is this?"
11The crowds answered, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee."

Jesus at the Temple

12Jesus entered the temple area and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves. 13"It is written," he said to them, "'My house will be called a house of prayer,'[h] but you are making it a 'den of robbers.'"[i] 14The blind and the lame came to him at the temple, and he healed them.
15But when the chief priests and the teachers of the law saw the wonderful things he did and the children shouting in the temple area, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they were indignant.
16"Do you hear what these children are saying?" they asked him.
"Yes," replied Jesus, "have you never read,

"'From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise'[j]?"

17And he left them and went out of e5 Zech. 9:9 f9 A Hebrew expression meaning "Save!" which became an exclamation of praise; also in verse 15 g9 Psalm 118:26 h13 Isaiah 56:7 i13 Jer. 7:11 j16 Psalm 8:2

the city to Bethany,[a] where he spent the night.

The Fig Tree Withers

18Early in the morning, as he was on his way back to the city, he was hungry. 19Seeing a fig tree by the road, he went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. Then he said to it, "May you never bear fruit again!" Immediately the tree withered.[b] 20When the disciples saw this, they were amazed. "How did the fig tree wither so quickly?" they asked.
21Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, if you have faith and do not doubt,[c] not only can you do what was done to the fig tree, but also you can say to this mountain, 'Go, throw yourself into the sea,' and it will be done. 22If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for[d] in prayer."

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

23Jesus entered the temple courts, and, while he was teaching, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him. "By what authority[e] are you doing these things?" they asked.
"And who gave you this authority?" 24Jesus replied, "I will also ask you one question. If you answer me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. 25John's baptism—where did it come from? Was it from heaven, or from men?"
They discussed it among themselves and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' 26But if we say, 'From men'—we are afraid of the people, for they all hold that John was a prophet."[f] 27So they answered Jesus, "We don't know." Then he said, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

28"What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work today in the vineyard.'[g] 29" 'I will not,' he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.
30"Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, 'I will, sir,' but he did not go.

31"Which of the two did what his father wanted?"
"The first," they answered.
Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, the tax collectors[h] and the prosti-tutes[i] are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you. 32For John came to you to show you the way of righteousness,[j] and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors[k] and the prostitutes[l] did. And even after you saw this, you did not repent[m] and believe him.

The Parable of the Tenants

33"Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted[n] a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower.[o] Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and went away on a journey.[p] 34When the harvest time approached, he sent his servants[q] to the tenants to collect his fruit.
35"The tenants seized his servants; they beat one, killed another, and stoned a third.[r] 36Then he sent other servants[s] to them, more than the first time, and the tenants treated them the same way. 37Last of all, he sent his son to them. 'They will respect my son,' he said.
38"But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, 'This is the heir.[t] Come, let's kill him[u] and take his inheritance.'[v] 39So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.
40"Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" 41"He will bring those wretches to a wretched end,"[w] they replied, "and he will rent the vineyard to other tenants,[x] who will give him his share of the crop at harvest time." 42Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:

> " 'The stone the builders rejected > has become the capstone[k];
> the Lord has done this,
> and it is marvelous in our eyes'[l]?[y]

43"Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you[z] and given to a people who will produce its fruit. 44He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but he on whom it falls will be crushed."[m] knew he was talking about them.

but they were afraid of the crowd because the people held that he was a prophet.[a]

The Parable of the Wedding Banquet

22:2-14Ref — Lk 14:16-24

22 Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: 2"The kingdom of heaven is like[b] a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. 3He sent his servants[c] to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come.
4"Then he sent some more servants[d] and said, 'Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: My oxen and fattened cattle have been butchered, and everything is ready.
Come to the wedding banquet.' 5"But they paid no attention and went off—one to his field, another to his business. 6The rest seized his servants, mistreated them and killed them. 7The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers[e] and burned their city.
8"Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. 9Go to the street corners[f] and invite to the banquet anyone you find.' 10So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, both good and bad,[g] and the wedding hall was filled with guests.
11"But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes.
12'Friend,'[h] he asked, 'how did you get in here without wedding clothes?' The man was speechless.
13"Then the king told the attendants, 'Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'[i] 14"For many are invited, but few are chosen."[j]

Paying Taxes to Caesar

15Then the Pharisees went out and laid plans to trap him in his words.
16They sent their disciples to him along with the Herodians.[k] "Teacher," they said, "we know you are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You aren't swayed by men, because you pay no attention to who they are. 17Tell us then, what is your opinion? Is it right to pay taxes[l] to Caesar or not?" 18But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, "You hypocrites, why are you trying to trap me? 19Show me the coin used for paying the tax." They brought him a denarius, 20and he asked them, "Whose portrait is this? And whose inscription?"
21"Caesar's," they replied.
Then he said to them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's,[m] and to God what is God's."
22When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away.[n]

Marriage at the Resurrection

23That same day the Sadducees,[o] who say there is no resurrection,[p] came to him with a question.
24"Teacher," they said, "Moses told us that if a man dies without having children, his brother must marry the widow and have children for him.[q] 25Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died, and since he had no children, he left his wife to his brother. 26The same thing happened to the second and third brother, right on down to the seventh. 27Finally, the woman died. 28Now then, at the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven, since all of them were married to her?" 29Jesus replied, "You are in error because you do not know the Scriptures[r] or the power of God. 30At the resurrection people will neither marry nor be given in marriage;[s] they will be like the angels in heaven. 31But about the resurrection of the dead—have you not read what God said to you, 32'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'[n]?[t] He is not the God of the dead but of the living." 33When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.[u]

The Greatest Commandment

34Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Saddducees,[v] the Pharisees got together. 35One of them, an expert in the 36“Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?” 37Jesus replied: “ ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’[o][a] 38This is the first and greatest commandment. 39And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’[p][b] 40All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”[c]

Whose Son Is the Christ?

41While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42“What do you think about the Christ[q]? Whose son is he?”
“The son of David,”[d] they replied.
43He said to them, “How is it then that David, speaking by the Spirit, calls him ‘Lord’? For he says,

44“ ‘The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies under your feet.” ’[r][e] 45If then David calls him ‘Lord,’ how can he be his son?” 46No one could say a word in reply, and from that day on no one dared to ask him any more questions.[f]

Seven Woes

23:1-7pp — Mk 12:38,39; Lk 20:45,46
23:37-39pp — Lk 13:34,35

23 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples: 2“The teachers of the law[g] and the Pharisees sit in Moses’ seat. 3So you must obey them and do everything they tell you. But do not do what they do, for they do not practice what they preach. 4They tie up heavy loads and put them on men’s shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them.[h] 5“Everything they do is done for men to see:[i] They make their phylacteries[s][j] wide and the tassels on their garments[k] long; 6they love the place of honor at banquets and the most important seats in the synagogues;[l] 7they love to be greeted in the marketplaces and to have men call them ‘Rabbi.’[m] 8“But you are not to be called ‘Rabbi,’ for you have only one Master and you are all brothers. 9And do not call anyone on earth ‘father,’ for you have one Father,[n] and he is in heaven. 10Nor are you to be called ‘teacher,’ for you have one Teacher, the Christ.[q] 11The greatest among you will be your servant.[o] 12For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.[p] 13“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites![q] You shut the kingdom of heaven in men’s faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to.[t][r]
15“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert,[s] and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell[t] as you are.
16“Woe to you, blind guides![u] You say, ‘If anyone swears by the temple, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath.’[v] 17You blind fools! Which is greater: the gold, or the temple that makes the gold sacred?[w] 18You also say, ‘If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gift on it, he is bound by his oath.’ 19You blind men! Which is greater: the gift, or the altar that makes the gift sacred?[x] 20Therefore, he who swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it. 21And he who swears by the temple swears by it and by the one who dwells[y] in it. 22And he who swears by heaven swears by God’s throne and by the one who sits on it.[z] 23“Woe to you, teachers of the law
and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You give a tenth[a] of your spices—mint, dill and cummin. But you have neglected the more important matters of the law—justice, mercy and faithfulness.[b] You should have practiced the latter, without neglecting the former. 24You blind guides![c] You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel.
25“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish,[d] but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.[e] 26Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside also will be clean.
27“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs,[f] which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of dead men’s bones and everything unclean. 28In the same way, of hypocrisy and wickedness.

29"Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets[a] and decorate the graves of the righteous.
30And you say, 'If we had lived in the days of our forefathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.' 31So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets.[b] 32Fill up, then, the measure[c] of the sin of your forefathers![d] 33"You snakes! You brood of vipers![e] How will you escape being condemned to hell?[f] 34Therefore I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers.
Some of them you will kill and crucify;[g] others you will flog in your synagogues[h] and pursue from town to town.[i] 35And so upon you will come all the righteous blood that has been shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel[j] to the blood of Zechariah son of Berekiah,[k] whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.[l] 36I tell you the truth, all this will come upon this generation.[m] 37"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you,[n] how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings,[o] but you were not willing. 38Look, your house is left to you desolate.[p] 39For I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'[u]"[q]

Signs of the End of the Age

24:1-51pp — Mk 13:1-37; Lk 21:5-36

24 Jesus left the temple and was walking away when his disciples came up to him to call his attention to its buildings. 2"Do you see all these things?" he asked. "I tell you the truth, not one stone here will be left on another;[r] every one will be thrown down."
3As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives,[s] the disciples came to him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming[t] and of the end of the age?"[u] 4Jesus answered: "Watch out that no one deceives you.[v] 5For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am the Christ,'[v] and will deceive many.[w] 6You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed.
Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. 7Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.[x] There will be famines[y] and earthquakes in various places. 8All these are the beginning of birth pains.
9"Then you will be handed over to be persecuted[z] and put to death,[a] and you will be hated by all nations because of me.[b] 10At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, 11and many false prophets[c] will appear and deceive many people.[d] 12Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, 13but he who stands firm to the end will be saved.[e] 14And this gospel of the kingdom[f] will be preached in the whole world[g] as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.
15"So when you see standing in the holy place[h] 'the abomination that causes desolation,'[w][i] spoken of through the prophet Daniel—let the reader understand— 16then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.
17Let no one on the roof of his house[j] go down to take anything out of the house. 18Let no one in the field go back to get his cloak. 19How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers![k] 20Pray that your flight will not take place in winter or on the Sabbath. 21For then there will be great distress, unequaled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equaled again.[l] 22If those days had not been cut short, no one would survive, but for the sake of the elect[m] those days will be shortened.
23At that time if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or, 'There he is!' do not believe it.[n] 24For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and miracles[o] to deceive even the elect—if that were possible. 25See, I have told you ahead of time.
26"So if anyone tells you, 'There he is, out in the desert,' do not go out; or, 'Here he is, in the inner rooms,' do not believe it. 27For as lightning[p] that comes from the east is visible even in the west, so will be the coming[q] of the the stars will fall from the sky, 30 "At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn.[d] They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky,[e] with power and great glory. 31 And he will send his angels[f] with a loud trumpet call,[g] and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

32 "Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. 33 Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it[y] is near, right at the door.[h] 34 I tell you

The Day and Hour Unknown

36 "No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son,[a] but only the Father.[k] 37 As it was in the days of Noah,[l] so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. 38 For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage,[m] up to the day Noah entered the ark; 39 and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.[n] 40 Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left.[o] 41 Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left.[p] 42 "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come.[q] 43 But understand this:
If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming,[r] he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into. 44 So you also must be ready,[s] because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.
45 "Who then is the faithful and wise servant,[t] whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the proper time? 46 It will be good for that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns.[u] 47 I tell you the truth, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.[v] 48 But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself, 'My master is staying away a long time,' 49 and he then begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards.[w] 50 The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. 51 He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.[x]

The Parable of the Ten Virgins

25 "At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like[y] ten virgins who took their lamps[z] and went out to meet the bridegroom.[a] 2 Five of them were foolish and five were wise.[b] 3 The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them. 4 The wise, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps. 5 The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep.[c] 6 "At midnight the cry rang out:
'Here's the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' 7 "Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps. 8 The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.'[d] 9 "'No,' they replied, 'there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.' 10 "But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived.
The virgins who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet.[e]
And the door was shut.
11 "Later the others also came. 'Sir!
Sir!' they said. 'Open the door for us!' 12 "But he replied, 'I tell you the truth, I don't know you.'[f] 13 "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour.[g]

The Parable of the Talents

25:14-30Ref — Lk 19:12-27

14"Again, it will be like a man going on a journey,[a] who called his servants and entrusted his property to them.
15To one he gave five talents[b] of money, to another two talents, and to another one talent, each according to his ability.[b] Then he went on his journey. 16The man who had received the five talents went at once and put his money to work and gained five more.
17So also, the one with the two talents gained two more. 18But the man who had received the one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

19"After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them.[c] 20The man who had received the five talents brought the other five. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more.'

21"His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things.[d] Come and share your master's happiness!'

22"The man with the two talents also came. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with two talents; see, I have gained two more.'

23"His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have
put you in charge of many things.[e] Come and share your master's happiness!'

24"Then the man who had received the one talent came. 'Master,' he said, 'I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. 25So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground.
See, here is what belongs to you.'

26"His master replied, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? 27Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.

28" 'Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents. 29For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.[f] 30And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'[g]

The Sheep and the Goats

31"When the Son of Man comes[h] in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his throne[i] in heavenly glory. 32All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate[j] the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.[k] 33He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

34"Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom[l] prepared for you since the creation of the world.[m] 35For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in,[n] 36I needed clothes and you clothed me,[o] I was sick and you looked after me,[p] I was in prison and you came to visit me.'[q]

37"Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? 38When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you?
39When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?'

40"The King will reply, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.'[r]

41"Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me,[s] you who are cursed, into the eternal fire[t] prepared for the devil and his angels.[u] 42For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, 43I was a stranger and you did not invite me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after me.'

44"They also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?'

The Plot Against Jesus

26:2-5pp — Mk 14:1,2; Lk 22:1,2

26 When Jesus had finished saying all these things,[c] he said to his disciples, 2"As you know, the Passover[d] is two days away—and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified." 3Then the chief priests and the elders of the people assembled[e] in the palace of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas,[f] 4and they plotted to arrest Jesus in some sly way and kill him.[g] 5"But not during the Feast," they said, "or there may be a riot[h] among the people."

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

26:6-13pp — Mk 14:3-9 26:6-13Ref — Lk 7:37,38; Jn 12:1-8

6While Jesus was in Bethany[i] in the home of a man known as Simon the Leper, 7a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, which she poured on his head as he was reclining at the table.
were indignant. "Why this waste?" they asked. 9"This perfume could have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor." 10Aware of this, Jesus said to them, "Why are you bothering this woman?
She has done a beautiful thing to me.
11The poor you will always have with you,[j] but you will not always have me.
12When she poured this perfume on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.[k] 13I tell you the truth, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

14Then one of the Twelve—the one called Judas Iscariot[l]—went to the chief priests 15and asked, "What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?" So they counted out for him thirty silver coins.[m] 16From then on Judas watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

The Lord's Supper

26:20-24pp — Mk 14:17-21
26:26-29pp — Mk 14:22-25; Lk 22:17-20; 1Co 11:23-25

17On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread,[n] the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?"[o] 18He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time[p] is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.'" 19So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.
20When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the Twelve.
21And while they were eating, he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me."[q] 22They were very sad and began to say to him one after the other, "Surely not I, Lord?" 23Jesus replied, "The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me.[r] 24The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him.[s] But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born." 25Then Judas, the one who would betray him,[t] said, "Surely not I, Rabbi?"[u]
Jesus answered, "Yes, it is you."[c] 26While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it,[v] and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." 27Then he took the cup,[w] gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28This is my blood of the[d] covenant,[x] which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.[y] 29I tell you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it anew with you[z] in my Father's kingdom."
30When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.[a]

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

31Then Jesus told them, "This very night you will all fall away on account of me,[b] for it is written:

> "'I will strike the shepherd, > and the sheep of the flock will be > scattered.'[e][c]

32But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."[d] 33Peter replied, "Even if all fall away on account of you, I never will."

34"I tell you the truth," Jesus answered, "this very night, before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times."[a] 35But Peter declared, "Even if I have to die with you,[b] I will never disown you." And all the other disciples said the same.

Gethsemane

36Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." 37He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee[c] along with him, and he began to be sorrowful and troubled. 38Then he said to them, "My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow[d] to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me."[e] 39Going a little farther, he fell with his face to the ground and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, may this cup[f] be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will."[g] 40Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. "Could you men not keep watch with me[h] for one hour?" he asked Peter. 41"Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation.[i] The spirit is willing, but the body is weak." 42He went away a second time and prayed, "My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to be taken away unless I drink it, may your will be done."[j] 43When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. 44So he left them and went away once more and prayed the third time, saying the same thing.
45Then he returned to the disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the hour[k] is near, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46Rise, let us go! Here comes my betrayer!"

Jesus Arrested

47While he was still speaking, Judas,[l] one of the Twelve, arrived.
With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people. 48Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: "The one I kiss is the man; arrest him." 49Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Greetings, Rabbi!"[m] and kissed him.

50Jesus replied, "Friend,[n] do what you came for."[f]
Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus and arrested him. 51With that, one of Jesus' companions reached for his sword,[o] drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.[p] 52"Put your sword back in its place," Jesus said to him, "for all who draw the sword will die by the sword.[q] 53Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and he will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels?[r] 54But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled[s] that say it must happen in this way?" 55At that time Jesus said to the crowd, "Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me? Every day I sat in the temple courts teaching,[t] and you did not arrest me. 56But this has all taken place that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled."[u] Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.

Before the Sanhedrin

57Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas,[v] the high priest, where the teachers of the law and the elders had assembled. 58But Peter followed him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest.[w] He entered and sat down with the guards[x] to see the outcome.
59The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin[y] were looking for false evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death. 60But they did not find any, though many false witnesses[z] came forward.
Finally two[a] came forward 61and declared, "This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'"[b] 62Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, "Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?" 63But Jesus remained silent.[c]
The high priest said to him, "I charge you under oath[d] by the living God:[e] Tell us if you are the Christ,[g][f] the Son of God."[g] 64"Yes, it is as you say,"[h] Jesus replied. "But I say to all of you: In the future you will see the Son of Man sit-

[f]50 Or "Friend, why have you come?" [g]63 Or Messiah; also in verse 68 ting at the right hand of the Mighty One[a] and coming on the clouds of heaven."[b] 65 Then the high priest tore his clothes[c] and said, "He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy. 66 What do you think?"

"He is worthy of death,"[d] they answered.
67 Then they spit in his face and struck him with their fists.[e] Others slapped him 68 and said, "Prophesy to us, Christ. Who hit you?"[f]

Peter Disowns Jesus

69 Now Peter was sitting out in the courtyard, and a servant girl came to him. "You also were with Jesus of Galilee," she said.
70 But he denied it before them all. "I don't know what you're talking about," he said.
71 Then he went out to the gateway, where another girl saw him and said to the people there, "This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth." 72 He denied it again, with an oath: "I don't know the man!"
73 After a little while, those standing there went up to Peter and said, "Surely you are one of them, for your accent gives you away." 74 Then he began to call down curses on himself and he swore to them, "I don't know the man!"
Immediately a rooster crowed.
75 Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken: "Before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times."[g] And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Judas Hangs Himself

27 Early in the morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people came to the decision to put Jesus to death.[h] 2 They bound him, led him away and handed him over[i] to Pilate, the governor.[j] 3 When Judas, who had betrayed him,[k] saw that Jesus was condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty silver coins[l] to the chief priests and the elders. 4 "I have sinned," he said, "for I have betrayed innocent blood."
"What is that to us?" they replied.
"That's your responsibility."[m] 5 So Judas threw the money into the temple[n] and left. Then he went away and hanged himself.[o] 6 The chief priests picked up the coins and said, "It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money." 7 So they decided to use the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners. 8 That is why it has been called the Field of Blood[p] to this day. 9 Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:[q] "They took the thirty silver coins, the price set on him by the people of Israel, 10 and they used them to buy the potter's field, as the Lord commanded me."[h][r]

Jesus Before Pilate

27:11-26pp — Mk 15:2-15; Lk 23:2,3,18-25; Jn 18:29-19:16

11 Meanwhile Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"[s]
"Yes, it is as you say," Jesus replied.
12 When he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he gave no answer.[t] 13 Then Pilate asked him, "Don't you hear the testimony they are bringing against you?"[u] 14 But Jesus made no reply,[v] not even to a single charge—to the great amazement of the governor.
15 Now it was the governor's custom at the Feast to release a prisoner[w] chosen by the crowd. 16 At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas. 17 So when the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them, "Which one do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?"[x] 18 For he knew it was out of envy that they had handed Jesus over to him.
19 While Pilate was sitting on the judge's seat,[y] his wife sent him this message: "Don't have anything to do with that innocent[z] man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream[a] because of him." 20 But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed.[b] 21 "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" asked the governor.
"Barabbas," they answered.
22 "What shall I do, then, with Jesus who is called Christ?"[c] Pilate asked.
They all answered, "Crucify him!" 23 "Why? What crime has he committed?" asked Pilate.
But they shouted all the louder,
"Crucify him!"

24When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that instead an uproar was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. "I am innocent of this man's blood," he said. "It is your responsibility!" 25All the people answered, "Let his blood be on us and on our children!" 26Then he released Barabbas to them.
But he had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

27Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole company of soldiers around him. 28They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him,[h] 29and then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on his head. They put a staff in his right hand and knelt in front of him and mocked him. "Hail, king of the Jews!" they said.[i] 30They spit on him, and took the staff and struck him on the head again and again.[j] 31After they had mocked him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.[k]

The Crucifixion

32As they were going out,[l] they met a man from Cyrene,[m] named Simon, and they forced him to carry the cross.[n] 33They came to a place called Golgotha (which means The Place of the Skull).[o] 34There they offered Jesus wine to drink, mixed with gall;[p] but after tasting it, he refused to drink it.
35When they had crucified him, they divided up his clothes by casting lots.[i][q] 36And sitting down, they kept watch[r] over him there. 37Above his head they placed the written charge against him: THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS. 38Two robbers were crucified with him,[s] one on his right and one on his left. 39Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads[t] 40and saying, "You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days,[u] save yourself![v] Come down from the cross, if you are the Son of God!"[w] 41In the same way the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders mocked him. 42"He saved others," they said, "but he can't save himself! He's the King of Israel![x] Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him. 43He trusts in God. Let God rescue him[y] now if he wants him, for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'"[z] 44In the same way the robbers who were crucified with him also heaped insults on him.

The Death of Jesus

45From the sixth hour until the ninth hour darkness[a] came over all the land.
46About the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi,[j] lama sabach-thani?"—which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"[k][b] 47When some of those standing there heard this, they said, "He's calling Elijah." 48Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with wine vinegar,[c] put it on a stick, and offered it to Jesus to drink. 49The rest said, "Now leave him alone. Let's see if Elijah comes to save him." 50And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, he gave up his spirit.[d] 51At that moment the curtain of the temple[e] was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook and the rocks split.[f] 52The tombs broke open and the bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life. 53They came out of the tombs, and after Jesus' resurrection they went into the holy city[g] and appeared to many people.
54When the centurion and those with him who were guarding[h] Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified, and exclaimed, "Surely he was the Son[l] of God!"[i] 55Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for his needs.[j] 56Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.[k]

The Burial of Jesus

27:57-61pp — Mk 15:42-47; Lk 23:50-56; Jn 19:38-42

57As evening approached, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus. 58Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus' body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him.

59 Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and placed it in his own new tomb[a] that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away. 61 Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there opposite the tomb.

The Guard at the Tomb

62 The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate. 63 "Sir," they said, "we remember that while he was still alive that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise again.'[b] 64 So give the order for the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, his disciples may come and steal the body[c] and tell the people that he has been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first." 65 "Take a guard,"[d] Pilate answered.
"Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how." 66 So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal[e] on the stone[f] and posting the guard.[g]

The Resurrection

28 After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene[h] and the other Mary[i] went to look at the tomb.
2 There was a violent earthquake,[j] for an angel[k] of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone[l] and sat on it.
3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow.[m] 4 The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.
5 The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid,[n] for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified.
6 He is not here; he has risen, just as he said.[o] Come and see the place where he lay. 7 Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee.[p] There you will see him.' Now I have told you." 8 So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. 9 Suddenly Jesus met them.[q] "Greetings," he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him. 10 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers[r] to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

The Guards' Report

11 While the women were on their way, some of the guards[s] went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened.
12 When the chief priests had met with the elders and devised a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money, 13 telling them, "You are to say, 'His disciples came during the night and stole him away[t] while we were asleep.' 14 If this report gets to the governor,[u] we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble." 15 So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been widely circulated among the Jews to this very day.

The Great Commission

16 Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go.[v] 17 When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. 18 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.[w] 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations,[x] baptizing them in[m] the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,[y] 20 and teaching[z] them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you[a] always, to the very end of the age."[b]

Mark

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

[illegible]

1 The beginning of the gospel about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.[a] 2 It is written in Isaiah the prophet:
"I will send my messenger ahead of
you,
who will prepare your way"[b]— 3 "a voice of one calling in the desert,
'Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.'"[c] 4 And so John came, baptizing in the desert region and preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. 5 The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River. 6 John wore clothing made of camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. 7 And this was his message: "After me will come one more powerful than I, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie. 8 I baptize you with[d] water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus

[illegible]

9 At that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. 10 As Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. 11 And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased." 12 At once the Spirit sent him out into the desert, 13 and he was in the desert forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and angels attended him.

[illegible]

14 After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God. 15 "The time has come," he said. "The kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the good news!" 16 As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. 17 "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." 18 At once they left their nets and followed him.
19 When he had gone a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John in a boat, preparing their nets. 20 Without delay he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

Jesus Drives Out an Evil Spirit

[illegible]

21 They went to Capernaum, and when the Sabbath came, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach. 22 The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as one who had authority, not as the teachers of the law. 23 Just then a man in their synagogue who was possessed by an evil[e] spirit cried out, 24 "What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"
25 "Be quiet!" said Jesus sternly.
"Come out of him!" 26 The evil spirit shook the man violently and came out of him with a shriek.
27 The people were all so amazed that they asked each other, "What is this? A new teaching—and with authority! He even gives orders to evil spirits and they obey him." 28 News

Jesus Heals Many

1:29-31pp — Mt 8:14,15; Lk 4:38,39
1:32-34pp — Mt 8:16,17; Lk 4:40,41

29As soon as they left the synagogue,[b] they went with James and John to the home of Simon and Andrew. 30Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told Jesus about her. 31So he went to her, took her hand and helped her up.[c] The fever left her and she began to wait on them.
32That evening after sunset the people brought to Jesus all the sick and demon-possessed.[d] 33The whole town gathered at the door, 34and Jesus healed many who had various diseases.[e] He also drove out many demons, but he would not let the demons speak because they knew who he was.[f]

Jesus Prays in a Solitary Place

35Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed.[g] 36Simon and his companions went to look for him, 37and when they found him, they exclaimed: "Everyone is looking for you!" 38Jesus replied, "Let us go somewhere else—to the nearby villages—so I can preach there also. That is why I have come."[h] 39So he traveled throughout Galilee, preaching in their synagogues[i] and driving out demons.[j]

A Man With Leprosy

1:40-44pp — Mt 8:2-4; Lk 5:12-14

40A man with leprosy[f] came to him and begged him on his knees,[k] "If you are willing, you can make me clean." 41Filled with compassion, Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. "I am willing," he said. "Be clean!" 42Immediately the leprosy left him and he was cured.
43Jesus sent him away at once with a strong warning: 44"See that you don't tell this to anyone.[l] But go, show yourself to the priest[m] and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing,[n] as a testimony to them." 45Instead he went out and began to talk freely, spreading the news.
As a result, Jesus could no longer enter a town openly but stayed outside in lonely places.[o] Yet the people still came to him from everywhere.[p]

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

2:3-12pp — Mt 9:2-8; Lk 5:18-26

2 A few days later, when Jesus again entered Capernaum, the people heard that he had come home. 2So many[q] gathered that there was no room left, not even outside the door, and he preached the word to them.
3Some men came, bringing to him a paralytic,[r] carried by four of them.
4Since they could not get him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof above Jesus and, after digging through it, lowered the mat the paralyzed man was lying on.
5When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven."[s] 6Now some teachers of the law were sitting there, thinking to themselves, 7"Why does this fellow talk like that?
He's blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?"[t] 8Immediately Jesus knew in his spirit that this was what they were thinking in their hearts, and he said to them, "Why are you thinking these things?
9Which is easier: to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, take your mat and walk'? 10But that you may know that the Son of Man[u] has authority on earth to forgive sins . . . ." He said to the paralytic, 11"I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home." 12He got up, took his mat and walked out in full view of them all.
This amazed everyone and they praised God,[v] saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"[w]

The Calling of Levi

2:14-17pp — Mt 9:9-13; Lk 5:27-32

13Once again Jesus went out beside the lake. A large crowd came to him,[x] and he began to teach them. 14As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Al-phaeus sitting at the tax collector's booth. "Follow me,"[y] Jesus told him, and Levi got up and followed him.
15While Jesus was having dinner at Levi's house, many tax collectors and "sinners" were eating with him and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. 16When the teachers of the law who were Pharisees[z] saw him eating with the "sinners" and tax collectors, they asked his disciples: "Why does he eat with tax collectors and 'sinners'?"[a] 17 On hearing this, Jesus said to them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."[b]

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

2:18-22pp — Mt 9:14-17; Lk 5:33-38

18 Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting.[c] Some people came and asked Jesus, "How is it that John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees are fasting, but yours are not?"

19 Jesus answered, "How can the guests of the bridegroom fast while he is with them? They cannot, so long as they have him with them. 20 But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them,[d] and on that day they will fast.

21 "No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. If he does, the new piece will pull away from the old, making the tear worse. 22 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the wineskins will be ruined. No, he pours new wine into new wineskins."

Lord of the Sabbath

2:23-28pp — Mt 12:1-8; Lk 6:1-5

23 One Sabbath Jesus was going through the grainfields, and as his disciples walked along, they began to pick some heads of grain.[e] 24 The Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?"[f]

25 He answered, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need? 26 In the days of Abiathar the high priest,[g] he entered the house of God and ate the consecrated bread, which is lawful only for priests to eat.[h] And he also gave some to his companions."[i]

27 Then he said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man,[j] not man for the Sabbath.[k] 28 So the Son of Man[l] is Lord even of the Sabbath."

3 Another time he went into the synagogue,[m] and a man with a shriveled hand was there. 2 Some of them were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, so they watched him closely[n] to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath.[o] 3 Jesus said to the man with the shriveled hand, "Stand up in front of everyone."

4 Then Jesus asked them, "Which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they remained silent.

5 He looked around at them in anger and, deeply distressed at their stubborn hearts, said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored. 6 Then the Pharisees went out and began to plot with the Herodians[p] how they might kill Jesus.[q]

Crowds Follow Jesus

7 Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the lake, and a large crowd from Galilee followed.[r] 8 When they heard all he was doing, many people came to him from Judea, Jerusalem, Idumea, and the regions across the Jordan and around Tyre and Sidon.[s] 9 Because of the crowd he told his disciples to have a small boat ready for him, to keep the people from crowding him. 10 For he had healed many,[t] so that those with diseases were pushing forward to touch him.[u] 11 Whenever the evil[g] spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, "You are the Son of God."[v] 12 But he gave them strict orders not to tell who he was.[w]

The Appointing of the Twelve Apostles

3:16-19pp — Mt 10:2-4; Lk 6:14-16; Ac 1:13

13 Jesus went up on a mountainside and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him.[x] 14 He appointed twelve—designating them apostles[h][y]—that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach 15 and to have authority to drive out demons.[z] 16 These are the twelve he appointed: Simon (to whom he gave the name Peter);[a] 17 James son of Zebedee and his brother John (to them he gave the name Boanerges, which means Sons of Thunder); 18 Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot 19 and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

Jesus and Beelzebub

20 Then Jesus entered a house, and again a crowd gathered,[b] so that he and his disciples were not even able to eat.[a] 21When his family heard about this, they went to take charge of him, for they said, "He is out of his mind." 22And the teachers of the law who came down from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebub[i]!" By the prince of demons he is driving out demons." 23So Jesus called them and spoke to them in parables: "How can Satan drive out Satan? 24If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26And if Satan opposes himself and is divided, he cannot stand; his end has come. 27In fact, no one can enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can rob his house. 28I tell you the truth, all the sins and blasphemies of men will be forgiven them. 29But whoever blas-phemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven; he is guilty of an eternal sin." 30He said this because they were saying, "He has an evil spirit."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

31Then Jesus' mother and brothers arrived. Standing outside, they sent someone in to call him. 32A crowd was sitting around him, and they told him, "Your mother and brothers are outside looking for you." 33"Who are my mother and my brothers?" he asked.
34Then he looked at those seated in a circle around him and said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! 35Who-ever does God's will is my brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

4:1-12pp — Mt 13:1-15; Lk 8:4-10
4:13-20pp — Mt 13:18-23; Lk 8:11-15

4 Again Jesus began to teach by the lake.[k] The crowd that gathered around him was so large that he got into a boat and sat in it out on the lake, while all the people were along the shore at the water's edge. 2He taught them many things by parables,[l] and in his teaching said: 3"Listen! A farmer went out to sow his seed.[m] 4As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up.
5Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow.
6But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. 7Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants, so that they did not bear grain. 8Still other seed fell on good soil. It came up, grew and produced a crop, multiplying thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times."[n] 9Then Jesus said, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."[o] 10When he was alone, the Twelve and the others around him asked him about the parables. 11He told them, "The secret of the kingdom of God[p] has been given to you. But to those on the outside[q] everything is said in parables 12so that,

"'they may be ever seeing but never
perceiving,
and ever hearing but never understanding;
otherwise they might turn and be forgiven!'[j]"[r]

13Then Jesus said to them, "Don't you understand this parable? How then will you understand any parable?
14The farmer sows the word.[s] 15Some people are like seed along the path, where the word is sown. As soon as they hear it, Satan[t] comes and takes away the word that was sown in them.
16Others, like seed sown on rocky places, hear the word and at once receive it with joy. 17But since they have no root, they last only a short time.
When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away. 18Still others, like seed sown among thorns, hear the word; 19but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of wealth[u] and the desires for other things come in and choke the word, making it unfruitful. 20Others, like seed sown on good soil, hear the word, accept it, and produce a crop—thirty, sixty or even a hundred times what was sown."

A Lamp on a Stand

21He said to them, "Do you bring in a lamp to put it under a bowl or a bed?
Instead, don't you put it on its stand?[v] 22For whatever is hidden is meant to be disclosed, and whatever is concealed is meant to be brought out into the open.[w] 23If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear."[x] 24"Consider carefully what you sure you use, it will be measured to you—and even more.[a] [25]Whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him."[b]

The Parable of the Growing Seed

[26]He also said, "This is what the kingdom of God is like.[c] A man scatters seed on the ground. [27]Night and day, whether he sleeps or gets up, the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how. [28]All by itself the soil produces grain—first the stalk, then the head, then the full kernel in the head. [29]As soon as the grain is ripe, he puts the sickle to it, because the harvest has come."[d]

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

4:30-32pp — Mt 13:31,32; Lk 13:18,19

[30]Again he said, "What shall we say the kingdom of God is like,[e] or what parable shall we use to describe it? [31]It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest seed you plant in the ground.
[32]Yet when planted, it grows and becomes the largest of all garden plants, with such big branches that the birds of the air can perch in its shade." [33]With many similar parables Jesus spoke the word to them, as much as they could understand.[f] [34]He did not say anything to them without using a parable.[g] But when he was alone with his own disciples, he explained everything.

[35]That day when evening came, he said to his disciples, "Let us go over to the other side." [36]Leaving the crowd behind, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat.[h] There were also other boats with him. [37]A furious squall came up, and the waves broke over the boat, so that it was nearly swamped.
[38]Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him and said to him, "Teacher, don't you care if we drown?" [39]He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, "Quiet! Be still!" Then the wind died down and it was completely calm.
[40]He said to his disciples, "Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?"[i] [41]They were terrified and asked each

The Healing of a Demon-possessed Man

5:1-17pp — Mt 8:28-34; Lk 8:26-37
5:18-20pp — Lk 8:38,39

5 They went across the lake to the region of the Gerasenes.[k] [2]When Jesus got out of the boat,[j] a man with an evil[l] spirit[k] came from the tombs to meet him. [3]This man lived in the tombs, and no one could bind him any more, not even with a chain. [4]For he had often been chained hand and foot, but he tore the chains apart and broke the irons on his feet. No one was strong enough to subdue him. [5]Night and day among the tombs and in the hills he would cry out and cut himself with stones.
[6]When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell on his knees in front of him. [7]He shouted at the top of his voice, "What do you want with me,[l] Jesus, Son of the Most High God?[m] Swear to God that you won't torture me!" [8]For Jesus had said to him, "Come out of this man, you evil spirit!" [9]Then Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"
"My name is Legion,"[n] he replied,
"for we are many." [10]And he begged Jesus again and again not to send them out of the area.
[11]A large herd of pigs was feeding on the nearby hillside. [12]The demons begged Jesus, "Send us among the pigs; allow us to go into them." [13]He gave them permission, and the evil spirits came out and went into the pigs.
The herd, about two thousand in number, rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned.
[14]Those tending the pigs ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, and the people went out to see what had happened. [15]When they came to Jesus, they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion[o] of demons,[p] sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.
[16]Those who had seen it told the people what had happened to the demon-possessed man—and told about the pigs as well. [17]Then the people began to plead with Jesus to leave their region.
[18]As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-pos-

And all the people were amazed.

21When Jesus had again crossed over by boat to the other side of the lake,[c] a large crowd gathered around him while he was by the lake.[d] 22Then one of the synagogue rulers,[e] named Jairus, came there. Seeing Jesus, he fell at his feet 23and pleaded earnestly with him, "My little daughter is dying. Please come and put your hands on[f] her so that she will be healed and live." 24So Jesus went with him.

A large crowd followed and pressed around him. 25And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding[g] for twelve years. 26She had suffered a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse. 27When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, 28because she thought, "If I just touch his clothes,[h] I will be healed." 29Immediately her bleeding stopped and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering.[i]

30At once Jesus realized that power[j] had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

31"You see the people crowding against you," his disciples answered, "and yet you can ask, 'Who touched me?' "

32But Jesus kept looking around to see who had done it. 33Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell at his feet and, trembling with fear, told him the whole truth. 34He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you.[k] Go in peace[l] and be freed from your suffering."

35While Jesus was still speaking, some men came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue ruler.[m] "Your daughter is dead," they said. "Why bother the teacher any more?"

36Ignoring what they said, Jesus told the synagogue ruler, "Don't be afraid; just believe."

37He did not let anyone follow him except Peter, James and John the brother of James.[n] 38When they came to the home of the synagogue ruler,[o] Jesus saw a commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly. 39He went in and said to them, "Why all this commotion and wailing? The child is not dead but asleep."[p] 40But they laughed at him.

After he put them all out, he took the child's father and mother and the disciples who were with him, and went in where the child was. 41He took her by the hand[q] and said to her, "Talitha koum!" (which means, "Little girl, I say to you, get up!").[r] 42Immediately the girl stood up and walked around (she was twelve years old). At this they were completely astonished. 43He gave strict orders not to let anyone know about this,[s] and told them to give her something to eat.

6:1-6pp — Mt 13:54-58

6 Jesus left there and went to his hometown,[t] accompanied by his disciples. 2When the Sabbath came,[u] he began to teach in the synagogue,[v] and many who heard him were amazed.[w]

"Where did this man get these things?" they asked. "What's this wisdom that has been given him, that he even does miracles! 3Isn't this the carpenter? Isn't this Mary's son and the brother of James, Joseph,[n] Judas and Simon?[x] Aren't his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him.[y]

4Jesus said to them, "Only in his hometown, among his relatives and in his own house is a prophet without honor."[z] 5He could not do any miracles there, except lay his hands on[a] a few sick people and heal them. 6And he was amazed at their lack of faith.

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve

Then Jesus went around teaching from village to village.[b] 7Calling the Twelve to him,[c] he sent them out two by two[d] and gave them authority over evil[o] spirits.[e]

8These were his instructions: "Take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in your 12They went out and preached that people should repent.[b] 13They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil[c] and healed them.

6:14-16pp — Lk 9:7-9

14King Herod heard about this, for Jesus' name had become well known. Some were saying,[a] "John the Baptist[d] has been raised from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him."

15Others said, "He is Elijah."[e]

And still others claimed, "He is a prophet,[f] like one of the prophets of long ago."[g]

16But when Herod heard this, he said, "John, the man I beheaded, has been raised from the dead!"

17For Herod himself had given orders to have John arrested, and he had him bound and put in prison.[h] He did this because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, whom he had married. 18For John had been saying to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."[i] 19So Herodias nursed a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But she was not able to, 20because Herod feared John and protected him, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man.[j] When Herod heard John, he was greatly puzzled[b]; yet he liked to listen to him.

21Finally the opportune time came. On his birthday Herod gave a banquet[k] for his high officials and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee.[l] 22When the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his dinner guests.

The king said to the girl, "Ask me for anything you want, and I'll give it to you." 23And he promised her with an oath, "Whatever you ask I will give you, up to half my kingdom."[m]

24She went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask for?"

"The head of John the Baptist," she answered.

25At once the girl hurried in to the king with the request: "I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptist on a platter."

26The king was greatly distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he did not want to refuse her. 27So he immediately sent an executioner with orders to bring John's head. The man went, beheaded John in the prison, 28and brought back his head on a platter. He presented it to the girl, and she gave it to her mother. 29On hearing of this, John's disciples came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

6:32-44pp — Mt 14:13-21; Lk 9:10-17; Jn 6:5-13
6:32-44Ref — Mk 8:2-9

30The apostles[n] gathered around Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught.[o] 31Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat,[p] he said to them, "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest."

32So they went away by themselves in a boat[q] to a solitary place. 33But many who saw them leaving recognized them and ran on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them. 34When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd.[r] So he began teaching them many things.

35By this time it was late in the day, so his disciples came to him. "This is a remote place," they said, "and it's already very late. 36Send the people away so they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."

37But he answered, "You give them something to eat."[s]

They said to him, "That would take eight months of a man's wages[c]! Are we to go and spend that much on bread and give it to them to eat?"

38"How many loaves do you have?" he asked. "Go and see."

When they found out, they said, "Five—and two fish."[t]

39Then Jesus directed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass. 40So they sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties. 41Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves.[u] Then he gave

6:45-51pp — Mt 14:22-32; Jn 6:15-21
6:53-56pp — Mt 14:34-36

45Immediately Jesus made his disciples get into the boat[a] and go on ahead of him to Bethsaida,[b] while he dismissed the crowd. 46After leaving them, he went up on a mountainside to pray.[c] 47When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the lake, and he was alone on land. 48He saw the disciples straining at the oars, because the wind was against them. About the fourth watch of the night he went out to them, walking on the lake. He was about to pass by them, 49but when they saw him walking on the lake, they thought he was a ghost.[d] They cried out, 50because they all saw him and were terrified.
Immediately he spoke to them and said, "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid."[e] 51Then he climbed into the boat[f] with them, and the wind died down.[g] They were completely amazed, 52for they had not understood about the loaves; their hearts were hardened.[h] 53When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and anchored there.[i] 54As soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized Jesus. 55They ran throughout that whole region and carried the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. 56And wherever he went—into villages, towns or countryside—they placed the sick in the marketplaces. They begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak,[j] and all who touched him were healed.

7 The Pharisees and some of the teachers of the law who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus and 2saw some of his disciples eating food with hands that were "unclean,"[k] that is, unwashed. 3(The Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they give their hands a ceremonial washing, holding to the tradition of the elders.[l] 4When they come from the marketplace they do not eat unless they wash. And they observe many other traditions, such as the washing of cups, pitchers and kettles.[s])[m] 5So the Pharisees and teachers of the law asked Jesus, "Why don't your disciples live according to the tradition of the elders[n] instead of eating their food with 'unclean' hands?" 6He replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written:

" 'These people honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.
7They worship me in vain;
their teachings are but rules taught by men.'[t][o]

8You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men."[p] 9And he said to them: "You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe[u] your own traditions![q] 10For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,'[v][r] and,
'Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.'[w][s] 11But you say[t] that if a man says to his father or mother: 'Whatever help you might otherwise have received from me is Corban' (that is, a gift devoted to God), 12then you no longer let him do anything for his father or mother. 13Thus you nullify the word of God[u] by your tradition[v] that you have handed down.
And you do many things like that." 14Again Jesus called the crowd to him and said, "Listen to me, everyone, and understand this. 15Nothing outside a man can make him 'unclean' by going into him. Rather, it is what comes out of a man that makes him 'unclean.'[x]" 17After he had left the crowd and entered the house, his disciples asked him[w] about this parable. 18"Are you so dull?" he asked. "Don't you see that nothing that enters a man from the outside can make him 'unclean'? 19For it doesn't go into his heart but into his stomach, and then out of his body." (In saying this, Jesus declared all foods[x] "clean.")[y]

The Faith of a Syrophoenician Woman

[24]Jesus left that place and went to the vicinity of Tyre.[y] He entered a house and did not want anyone to know it; yet he could not keep his presence secret. [25]In fact, as soon as she heard about him, a woman whose little daughter was possessed by an evil[z] spirit came and fell at his feet. [26]The woman was a Greek, born in Syrian Phoenicia. She begged Jesus to drive the demon out of her daughter.

[27]"First let the children eat all they want," he told her, "for it is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to their dogs."

[28]"Yes, Lord," she replied, "but even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

[29]Then he told her, "For such a reply, you may go; the demon has left your daughter."

[30]She went home and found her child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

The Healing of a Deaf and Mute Man

[31]Then Jesus left the vicinity of Tyre[d] and went through Sidon, down to the Sea of Galilee[e] and into the region of the Decapolis.[a][f] [32]There some people brought to him a man who was deaf and could hardly talk,[g] and they begged him to place his hand on[h] the man.

[33]After he took him aside, away from the crowd, Jesus put his fingers into the man's ears. Then he spit[i] and touched the man's tongue. [34]He looked up to heaven[j] and with a deep sigh[k] said to him, "Ephphatha!" (which means, "Be opened!"). [35]At this, the man's ears were opened, his tongue was loosened and he began to speak plainly.[l]

[36]Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone.[m] But the more he did so, the more they kept talking about it.
[37]People were overwhelmed with amazement. "He has done everything well," they said. "He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

Jesus Feeds the Four Thousand

8:1-9pp — Mt 15:32-39
8:1-9Ref — Mk 6:32-44
8:11-21pp — Mt 16:1-12

8 During those days another large crowd gathered. Since they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to him and said, [2]"I have compassion for these people;[n] they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat. [3]If I send them home hungry, they will collapse on the way, because some of them have come a long distance."

[4]His disciples answered, "But where in this remote place can anyone get enough bread to feed them?"

[5]"How many loaves do you have?"
Jesus asked.

"Seven," they replied.

[6]He told the crowd to sit down on the ground. When he had taken the seven loaves and given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to set before the people, and they did so. [7]They had a few small fish as well; he gave thanks for them also and told the disciples to distribute them.[o] [8]The people ate and were satisfied. Afterward the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.[p] [9]About four thousand men were present. And having sent them away, [10]he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the region of Dal-manutha.

[11]The Pharisees came and began to question Jesus. To test him, they asked him for a sign from heaven.[q] [12]He sighed deeply[r] and said, "Why does this generation ask for a miraculous sign? I tell you the truth, no sign will be given to it." [13]Then he left them, got back into the boat and crossed to the other side.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Herod

[14]The disciples had forgotten to bring bread, except for one loaf they had with them in the boat. [15]"Be careful," Jesus warned them. "Watch out for the yeast[s] of the Pharisees[t] and that of Herod."[u]

[16]They discussed this with one another and said, "It is because we have no bread."

The Healing of a Blind Man at Bethsaida

22They came to Bethsaida,[e] and some people brought a blind man[f] and begged Jesus to touch him. 23He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. When he had spit[g] on the man's eyes and put his hands on[h] him, Jesus asked, "Do you see anything?" 24He looked up and said, "I see people; they look like trees walking around." 25Once more Jesus put his hands on the man's eyes. Then his eyes were opened, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly. 26Jesus sent him home, saying, "Don't go into the village.[a]"

Peter's Confession of Christ

27Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi.
On the way he asked them, "Who do people say I am?"
28They replied, "Some say John the Baptist;[i] others say Elijah;[j] and still others, one of the prophets." 29"But what about you?" he asked.
"Who do you say I am?"
Peter answered, "You are the Christ.[b]"[k] 30Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.[l]

things[n] and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law,[o] and that he must be killed[p] and after three days[q] rise again.[r] 32He spoke plainly[s] about this, and Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

33But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. "Get behind me, Satan!"[t] he said. "You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men." 34Then he called the crowd to him along with his disciples and said: "If
follow me.[u] 35For whoever wants to save his life[c] will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me and for the gospel will save it.[v] 36What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? 37Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? 38If anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man[w] will be ashamed of him[x] when he comes[y] in his Father's glory with the holy angels."

9 And he said to them, "I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come[z] with power."[a]

The Transfiguration

9:2-8pp — Lk 9:28-36
9:2-13pp — Mt 17:1-13

2After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John[b] with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them. 3His clothes became dazzling white,[c] whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them. 4And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus.
5Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi,[d] it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." 6(He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.) 7Then a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and a voice came from the cloud:[e] "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!"[f] 8Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.
9As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus gave them orders not come, and they have done to him

The Healing of a Boy With an Evil Spirit

[illegible]

14When they came to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and the teachers of the law arguing with them. 15As soon as all the people saw Jesus, they were overwhelmed with wonder and ran to greet
him.
16"What are you arguing with them about?" he asked.
17A man in the crowd answered, "Teacher, I brought you my son, who is possessed by a spirit that has robbed him of speech. 18Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth and becomes rigid. I asked your disciples to drive out the spirit, but they could not."
19"O unbelieving generation," Jesus replied, "how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you?
Bring the boy to me." 20So they brought him. When the spirit saw Jesus, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth.
21Jesus asked the boy's father, "How long has he been like this?"
"From childhood," he answered.
22"It has often thrown him into fire or water to kill him. But if you can do anything, take pity on us and help us." 23" 'If you can'?" said Jesus. "Everything is possible for him who believes." 24Immediately the boy's father exclaimed, "I do believe; help me overcome my unbelief!" 25When Jesus saw that a crowd was running to the scene, he rebuked the evil spirit. "You deaf and mute spirit," he said, "I command you, come out of him and never enter him again." 26The spirit shrieked, convulsed him violently and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, "He's dead." 27But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him to his feet, and he stood up.
28After Jesus had gone indoors, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we drive it out?" 29He replied, "This kind can come out only by prayer." 30They left that place and passed through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where they were, 31because he was teaching his disciples. He said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men. They will kill him, and after three days he will rise." 32But they did not understand what he meant and were afraid to ask him about it.

Who Is the Greatest?

9:33-37pp — Mt 18:1-5; Lk 9:46-48

33They came to Capernaum. When he was in the house, he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the road?" 34But they kept quiet because on the way they had argued about who was the greatest.
35Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, "If anyone wants to be first, he must be the very last, and the servant of all." 36He took a little child and had him stand among them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them, 37"Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the one who sent me."

Whoever Is Not Against Us Is for Us

9:38-40pp — Lk 9:49-50

38"Teacher," said John, "we saw a man driving out demons in your name and we told him to stop, because he was not one of us." 39"Do not stop him," Jesus said. "No one who does a miracle in my name can in the next moment say anything bad about me, 40for whoever is not against us is for us. 41I tell you the truth, anyone who gives you a cup of water in my name because you belong to Christ will certainly not lose his reward.[a]

Causing to Sin

42"And if anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin,[b] it would be better for him to be thrown into the sea with a large millstone tied around his neck.[c] 43If your hand causes you to sin,[d] cut it off. It is better for you to enter life maimed than with two hands to go into hell,[e] where the fire never goes out.[g][f] 45And if your foot causes you to sin,[g] cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than to have two feet and be thrown into hell.[h][h] 47And if your eye causes you to sin,[i] pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell,[j] 48where

"'their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.'[i][k]

49Everyone will be salted[l] with fire.
50"Salt is good, but if it loses its salti-ness, how can you make it salty again?[m] Have salt in yourselves,[n] and be at peace with each other."[o]

Divorce

10 Jesus then left that place and went into the region of Judea and across the Jordan.[p] Again crowds of people came to him, and as was his custom, he taught them.[q] 2Some Pharisees[r] came and tested him by asking, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"
3"What did Moses command you?" he replied.
4They said, "Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and send her away."[s] 5"It was because your hearts were hard[t] that Moses wrote you this law," Jesus replied. 6"But at the beginning of creation God 'made them male and female.'[j][u] 7'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife,[k] 8and the two will become one flesh.'[l][v] So they are no longer two, but one. 9Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate."
10When they were in the house again, the disciples asked Jesus about this. 11He answered, "Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her.[w]

The Little Children and Jesus

13People were bringing little children to Jesus to have him touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. 14When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.[y] 15I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it."[z] 16And he took the children in his arms,[a] put his hands on them and blessed them.

The Rich Young Man

10:17-31pp — Mt 19:16-30; Lk 18:18-30

17As Jesus started on his way, a man ran up to him and fell on his knees[b] before him. "Good teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"[c] 18"Why do you call me good?" Jesus answered. "No one is good—except God alone. 19You know the commandments: 'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.'[m]"[d] 20"Teacher," he declared, "all these I have kept since I was a boy." 21Jesus looked at him and loved him.
"One thing you lack," he said. "Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor,[e] and you will have treasure in heaven.[f] Then come, follow me."[g] 22At this the man's face fell. He went away sad, because he had great wealth.
23Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for the rich[h] to enter the kingdom of God!" 24The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said again, "Children, how hard it is[n] to enter the kingdom of God![i] 25It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."[j] 26The disciples were even more amazed, and said to each other, "Who then can be saved?" 27 Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but not with God; all things are possible with God."[a] 28 Peter said to him, "We have left everything to follow you!"[b] 29 "I tell you the truth," Jesus replied, "no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel 30 will fail to receive a hundred times as much[c] in this present age (homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and

32 They were on their way up to Jerusalem, with Jesus leading the way, and the disciples were astonished, while those who followed were afraid.
Again he took the Twelve[g] aside and told them what was going to happen to him. 33 "We are going up to Jerusalem,"[h] he said, "and the Son of Man[i] will be betrayed to the chief priests and teachers of the law.[j] They will condemn him to death and will hand him over to the Gentiles, 34 who will mock him and spit on him, flog him[k] and kill him.[l] Three days later[m] he will rise."[n]

The Request of James and John

10:35-45pp — Mt 20:20-28

35 Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him. "Teacher," they said, "we want you to do for us whatever we ask." 36 "What do you want me to do for you?" he asked.
37 They replied, "Let one of us sit at your right and the other at your left in your glory."[o] 38 "You don't know what you are asking,"[p] Jesus said. "Can you drink the cup[q] I drink or be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?"[r] 39 "We can," they answered.
Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink and be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with,[s] 40 but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared." 41 When the ten heard about this, they became indignant with James and John. 42 Jesus called them together and said, "You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. 43 Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant,[t] 44 and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. 45 For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve,[u] and to give his life as a ransom for many."[v]

Blind Bartimaeus Receives His Sight

46 Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus and his disciples, together with a large crowd, were leaving the city, a blind man, Bartimaeus (that is, the Son of Ti-maeus), was sitting by the roadside begging. 47 When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth,[w] he began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David,[x] have mercy on me!" 48 Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" 49 Jesus stopped and said, "Call him."
So they called to the blind man, "Cheer up! On your feet! He's calling you." 50 Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus.
51 "What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus asked him.
The blind man said, "Rabbi,[y] I want to see." 52 "Go," said Jesus, "your faith has healed you."[z] Immediately he received his sight and followed[a] Jesus along the road.

The Triumphal Entry

11:7-10pp — Jn 12:12-15

11 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany[b] at the Mount of Olives,[c] Jesus sent two of his disciples, 2 saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden.[d] Untie it and bring it here.
3 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' tell him, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.' " 4 They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway.[e] As they untied it, 5 some people standing there asked, "What are you doing, untying that colt?" 6 They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go. 7 When they brought the

"Hosanna![o]"

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"[p][a] 10 "Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!"

"Hosanna in the highest!"[b]

11 Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the temple. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.[c]

Jesus Clears the Temple

12 The next day as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry. 13 Seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to find out if it had any fruit. When he reached it, he found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs.[d] 14 Then he said to the tree, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard him say it.

15 On reaching Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple area and began driving out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves, 16 and would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts. 17 And as he taught them, he said, "Is it not written:

" 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations'[q]?[e]

But you have made it 'a den of robbers.'[r]"[f]

18 The chief priests and the teachers of the law heard this and began looking for a way to kill him, for they feared him,[g] because the whole crowd was amazed at his teaching.[h]

19 When evening came, they[s] went out of the city.[i]

The Withered Fig Tree

20 In the morning, as they went along, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots. 21 Peter remembered and said to Jesus, "Rabbi,[j] look! The fig tree you cursed has withered!"

22 "Have[t] faith in God," Jesus answered. 23 "I tell you the truth, if anyone says to this mountain, 'Go, throw yourself into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart but believes that what he says will happen, it will be done for him.[k] 24 Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.[l] 25 And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins."[u][m]

27 They arrived again in Jerusalem, and while Jesus was walking in the temple courts, the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders came to him. 28 "By what authority are you doing these things?" they asked. "And who gave you authority to do this?"

29 Jesus replied, "I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. 30 John's baptism—was it from heaven, or from men? Tell me!"

31 They discussed it among themselves and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' 32 But if we say, 'From men'. . . ." (They feared the people, for everyone held that John really was a prophet.)[n]

33 So they answered Jesus, "We don't know."

Jesus said, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

12 He then began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard.[o] He put a wall around it, dug a pit for the winepress and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and went away on a journey. 2 At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants to collect from them some of the fruit of the vineyard. 3 But they seized him, beat him and sent him away empty-handed. 4 Then he sent another servant to them; they struck this man on the head and treated him shamefully. He sent still another, and that one they killed. He sent many others; some of them they beat, others they killed.

6"He had one left to send, a son, whom he loved. He sent him last of all, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 7"But the tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8So they took him and killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.
9"What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others. 10Haven't you read this scripture:

"'The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone[v]; 11the Lord has done this,
and it is marvelous in our eyes'[w]?"

12Then they looked for a way to arrest him because they knew he had spoken the parable against them. But they were afraid of the crowd; so they left him and went away.

13Later they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Jesus to catch him in his words. 14They came to him and said, "Teacher, we know you are a man of integrity. You aren't swayed by men, because you pay no attention to who they are; but you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?
15Should we pay or shouldn't we?"
But Jesus knew their hypocrisy.
"Why are you trying to trap me?" he asked. "Bring me a denarius and let me look at it." 16They brought the coin, and he asked them, "Whose portrait is this? And whose inscription?"
"Caesar's," they replied.
17Then Jesus said to them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's."
And they were amazed at him.

Marriage at the Resurrection

18Then the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him with a question. 19"Teacher," they said, "Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and have children for his brother.[k] 20Now there were seven brothers. The first one married and died without leaving any children.
21The second one married the widow, but he also died, leaving no child. It was the same with the third. 22In fact, none of the seven left any children.
Last of all, the woman died too. 23At the resurrection[x] whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?" 24Jesus replied, "Are you not in error because you do not know the Scriptures[l] or the power of God? 25When the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven.[m] 26Now about the dead rising—have you not read in the book of Moses, in the account of the bush, how God said to him, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'[y]?[n] 27He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are badly mistaken!"

28One of the teachers of the law[o] came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?" 29"The most important one," answered Jesus, "is this: 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one.[z] 30Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.'[a][p] 31The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'[b][q] There is no commandment greater than these." 32"Well said, teacher," the man replied. "You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him.[r] 33To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."[s] 34When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of

Whose Son Is the Christ?

12:35-37pp — Mt 22:41-46; Lk 20:41-44

35While Jesus was teaching in the temple courts,[c] he asked, "How is it that the teachers of the law say that the Christ[c] is the son of David?[d] 36David himself, speaking by the Holy Spirit,[e] declared:

"'The Lord said to my Lord:
"Sit at my right hand
until I put your enemies
under your feet."'[d][f] 37David himself calls him 'Lord.' How then can he be his son?"

The large crowd[g] listened to him with delight.
38As he taught, Jesus said, "Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and be greeted in the marketplaces, 39and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets.[h] 40They devour widows' houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. Such men will be punished most severely."

The Widow's Offering

41Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put[i] and watched the crowd putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people threw in large amounts.
42But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins,[e] worth only a fraction of a penny.[f] 43Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. 44They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything—all she had to live on."[j]

13:1-37pp — Mt 24:1-51; Lk 21:5-36

13 As he was leaving the temple, one of his disciples said to him,
"Look, Teacher! What massive stones!
What magnificent buildings!" 2"Do you see all these great buildings?" replied Jesus. "Not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down."[k] 3As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives[l] opposite the temple, Peter, James, John[m] and Andrew asked him privately, 4"Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are all about to be fulfilled?" 5Jesus said to them: "Watch out that no one deceives you.[n] 6Many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and will deceive many. 7When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. 8Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines.
These are the beginning of birth pains.
9"You must be on your guard. You will be handed over to the local councils and flogged in the synagogues.[o] On account of me you will stand before governors and kings as witnesses to them. 10And the gospel must first be preached to all nations. 11Whenever you are arrested and brought to trial, do not worry beforehand about what to say. Just say whatever is given you at the time, for it is not you speaking, but the Holy Spirit.[p] 12"Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rebel against their parents and have them put to death.[q] 13All men will hate you because of me,[r] but he who stands firm to the end will be saved.[s] 14"When you see 'the abomination that causes desolation'[g][t] standing where it[h] does not belong—let the reader understand—then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 15Let no one on the roof of his house go down or enter the house to take anything out. 16Let no one in the field go back to get his cloak. 17How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers![u] 18Pray that this will not take place in winter, 19because those will be days of distress unequaled from the beginning, when God created the world,[v] until now—and never to be equaled again.[w] 20If the Lord had not cut short those days, no one would survive. But for the sake of the elect, whom he has chosen, he has shortened them. 21At that time if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the believe it.[x] 22For false Christs and false

you the truth, this generation[j] [f] will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.[g] 31Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.[h]

32"No one knows about that day or
hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.[i] 33Be on guard! Be alert[k]![j] You do not know when that time will come. 34It's like a man going away: He leaves his house and puts his servants[k] in charge, each with his assigned task, and tells the one at the door to keep watch.
35"Therefore keep watch because you do not know when the owner of the house will come back—whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or at dawn. 36If he comes suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping. 37What I say to you, I say to everyone: 'Watch!' "[l]

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

14:1,2,10,11pp — Lk 22:1-6 14:3-8Ref — Jn 12:1-8

14 Now the Passover[m] and the Feast of Unleavened Bread were only two days away, and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were looking for some sly way to arrest Jesus and kill him.[n] 2"But not during the Feast," they said, "or the people may riot." 3While he was in Bethany,[o] reclining at the table in the home of a man known as Simon the Leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, made of pure nard.
She broke the jar and poured the perfume on his head.[p] 4Some of those present were saying indignantly to one another, "Why this waste of perfume? 5It could have been sold for more than a year's wages[l] and the money given to the poor." And they rebuked her harshly.
6"Leave her alone," said Jesus.
"Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. 7The poor you will always have with you, and you can help them any time you want.[q] But you will not always have me. 8She did what she could. She poured perfume on my body beforehand to prepare for my burial.[r] 9I tell you the truth, wherever the gospel is preached throughout the world,[s] what she has done will also be told, in memory of her."
10Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve,[t] went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them.[u] 11They were delighted to hear this and promised to give him money. So he watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

The Lord's Supper

14:22-25pp — 1Co 11:23-25

12On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when it was customary to sacrifice the Passover lamb,[v] Jesus' disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" 13So he sent two of his disciples, telling them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you.
Follow him. 14Say to the owner of the house he enters, 'The Teacher asks: Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' 15He will show you a large upper room,[w] furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there." 16The disciples left, went into the city and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.
17When evening came, Jesus arrived with the Twelve. 18While they were reclining at the table eating, he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you will be-[19]They were saddened, and one by one they said to him, "Surely not I?" [20]"It is one of the Twelve," he replied, "one who dips bread into the bowl with me.[a] [21]The Son of Man[b] will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born."

[22]While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it,[c] and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take it; this is my body." [23]Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, and they all drank from it.[d] [24]"This is my blood of the[m] covenant,[e] which is poured out for many," he said to them. [25]"I tell you the truth, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God."[f]
[26]When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.[g]

[27]"You will all fall away," Jesus told them, "for it is written:

" 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'[n] [h]

[28]But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."[i] [29]Peter declared, "Even if all fall away, I will not."
[30]"I tell you the truth," Jesus answered, "today—yes, tonight—before the rooster crows twice[o] you yourself will disown me three times."[j] [31]But Peter insisted emphatically, "Even if I have to die with you,[k] I will never disown you." And all the others said the same.

14:32-42pp — Mt 26:36-46; Lk 22:40-46

[32]They went to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray." [33]He took Peter, James and John[l] along with him, and he began to be deeply distressed and troubled. [34]"My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death,"[m] he said to them. "Stay here and keep watch." [35]Going a little farther, he fell to the ground and prayed that if possible the hour[n] might pass from him. [36]"Abba,[p] Father,"[o] he said, "everything is possible for you. Take this cup[p] from me.
Yet not what I will, but what you will."[q] [37]Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. "Simon," he said to Peter, "are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour?
[38]Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation.[r] The spirit is willing, but the body is weak."[s] [39]Once more he went away and prayed the same thing. [40]When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy.
They did not know what to say to him.
[41]Returning the third time, he said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour[t] has come.
Look, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. [42]Rise! Let us go!
Here comes my betrayer!"

[43]Just as he was speaking, Judas,[u] one of the Twelve, appeared. With him was a crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests, the teachers of the law, and the elders.
[44]Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: "The one I kiss is the man; arrest him and lead him away under guard." [45]Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Rabbi!"[v] and kissed him.
[46]The men seized Jesus and arrested him. [47]Then one of those standing near drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.
[48]"Am I leading a rebellion," said Jesus, "that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me?
[49]Every day I was with you, teaching in the temple courts,[w] and you did not arrest me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled."[x] [50]Then everyone deserted him and fled.[y] [51]A young man, wearing nothing but a linen garment, was following Jesus.
When they seized him, [52]he fled naked, leaving his garment behind.

[53]They took Jesus to the high priest, and all the chief priests, elders and teachers of the law came together. [54]Pe-against Jesus so that they could put him to death, but they did not find any. 56Many testified falsely against him, but their statements did not agree.

57Then some stood up and gave this false testimony against him: 58"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this man-made temple and in three days will build another,[d] not made by man.'" 59Yet even then their testimony did not agree.
60Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, "Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?" 61But Jesus remained silent and gave no answer.[e] Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Christ,[q] the Son of the Blessed One?"[f] 62"I am," said Jesus. "And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven."[g] 63The high priest tore his clothes.[h] "Why do we need any more witnesses?" he asked. 64"You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?" They all condemned him as worthy of death.[i] 65Then some began to spit at him; they blindfolded him, struck him with their fists, and said, "Prophesy!" And the guards took him and beat him.[j]

66While Peter was below in the courtyard,[k] one of the servant girls of the high priest came by. 67When she saw Peter warming himself,[l] she looked closely at him.
"You also were with that Nazarene, Jesus,"[m] she said.
68But he denied it. "I don't know or understand what you're talking about,"[n] he said, and went out into the entryway.[r] 69When the servant girl saw him there, she said again to those standing around, "This fellow is one of them." 70Again he denied it.[o]
After a little while, those standing near said to Peter, "Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean."[p] 71He began to call down curses on himself, and he swore to them, "I don't know this man you're talking about."[q] 72Immediately the rooster crowed the second time.[s] Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him:
"Before the rooster crows twice[t] you will disown me three times."[r] And he broke down and wept.

15:2-15pp — Mt 27:11-26; Lk 23:2,3,18-25; Jn 18:29-19:16

15 Very early in the morning, the chief priests, with the elders, the teachers of the law[s] and the whole Sanhedrin,[t] reached a decision. They bound Jesus, led him away and handed him over to Pilate.[u] 2"Are you the king of the Jews?"[v] asked Pilate.
"Yes, it is as you say," Jesus replied.
3The chief priests accused him of many things. 4So again Pilate asked him, "Aren't you going to answer? See how many things they are accusing you of."
5But Jesus still made no reply,[w] and Pilate was amazed.
6Now it was the custom at the Feast to release a prisoner whom the people requested. 7A man called Barabbas was in prison with the insurrectionists who had committed murder in the uprising.
8The crowd came up and asked Pilate to do for them what he usually did.
9"Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews?"[x] asked Pilate, 10knowing it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him. 11But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have Pilate release Barabbas[y] instead.
12"What shall I do, then, with the one you call the king of the Jews?" Pilate asked them.
13"Crucify him!" they shouted.
14"Why? What crime has he committed?" asked Pilate.
But they shouted all the louder,
"Crucify him!"
15Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He had Jesus flogged,[z] and handed him over to be crucified.

palace[a] (that is, the Praetorium) and called together the whole company of soldiers. 17They put a purple robe on him, then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on him. 18And they began to call out to him, "Hail, king of the Jews!"[b] 19Again and again they struck him on the head with a staff and spit on him. Falling on their knees, they paid homage to him. 20And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out[c] to crucify him.

21A certain man from Cyrene,[d] Simon, the father of Alexander and Rufus,[e] was passing by on his way in from the country, and they forced him to carry the cross.[f] 22They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means The Place of the Skull).
23Then they offered him wine mixed with myrrh,[g] but he did not take it.
24And they crucified him. Dividing up his clothes, they cast lots[h] to see what each would get.
25It was the third hour when they crucified him. 26The written notice of the charge against him read: THE KING OF THE JEWS.[i] 27They crucified two robbers with him, one on his right and one on his left.[u] 29Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads[j] and saying, "So! You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days,[k] 30come down from the cross and save yourself!"
and the teachers of the law mocked him[l] among themselves. "He saved others," they said, "but he can't save himself! 32Let this Christ,[v m] this King of Israel,[n] come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe." Those crucified with him also heaped insults on him.

33At the sixth hour darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.[o] 34And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?"—which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"[w p] 35When some of those standing near heard this, they said, "Listen, he's calling Elijah." 36One man ran, filled a sponge with wine vinegar,[q] put it on a stick, and offered it to Jesus to drink. "Now leave him alone. Let's see if Elijah comes to take him down," he said.
37With a loud cry, Jesus breathed his last.[r] 38The curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.[s] 39And when the centurion,[t] who stood there in front of Jesus, heard his cry and[x] saw how he died, he said, "Surely this man was the Son[y] of God!"[u] 40Some women were watching from a distance.[v] Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome.[w] 41In Galilee these women had followed him and cared for his needs.
Many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem were also there.[x]

The Burial of Jesus

42It was Preparation Day (that is, the day before the Sabbath).[y] So as evening approached, 43Joseph of Arima-thea, a prominent member of the Council,[z] who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God,[a] went boldly to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. 44Pi-late was surprised to hear that he was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him if Jesus had already died. 45When he learned from the cen-turion[b] that it was so, he gave the body to Joseph. 46So Joseph bought some linen cloth, took down the body, wrapped it in the linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb.[c] 47Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses[d] saw where he was laid.

The Resurrection

16:1-8pp — Mt 28:1-8; Lk 24:1-10

16 When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices[e] so that they might go to anoint Jesus' body. 2Very early on the first day of the week, just after sunrise, they were on their way to the tomb 3and that the stone, which was very large, the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe[b] sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed.

6"Don't be alarmed," he said. "You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene,[c] who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him. 7But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him,[d] just as he 8Trembling and bewildered, the women went out and fled from the tomb. They said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid.

[The most reliable early manuscripts and other ancient witnesses do not have Mark 16:9-20.]

9When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene,[f] out of whom he had driven seven demons. 10She went and told those who had been with him and who were mourning and weeping.
11When they heard that Jesus was alive and that she had seen him, they did not believe it.[g] 12Afterward Jesus appeared in a different form to two of them while they were walking in the country.[h] 13These returned and reported it to the rest; but they did not believe them either.
14Later Jesus appeared to the Eleven as they were eating; he rebuked them for their lack of faith and their stubborn refusal to believe those who had seen him after he had risen.[i] 15He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation.[j] 16Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.[k] 17And these signs[l] will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons;[m] they will speak in new tongues;[n] 18they will pick up snakes[o] with their hands; and when they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them at all; they will place their hands on[p] sick people, and they will get well." 19After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, he was taken up into heaven[q] and he sat at the right hand of God.[r] 20Then the disciples went out and preached everywhere, and the Lord worked with them and confirmed his word by the signs[s] that accompanied it.

Introduction

[illegible]

1 Many have undertaken to draw up an account of the things that have been fulfilled[a] among us, [2]just as they were handed down to us by those who from the first[a] were eyewitnesses[b] and servants of the word.[c] [3]Therefore, since I myself have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, it seemed good also to me to write an orderly account[d] for you, most excellent[e] Theophilus,[f] [4]so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.[g]

The Birth of John the Baptist Foretold

[5]In the time of Herod king of Judea[h] there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly division of Abijah;[i] his wife Elizabeth was also a descendant of Aaron. [6]Both of them were upright in the sight of God, observing all the Lord's commandments and regulations blamelessly.[j] [7]But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren; and they were both well along in years.

[8]Once when Zechariah's division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God,[k] [9]he was chosen by lot,[l] according to the custom of the priesthood, to go into the temple of the Lord and burn incense.[m] [10]And when the time for the burning of incense came, all the assembled worshipers were praying outside.[n]

[11]Then an angel[o] of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense.[p] [12]When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and was gripped with fear.[q] [13]But the angel said to him: "Do not be afraid,[r] Zechariah; your prayer has been heard.
Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to give him the name John.[s] [14]He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice because of his birth,[t] [15]for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He is never to take wine or other fermented drink,[u] and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit[v] even from birth.[b][w] [16]Many of the people of Israel will he bring back to the Lord their God. [17]And he will go on before the Lord,[x] in the spirit and power of Elijah,[y] to turn the hearts of the fathers to their children[z] and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."[a] [18]Zechariah asked the angel, "How can I be sure of this?[b] I am an old man and my wife is well along in years."[c] [19]The angel answered, "I am Gabriel.[d] I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you this good news. [20]And now you will be silent and not able to speak[e] until the day this happens, because you did not believe my words, which will come true at their proper time."

[21]Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering why he stayed so long in the temple.
[22]When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realized he had seen a vision in the temple, for he kept making signs[f] to them but remained unable to speak.

[23]When his time of service was completed, he returned home. [24]After this his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and for five months remained in seclusion. [25]"The Lord has done this for me," she said. "In these days he has shown his favor and taken away my disgrace[g] among the people."

The Birth of Jesus Foretold

[26]In the sixth month, God sent the angel Gabriel[h] to Nazareth,[i] a town in Galilee, [27]to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph,[j] a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary. [28]The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you." 29Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. 30But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid,[a] Mary, you have found favor with God.[b] 31You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus.[c] 32He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High.[d] The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David,[e] 33and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever; his kingdom[f] will never end."[g] 34"How will this be," Mary asked the angel, "since I am a virgin?" 35The angel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you,[h] and the power of the Most High[i] will overshadow you. So the holy one[j] to be born will be called[e] the Son of God.[k] 36Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child[l] in her old age, and she who was said to be barren is in her sixth month. 37For nothing is impossible with God."[m] 38"I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May it be to me as you have said." Then the angel left her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

39At that time Mary got ready and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea,[n] 40where she entered Zechariah's home and greeted Elizabeth.
41When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.[o] 42In a loud voice she exclaimed: "Blessed are you among women,[p] and blessed is the child you will bear! 43But why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord[q] should come to me? 44As soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. 45Blessed is she who has believed that what the Lord has said to her will be accomplished!"

Mary's Song

1:46-53pp — 1Sa 2:1-10

46And Mary said:

"My soul glorifies the Lord[r] 47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,[s] 48for he has been mindful of the humble state of his servant.[t]
From now on all generations will call me blessed,[u] 49 for the Mighty One has done great things[v] for me—holy is his name.[w] 50His mercy extends to those who fear
him,
from generation to generation.[x] 51He has performed mighty deeds with his arm;[y] he has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts.[z] 52He has brought down rulers from their thrones but has lifted up the humble.[a] 53He has filled the hungry with good things[b] but has sent the rich away empty.
54He has helped his servant Israel, remembering to be merciful[c] 55to Abraham and his descendants[d]
forever,
even as he said to our fathers."

56Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months and then returned home.

The Birth of John the Baptist 57When it was time for Elizabeth to have her baby, she gave birth to a son.

58Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown her great mercy, and they shared her joy.
59On the eighth day they came to circumcise[e] the child, and they were going to name him after his father Zechariah, 60but his mother spoke up and said, "No! He is to be called John."[f] 61They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who has that name."
62Then they made signs[g] to his father, to find out what he would like to name the child. 63He asked for a writing tablet, and to everyone's astonishment he wrote, "His name is John."[h] 64Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue was loosed, and he began to speak,[i] praising God. 65The neighbors were all filled with awe, and throughout the hill country of Judea[j] people were talking about all these things. 66Everyone who heard this wondered about it, asking, "What then is this child going to be?" For the Lord's hand was with him.[k]

68 “Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel,[a] because he has come and has redeemed his people.[b] 69 He has raised up a horn[d][c] of salvation for us in the house of his servant David[d] 70 (as he said through his holy prophets of long ago),[e] 71 salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us—72 to show mercy to our fathers[f] and to remember his holy covenant,[g] 73 the oath he swore to our father Abraham:[h] 74 to rescue us from the hand of our enemies,
and to enable us to serve him[i] without fear[j] 75 in holiness and righteousness[k] before him all our days.

76 And you, my child, will be called a prophet[l] of the Most High;[m] for you will go on before the Lord to prepare the way for him,[n] 77 to give his people the knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins,[o] 78 because of the tender mercy of our God,
by which the rising sun[p] will come to us from heaven 79 to shine on those living in darkness and in the shadow of death,[q] to guide our feet into the path of peace.”[r]

80 And the child grew and became strong in spirit;[s] and he lived in the desert until he appeared publicly to Israel.

The Birth of Jesus

2 In those days Caesar Augustus[t] issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world.[u] 2 (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.)[v] 3 And everyone went to his own town to register.
4 So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem[w] the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. 5 He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him[x] and was expecting a child. 6 While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, 7 and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

8 And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. 9 An angel[y] of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. 10 But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid.[z] I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. 11 Today in the town of David a Savior[a] has been born to you; he is Christ[e][b] the Lord.[c] 12 This will be a sign[d] to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.” 13 Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

14 “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace[e] to men on whom his favor rests.”

15 When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.” 16 So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger.[f] 17 When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, 18 and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. 19 But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart.[g] 20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God[h] for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

Jesus Presented in the Temple 21 On the eighth day, when it was time to circumcise him,[i] he was named Jesus, the name the angel had given him before he had been conceived.[j] 22 When the time of their purification according to the Law of Moses[k] had been completed, Joseph and Mary took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord 23 (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, “Every firstborn male is to be consecrated to the Lord"[a]),[q] 24and to offer a sacrifice in keeping with what is said in the Law of the Lord: "a pair of doves or two young pigeons."[b][r] 25Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout.[s] He was waiting for the consolation of Israel,[t] and the Holy Spirit was upon him. 26It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the custom of the Law required,[u] 28Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying:

29"Sovereign Lord, as you have promised,[v] you now dismiss[c] your servant in peace.[w] 30For my eyes have seen your salvation,[x] 31 which you have prepared in the sight of all people, 32a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel."[y]

33The child's father and mother marveled at what was said about him.
34Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother:[z] "This child is destined to cause the falling[a] and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against, 35so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul too."
36There was also a prophetess,[b] Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, 37and then was a widow until she was eighty-four.[d][c] She never left the temple but worshiped night and day, fasting and praying.[d] 38Coming up to them at that very moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.[e] 39When Joseph and Mary had done everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee to their own town of Nazareth.[f] 40And the child grew and became strong; he was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him.[g]

The Boy Jesus at the Temple

41Every year his parents went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover.[h] 42When he was twelve years old, they went up to the Feast, according to the custom. 43After the Feast was over, while his parents were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but they were unaware of it.
44Thinking he was in their company, they traveled on for a day. Then they began looking for him among their relatives and friends. 45When they did not find him, they went back to Jerusalem to look for him. 46After three days they found him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.
47Everyone who heard him was amazed[i] at his understanding and his answers. 48When his parents saw him, they were astonished. His mother[j] said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father[k] and I have been anxiously searching for you." 49"Why were you searching for me?" he asked. "Didn't you know I had to be in my Father's house?"[l] 50But they did not understand what he was saying to them.[m] 51Then he went down to Nazareth with them[n] and was obedient to them.
But his mother treasured all these things in her heart.[o] 52And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.[p]

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

late[a] was governor of Judea, Herod[b] tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and Traconitis, and Ly-sanias tetrarch of Abilene— 2during the high priesthood of Annas and Caia-phas,[c] the word of God came to John[d] son of Zechariah[e] in the desert. 3He went into all the country around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.[f] 4As is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet:

"A voice of one calling in the desert,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for him.
5Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill made low.

7 John said to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers![b] Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?[c] 8 Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.'[d] For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. 9 The ax is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."[e]

10 "What should we do then?"[f] the crowd asked.

11 John answered, "The man with two tunics should share with him who has none, and the one who has food should do the same."[g]

12 Tax collectors also came to be baptized.[h] "Teacher," they asked, "what should we do?"

13 "Don't collect any more than you are required to,"[i] he told them.

14 Then some soldiers asked him,
"And what should we do?"

He replied, "Don't extort money and don't accuse people falsely[j]—be content with your pay."

15 The people were waiting expectantly and were all wondering in their hearts if John[k] might possibly be the Christ.[k] [l] 16 John answered them all, "I baptize you with[l] water.[m] But one more powerful than I will come, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.[n] 17 His winnowing fork[o] is in his hand to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."[p] 18 And with many other words John exhorted the people and preached the good news to them.

19 But when John rebuked Herod[q] the tetrarch because of Herodias, his brother's wife, and all the other evil things he had done, 20 Herod added this to them all: He locked John up in prison.[r]

4:1-13pp — Mt 4:1-11; Mk 1:12,13

4 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit,[f] returned from the Jordan[g] and was led by the Spirit[h] in the desert, 2where for forty days[i] he was tempted by the devil.[j] He ate nothing during those days, and at the end of them he was hungry.

3The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God,[k] tell this stone to become bread."

4Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man does not live on bread alone.'[o]"[l]

5The devil led him up to a high place and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world.[m] 6And he said to him, "I will give you all their authority and splendor, for it has been given to me,[n] and I can give it to anyone I want to. 7So if you worship me, it will all be yours."

8Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve him only.'[p]"[o]

9The devil led him to Jerusalem and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. "If you are the Son of God," he said, "throw yourself down from here. 10For it is written:

" 'He will command his angels concerning you
to guard you carefully; 11they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'[q]"[p] 12Jesus answered, "It says: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'[r]"[q] 13When the devil had finished all this tempting,[r] he left him[s] until an opportune time.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

14Jesus returned to Galilee[t] in the power of the Spirit, and news about him spread through the whole countryside.[u] 15He taught in their synagogues,[v] and everyone praised him.

16He went to Nazareth,[w] where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue,[x] as was his custom. And he stood up to read.[y] 17The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written:

18"The Spirit of the Lord is on me,[z] because he has anointed me to preach good news[a] to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."[s][b]

20Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down.[c] The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him, 21and he began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled[d] in your hearing."

22All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his lips. "Isn't this Joseph's son?" they asked.[e] 23Jesus said to them, "Surely you will quote this proverb to me: 'Physician, heal yourself! Do here in your hometown[f] what we have heard that you did in Capernaum.' "[g]

24"I tell you the truth," he continued, "no prophet is accepted in his hometown.[h] 25I assure you that there were many widows in Israel in Elijah's time, when the sky was shut for three and a half years and there was a severe famine throughout the land.[i] 26Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them, but to a widow in Zarephath in the region of Sidon.[j] 27And there were many in Israel with leprosy[t] in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed—only Naaman the Syrian."[k] 28All the people in the synagogue were furious when they heard this.

29They got up, drove him out of the town,[l] and took him to the brow of the

31 Then he went down to Caper-naum,[p] a town in Galilee, and on the Sabbath began to teach the people.
32 They were amazed at his teaching,[q] because his message had authority.[r] 33 In the synagogue there was a man possessed by a demon, an evil[a] spirit.
He cried out at the top of his voice, 34 "Ha! What do you want with us,[s] Jesus of Nazareth?[t] Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are[u]—the Holy One of God!"[v] 35 "Be quiet!" Jesus said sternly.[w] "Come out of him!" Then the demon threw the man down before them all and came out without injuring him.
36 All the people were amazed[x] and said to each other, "What is this teaching? With authority[y] and power he gives orders to evil spirits and they come out!" 37 And the news about him spread throughout the surrounding area.[z]

Jesus Heals Many

4:38-41pp — Mt 8:14-17
4:38-43pp — Mk 1:29-38

38 Jesus left the synagogue and went to the home of Simon. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked Jesus to help her. 39 So he bent over her and rebuked[a] the fever, and it left her. She got up at once and began to wait on them.
40 When the sun was setting, the people brought to Jesus all who had various kinds of sickness, and laying his hands on each one,[b] he healed them.[c] 41 Moreover, demons came out of many people, shouting, "You are the Son of God!"[d] But he rebuked[e] them and would not allow them to speak,[f] because they knew he was the Christ.[b]
42 At daybreak Jesus went out to a solitary place. The people were looking for him and when they came to where he was, they tried to keep him from leaving them. 43 But he said, "I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God[g] to the other towns also, because that is why I was sent." 44 And he kept on preaching in the synagogues of Judea.[c][h]

5:1-11pp — Mt 4:18-22; Mk 1:16-20; Jn 1:40-42

5 One day as Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret,[d] with the people crowding around him and listening to the word of God,[i] 2 he saw at the water's edge two boats, left there by the fishermen, who were washing their nets. 3 He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from shore.
Then he sat down and taught the people from the boat.[j] 4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water, and let down[e] the nets for a catch."[k] 5 Simon answered, "Master,[l] we've worked hard all night and haven't caught anything.[m] But because you say so, I will let down the nets." 6 When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break.[n] 7 So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.
8 When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees and said, "Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!"[o] 9 For he and all his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken, 10 and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon's partners.
Then Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid;[p] from now on you will catch men." 11 So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed him.[q]

The Man With Leprosy

5:12-14pp — Mt 8:2-4; Mk 1:40-44

12 While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came along who was covered with leprosy.[f][r] When he saw Jesus, he fell with his face to the ground and begged him, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean." 13 Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. "I am willing," he said. "Be clean!" And immediately the leprosy left him.
14 Then Jesus ordered him, "Don't tell anyone,[s] but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that 15 Yet the news about him spread all the more,[b] so that crowds of people came to hear him and to be healed of their sicknesses. 16 But Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed.[c]

17 One day as he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law,[d] who had come from every village of Galilee and from Judea and Jerusalem, were sitting there. And the power of the Lord was present for him to heal the sick.[e] 18 Some men came carrying a paralytic on a mat and tried to take him into the house to lay him before Jesus. 19 When they could not find a way to do this because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him on his mat through the tiles into the middle of the crowd, right in front of Jesus.

20 When Jesus saw their faith, he said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven."[f]

21 The Pharisees and the teachers of the law began thinking to themselves, "Who is this fellow who speaks blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"[g]

22 Jesus knew what they were thinking and asked, "Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? 23 Which is easier: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? 24 But that you may know that the Son of Man[h] has authority on earth to forgive sins. . . ." He said to the paralyzed man, "I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home." 25 Immediately he stood up in front of them, took what he had been lying on and went home praising God. 26 Everyone was amazed and gave praise to God.[i] They were filled with awe and said, "We have seen remarkable things today."

5:27-32pp — Mt 9:9-13; Mk 2:14-17

27 After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector by the name of Levi sitting at his tax booth. "Follow me,"[j] Jesus said to him, 28 and Levi got up, left everything and followed him.[k]

29 Then Levi held a great banquet for Jesus at his house, and a large crowd of tax collectors[l] and others were eating with them. 30 But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law who belonged to their sect[m] complained to his disciples, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and 'sinners'?"[n]

31 Jesus answered them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. 32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."[o]

33 They said to him, "John's disciples[p] often fast and pray, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours go on eating and drinking."

34 Jesus answered, "Can you make the guests of the bridegroom[q] fast while he is with them? 35 But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them;[r] in those days they will fast."

36 He told them this parable: "No one tears a patch from a new garment and sews it on an old one. If he does, he will have torn the new garment, and the patch from the new will not match the old. 37 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the skins, the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. 38 No, new wine must be poured into new wineskins. 39 And no one after drinking old wine wants the new, for he says, 'The old is better.'"

6 One Sabbath Jesus was going through the grainfields, and his disciples began to pick some heads of grain, rub them in their hands and eat the kernels.[s] 2 Some of the Pharisees asked, "Why are you doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?"[t]

3 Jesus answered them, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?[u] 4 He entered the house of God, and taking the consecrated bread, he ate what is lawful only for priests to eat.[v] And he also gave some to his companions." 5 Then Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man[w] is Lord of the Sabbath."

6 On another Sabbath[x] he went into the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was shriveled. 7 The Pharisees and the teachers of the law were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, so they watched him closely[y] to see if he would heal on the Sabbath.[z] 8 But Jesus knew what they were thinking[a] and said to the man with the shriveled hand, "Get up 9Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you, good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?"

then said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was completely restored. 11But they were furious[a] and began to discuss with one another what they might do to Jesus.

The Twelve Apostles

6:13-16pp — Mt 10:2-4; Mk 3:16-19; Ac 1:13

12One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God.[b] 13When morning came, he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them, whom he also designated apostles:[c] 14Simon (whom he named Peter), his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, 15Matthew,[d] Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Simon who was called the Zealot, 16Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Blessings and Woes

17He went down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of his disciples was there and a great number of people from all over Judea, from Jerusalem, and from the coast of Tyre and Sidon,[e] 18who had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. Those troubled by evil[a] spirits were cured, 19and the people all tried to touch him,[f] because power was coming from him and healing them all.[g] 20Looking at his disciples, he said:

"Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.[h] 21Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied.[i] Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.[j] 22Blessed are you when men hate you, when they exclude you[k] and insult you[l] and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man.[m] 23"Rejoice in that day and leap for joy,[n] because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their fathers treated the prophets.[o]

24"But woe to you who are rich,[p] for you have already received your comfort.[q] 25Woe to you who are well fed now, for you will go hungry.[r] Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep.[s] 26Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for that is how their fathers treated the false prophets.[t]

Love for Enemies

6:29,30pp — Mt 5:39-42

27"But I tell you who hear me: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,[u] 28bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.[v] 29If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn to him the other also. If someone takes your cloak, do not stop him from taking your tunic. 30Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back.[w] 31Do to others as you would have them do to you.[x] 32"If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you?[y] Even 'sinners' love those who love them. 33And if you do good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even 'sinners' do that. 34And if you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you?[z] Even 'sinners' lend to 'sinners,' expecting to be repaid in full. 35But love your enemies, do good to them,[a] and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons[b] of the Most High,[c] because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. 36Be merciful,[d] just as your Father[e] is merciful.

Judging Others

6:37-42pp — Mt 7:1-5

37"Do not judge, and you will not be judged.[f] Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.[g] 38Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap.[h] For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you."[i] 39He also told them this parable:
"Can a blind man lead a blind man?
Will they not both fall into a pit?[j] 40A student is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.[k]

A Tree and Its Fruit

43"No good tree bears bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit. 44Each tree is recognized by its own fruit.[a] People do not pick figs from thorn-bushes, or grapes from briers. 45The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in his heart, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in his heart. For out of the overflow of his heart his mouth speaks.[b]

The Wise and Foolish Builders

46"Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,'[c] and do not do what I say?[d] 47I will show you what he is like who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice.[e] 48He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock.
When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. 49But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete."

7:1-10pp — Mt 8:5-13

7 When Jesus had finished saying all this[f] in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum. 2There a centurion's servant, whom his master valued highly, was sick and about to die. 3The centurion heard of Jesus and sent some elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and heal his servant. 4When they came to Jesus, they pleaded earnestly with him, "This man deserves to have you do this, 5because he loves our nation and has built our synagogue." 6So Jesus went with them.

He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to him: "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. 7That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you.
But say the word, and my servant will be healed.[g] 8For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and that one, 'Come,' and he comes. I say to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

9When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel." 10Then the men who had been sent returned to the house and found the servant well.

Jesus Raises a Widow's Son

7:11-16Ref — 1Ki 17:17-24; 2Ki 4:32-37; Mk 5:21-24,35-43; Jn 11:1-44

11Soon afterward, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him.
12As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out—the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her. 13When the Lord[h] saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, "Don't cry."

14Then he went up and touched the coffin, and those carrying it stood still.
He said, "Young man, I say to you, get up!"[i] 15The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

16They were all filled with awe[j] and praised God.[k] "A great prophet[l] has appeared among us," they said. "God has come to help his people."[m] 17This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea[b] and the surrounding country.[n]

18John's[o] disciples[p] told him about all these things. Calling two of them, 19he sent them to the Lord to ask, "Are 20When the men came to Jesus, they said, "John the Baptist sent us to you to ask, 'Are you the one who was to 21At that very time Jesus cured many who had diseases, sicknesses[q] and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind. 22So he replied to the messengers, "Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy[c] are cured, the

good news is preached to the poor.[a]
away on account of me." 24After John's messengers left, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind? 25If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes?
No, those who wear expensive clothes and indulge in luxury are in palaces.
26But what did you go out to see? A prophet?[b] Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. 27This is the one about whom it is written:

" 'I will send my messenger ahead of
you,
who will prepare your way before you.'[d] [c]

28I tell you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John; yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God[d] is greater than he." 29(All the people, even the tax collectors, when they heard Jesus' words, acknowledged that God's way was right, because they had been baptized by John.[e] 30But the Pharisees and experts in the law[f] rejected God's purpose for themselves, because they had not been baptized by John.) 31"To what, then, can I compare the people of this generation? What are they like? 32They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to each other:

" 'We played the flute for you,
and you did not dance;
we sang a dirge,
and you did not cry.'

33For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine,[g] and you say, 'He has a demon.' 34The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, 'Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and "sinners." '[h] 35But wisdom is proved right by all her children."

Jesus Anointed by a Sinful Woman

7:37-39Ref — Mt 26:6-13; Mk 14:3-9; Jn 12:1-8 7:41,42Ref — Mt 18:23-34

36Now one of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him, so he went to the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table. 37When a woman who had lived a sinful life in that town learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster jar of perfume, 38and as she stood behind him at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them and poured perfume on them.
39When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet,[i] he would know who is touching him and what kind of woman she is—that she is a sinner." 40Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you."
"Tell me, teacher," he said.
41"Two men owed money to a certain moneylender. One owed him five hundred denarii,[e] and the other fifty.
42Neither of them had the money to pay him back, so he canceled the debts of both. Now which of them will love him more?" 43Simon replied, "I suppose the one who had the bigger debt canceled."
"You have judged correctly," Jesus said.
44Then he turned toward the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give me any water for my feet,[j] but she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. 45You did not give me a kiss,[k] but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped kissing my feet. 46You did not put oil on my head,[l] but she has poured perfume on my feet. 47Therefore, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven—for she loved much.
But he who has been forgiven little loves little." 48Then Jesus said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."[m] 49The other guests began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" 50Jesus said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you;[n] go in peace."[o] the kingdom of God.[a] The Twelve were with him, 2and also some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases: Mary (called Magdalene)[b] from whom seven demons had come out; 3Joanna the wife of Cuza, the manager of Herod's[c] household; Susanna; and many others. These women were helping to support them out of their own means.

4While a large crowd was gathering and people were coming to Jesus from town after town, he told this parable: 5"A farmer went out to sow his seed.
As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path; it was trampled on, and the birds of the air ate it up. 6Some fell on rock, and when it came up, the plants withered because they had no moisture. 7Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up with it and choked the plants. 8Still other seed fell on good soil. It came up and yielded a crop, a hundred times more than was sown."

When he said this, he called out,
"He who has ears to hear, let him hear."[d]

9His disciples asked him what this parable meant. 10He said, "The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of God has been given to you,[e] but to others I speak in parables, so that,

"'though seeing, they may not see; though hearing, they may not understand.'[f][f]

11"This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is the word of God.[g] 12Those along the path are the ones who hear, and then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. 13Those on the rock are the ones who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root.
They believe for a while, but in the time of testing they fall away.[h] 14The seed that fell among thorns stands for those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by life's worries, riches[i] and pleasures, and they do not mature. 15But the seed on good soil stands for those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, retain it, and by persevering produce a crop.

16"No one lights a lamp and hides it in a jar or puts it under a bed. Instead, he puts it on a stand, so that those who come in can see the light.[j] 17For there is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed, and nothing concealed that will not be known or brought out into the open.[k] 18Therefore consider carefully how you listen. Whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken from him."[l]

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

8:19-21pp — Mt 12:46-50; Mk 3:31-35

19Now Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him, but they were not able to get near him because of the crowd.
20Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers[m] are standing outside, wanting to see you."

21He replied, "My mother and brothers are those who hear God's word and put it into practice."[n]

8:22-25pp — Mt 8:23-27; Mk 4:36-41 8:22-25Ref — Mk 6:47-52; Jn 6:16-21

22One day Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they got into a boat and set out. 23As they sailed, he fell asleep. A squall came down on the lake, so that the boat was being swamped, and they were in great danger.

24The disciples went and woke him, saying, "Master, Master,[o] we're going to drown!"

He got up and rebuked[p] the wind and the raging waters; the storm subsided, and all was calm.[q] 25"Where is your faith?" he asked his disciples.

In fear and amazement they asked one another, "Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him."

The Healing of a Demon-possessed Man

8:26-37pp — Mt 8:28-34
8:26-39pp — Mk 5:1-20

26They sailed to the region of the Gerasenes,[g] which is across the lake from Galilee. 27When Jesus stepped ashore, he was met by a demon-possessed man from the town. For a long time this man had not worn clothes or lived in a house, but had lived in the tombs. 28When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell at his feet, shouting at the top of his voice, "What do you want with me,[r] Jesus, Son of the Most High God?[s] I beg you, don't torture me!"

[29]For Jesus had commanded the evil[b] spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was chained hand and foot and kept under guard, he had broken his chains and had been driven by the demon into solitary places.

[30]Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

"Legion," he replied, because many demons had gone into him. [31]And they begged him repeatedly not to order them to go into the Abyss.[a] [32]A large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside. The demons begged Jesus to let them go into them, and he gave them permission. [33]When the demons came out of the man, they went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake[b] and was drowned.

[34]When those tending the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and reported this in the town and country-
side, [35]and the people went out to see what had happened. When they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet,[c] dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.
[36]Those who had seen it told the people how the demon-possessed[d] man had been cured. [37]Then all the people of the region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them,[e] because they were overcome with fear. So he got into the boat and left.

[38]The man from whom the demons had gone out begged to go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, [39]"Return home and tell how much God has done for you." So the man went away and told all over town how much Jesus had done for him.

8:40-56pp — Mt 9:18-26; Mk 5:22-43

[40]Now when Jesus returned, a crowd welcomed him, for they were all expecting him. [41]Then a man named Jairus, a ruler of the synagogue,[f] came and fell at Jesus' feet, pleading with him to come to his house [42]because his only daughter, a girl of about twelve, was dying.

As Jesus was on his way, the crowds almost crushed him. [43]And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding[g] for twelve years,[i] but no one could heal her. [44]She came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak,[h] and immediately her bleeding stopped.

[45]"Who touched me?" Jesus asked.

When they all denied it, Peter said, "Master,[i] the people are crowding and pressing against you."

[46]But Jesus said, "Someone touched me;[j] I know that power has gone out from me."[k]

[47]Then the woman, seeing that she could not go unnoticed, came trembling and fell at his feet. In the presence of all the people, she told why she had touched him and how she had been instantly healed. [48]Then he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you.[l] Go in peace."[m]

[49]While Jesus was still speaking, someone came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue ruler.[n] "Your daughter is dead," he said. "Don't bother the teacher any more."

[50]Hearing this, Jesus said to Jairus, "Don't be afraid; just believe, and she will be healed."

[51]When he arrived at the house of Jairus, he did not let anyone go in with him except Peter, John and James,[o] and the child's father and mother.
[52]Meanwhile, all the people were wailing and mourning[p] for her. "Stop wailing," Jesus said. "She is not dead but asleep."[q]

[53]They laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. [54]But he took her by the hand and said, "My child, get up!"[r] [55]Her spirit returned, and at once she stood up. Then Jesus told them to give her something to eat. [56]Her parents were astonished, but he ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.[s]

9 When Jesus had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority to drive out all demons[t] and to cure diseases,[u] [2]and he sent them out to preach the kingdom of God[v]

"Take nothing for the journey—no staff, no bag, no bread, no money, no extra tunic.[w] [4]Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that town. [5]If people do not welcome you, leave their town, as a testimony against them."[x] [6]So they set out and went

9:13-17Ref — 2Ki 4:42-44

10 When the apostles[g] returned, they reported to Jesus what they had done.
Then he took them with him and they withdrew by themselves to a town called Bethsaida,[h] 11 but the crowds learned about it and followed him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God,[i] and healed those who needed healing.
12 Late in the afternoon the Twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away so they can go to the surrounding villages and countryside and find food and lodging, because we are in a remote place here." 13 He replied, "You give them something to eat."
They answered, "We have only five loaves of bread and two fish—unless we go and buy food for all this crowd." 14 (About five thousand men were there.)
But he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each." 15 The disciples did so, and everybody sat down. 16 Taking the five
them.[j] Then he gave them to the disciples to set before the people. 17 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Peter's Confession of Christ

9:18-20pp — Mt 16:13-16; Mk 8:27-29
9:22-27pp — Mt 16:21-28; Mk 8:31 — 9:1

18 Once when Jesus was praying[k] in private and his disciples were with him, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say I am?"
19 They replied, "Some say John the Baptist;[l] others say Elijah; and still others, that one of the prophets of long ago has come back to life."[m] 20 "But what about you?" he asked.
"Who do you say I am?"
Peter answered, "The Christ[i] of God."[n] 21 Jesus strictly warned them not to tell this to anyone.[o] 22 And he said, "The Son of Man[p] must suffer many things[q] and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law,[r] and he must be killed[s] and on the third day[t] be raised to life."[u] 23 Then he said to them all: "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.[v] 24 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will save it.[w] 25 What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, and yet lose or forfeit his very self? 26 If anyone is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him[x] when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.[y] 27 I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration

9:28-36pp — Mt 17:1-8; Mk 9:2-8

28 About eight days after Jesus said this, he took Peter, John and James[z] with him and went up onto a mountain to pray.[a] 29 As he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became as bright as a flash of lightning. 30 Two men, Moses and Elijah, 31 appeared in glorious splendor, talking with Jesus. They spoke about his departure,[b] which he was about to bring to fulfillment at Jerusalem. 32 Peter and his companions were very sleepy,[c] but when they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. 33 As the men were leaving Jesus, Peter said to him, "Master,[d] it is good for us to be here.
Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." (He did not know what he was saying.) 34 While he was speaking, a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.
35 A voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, whom I have chosen;[e] listen to him."[f] 36 When the voice had spoken, they found that Jesus was alone. The disciples kept this to them-

37The next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met him. 38A man in the crowd called out, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. 39A spirit seizes him and he suddenly screams; it throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It scarcely ever leaves him and is destroying him. 40I begged your disciples to drive it out, but they could not."

41"O unbelieving and perverse generation,"[b] Jesus replied, "how long shall I stay with you and put up with you? Bring your son here."

42Even while the boy was coming, the demon threw him to the ground in a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the evil[k] spirit, healed the boy and gave him back to his father. 43And they were all amazed at the greatness of God.

While everyone was marveling at all that Jesus did, he said to his disciples, 44"Listen carefully to what I am about to tell you: The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men."[c] 45But they did not understand what this meant. It was hidden from them, so that they did not grasp it,[d] and they were afraid to ask him about it.

Who Will Be the Greatest?

46An argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest.[e] 47Jesus, knowing their thoughts,[f] took a little child and had him stand beside him. 48Then he said to them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.[g] For he who is least among you all—he is the greatest."[h]

49"Master,"[i] said John, "we saw a man driving out demons in your name and we tried to stop him, because he is not one of us."

50"Do not stop him," Jesus said, "for whoever is not against you is for you."[j]

Samaritan Opposition

51As the time approached for him to be taken up to heaven,[k] Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem.[l] 52And he sent messengers on ahead, who went into a Samaritan[m] village to get things ready for him; 53but the people there did not welcome him, because he was heading for Jerusalem. 54When the disciples James and John[n] saw this, they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven to destroy them[l]?"[o] 55But Jesus turned and rebuked them, 56and[m] they went to another village.

57As they were walking along the road,[p] a man said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go."

58Jesus replied, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man[q] has no place to lay his head."

59He said to another man, "Follow me."[r]

But the man replied, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

60Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and proclaim the kingdom of God."[s]

61Still another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but first let me go back and say good-by to my family."[t]

62Jesus replied, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for service in the kingdom of God."

Jesus Sends Out the Seventy-two

10 After this the Lord[u] appointed seventy-two[n] others[v] and sent them two by two[w] ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go.[x] 2He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.[y] 3Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.[z] 4Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road.

5"When you enter a house, first say, 'Peace to this house.' 6If a man of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; if not, it will return to you. 7Stay in that

[10]But when you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say, [11]'Even the dust of your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you.[d] Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God is near.'[e] [12]I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom[f] than for that town.[g]

[13]"Woe to you,[h] Korazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth[i] and ashes. [14]But it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. [15]And you, Capernaum,[j] will you be lifted up to the skies? No, you will go down to the depths.[o]

[16]"He who listens to you listens to me; he who rejects you rejects me; but he who rejects me rejects him who sent me."[k]

[17]The seventy-two[l] returned with joy and said, "Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name."[m]

[18]He replied, "I saw Satan[n] fall like lightning from heaven.[o] [19]I have given you authority to trample on snakes[p] and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. [20]However, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."[q]

[21]At that time Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children.[r] Yes, Father, for this was your good pleasure.

[22]"All things have been committed to me by my Father.[s] No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."[t]

[23]Then he turned to his disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. [24]For I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it."[u]

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

[25]On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"[v]

[26]"What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?"

[27]He answered: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'[p];[w] and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'[q]"[x]

[28]"You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."[y]

[29]But he wanted to justify himself,[z] so he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

[30]In reply Jesus said: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. [31]A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side.[a] [32]So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. [33]But a Samaritan,[b] as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. [34]He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, took him to an inn and took care of him. [35]The next day he took out two silver coins[r] and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.'

[36]"Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?"

[37]The expert in the law replied, "The one who had mercy on him."

Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

At the Home of Martha and Mary [38]As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha[c] opened her home to him. [39]She had a sister called Mary,[d] who sat at the Lord's feet[e] listening to what he said. [40]But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made. She came to him and asked, "Lord, don't you care[f] that

Jesus' Teaching on Prayer

11:2-4pp — Mt 6:9-13
11:9-13pp — Mt 7:7-11

11 One day Jesus was praying[c] in a certain place. When he finished,
one of his disciples said to him,
"Lord,[d] teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples." 2He said to them, "When you pray,
say:

"'Father,[t] hallowed be your name, your kingdom[e] come.[u] 3Give us each day our daily bread.
4Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us.[v][f]
And lead us not into temptation.[w]'"[g]

5Then he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and he goes to him at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, 6because a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have nothing to set before
him.' 7"Then the one inside answers, 'Don't bother me. The door is already locked, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give you anything.' 8I tell you, though he will not get up and give him the bread because he is his friend, yet because of the man's boldness[x] he will get up and give him as much as he needs.[h] 9"So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you;[i] seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. 10For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened.
11"Which of you fathers, if your son asks for[y] a fish, will give him a snake instead? 12Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? 13If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask
him!"

Jesus and Beelzebub

14Jesus was driving out a demon that was mute. When the demon left, the man who had been mute spoke, and the crowd was amazed.[j] 15But some of them said, "By Beelzebub,[z][k] the prince of demons, he is driving out demons."[l] 16Others tested him by asking for a sign from heaven.[m] 17Jesus knew their thoughts[n] and said to them: "Any kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and a house divided against itself will fall. 18If Satan[o] is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand? I say this because you claim that I drive out demons by Beelzebub. 19Now if I drive out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your followers drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. 20But if I drive out demons by the finger of God,[p] then the kingdom of God[q] has come to you.
21"When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own house, his possessions are safe. 22But when someone stronger attacks and overpowers him, he takes away the armor in which the man trusted and divides up the spoils.
23"He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me, scatters.[r] 24"When an evil[a] spirit comes out of a man, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.'
swept clean and put in order. 26Then it goes and takes seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that man is worse than the first."[s] 27As Jesus was saying these things, a woman in the crowd called out, "Blessed is the mother who gave you birth and nursed you."[t] 28He replied, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God[u] and obey it."[v]

The Sign of Jonah

11:29-32pp — Mt 12:39-42

29 As the crowds increased, Jesus said, "This is a wicked generation. It asks for a miraculous sign,[a] but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah.[b] 30 For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation. 31 The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom,[c] and now one[b] greater than Solomon is here. 32 The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah,[d] and now one greater than Jonah is here.

The Lamp of the Body

33 "No one lights a lamp and puts it in a place where it will be hidden, or under a bowl. Instead he puts it on its stand, so that those who come in may see the light.[e] 34 Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eyes are good, your whole body also is full of light.
But when they are bad, your body also is full of darkness. 35 See to it, then, that the light within you is not darkness.
36 Therefore, if your whole body is full of light, and no part of it dark, it will be completely lighted, as when the light of a lamp shines on you."

Six Woes

37 When Jesus had finished speaking, a Pharisee invited him to eat with him; so he went in and reclined at the table.[f] 38 But the Pharisee, noticing that Jesus did not first wash before the meal,[g] was surprised.

39 Then the Lord[h] said to him, "Now then, you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.[i] 40 You foolish people![j] Did not the one who made the outside make the inside also?
41 But give what is inside ⌞the dish⌟[c] to the poor,[k] and everything will be clean for you.[l]

42 "Woe to you Pharisees, because you give God a tenth[m] of your mint, rue and all other kinds of garden herbs, but you neglect justice and the love of God.[n] You should have practiced the latter without leaving the former undone.[o]

43 "Woe to you Pharisees, because you love the most important seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.[p]

44 "Woe to you, because you are like unmarked graves,[q] which men walk over without knowing it."

45 One of the experts in the law[r] answered him, "Teacher, when you say these things, you insult us also."

46 Jesus replied, "And you experts in the law, woe to you, because you load people down with burdens they can hardly carry, and you yourselves will not lift one finger to help them.[s]

47 "Woe to you, because you build tombs for the prophets, and it was your forefathers who killed them. 48 So you testify that you approve of what your forefathers did; they killed the prophets, and you build their tombs.[t] 49 Because of this, God in his wisdom[u] said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and others they will persecute.'[v] 50 Therefore this generation will be held responsible for the blood of all the prophets that has been shed since the beginning of the world, 51 from the blood of Abel[w] to the blood of Zechariah,[x] who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, this generation will be held responsible for it all.[y]

52 "Woe to you experts in the law, because you have taken away the key to knowledge. You yourselves have not entered, and you have hindered those who were entering."[z]

53 When Jesus left there, the Pharisees and the teachers of the law began to oppose him fiercely and to besiege him with questions, 54 waiting to catch him in something he might say.[a]

Warnings and Encouragements

12:2-9pp — Mt 10:26-33

12 Meanwhile, when a crowd of many thousands had gathered, so that they were trampling on one another, Jesus began to speak first to his disciples, saying: "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.[b] 2 There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known.[c]

The Parable of the Rich Fool

13Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

14Jesus replied, "Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?" 15Then he said to them, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."[k]

16And he told them this parable: "The ground of a certain rich man produced a good crop. 17He thought to himself, 'What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.'

18"Then he said, 'This is what I'll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. 19And I'll say to myself, "You have plenty of good things laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry." '

20"But God said to him, 'You fool![l] This very night your life will be demanded from you.[m] Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?'[n]

21"This is how it will be with anyone who stores up things for himself but is not rich toward God."[o]

22Then Jesus said to his disciples: "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear. 23Life is more than food, and the body more than clothes. 24Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn; yet God feeds them.[p] And how much more valuable you are than birds! 25Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life[e]? 26Since you cannot do this very little thing, why do you worry about the rest?

27"Consider how the lilies grow. They do not labor or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendor[q] was dressed like one of these. 28If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today, and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith![r] 29And do not set your heart on what you will eat or drink; do not worry about it. 30For the pagan world runs after all such things, and your Father[s] knows that you need them.[t] 31But seek his kingdom,[u] and these things will be given to you as well.[v] 32"Do not be afraid,[w] little flock, for your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom.[x] 33Sell your possessions and give to the poor.[y] Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven[z] that will not be exhausted, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.[a] 34For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.[b]

Watchfulness

12:39,40; 42-46pp — Mt 24:43-51

35"Be dressed ready for service and keep your lamps burning, 36like men waiting for their master to return from a wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him. 37It will be good for those servants whose master finds them watching when he comes.[c] I tell you the truth, he will dress himself to serve, will have them recline at the table and will come and wait on them.[d] 38It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, even if he comes in the second or third watch of the night. 39But understand

[d]6 Greek two assaria [e]25 Or single cubit to his height this: If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief[a] was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. 40You also must be ready,[b] because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him." 41Peter asked, "Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everyone?" 42The Lord[c] answered, "Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his servants to give them their food allowance at the proper time? 43It will be good for that servant whom the master finds doing so when he returns. 44I tell you the truth, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. 45But suppose the servant says to himself, 'My master is taking a long time in coming,' and he then begins to beat the menservants and maidservants and to eat and drink and get drunk. 46The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of.[d] He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

47"That servant who knows his master's will and does not get ready or does not do what his master wants will be beaten with many blows.[e] 48But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows.[f] From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.

Not Peace but Division

12:51-53pp — Mt 10:34-36

49"I have come to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! 50But I have a baptism[g] to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is completed![h] 51Do you think I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but division. 52From now on there will be five in one family divided against each other, three against two and two against three. 53They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."[i]

Interpreting the Times

54He said to the crowd: "When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, 'It's going to rain,' and it does.[j] 55And when the south wind blows, you say, 'It's going to be hot,' and it is. 56Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky. How is it that you don't know how to interpret this present time?[k] 57"Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right? 58As you are going with your adversary to the magistrate, try hard to be reconciled to him on the way, or he may drag you off to the judge, and the judge turn you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.[l] 59I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.[l]"[m]

Repent or Perish

13 Now there were some present at that time who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate[n] had mixed with their sacrifices. 2Jesus answered, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans because they suffered this way?[o] 3I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish. 4Or those eighteen who died when the tower in Siloam[p] fell on them—do you think they were more guilty than all the others living in Jerusalem? 5I tell you, no! But unless you repent,[q] you too will all perish." 6Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree, planted in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it, but did not find any.[r] 7So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, 'For three years now I've been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Cut it down![s] Why should it use up the soil?' 8" 'Sir,' the man replied, 'leave it alone for one more year, and I'll dig around it and fertilize it. 9If it bears fruit next year, fine! If not, then cut it down.' "

A Crippled Woman Healed on the Sabbath

10On a Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues,[t] 11and a woman was there who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years.[u] She was bent over and could not straighten up at all. 12When Jesus saw her, he called her forward and said to her, "Woman, you are set free from your infirmity." 13Then he put his hands on her,[a] and immediately she straightened up and praised God.

14Indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath,[b] the synagogue ruler[c] said to the people, "There are six days for work.[d] So come and be healed on those days, not on the Sabbath." 15The Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it out to give it water?[e] 16Then should not this woman, a daughter of Abraham,[f] whom Satan[g] has kept bound for eighteen long years, be set free on the Sabbath day from what bound her?" 17When he said this, all his opponents were humiliated,[h] but the people were delighted with all the wonderful things he was doing.

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast

13:18,19pp — Mk 4:30-32

18Then Jesus asked, "What is the kingdom of God[i] like?[j] What shall I compare it to? 19It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his garden. It grew and became a tree,[k] and the birds of the air perched in its branches."[l] 20Again he asked, "What shall I compare the kingdom of God to? 21It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into a large amount[g] of flour until it worked all through the dough."[m]

The Narrow Door

22Then Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as he made his way to Jerusalem.[n] 23Someone asked him, "Lord, are only a few people going to be saved?"
He said to them, 24"Make every effort to enter through the narrow door,[o] because many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able to. 25Once the owner of the house gets up and closes the door, you will stand outside knocking and pleading, 'Sir, open the door for us.'
"But he will answer, 'I don't know you or where you come from.'[p] 26"Then you will say, 'We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.' 27"But he will reply, 'I don't know you or where you come from. Away from me, all you evildoers!'[q]

Jesus' Sorrow for Jerusalem

13:34,35pp — Mt 23:37-39
13:34,35Ref — Lk 19:41

31At that time some Pharisees came to Jesus and said to him, "Leave this place and go somewhere else. Herod[u] wants to kill you." 32He replied, "Go tell that fox, 'I will drive out demons and heal people today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach my goal.'[v] 33In any case, I must keep going today and tomorrow and the next day—for surely no prophet[w] can die outsid Jerusalem!
34"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who
to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings,[x] but you were not willing! 35Look, your house is left to you desolate.[y] I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'[h]"[z]

Jesus at a Pharisee's House

14:8-10Ref — Pr 25:6,7

14 One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee,[a] he was being carefully watched.[b] 2There in front of him was a man suffering from dropsy. 3Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in the law,[c] "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?"[d] 4But they remained silent. So taking hold of the man, he healed him and sent him away.
5Then he asked them, "If one of you has a son[i] or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day, will you not immediately pull him out?"[e] 6And they had nothing to say.
7When he noticed how the guests picked the places of honor at the table,[f] he told them this parable: 8"When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of hon-g21 Greek three satas (probably about 1/2 bushel or 22 liters) h35 Psalm 118:26 i5 Some manuscripts donkey or, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited. 9If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, 'Give this man your seat.' Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place.

10But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all your fellow guests. 11For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."[a]

12Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or relatives, or your rich neighbors; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. 13But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind,[b] 14and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."[c]

The Parable of the Great Banquet

15When one of those at the table with him heard this, he said to Jesus, "Blessed is the man who will eat at the feast[d] in the kingdom of God."[e] 16Jesus replied: "A certain man was preparing a great banquet and invited many guests. 17At the time of the banquet he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.'

18"But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said, 'I have just bought a field, and I must go and see it.
Please excuse me.'

19"Another said, 'I have just bought five yoke of oxen, and I'm on my way to try them out. Please excuse me.'

20"Still another said, 'I just got married, so I can't come.'

21"The servant came back and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and ordered his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame.'[f]

22" 'Sir,' the servant said, 'what you ordered has been done, but there is still room.'

23"Then the master told his servant, 'Go out to the roads and country lanes and make them come in, so that my house will be full. 24I tell you, not one of those men who were invited will get a taste of my banquet.' "[g]

The Cost of Being a Disciple

25Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them he said: 26"If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother, his wife and children, his brothers and sisters—yes, even his own life—he cannot be my disciple.[h] 27And anyone who does not carry his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.[i]

28"Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Will he not first sit down and estimate the cost to see if he has enough money to complete it? 29For if he lays the foundation and is not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule him, 30saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.'

31"Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Will he not first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand? 32If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace. 33In the same way, any of you who does not give up everything he has cannot be my disciple.[j]

34"Salt is good, but if it loses its salti-ness, how can it be made salty again?[k] 35It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile; it is thrown out.[l]

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

15 Now the tax collectors[n] and "sinners" were all gathering around to hear him. 2But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them."[o]

3Then Jesus told them this parable:[p] 4"Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Does he not leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?[q] 5And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders 6and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.'[r] 7I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing sons who do not need to repent.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

8"Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Does she not light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? 9And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.' 10In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Parable of the Lost Son

11Jesus continued: "There was a man who had two sons. 12The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So he divided his property between them.

13"Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living. 14After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. 15So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. 16He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.

17"When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired men have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! 18I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. 19I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired men.' 20So he got up and went to his father.

"But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

21"The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22"But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. 23Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let's have a feast and celebrate. 24For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' So they began to celebrate.

25"Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing.
26So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on. 27'Your brother has come,' he replied, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'

28"The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. 29But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I've been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. 30But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!'

31"'My son,' the father said, 'you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. 32But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'"

The Parable of the Shrewd Manager

16 Jesus told his disciples: "There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions. 2So he called him in and asked him, 'What is this I hear about you?
Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.'

3"The manager said to himself, 'What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I'm not strong enough to dig, and I'm ashamed to beg— 4I know what I'll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.'

5"So he called in each one of his master's debtors. He asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

6"'Eight hundred gallons of olive oil,' he replied.

"The manager told him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred.'

7"Then he asked the second, 'And how much do you owe?'

"'A thousand bushels[m] of wheat,' he replied.
"He told him, 'Take your bill and 8"The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world[a] are more shrewd[b] in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light.[c] 9I tell you, use worldly wealth[d] to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.[e] 10"Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much,[f] and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.

11So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth,[g] who will trust you with true riches? 12And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own?
13"No servant can serve two masters.
Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money."[h] 14The Pharisees, who loved money,[i] heard all this and were sneering at Jesus.[j] 15He said to them, "You are the ones who justify yourselves[k] in the eyes of men, but God knows your hearts.[l] What is highly valued among men is detestable in God's sight.

Additional Teachings

16"The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John.[m] Since that time, the good news of the kingdom of God is being preached,[n] and everyone is forcing his way into it. 17It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the least stroke of a pen to drop out of the Law.[o] 18"Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and the man who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.[p]

The Rich Man and Lazarus

19"There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day.[q] 20At his gate was laid a beggar[r] named Lazarus, covered with sores 21and longing to eat what fell from the rich man's table.[s] Even the dogs came and licked his sores.
22"The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. 23In hell,[n] where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. 24So he called to him, 'Father Abraham,[t] have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.'[u] 25"But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things,[v] but now he is comforted here and you are in agony.[w] 26And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.' 27"He answered, 'Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my father's house, 28for I have five brothers. Let him warn them,[x] so that they will not also come to this place of torment.' 29"Abraham replied, 'They have Moses[y] and the Prophets;[z] let them listen to them.' 30"'No, father Abraham,'[a] he said, 'but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' 31"He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

Sin, Faith, Duty

17 Jesus said to his disciples:
"Things that cause people to sin[b] are bound to come, but woe to that person through whom they come.[c] 2It would be better for him to be thrown into the sea with a millstone tied around his neck than for him to cause one of these little ones[d] to sin.[e] 3So watch yourselves.
"If your brother sins, rebuke him,[f] and if he repents, forgive him.[g] 4If he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times comes back to you and says, 'I repent,' forgive him."[h] 5The apostles[i] said to the Lord,[j] "Increase our faith!" 6He replied, "If you have faith as small as a mustard seed,[k] you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it will obey you.[l] 7"Suppose one of you had a servant plowing or looking after the sheep.

Ten Healed of Leprosy

11Now on his way to Jerusalem,[c] Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee.[d] 12As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy[e,o] met him. They stood at a distance[f] 13and called out in a loud voice, "Jesus, Master,[g] have pity on us!"

14When he saw them, he said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests."[h] And as they went, they were cleansed.

15One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God[i] in a loud voice. 16He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan.[j]

17Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? 18Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" 19Then he said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."[k]

The Coming of the Kingdom of God

20Once, having been asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come,[l] Jesus replied, "The kingdom of God does not come with your careful observation, 21nor will people say, 'Here it is,' or 'There it is,'[m] because the kingdom of God is within[p] you."

22Then he said to his disciples, "The time is coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man,[n] but you will not see it.[o] 23Men will tell you, 'There he is!' or 'Here he is!' Do not go running off after them.[p] 24For the Son of Man in his day[q] will be like the lightning,[q] which flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other. 25But first he must suffer many things[r] and be rejected[s] by this generation.[t]

26"Just as it was in the days of Noah,[u] so also will it be in the days of the Son of Man. 27People were eating, drinking, marrying and being given in marriage up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

28"It was the same in the days of Lot.[v] People were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building. 29But the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all.

30"It will be just like this on the day the Son of Man is revealed.[w] 31On that day no one who is on the roof of his house, with his goods inside, should go down to get them. Likewise, no one in the field should go back for anything.[x] 32Remember Lot's wife![y] 33Whoever tries to keep his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it.[z] 34I tell you, on that night two people will be in one bed; one will be taken and the other left. 35Two women will be grinding grain together; one will be taken and the other left.[r]"[a] 37"Where, Lord?" they asked.

He replied, "Where there is a dead body, there the vultures will gather."[b]

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18 Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up.[c] 2He said: "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared about men. 3And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea, 'Grant me justice[d] against my adversary.'

4"For some time he refused. But finally he said to himself, 'Even though I don't fear God or care about men, 5yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she won't eventually wear me out with her coming!'"[e]

6And the Lord[f] said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. 7And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out[g] to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? 8I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man[h] comes,[i] will he find faith on the earth?"

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

9To some who were confident of their own righteousness[a] and looked down on everybody else,[b] Jesus told this parable: 10"Two men went up to the temple to pray,[c] one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11The Pharisee stood up[d] and prayed about[a] himself: 'God, I thank you that I am not like other men—robbers, evildoers, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. 12I fast[e] twice a week and give a tenth[f] of all I get.'

13"But the tax collector stood at a distance. He would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast[g] and said, 'God, have mercy on me, a sinner.'[h] 14"I tell you that this man, rather than the other, went home justified before God. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."[i]

15People were also bringing babies to Jesus to have him touch them. When the disciples saw this, they rebuked them. 16But Jesus called the children to him and said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them,
for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. 17I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child[j] will never enter it."

The Rich Ruler

18:18-30pp — Mt 19:16-29; Mk 10:17-30

18A certain ruler asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"[k]

answered. "No one is good—except God alone. 20You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.'[b]"[l]

21"All these I have kept since I was a boy," he said.

22When Jesus heard this, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell everything you have and give to the poor,[m] and you will have treasure in heaven.[n] Then come, follow me."

23When he heard this, he became very sad, because he was a man of great wealth. 24Jesus looked at him and said, "How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God![o] 25Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26Those who heard this asked, "Who then can be saved?"

27Jesus replied, "What is impossible with men is possible with God."[p] 28Peter said to him, "We have left all we had to follow you!"[q]

29"I tell you the truth," Jesus said to them, "no one who has left home or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God 30will fail to receive many times as much in this age and, in the age to come,[r] eternal life."[s]

31Jesus took the Twelve aside and told them, "We are going up to Jerusalem,[t] and everything that is written by the prophets[u] about the Son of Man[v] will be fulfilled. 32He will be handed over to the Gentiles.[w] They will mock him, insult him, spit on him, flog him[x] and kill him.[y] 33On the third day[z] he will rise again."[a]

34The disciples did not understand any of this. Its meaning was hidden from them, and they did not know what he was talking about.[b]

A Blind Beggar Receives His Sight

35As Jesus approached Jericho,[c] a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. 36When he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening. 37They told him, "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by."[d] 38He called out, "Jesus, Son of David,[e] have mercy[f] on me!"

39Those who led the way rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"[g]

40Jesus stopped and ordered the man to be brought to him. When he came near, Jesus asked him, 41"What do you want me to do for you?"

"Lord, I want to see," he replied.

42Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has healed you."[h] 43Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, praising God. When all the people saw it, they also praised God.[i]

Zacchaeus the Tax Collector

19 Jesus entered Jericho[a] and was passing through. 2A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy. 3He wanted to see who Jesus was, but being a short man he could not, because of the crowd. 4So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig[b] tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way.[c] 5When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today." 6So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly.
7All the people saw this and began to mutter, "He has gone to be the guest of a 'sinner.' "[d] 8But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord,[e] "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything,[f] I will pay back four times the amount."[g] 9Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham.[h] 10For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost."[i]

The Parable of the Ten Minas

19:12-27Ref — Mt 25:14-30

11While they were listening to this, he went on to tell them a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and the people thought that the kingdom of God[j] was going to appear at once.[k] 12He said: "A man of noble birth went to a distant country to have himself appointed king and then to return. 13So he called ten of his servants[l] and gave them ten minas.[a] 'Put this money to work,' he said, 'until I come back.' 14"But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, 'We don't want this man to be our king.' 15"He was made king, however, and returned home. Then he sent for the servants to whom he had given the money, in order to find out what they had gained with it.
16"The first one came and said, 'Sir, your mina has earned ten more.' 17" 'Well done, my good servant!'[m] his master replied. 'Because you have been trustworthy in a very small matter, take charge of ten cities.'[n] 18"The second came and said, 'Sir, your mina has earned five more.'

said, 'Sir, here is your mina; I have kept it laid away in a piece of cloth. 21I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You take out what you did not put in and reap what you did not sow.'[o] 22"His master replied, 'I will judge you by your own words,[p] you wicked servant! You knew, did you, that I am a hard man, taking out what I did not put in, and reaping what I did not sow?[q] 23Why then didn't you put my money on deposit, so that when I came back, I could have collected it with interest?' 24"Then he said to those standing by,
'Take his mina away from him and give it to the one who has ten minas.' 25" 'Sir,' they said, 'he already has ten!' 26"He replied, 'I tell you that to but as for the one who has nothing, even what he has will be taken away.[r] not want me to be king over them—

28After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.[s] 29As he approached Bethphage and Bethany[t] at the hill called the Mount of Olives,[u] he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 30"Go to the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will
ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here.
31If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' tell him, 'The Lord needs it.' " 32Those who were sent ahead went and found it just as he had told them.[v] 33As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" 34They replied, "The Lord needs it." 35They brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt and put Jesus on it. 36As he went along, people spread their cloaks[w] on the road.
37When he came near the place where the road goes down the Mount of Olives,[x] the whole crowd of disciples began joyfully to praise God in said to Jesus, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!"[c] 40"I tell you," he replied, "if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out."[d] 41As he approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it[e] 42and said, "If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes. 43The days will come upon you when your enemies will build an

45Then he entered the temple area and began driving out those who were selling. 46"It is written," he said to them, " 'My house will be a house of prayer'[w];[j] but you have made it 'a den of robbers.'[x]"[k] 47Every day he was teaching at the temple.[l] But the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the leaders among the people were trying to kill him.[m] 48Yet they could not find any way to do it, because all the people hung on his words.

20:1-8pp — Mt 21:23-27; Mk 11:27-33

20 One day as he was teaching the people in the temple courts[n] and preaching the gospel,[o] the chief priests and the teachers of the law, together with the elders, came up to him. 2"Tell us by what authority you are doing these things," they said. "Who gave you this authority?"[p] 3He replied, "I will also ask you a question. Tell me, 4John's baptism[q] —was it from heaven, or from men?" 5They discussed it among themselves
and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask, 'Why didn't you believe him?' 6But if we say, 'From men,' all the people[r] will stone us, because they are persuaded that John was a prophet."[s] 7So they answered, "We don't know where it was from." 8Jesus said, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

9He went on to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard,[t] rented it to some farmers and went away for a long time.[u] 10At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants so they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed.
11He sent another servant, but that one also they beat and treated shamefully and sent away empty-handed. 12He sent still a third, and they wounded him and threw him out.
13"Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my son, whom I love;[v] perhaps they will respect him.' 14"But when the tenants saw him, they talked the matter over. 'This is the heir,' they said. 'Let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 15So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.
"What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? 16He will come and kill those tenants[w] and give the vineyard to others."
When the people heard this, they said, "May this never be!" 17Jesus looked directly at them and asked, "Then what is the meaning of that which is written:

has become the capstone[y]'[z]?[x]

18Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but he on whom it falls will be crushed."[y] 19The teachers of the law and the chief priests looked for a way to arrest him[z] immediately, because they knew he had spoken this parable against them. But they were afraid of the people.[a]

sent spies, who pretended to be honest. They hoped to catch Jesus in something he said[a] so that they might hand him over to the power and authority of the governor.[b] 21So the spies questioned him: "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach what is right, and that you do not show partiality but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth.[c] 22Is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?" 23He saw through their duplicity and said to them, 24"Show me a denarius.
Whose portrait and inscription are on it?"
25"Caesar's," they replied.
He said to them, "Then give to Caesar what is Caesar's,[d] and to God what is God's."
26They were unable to trap him in what he had said there in public. And astonished by his answer, they became silent.

The Resurrection and Marriage

27Some of the Sadducees,[e] who say there is no resurrection,[f] came to Jesus with a question. 28"Teacher," they
said, "Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife
brother.[g] 29Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died childless. 30The second 31and then the third married her, and in the same way the seven died, leaving no children. 32Finally, the woman died too. 33Now then, at the resurrection whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?" 34Jesus replied, "The people of this age marry and are given in marriage.
35But those who are considered worthy of taking part in that age[h] and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage, 36and they can no longer die; for they are like the angels. They are God's children,[i] since they are children of the resurrection. 37But in the account of the bush, even Moses showed that the dead rise, for he calls the Lord 'the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'[a][j] 38He is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive." 39Some of the teachers of the law responded, "Well said, teacher!" 40And no one dared to ask him any more questions.[k]

Whose Son Is the Christ?

41Then Jesus said to them, "How is it that they say the Christ[b] is the Son of David?[l] 42David himself declares in the Book of Psalms:

" 'The Lord said to my Lord:
"Sit at my right hand 43until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet." '[c][m] 44David calls him 'Lord.' How then can he be his son?"

45While all the people were listening, Jesus said to his disciples, 46"Beware of the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and love to be greeted in the marketplaces and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets.[n] 47They devour widows' houses and for a show make lengthy
prayers. Such men will be punished most severely."

21 As he looked up, Jesus saw the rich putting their gifts into the temple treasury.[o] 2He also saw a poor widow put in two very small copper coins.[d] 3"I tell you the truth," he said, "this poor widow has put in more than all the others. 4All these people gave their gifts out of their wealth; but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on."[p]

21:12-17pp — Mt 10:17-22

5Some of his disciples were remarking about how the temple was adorned with beautiful stones and with gifts dedicated to God. But Jesus said, 6"As for what you see here, the time will come when not one stone will be left on another;[q] every one of them will be thrown down." 7"Teacher," they asked, "when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place?" 8He replied: "Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and,
'The time is near.' Do not follow end will not come right away." 10Then he said to them: "Nation will against kingdom.[b] 11There will be great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven.[c] 12"But before all this, they will lay hands on you and persecute you. They will deliver you to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors, and all on account of my name. 13This will result in your being witnesses to them.[d] 14But make up your mind not to worry beforehand how you will defend yourselves.[e] 15For I will give you[f] words saries will be able to resist or contradict. 16You will be betrayed even by surrounded by armies,[k] you will know that its desolation is near. 21Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those in the city get out, the city.[l] 22For this is the time of punishment[m] in fulfillment[n] of all that has been written. 23How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers! There will be great distress in the land and wrath against this people. 24They will fall by the sword and will be taken as prisoners to all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled[o] on by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

25"There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars. On the earth, nations will be in anguish and perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea.[p] 26Men will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken.[q] 27At that time they will see the Son of Man[r] coming in a cloud[s] with power and great glory. 28When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."[t]

temple,[a] and each evening he went out[b] to spend the night on the hill called the Mount of Olives,[c] 38and all the people came early in the morning to hear him at the temple.[d]

22 Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover, was approaching,[e] 2and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were looking for some way to get rid of Jesus,[f] for they were afraid of the people.
3Then Satan[g] entered Judas, called Iscariot,[h] one of the Twelve. 4And Judas went to the chief priests and the officers of the temple guard[i] and discussed with them how he might betray Jesus. 5They were delighted and agreed to give him money.[j] 6He consented, and watched for an opportunity to hand Jesus over to them when no crowd was present.

The Last Supper

22:7-13pp — Mt 26:17-19; Mk 14:12-16 22:17-20pp — Mt 26:26-29; Mk 14:22-25; 1Co 11:23-25
22:21-23pp — Mt 26:21-24; Mk 14:18-21; Jn 13:21-30
22:25-27pp — Mt 20:25-28; Mk 10:42-45
22:33,34pp — Mt 26:33-35; Mk 14:29-31; Jn 13:37,38

7Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.[k] 8Jesus sent Peter and John,[l] saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover." 9"Where do you want us to prepare for it?" they asked.
10He replied, "As you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet

[e]32 Or race

you. Follow him to the house that he enters, 11and say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' 12He will show you a large upper room, all furnished.
Make preparations there."

13They left and found things just as Jesus had told them.[a] So they prepared the Passover.

14When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles[b] reclined at the table.[c] 15And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.[d] 16For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it finds fulfillment in the kingdom of God."[e] 17After taking the cup, he gave thanks and said, "Take this and divide it among you. 18For I tell you I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

19And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it,[f] and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

20In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant[g] in my blood, which is poured out for you. 21But the hand of him who is going to betray me is with mine on the table.[h] 22The Son of Man[i] will go as it has been decreed,[j] but woe to that man who betrays him." 23They began to question among themselves which of them it might be who would do this.

24Also a dispute arose among them as to which of them was considered to be greatest.[k] 25Jesus said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who exercise authority over them call themselves Benefactors. 26But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest,[l] and the one who rules like the one who serves.[m] 27For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who is at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.[n] 28You are those who have stood by me in my trials. 29And I confer on you a kingdom,[o] just as my Father conferred one on me, 30so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom[p] and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.[q]

31"Simon, Simon, Satan has asked[r] to sift you[f] as wheat.[s] 32But I have prayed for you,[t] Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers."[u]

33But he replied, "Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death."[v] 34Jesus answered, "I tell you, Peter, before the rooster crows today, you will deny three times that you know

me."

35Then Jesus asked them, "When I sent you without purse, bag or sandals,[w] did you lack anything?"

"Nothing," they answered.

36He said to them, "But now if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag; and if you don't have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one. 37It is written:
'And he was numbered with the trans-gressors'[g];[x] and I tell you that this must be fulfilled in me. Yes, what is written about me is reaching its fulfillment."

38The disciples said, "See, Lord, here are two swords."

"That is enough," he replied.

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

39Jesus went out as usual[y] to the Mount of Olives,[z] and his disciples followed him. 40On reaching the place, he said to them, "Pray that you will not fall into temptation."[a] 41He withdrew about a stone's throw beyond them, knelt down[b] and prayed, 42"Father, if you are willing, take this cup[c] from me; yet not my will, but yours be done."[d] 43An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him.[e] 44And being in anguish, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground.[h]

45When he rose from prayer and went back to the disciples, he found them asleep, exhausted from sorrow.
46"Why are you sleeping?" he asked them. "Get up and pray so that you will not fall into temptation."[f]

47While he was still speaking a crowd came up, and the man who was called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss him, 48but Jesus asked him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"

49When Jesus' followers saw what was going to happen, they said, "Lord, the high priest, cutting off his right ear.

52Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple guard,[b] and the elders, who had come for him, "Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come with swords and clubs?

54Then seizing him, they led him away and took him into the house of the high priest.[f] Peter followed at a distance.[g] 55But when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter sat down with them. 56A servant girl saw him seated there in the firelight.
She looked closely at him and said,
"This man was with him." 57But he denied it. "Woman, I don't know him," he said.
58A little later someone else saw him and said, "You also are one of them."
"Man, I am not!" Peter replied.
59About an hour later another asserted, "Certainly this fellow was with him, for he is a Galilean."[h] 60Peter replied, "Man, I don't know what you're talking about!" Just as he was speaking, the rooster crowed.
61The Lord[i] turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word the Lord had spoken to him: "Before the rooster crows today, you will disown me three times."[j] 62And he went outside and wept bitterly.

63The men who were guarding Jesus began mocking and beating him.
64They blindfolded him and demanded, "Prophesy! Who hit you?" 65And they said many other insulting things to him.[k]

Jesus Before Pilate and Herod

22:67-71pp — Mt 26:63-66; Mk 14:61-63; Jn 18:19-21
23:2,3pp — Mt 27:11-14; Mk 15:2-5; Jn 18:29-37
23:18-25pp — Mt 27:15-26; Mk 15:6-15; Jn 18:39 — 19:16

66At daybreak the council[l] of the elders of the people, both the chief priests and teachers of the law, met together,[m] and Jesus was led before them. 67"If you are the Christ,[l]" they said, "tell us." Jesus answered, "If I tell you, you will not believe me, 68and if I asked you, you would not answer.[n] 69But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty God."[o] 70They all asked, "Are you then the Son of God?"[p]
He replied, "You are right in saying I am."[q] 71Then they said, "Why do we need any more testimony? We have heard it from his own lips."

23 Then the whole assembly rose and led him off to Pilate.[r] 2And they began to accuse him, saying, "We have found this man subverting our nation.[s] He opposes payment of taxes to Caesar[t] and claims to be Christ,[j] a king."[u] 3So Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the king of the Jews?"
"Yes, it is as you say," Jesus replied.
4Then Pilate announced to the chief priests and the crowd, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."[v] 5But they insisted, "He stirs up the people all over Judea[k] by his teaching.
He started in Galilee[w] and has come all the way here." 6On hearing this, Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean.[x] 7When he learned that Jesus was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod,[y] who was also in Jerusalem at that time.
8When Herod saw Jesus, he was greatly pleased, because for a long time he had been wanting to see him.[z] From what he had heard about him, he hoped to see him perform some miracle. 9He plied him with many questions, but Jesus gave him no answer.[a] 10The chief priests and the teachers of the law were standing there, vehemently accusing him. 11Then Herod and his soldiers ridiculed and mocked him. Dressing him in an elegant robe,[b] they sent him back to Pilate. 12That day Herod and Pilate became friends[c]—before this they had been enemies.
13Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers and the people, 14and said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was inciting the people to rebellion. I have examined no basis for your charges against him.[a] 15Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us; as you can see, he has done nothing to deserve death. 16Therefore, I will punish him[b] and then release him.[l]" 18With one voice they cried out, "Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!"[c] 19(Barabbas had been thrown into prison for an insurrection in the city, and for murder.) 20Wanting to release Jesus, Pilate appealed to them again. 21But they kept shouting, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" 22For the third time he spoke to them: "Why? What crime has this man committed? I have found in him no grounds for the death penalty. Therefore I will have him punished and then release him."[d] 23But with loud shouts they insistently demanded that he be crucified, and their shouts prevailed. 24So Pilate decided to grant their demand. 25He released the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, the one they asked for, and surrendered Jesus to their will.

26As they led him away, they seized Simon from Cyrene,[e] who was on his way in from the country, and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus.[f] 27A large number of people followed him, including women who mourned and wailed[g] for him.
28Jesus turned and said to them, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep for yourselves and for your children.[h] 29For the time will come when you will say, 'Blessed are the barren women, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!'[i] 30Then

" 'they will say to the mountains,
"Fall on us!"
and to the hills, "Cover us!" '[m][j] 31For if men do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?"[k] 32Two other men, both criminals, were also led out with him to be executed.[l] 33When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified him, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left. 34Jesus said, "Father,[m] forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing."[n][n] And they divided up his clothes by casting lots.[o] 35The people stood watching, and the rulers even sneered at him.[p] They said, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One."[q] 36The soldiers also came up and mocked him.[r] They offered him wine vinegar[s] 37and said, "If you are the king of the Jews,[t] save yourself." 38There was a written notice above him, which read: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.[u] 39One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at him: "Aren't you the Christ? Save yourself and us!"[v] 40But the other criminal rebuked him.

"Don't you fear God," he said, "since you are under the same sentence? 41We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong."[w] 42Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.[o]"[x] 43Jesus answered him, "I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise."[y]

Jesus' Death

44It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour,[z] 45for the sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the temple[a] was torn in two.[b] 46Jesus called out with a loud voice,[c] "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit."[d] When he had said this, he breathed his last.[e] 47The centurion, seeing what had happened, praised God[f] and said, "Surely this was a righteous man." 48When all the people who had gathered to witness this sight saw what took place, they beat their breasts[g] and went away. 49But all those who knew him, including the women who had followed him from Galilee,[h] stood at a distance,[i] watching these things.

seph, a member of the Council, a good and upright man, 51who had not consented to their decision and action. He came from the Judean town of Arimathea and he was waiting for the kingdom of God. 52Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus' body. 53Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen cloth and placed it in a tomb cut in the rock, one in which no one had yet been laid. 54It was Preparation Day, and the Sabbath was about to begin.

55The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed Joseph and saw the tomb and how his body was laid in it. 56Then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath in obedience to the commandment.

24 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. 2They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. 5In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? 6He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 7'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.' " 8Then they remembered his words.

9When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. 10It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. 11But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 12Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

On the Road to Emmaus

13Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 14They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 15As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; 16but they were kept from recognizing him.

17He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?"

They stood still, their faces downcast. 18One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you only a visitor to Jerusalem and do not know the things that have happened there in these days?"

19"What things?" he asked.

"About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. 20The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; 21but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. 22In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning 23but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 24Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see."

25He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26Did not the Christ have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

28As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus acted as if he were going farther. 29But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.

30When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. 31Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 32They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

33They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together 34and saying, "It is true!
The Lord[a] has risen and has appeared to Simon."[b] 35Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread.[c]

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

36While they were still talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."[d] 37They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a ghost.[e] 38He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds?
39Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see;[f] a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have."
40When he had said this, he showed them his hands and feet. 41And while they still did not believe it because of joy and amazement, he asked them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" 42They gave him a piece of broiled fish, 43and he took it and ate it in their presence.[g] 44He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you:[h] Everything must be fulfilled[i] that is written about me in the Law of Moses,[j] the Prophets[k] and the Psalms."[l] 45Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures.
46He told them, "This is what is written: The Christ will suffer[m] and rise from the dead on the third day,[n] 47and repentance and forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name[o] to all nations,[p] beginning at Jerusalem.[q] 48You are witnesses[r] of these things. 49I am going to send you what my Father has promised;[s] but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high."

The Ascension

50When he had led them out to the vicinity of Bethany,[t] he lifted up his hands and blessed them. 51While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven.[u] 52Then they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy. 53And they stayed continually at the temple,[v] praising God.

John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word,[a] and the Word was with God,[b] and the Word was God.[c] [2]He was with God in the beginning.[d] [3]Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.[e] [4]In him was life,[f] and that life was the light[g] of men. [5]The light shines in the darkness,[h] but the darkness has not understood[a] it.[i] [6]There came a man who was sent from God; his name was John.[j] [7]He came as a witness to testify[k] concerning that light, so that through him all men might believe.[l] [8]He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light. [9]The true light[m] that gives light to every man[b] was coming into the world.[n] [10]He was in the world, and though the world was made through him,[o] the world did not recognize him. [11]He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him.[p] [12]Yet to all who received him, to those who believed[q] in his name,[r] he gave the right to become children of God[s]— [13]children born not of natural descent,[c] nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.[t] [14]The Word became flesh[u] and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory,[v] the glory of the One and Only,[d] who came from the Father, full of grace[w] and truth.[x] [15]John testifies[y] concerning him. He cries out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.' "[z] [16]From the fullness[a] of his grace[b] we have all received one blessing after another. [17]For the law was given through Moses;[c] grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.[d] [18]No one has ever seen God,[e] but God the One and Only,[d,e][f] who is at the Father's side, has made him known.

John the Baptist Denies Being the Christ

[19]Now this was John's[g] testimony when the Jews[h] of Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him who he was. [20]He did not fail to confess, but confessed freely, "I am not the Christ.[f]"[i] [21]They asked him, "Then who are you? Are you Elijah?"[j] He said, "I am not."
"Are you the Prophet?"[k]
He answered, "No." [22]Finally they said, "Who are you?
Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" [23]John replied in the words of Isaiah the prophet, "I am the voice of one calling in the desert,[l] 'Make straight the way for the Lord.' "[g][m] [24]Now some Pharisees who had been sent [25]questioned him, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?" [26]"I baptize with[h] water,"[n] John replied, "but among you stands one you do not know. [27]He is the one who comes after me,[o] the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie."[p] [28]This all happened at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan,[q] where John was baptizing.

Jesus the Lamb of God

[29]The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God,[r] who takes away the sin of the world![s] [30]This is the one I meant when I said, 'A man who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.'[t] [31]I myself did not know 32 Then John gave this testimony: "I saw the Spirit come down from heaven as a dove and remain on him.[a] 33 I would not have known him, except that the one who sent me to baptize with water[b] told me, 'The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is he who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.'[c] 34 I have seen and I testify that this is the Son of God."[d]

Jesus' First Disciples

1:40-42pp — Mt 4:18-22; Mk 1:16-20; Lk 5:2-11

35 The next day John[e] was there again with two of his disciples. 36 When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, "Look, the Lamb of God!"[f]

37 When the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus. 38 Turning around, Jesus saw them following and asked, "What do you want?"

They said, "Rabbi"[g] (which means Teacher), "where are you staying?"

39 "Come," he replied, "and you will see."

So they went and saw where he was staying, and spent that day with him. It was about the tenth hour.

40 Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard what John had said and who had followed Jesus. 41 The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, "We have found the Messiah" (that is, the Christ).[h] 42 And he brought him to Jesus.

Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You will be called[i] Cephas" (which, when translated, is Peter[i]).[j]

Jesus Calls Philip and Nathanael

43 The next day Jesus decided to leave for Galilee. Finding Philip,[k] he said to him, "Follow me."[l]

44 Philip, like Andrew and Peter, was from the town of Bethsaida.[m] 45 Philip found Nathanael[n] and told him, "We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law,[o] and about whom the prophets also wrote[p]—Jesus of Nazareth,[q] the son of Joseph."[r]

46 "Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?"[s] Nathanael asked.

"Come and see," said Philip.

47 When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, he said of him, "Here is a true Israelite,[t] in whom there is nothing false."[u]

48 "How do you know me?" Nathanael asked.

Jesus answered, "I saw you while you were still under the fig tree before Philip called you."

49 Then Nathanael declared, "Rabbi,[v] you are the Son of God;[w] you are the King of Israel."[x]

50 Jesus said, "You believe[j] because I told you I saw you under the fig tree. You shall see greater things than that." 51 He then added, "I tell you[k] the truth, you[k] shall see heaven open,[y] and the angels of God ascending and descending[z] on the Son of Man."[a]

Jesus Changes Water to Wine

2 On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee.[b] Jesus' mother[c] was there, 2 and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. 3 When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

4 "Dear woman,[d] why do you involve me?"[e] Jesus replied, "My time[f] has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."[g]

6 Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing,[h] each holding from twenty to thirty gallons.[l]

7 Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim.

8 Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet."

They did so, 9 and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine.[i] He did not realize where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside 10 and said, "Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now."

11 This, the first of his miraculous signs,[j] Jesus performed in Cana of Galilee. He thus revealed his glory,[k] and his disciples put their faith in him.[l]

12After this he went down to Capernaum[a] with his mother[b] and brothers[c] and his disciples. There they stayed for a few days.

13When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover,[d] Jesus went up to Jerusalem.[e] 14In the temple courts he found men selling cattle, sheep and doves,[f] and others sitting at tables exchanging money.[g] 15So he made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple area, both sheep and cattle; he scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. 16To those who sold doves he said, "Get these out of here! How dare you turn my Father's house[h] into a market!"

17His disciples remembered that it is written: "Zeal for your house will consume me."[m][i]

18Then the Jews[j] demanded of him, "What miraculous sign[k] can you show us to prove your authority to do all this?"[l]

19Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days."[m]

20The Jews replied, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?" 21But the temple he had spoken of was his body.[n] 22After he was raised from the dead, his disciples recalled what he had said.[o] Then they believed the Scripture[p] and the words that Jesus had spoken.

23Now while he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast,[q] many people saw the miraculous signs[r] he was doing and believed[s] in his name.[n] 24But Jesus would not entrust himself to them, for he knew all men. 25He did not need man's testimony about man,[t] for he knew what was in a man.[u]

Jesus Teaches Nicodemus

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus,[v] a member of the Jewish ruling council.[w] 2He came to Jesus at night and said, "Rabbi,[x] we know[y] you are a teacher who has come from God. For no one could perform the miraculous signs[z] you are doing if God were not with him."[a]

3In reply Jesus declared, "I tell you the truth, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again.[o]"[b][c]

4"How can a man be born when he is old?" Nicodemus asked. "Surely he cannot enter a second time into his mother's womb to be born!"

5Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit.[d][e] 6Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit[p] gives birth to spirit.[f] 7You should not be surprised at my saying, 'You[q] must be born again.' 8The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."[g]

9"How can this be?"[h] Nicodemus asked.

10"You are Israel's teacher,"[i] said Jesus, "and do you not understand these things? 11I tell you the truth, we speak of what we know,[j] and we testify to what we have seen, but still you people do not accept our testimony.[k] 12I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things? 13No one has ever gone into heaven[l] except the one who came from heaven[m]—the Son of Man.[r][n] 14Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert,[o] so the Son of Man must be lifted up,[p] 15that everyone who believes[q] in him may have eternal life.[s][r]

16"For God so loved[s] the world that he gave[t] his one and only Son,[t][u] that whoever believes[v] in him shall not perish but have eternal life.[w] 17For God did not send his Son into the world[x] to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.[y] 18Whoever believes in him is not condemned,[z] but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.[u][a] 19This is the verdict: Light[b] has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil.[c] 20Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that his deeds will be exposed.[d] 21But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done through God."[v]

John the Baptist's Testimony About Jesus

22After this, Jesus and his disciples went out into the Judean countryside, where he spent some time with them, and baptized.[a] 23Now John[b] also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because there was plenty of water, and people were constantly coming to be baptized.
24(This was before John was put in prison.)[c] 25An argument developed between some of John's disciples and a certain Jew[w] over the matter of ceremonial washing.[d] 26They came to John and said to him, "Rabbi,[e] that man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan—the one you testified[f] about—well, he is baptizing, and everyone is going to him." 27To this John replied, "A man can receive only what is given him from heaven. 28You yourselves can testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ[x] but am sent ahead of him.'[g] 29The bride belongs to the bridegroom.[h] The friend who attends the bridegroom waits and listens for him, and is full of joy when he hears the bridegroom's voice. That joy is mine, and it is now complete.[i] 30He must become greater; I must become less.
31"The one who comes from above[j] is above all; the one who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks as one from the earth.[k] The one who comes from heaven is above all. 32He testifies to what he has seen and heard,[l] but no one accepts his testimony.[m] 33The man who has accepted it has certified that God is truthful. 34For the one whom God has sent[n] speaks the words of God, for God[y] gives the Spirit[o] without limit. 35The Father loves the Son and has placed everything in his hands.[p] 36Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life,[q] but whoever rejects the Son will not see life, for God's wrath remains on him."[z]

Jesus Talks With a Samaritan Woman

4 The Pharisees heard that Jesus was gaining and baptizing more disciples than John,[r] 2although in fact it was not Jesus who baptized, but his disciples. 3When the Lord[s] learned of this, he left Judea[t] and went back once more to Galilee.
4Now he had to go through Samaria.[u] 5So he came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph.[v] 6Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired as he was from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.
7When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Will you give me a drink?"[w] 8(His disciples had gone into the town[x] to buy food.) 9The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan[y] woman. How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.[a]) 10Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."[z] 11"Sir," the woman said, "you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water? 12Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well[a] and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his flocks and herds?" 13Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, 14but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst.[b] Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a spring of water[c] welling up to eternal life."[d] 15The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty[e] and have to keep coming here to draw water." 16He told her, "Go, call your husband and come back." 17"I have no husband," she replied.
Jesus said to her, "You are right when you say you have no husband.
18The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true." 19"Sir," the woman said, "I can see that you are a prophet.[f] 20Our fathers worshiped on this mountain,[g] but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem."[h] 21Jesus declared, "Believe me, woman, a time is coming[i] when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.[j] 22You Samaritans worship what you do not know;[k] we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews.[l] 23Yet a

The Disciples Rejoin Jesus

27Just then his disciples returned[f] and were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no one asked, "What do you want?" or "Why are you talking with her?" 28Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, 29"Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did.[g] Could this be the Christ[b]?"[h] 30They came out of the town and made their way toward him.
31Meanwhile his disciples urged him, "Rabbi,[i] eat something." 32But he said to them, "I have food to eat[j] that you know nothing about." 33Then his disciples said to each other, "Could someone have brought him food?" 34"My food," said Jesus, "is to do the will[k] of him who sent me and to finish his work.[l] 35Do you not say, 'Four months more and then the harvest'? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest.[m] 36Even now the reaper draws his wages, even now he harvests[n] the crop for eternal life,[o] so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together. 37Thus the saying 'One sows and another reaps'[p] is true. 38I sent you to reap what you have not worked for. Others have done the hard work, and you have reaped the benefits of their labor."

Many Samaritans Believe

39Many of the Samaritans from that town[q] believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I ever did."[r] 40So when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days. 41And because of his words many more became believers.
42They said to the woman, "We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Savior of the world."[s]

Jesus Heals the Official's Son

43After the two days[t] he left for Galilee. 44(Now Jesus himself had pointed out that a prophet has no honor in his own country.)[u] 45When he arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him.
They had seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast,[v] for they also had been there.
46Once more he visited Cana in Galilee, where he had turned the water into wine.[w] And there was a certain royal official whose son lay sick at Capernaum. 47When this man heard that Jesus had arrived in Galilee from Judea,[x] he went to him and begged him to come and heal his son, who was close to death.
48"Unless you people see miraculous signs and wonders,"[y] Jesus told him, "you will never believe." 49The royal official said, "Sir, come down before my child dies." 50Jesus replied, "You may go. Your son will live."
The man took Jesus at his word and departed. 51While he was still on the way, his servants met him with the news that his boy was living. 52When he inquired as to the time when his son got better, they said to him, "The fever left him yesterday at the seventh hour." 53Then the father realized that this was the exact time at which Jesus had said to him, "Your son will live." So he and all his household[z] believed.
54This was the second miraculous sign[a] that Jesus performed, having come from Judea to Galilee.

The Healing at the Pool

5 Some time later, Jesus went up to Jerusalem for a feast of the Jews.
2Now there is in Jerusalem near the Sheep Gate[b] a pool, which in Aramaic[c] is called Bethesda[c] and which is surrounded by five covered colonnades. 3Here a great number of disabled people used to lie—the blind, the lame, the paralyzed.[d] 5One who was eight years. [6]When Jesus saw him lying there and learned that he had been in this condition for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to get well?"

[7]"Sir," the invalid replied, "I have no one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am trying to get in, someone else goes down ahead of me."

[8]Then Jesus said to him, "Get up! Pick up your mat and walk."[a] [9]At once the man was cured; he picked up his mat and walked.

The day on which this took place was a Sabbath,[b] [10]and so the Jews[c] said to the man who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath; the law forbids you to carry your mat."[d]

[11]But he replied, "The man who made me well said to me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.' "

[12]So they asked him, "Who is this fellow who told you to pick it up and walk?"

[13]The man who was healed had no idea who it was, for Jesus had slipped away into the crowd that was there.

[14]Later Jesus found him at the temple and said to him, "See, you are well again. Stop sinning[e] or something worse may happen to you." [15]The man went away and told the Jews[f] that it was Jesus who had made him well.

Life Through the Son

[16]So, because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jews persecuted him. [17]Jesus said to them, "My Father[g] is always at his work[h] to this very day, and I, too, am working." [18]For this reason the Jews tried all the harder to kill him;[i] not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God.[j]

[19]Jesus gave them this answer: "I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself;[k] he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does. [20]For the Father loves the Son[l] and shows him all he does. Yes, to your amazement he will show him even greater things than these.[m] [21]For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life,[n] even so the Son gives life[o] to whom he is pleased to give it. [22]Moreover, the Father judges no one, but has entrusted all judgment to the Son,[p] [23]that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father, who sent him.[q]

[24]"I tell you the truth, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me[r] has eternal life[s] and will not be condemned;[t] he has crossed over from death to life.[u] [25]I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come[v] when the dead will hear[w] the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live. [26]For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son to have life[x] in himself. [27]And he has given him authority to judge[y] because he is the Son of Man.

[28]"Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming[z] when all who are in their graves will hear his voice [29]and come out—those who have done good will rise to live, and those who have done evil will rise to be condemned.[a] [30]By myself I can do nothing;[b] I judge only as I hear, and my judgment is just,[c] for I seek not to please myself but him who sent me.[d]

Testimonies About Jesus

[31]"If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid.[e] [32]There is another who testifies in my favor,[f] and I know that his testimony about me is valid.

[33]"You have sent to John and he has testified[g] to the truth. [34]Not that I accept human testimony;[h] but I mention it that you may be saved.[i] [35]John was a lamp that burned and gave light,[j] and you chose for a time to enjoy his light.

[36]"I have testimony weightier than that of John.[k] For the very work that the Father has given me to finish, and which I am doing,[l] testifies that the Father has sent me.[m] [37]And the Father who sent me has himself testified concerning me.[n] You have never heard his voice nor seen his form,[o] [38]nor does his word dwell in you,[p] for you do not believe[q] the one he sent.[r] [39]You diligently study[*] the Scriptures[s] because you think that by them you possess eternal life.[t] These are the Scriptures that testify about me,[u] [40]yet you refuse to come to me[v] to have life.

6:1-13pp — Mt 14:13-21; Mk 6:32-44; Lk 9:10-17

6 Some time after this, Jesus crossed to the far shore of the Sea of Galilee (that is, the Sea of Tiberias), 2 and a great crowd of people followed him because they saw the miraculous signs[f] he had performed on the sick. 3 Then Jesus went up on a mountainside[g] and sat down with his disciples. 4 The Jewish Passover Feast[h] was near.
5 When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip,[i] "Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?" 6 He asked this only to test him, for he already had in mind what he was going to do.
7 Philip answered him, "Eight months' wages[g] would not buy enough bread for each one to have a bite!" 8 Another of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother,[j] spoke up, 9 "Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?"[k] 10 Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." There was plenty of grass in that place, and the men sat down, about five thousand of them. 11 Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks,[l] and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted. He did the same with the fish.
12 When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted." 13 So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.
14 After the people saw the miraculous sign[m] that Jesus did, they began to say, "Surely this is the Prophet who is to come into the world."[n] 15 Jesus, knowing that they intended to come and make him king[o] by force, withdrew again to a mountain by himself.[p]

16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, 17 where they got into a boat and set off across the lake for Capernaum. By now it was dark, and Jesus had not yet joined them. 18 A strong wind was blowing and the waters grew rough. 19 When they had rowed three or three and a half miles,[h] they saw Jesus approaching the boat, walking on the water;[q] and they were terrified. 20 But he said to them, "It is I; don't be afraid."[r] 21 Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the shore where they were heading.
22 The next day the crowd that had stayed on the opposite shore of the lake[s] realized that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not entered it with his disciples, but that they had gone away alone.[t] 23 Then some boats from Tiberias[u] landed near the place where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.[v] 24 Once the crowd realized that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum in search of Jesus.

Jesus the Bread of Life

25 When they found him on the other side of the lake, they asked him, "Rabbi,[w] when did you get here?" 26 Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, you are looking for me,[x] not because you saw miraculous signs[y] but because you ate the loaves and had your fill. 27 Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures[z] to eternal life,[a] which the Son of Man[b] will give you. On him God the Father has placed his seal[c] of approval." 28 Then they asked him, "What must we do to do the works God requires?" 29 Jesus answered, "The work of God is this: to believe[d] in the one he has sent."[e] 30 So they asked him, "What miraculous sign[f] then will you give that we may see it and believe you?[g] What will you do? 31 Our forefathers ate the manna[h] in the desert; as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'[i]"[i] 32 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the

you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. 33For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven[a] and gives life to the world." 34"Sir," they said, "from now on give us this bread."[b] 35Then Jesus declared, "I am[c] the bread of life.[d] He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes[e] in me will never be thirsty.[f] 36But as I told you, you have seen me and still you do not believe. 37All that the Father gives me[g] will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never drive away. 38For I have come down from heaven[h] not to do my will but to do the will[i] of him who sent me.[j] 39And this is the will of him who sent me, that I shall lose none of all that he has given me,[k] but raise them up at the last day.[l] 40For my Father's will is that everyone who looks to the Son[m] and believes in him shall have eternal life,[n] and I will raise him up at the last day." 41At this the Jews began to grumble about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." 42They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph,[o] whose father and mother we know?[p] How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven'?"[q] 43"Stop grumbling among yourselves," Jesus answered. 44"No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him,[r] and I will raise him up at the last day. 45It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be taught by God.'[j][s] Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. 46No one has seen the Father except the one who is from God;[t] only he has seen the Father. 47I tell you the truth, he who believes has everlasting life.[u] 48I am the bread of life.[v] 49Your forefathers ate the manna in the desert, yet they died.[w] 50But here is the bread that comes down from heaven,[x] which a man may eat and not die. 51I am the living bread[y] that came down from heaven.[z] If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."[a] 52Then the Jews[b] began to argue sharply among themselves,[c] "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" 53Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh[d] of the Son of Man[e] and drink his blood,[f] you have no life in you. 54Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.[g] 55For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. 56Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.[h] 57Just as the living Father sent me[i] and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me. 58This is the bread that came down from heaven.
Your forefathers ate manna and died, but he who feeds on this bread will live forever."[j] 59He said this while teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Desert Jesus

60On hearing it, many of his disciples[k] said, "This is a hard teaching.
Who can accept it?"[l] 61Aware that his disciples were grumbling about this, Jesus said to them, "Does this offend you?[m] 62What if you see the Son of Man[n] ascend to where he was before![o] 63The Spirit gives life;[p] the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you are spirit[k] and they are life. 64Yet there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus had known[q] from the beginning which of them did not believe and who would betray him.[r] 65He went on to say, "This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless the Father has enabled him."[s] 66From this time many of his disciples[t] turned back and no longer followed him.
67"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve.[u] 68Simon Peter answered him,[v] "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.[w] 69We believe and know that you are the Holy One of God."[x] 70Then Jesus replied, "Have I not chosen you,[y] the Twelve? Yet one of you is a devil!"[z] 71(He meant Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot,[a] who, though one of the Twelve, was later to betray him.)[b]

Jesus Goes to the Feast of Tabernacles

7 After this, Jesus went around in Galilee, purposely staying away from Judea because the Jews[c] there were waiting to take his life.[d] 2But when the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles[e] was near, 3Jesus' brothers[f] said to him, "You ought to leave here and go to Judea, so that your disciples may see the miracles you do. 4No one who things, show yourself to the world." 5 For even his own brothers did not believe in him.[a] 6 Therefore Jesus told them, "The right time[b] for me has not yet come; for you any time is right. 7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me[c] because I testify that what it does is evil.[d] 8 You go to the Feast. I am not yet[l] going up to this Feast, because for me the right time[e] has not yet come." 9 Having said this, he stayed in Galilee.

10 However, after his brothers had left for the Feast, he went also, not publicly, but in secret. 11 Now at the Feast the Jews were watching for him[f] and asking, "Where is that man?" 12 Among the crowds there was widespread whispering about him. Some said, "He is a good man." Others replied, "No, he deceives the people."[g] 13 But no one would say anything publicly about him for fear of the Jews.[h]

Jesus Teaches at the Feast

14 Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach.[i] 15 The Jews[j] were amazed and asked, "How did this man get such learning[k] without having studied?" 16 Jesus answered, "My teaching is not my own. It comes from him who sent me.[m] 17 If anyone chooses to do God's will, he will find out[n] whether my teaching comes from God or whether I speak on my own. 18 He who speaks on his own does so to gain honor for himself,[o] but he who works for the honor of the one who sent him is a man of truth; there is nothing false about him. 19 Has not Moses given you the law?[p] Yet not one of you keeps the law. Why are you trying to kill me?"[q] 20 "You are demon-possessed,"[r] the crowd answered. "Who is trying to kill
you?" 21 Jesus said to them, "I did one miracle,[s] and you are all astonished. 22 Yet, because Moses gave you circumcision[t] (though actually it did not come from Moses, but from the patriarchs),[u] you circumcise a child on the Sabbath.
23 Now if a child can be circumcised on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses may not be broken, why are you angry with me for healing the whole man on the Sabbath? 24 Stop judging by mere appearances, and make a right judgment."[v]

Is Jesus the Christ?

25 At that point some of the people of Jerusalem began to ask, "Isn't this the man they are trying to kill?[w] 26 Here he is, speaking publicly, and they are not saying a word to him. Have the authorities[x] really concluded that he is the Christ[m]?[y] 27 But we know where this man is from;[z] when the Christ comes, no one will know where he is from."
28 Then Jesus, still teaching in the temple courts,[a] cried out, "Yes, you know me, and you know where I am from.[b] I am not here on my own, but he who sent me is true.[c] You do not know him, 29 but I know him[d] because I am from him and he sent me."[e] 30 At this they tried to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him,[f] because his time had not yet come.[g] 31 Still, many in the crowd put their faith in him.[h] They said, "When the Christ comes, will he do more miraculous signs[i] than this man?" 32 The Pharisees heard the crowd whispering such things about him.
Then the chief priests and the Pharisees sent temple guards to arrest him.
33 Jesus said, "I am with you for only a short time,[j] and then I go to the one who sent me.[k] 34 You will look for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come."[l] 35 The Jews said to one another, "Where does this man intend to go that we cannot find him? Will he go where our people live scattered[m] among the Greeks,[n] and teach the Greeks? 36 What did he mean when he said, 'You will look for me, but you will not find me,' and 'Where I am, you cannot come'?"[o] 37 On the last and greatest day of the Feast,[p] Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink.[q] 38 Whoever believes[r] in me, as[n] the Scripture has said,[s] streams of living water[t] will flow from within him."[u] 39 By this he meant the Spirit,[v] whom those who believed in him were later to receive.[w] Up to that time the Spirit had not been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.[x] 40 On hearing his words, some of the Still others asked, "How can the Christ come from Galilee?[b] 42Does not the Scripture say that the Christ will come from David's family[a][c] and from Bethlehem,[d] the town where David lived?" 43Thus the people were divided[e] because of Jesus. 44Some wanted to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him.[f]

Unbelief of the Jewish Leaders

45Finally the temple guards went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, "Why didn't you bring him in?"
46"No one ever spoke the way this man does,"[g] the guards declared.
47"You mean he has deceived you also?"[h] the Pharisees retorted. 48"Has any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in him?[i] 49No! But this mob that knows nothing of the law—there is a curse on them." 50Nicodemus,[j] who had gone to Jesus earlier and who was one of their own number, asked, 51"Does our law condemn anyone without first hearing him to find out what he is doing?" 52They replied, "Are you from Galilee, too? Look into it, and you will find that a prophet[p] does not come out of Galilee."[k]

[The earliest and most reliable manuscripts and other ancient witnesses do not have John 7:53-8:11.]

53Then each went to his own home.
8 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.[l] 2At dawn he appeared again in the temple courts, where all the people gathered around him, and he sat down to teach them.[m] 3The teachers of the law and the Pharisees brought in a woman caught in adultery. They made her stand before the group 4and said to Jesus, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery. 5In the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women.[n] Now what do you say?" 6They were using this question as a trap,[o] in order to have a basis for accusing him.[p]
But Jesus bent down and started to write on the ground with his finger.
7When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, "If any one of you is without sin, let him be the first to throw a stone[q] at her."[r] 8Again he stooped down and wrote on the ground.
9At this, those who heard began to go away one at a time, the older ones first, until only Jesus was left, with the woman still standing there. 10Jesus straightened up and asked her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" 11"No one, sir," she said.
"Then neither do I condemn you,"[s] Jesus declared. "Go now and leave your life of sin."[t]

The Validity of Jesus' Testimony

12When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, "I am[u] the light of the world.[v] Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."[w] 13The Pharisees challenged him, "Here you are, appearing as your own witness; your testimony is not valid."[x] 14Jesus answered, "Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid, for I know where I came from and where I am going.[y] But you have no idea where I come from[z] or where I am going. 15You judge by human standards;[a] I pass judgment on no one.[b] 16But if I do judge, my decisions are right, because I am not alone. I stand with the Father, who sent me.[c] 17In your own Law it is written that the testimony of two men is valid.[d] 18I am one who testifies for myself; my other witness is the Father, who sent me."[e] 19Then they asked him, "Where is your father?"
"You do not know me or my Father,"[f] Jesus replied. "If you knew me, you would know my Father also."[g] 20He spoke these words while teaching[h] in the temple area near the place where the offerings were put.[i] Yet no one seized him, because his time had not yet come.[j] 21Once more Jesus said to them, "I am going away, and you will look for me, and you will die[k] in your sin.
Where I go, you cannot come."[l] 22This made the Jews ask, "Will he kill himself? Is that why he says, 'Where I go, you cannot come'?" 23But he continued, "You are from you do not believe that I am ⌊the one I your sins."

25"Who are you?" they asked.

"Just what I have been claiming all along," Jesus replied. 26"I have much to say in judgment of you. But he who sent me is reliable,[c] and what I have heard from him I tell the world."[d] 27They did not understand that he was telling them about his Father. 28So Jesus said, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man,[e] then you will know that I am ⌊the one I claim to be⌋ and that I do nothing on my own but speak just what the Father has taught me.[f] 29The one who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone,[g] for I always do what pleases him."[h] 30Even as he spoke, many put their faith in him.[i]

The Children of Abraham

31To the Jews who had believed him, Jesus said, "If you hold to my teaching,[j] you are really my disciples.
32Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."[k] 33They answered him, "We are Abraham's descendants[r][l] and have never been slaves of anyone. How can you say that we shall be set free?"

34Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave to sin.[m] 35Now a slave has no permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it forever.[n] 36So if the Son sets you free,[o] you will be free indeed. 37I know you are Abraham's descendants. Yet you are ready to kill me,[p] because you have no room for my word. 38I am telling you what I have seen in the Father's presence,[q] and you do what you have heard from your father.[s]"[r]

39"Abraham is our father," they answered.

"If you were Abraham's children,"[s] said Jesus, "then you would[t] do the things Abraham did. 40As it is, you are determined to kill me,[t] a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God.[u] Abraham did not do such things. 41You are doing the things your own father does."[v]

"We are not illegitimate children," they protested. "The only Father we have is God himself."[w]

The Children of the Devil 42Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me,[x] for I came from God[y] and now am here. I have not come on my own;[z] but he sent me.[a] 43Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. 44You belong to your father, the devil,[b] and you want to carry out your father's desire.[c] He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies.[d] 45Yet because I tell the truth,[e] you do not believe me!

46Can any of you prove me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don't you believe me? 47He who belongs to God hears what God says.[f] The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

The Claims of Jesus About Himself

48The Jews answered him, "Aren't we right in saying that you are a Samaritan[g] and demon-possessed?"[h]

49"I am not possessed by a demon," said Jesus, "but I honor my Father and you dishonor me. 50I am not seeking glory for myself;[i] but there is one who seeks it, and he is the judge. 51I tell you the truth, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death."[j] 52At this the Jews exclaimed, "Now we know that you are demon-possessed![k] Abraham died and so did the prophets, yet you say that if anyone keeps your word, he will never taste death. 53Are you greater than our father Abraham?[l] He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?"

54Jesus replied, "If I glorify myself,[m] my glory means nothing. My Father, whom you claim as your God, is the one who glorifies me.[n] 55Though you do not know him,[o] I know him.[p] If I said I did not, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and keep his word.[q] 56Your father Abraham[r] rejoiced at the thought of seeing my day; he saw it[s] and was glad."

57"You are not yet fifty years old," the Jews said to him, "and you have seen Abraham!"

58"I tell you the truth," Jesus answered, "before Abraham was born,[t] I am!"[u] 59At this, they picked up stones

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

9 As he went along, he saw a man blind from birth. 2His disciples asked him, "Rabbi,[c] who sinned,[d] this man[e] or his parents,[f] that he was born blind?" 3"Neither this man nor his parents sinned," said Jesus, "but this happened so that the work of God might be displayed in his life.[g] 4As long as it is day,[h] we must do the work of him who sent me. Night is coming, when no one can work. 5While I am in the world, I am the light of the world."[i] 6Having said this, he spit[j] on the ground, made some mud with the saliva, and put it on the man's eyes.
7"Go," he told him, "wash in the Pool of Siloam"[k] (this word means Sent). So the man went and washed, and came home seeing.[l] 8His neighbors and those who had formerly seen him begging asked, "Isn't this the same man who used to sit and beg?"[m] 9Some claimed that he was.
Others said, "No, he only looks like
him." But he himself insisted, "I am the
man." 10"How then were your eyes opened?" they demanded.
11He replied, "The man they call Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes. He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed, and then I could see."[n] 12"Where is this man?" they asked
him.
"I don't know," he said.

The Pharisees Investigate the Healing

13They brought to the Pharisees the man who had been blind. 14Now the day on which Jesus had made the mud and opened the man's eyes was a Sabbath.[o] 15Therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight.[p] "He put mud on my eyes," the man replied, "and I washed, and now I see." 16Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath."[q] But others asked, "How can a sinner do such miraculous signs?"[r] So they were divided.[s] 17Finally they turned again to the blind man, "What have you to say about him? It was your eyes he opened."
The man replied, "He is a prophet."[t] 18The Jews[u] still did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they sent for the man's parents. 19"Is this your son?" they asked.
"Is this the one you say was born blind? How is it that now he can see?" 20"We know he is our son," the parents answered, "and we know he was born blind. 21But how he can see now, or who opened his eyes, we don't know. Ask him. He is of age; he will speak for himself." 22His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews,[v] for already the Jews had decided that anyone who acknowledged that Jesus was the Christ[u] would be put out[w] of the synagogue.[x] 23That was why his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."[y] 24A second time they summoned the man who had been blind. "Give glory to God,[v]"[z] they said. "We know this man is a sinner."[a] 25He replied, "Whether he is a sinner or not, I don't know. One thing I do know. I was blind but now I see!" 26Then they asked him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" 27He answered, "I have told you already[b] and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples, too?" 28Then they hurled insults at him and said, "You are this fellow's disciple! We are disciples of Moses![c] 29We know that God spoke to Moses, but as for this fellow, we don't even know where he comes from."[d] 30The man answered, "Now that is remarkable! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes.
31We know that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the godly man who does his will.[e] 32Nobody has ever heard of opening the eyes of a man born blind. 33If this man were not from God,[f] he could do nothing." 34To this they replied, "You were steeped in sin at birth;[g] how dare you lecture us!" And they threw him out.[h]

The Shepherd and His Flock

10 "I tell you the truth, the man who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber.[l] 2The man who enters by the gate is the shepherd of his sheep.[m] 3The watchman opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice.[n] He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.[o] 4When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice.[p] 5But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger's voice." 6Jesus used this figure of speech,[q] but they did not understand what he was telling them.[r] 7Therefore Jesus said again, "I tell you the truth, I am[s] the gate[t] for the sheep. 8All who ever came before me[u] were thieves and robbers,[v] but the sheep did not listen to them. 9I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved.[w] He will come in and go out, and find pasture. 10The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life,[w] and have it to the full.[x] 11"I am[y] the good shepherd.[z] The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.[a] 12The hired hand is not the shepherd who owns the sheep. So when he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away.[b] Then the wolf attacks the flock and scatters it. 13The man runs away because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep.
14"I am the good shepherd;[c] I know my sheep[d] and my sheep know me—15just as the Father knows me and I know the Father[e]—and I lay down my life for the sheep.[f] 16I have other sheep[g] that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock[h] and one shepherd.[i] 17The reason my Father loves me is that I lay down my life[j]—only to take it up again. 18No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord.[k] I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again. This command I received from my Father."[l] 19At these words the Jews were again divided.[m] 20Many of them said, "He is demon-possessed[n] and raving mad.[o] Why listen to him?" 21But others said, "These are not the sayings of a man possessed by a demon.[p] Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"[q]

The Unbelief of the Jews

22Then came the Feast of Dedication[x] at Jerusalem. It was winter, 23and Jesus was in the temple area walking in Solomon's Colonnade.[r] 24The Jews[s] gathered around him, saying, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ,[y] tell us plainly."[t] 25Jesus answered, "I did tell you,[u] but you do not believe. The miracles I do in my Father's name speak for me,[v] 26but you do not believe because you are not my sheep.[w] 27My sheep listen to my voice; I know them,[x] and they follow me.[y] 28I give them eternal life,[z] and they shall never perish;[a] no one can snatch them out of my hand.[b] 29My Father, who has given them to me,[c] is greater than all[z];[d] no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand.
30I and the Father are one."[e] 31Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him,[f] 32but Jesus said to them, "I have shown you many great miracles from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?" 33"We are not stoning you for any of these," replied the Jews, "but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God."[g] 34Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your Law,[h] 'I have said you ther."[i] 39Again they tried to seize him,[j] but he escaped their grasp.[k] 40Then Jesus went back across the Jordan[l] to the place where John had been baptizing in the early days. Here he stayed 41and many people came to him. They said, "Though John never performed a miraculous sign,[m] all that John said about this man was true."[n] 42And in that place many believed in Jesus.[o]

The Death of Lazarus

11 Now a man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany,[p] the village of Mary and her sister Martha.[q] 2This Mary, whose brother Lazarus now lay sick, was the same one who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair.[r] 3So the sisters sent word to Jesus, "Lord, the one you love[s] is sick." 4When he heard this, Jesus said,
"This sickness will not end in death.
No, it is for God's glory[t] so that God's Son may be glorified through it." 5Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. 6Yet when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was two more days.
7Then he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea."[u] 8"But Rabbi,"[v] they said, "a short while ago the Jews tried to stone you,[w] and yet you are going back there?" 9Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? A man who walks by day will not stumble, for he sees by this world's light.[x] 10It is when he walks by night that he stumbles, for he has no light." 11After he had said this, he went on to tell them, "Our friend[y] Lazarus has fallen asleep;[z] but I am going there to wake him up." 12His disciples replied, "Lord, if he sleeps, he will get better." 13Jesus had been speaking of his death, but his disciples thought he meant natural sleep.[a] 14So then he told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead, 15and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." 16Then Thomas[b] (called Didymus) said to the rest of the disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

Jesus Comforts the Sisters

17On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days.[c] 18Bethany[d] was less than two miles[b] from Jerusalem, 19and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother.[e] 20When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home.[f] 21"Lord," Martha said to Jesus, "if you had been here, my brother would not have died.[g] 22But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask."[h] 23Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." 24Martha answered, "I know he will rise again in the resurrection[i] at the last day."[j] 25Jesus said to her, "I am[k] the resurrection and the life.[l] He who believes[m] in me will live, even though he dies; 26and whoever lives and believes[n] in me will never die.[o] Do you believe this?"
27"Yes, Lord," she told him, "I believe that you are the Christ,[c][p] the Son of God,[q] who was to come into the world."[r] 28And after she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside. "The Teacher[s] is here," she said, "and is asking for you." 29When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him. 30Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him.[t] 31When the Jews who had been with Mary in the house, comforting her,[u] noticed how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there.
32When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."[v]

[a]34 Psalm 82:6 [b]18 Greek fifteen stadia (about 3 kilometers) [c]27 Or Messiah

33When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. 34"Where have you laid him?" he asked.
"Come and see, Lord," they replied.
35Jesus wept.
36Then the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" 37But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Jesus Raises Lazarus From the Dead

38Jesus, once more deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance. 39"Take away the stone," he said.
"But, Lord," said Martha, the sister of the dead man, "by this time there is a bad odor, for he has been there four days." 40Then Jesus said, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" 41So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 42I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe that you sent me." 43When he had said this, Jesus called in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" 44The dead man came out, his hands and feet wrapped with strips of linen, and a cloth around his face.
Jesus said to them, "Take off the grave clothes and let him go."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

45Therefore many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, put their faith in him. 46But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. 47Then the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the Sanhedrin.
"What are we accomplishing?" they asked. "Here is this man performing many miraculous signs. 48If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and then the Romans will come and take away both our place[d] and our nation." 49Then one of them, named Caia-phas, who was high priest that year, spoke up, "You know nothing at all!
50You do not realize that it is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish." 51He did not say this on his own, but as high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation, 52and not only for that nation but also for the scattered children of God, to bring them together and make them one. 53So from that day on they plotted to take his life.
54Therefore Jesus no longer moved about publicly among the Jews. Instead he withdrew to a region near the desert, to a village called Ephraim, where he stayed with his disciples.
55When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, many went up from the country to Jerusalem for their ceremonial cleansing before the Passover. 56They kept looking for Jesus, and as they stood in the temple area they asked one another, "What do you think? Isn't he coming to the Feast at all?" 57But the chief priests and Pharisees had given orders that if anyone found out where Jesus was, he should report it so that they might arrest him.

12:1-8Ref — Mt 26:6-13; Mk 14:3-9; Lk 7:37-39

12 Six days before the Passover, Jesus arrived at Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. 2Here a dinner was given in Jesus' honor. Martha served, while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him. 3Then Mary took about a pint[e] of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.
4But one of his disciples, Judas Iscari-ot, who was later to betray him, objected, 5"Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages.[f]" 6He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.
7"Leave her alone," Jesus replied.
"It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial.
8You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have
me." 9Meanwhile a large crowd of Jews found out that Jesus was there and came, not only because of him but also made plans to kill Lazarus as well, 11for on account of him[b] many of the Jews were going over to Jesus and putting their faith in him.[c]

12The next day the great crowd that had come for the Feast heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. 13They took palm branches[d] and went out to meet him, shouting,

"Hosanna![g]"

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"[h][e]

"Blessed is the King of Israel!"[f] 14Jesus found a young donkey and sat upon it, as it is written, 15"Do not be afraid, O Daughter of Zion;

see, your king is coming, seated on a donkey's colt."[i][g] 16At first his disciples did not understand all this.[h] Only after Jesus was glorified[i] did they realize that these things had been written about him and that they had done these things to him.

17Now the crowd that was with him[j] when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to spread the word. 18Many people, because they had heard that he had given this miraculous sign,[k] went out to meet him. 19So the Pharisees said to one another, "See, this is getting us nowhere. Look how the whole world has gone after him!"[l]

20Now there were some Greeks[m] among those who went up to worship at the Feast. 21They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida[n] in Galilee, with a request. "Sir," they said, "we would like to see Jesus." 22Philip went to tell Andrew; Andrew and Philip in turn told Jesus.
23Jesus replied, "The hour[o] has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.[p] 24I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies,[q] it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. 25The man who loves his life will lose it, while the man who hates his life in this world will keep it[r] for eternal life.[s] 26Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be.[t] My Father will honor the one who serves me.
27"Now my heart is troubled,[u] and what shall I say? 'Father,[v] save me from this hour'?[w] No, it was for this very reason I came to this hour. 28Fa-ther, glorify your name!" Then a voice came from heaven,[x] "I have glorified it, and will glorify it again." 29The crowd that was there and heard it said it had thundered; others said an angel had spoken to him.
30Jesus said, "This voice was for your benefit,[y] not mine. 31Now is the time for judgment on this world;[z] now the prince of this world[a] will be driven out. 32But I, when I am lifted up from the earth,[b] will draw all men to myself."[c] 33He said this to show the kind of death he was going to die.[d] 34The crowd spoke up, "We have heard from the Law[e] that the Christ[j] will remain forever,[f] so how can you say, 'The Son of Man[g] must be lifted up'?[h] Who is this 'Son of Man'?" 35Then Jesus told them, "You are going to have the light[i] just a little while longer. Walk while you have the light,[j] before darkness overtakes you.[k] The man who walks in the dark does not know where he is going. 36Put your trust in the light while you have it, so that you may become sons of light."[l] When he had finished speaking, Jesus left and hid himself from them.[m]

The Jews Continue in Their Unbelief

37Even after Jesus had done all these miraculous signs[n] in their presence, they still would not believe in him.
38This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet:

"Lord, who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"[k][o] 39For this reason they could not believe, because, as Isaiah says elsewhere:

40"He has blinded their eyes and deadened their hearts, so they can neither see with their
eyes,
nor understand with their hearts, nor turn—and I would heal them."[1][a]

41 Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus' glory[b] and spoke about him.[c]

42 Yet at the same time many even among the leaders believed in him.[d] But because of the Pharisees[e] they would not confess their faith for fear they would be put out of the synagogue;[f] 43 for they loved praise from men[g] more than praise from God.[h]

44 Then Jesus cried out, "When a man believes in me, he does not believe in me only, but in the one who sent me.[i] 45 When he looks at me, he sees the one who sent me.[j] 46 I have come into the world as a light,[k] so that no one who believes in me should stay in darkness.

47 "As for the person who hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save it.[l] 48 There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; that very word which I spoke will condemn him[m] at the last day. 49 For I did not speak of my own accord, but the Father who sent me commanded me[n] what to say and how to say it. 50 I know that his command leads to eternal life.[o] So whatever I say is just what the Father has told me to say."[p]

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

13 It was just before the Passover Feast.[q] Jesus knew that the time had come[r] for him to leave this world and go to the Father.[s] Having loved his own who were in the world, he now showed them the full extent of his love.[m]

2 The evening meal was being served, and the devil had already prompted Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray Jesus.[t] 3 Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power,[u] and that he had come from God[v] and was returning to God; 4 so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist.[w] 5 After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet,[x] drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

6 He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

7 Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."[y]

8 "No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet."

Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

9 "Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

10 Jesus answered, "A person who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet; his whole body is clean. And you are clean,[z] though not every one of you."[a] 11 For he knew who was going to betray him,[b] and that was why he said not every one was clean.

12 When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. 13 "You call me 'Teacher'[c] and 'Lord,'[d] and rightly so, for that is what I am. 14 Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet.[e] 15 I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.[f] 16 I tell you the truth, no servant is greater than his master,[g] nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. 17 Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.[h]

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal

18 "I am not referring to all of you;[i] I know those I have chosen.[j] But this is to fulfill the scripture:[k] 'He who shares my bread[l] has lifted up his heel[m] against me.'[n][n]

19 "I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe[o] that I am He.[p] 20 I tell you the truth, whoever accepts anyone I send accepts me; and whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me."[q]

21 After he had said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit[r] and testified, "I tell you the truth, one of you is going to betray me."[s]

22 His disciples stared at one another, at a loss to know which of them he meant. 23 One of them, the disciple whom Jesus loved,[t] was reclining next to him. 24 Simon Peter motioned to this disciple and said, "Ask him which one he means."

25 Leaning back against Jesus, he asked him, "Lord, who is it?"[u]

26 Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I will give this piece of bread

Then, dipping the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas Iscariot,[a] son of Simon.
27As soon as Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him.[b]
"What you are about to do, do quickly," Jesus told him, 28but no one at the meal understood why Jesus said this to him. 29Since Judas had charge of the money,[c] some thought Jesus was telling him to buy what was needed for the Feast,[d] or to give something to the poor.[e] 30As soon as Judas had taken the bread, he went out. And it was night.[f]

31When he was gone, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man[g] glorified[h] and God is glorified in him.[i] 32If God is glorified in him,[o] God will glorify the Son in himself,[j] and will glorify him at once.
33"My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and just as I told the Jews, so I tell you now: Where I am going, you cannot come.[k] 34"A new command[l] I give you: Love one another.[m] As I have loved you, so you must love one another.[n] 35By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."[o] 36Simon Peter asked him, "Lord, where are you going?"[p] Jesus replied, "Where I am going, you cannot follow now,[q] but you will follow later."[r] 37Peter asked, "Lord, why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you." 38Then Jesus answered, "Will you really lay down your life for me? I tell you the truth, before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times![s] have told you. I am going there[w] to you also may be where I am.[y] 4You going."

Jesus the Way to the Father

5Thomas[z] said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" 6Jesus answered, "I am[a] the way[b] and the truth[c] and the life.[d] No one comes to the Father except through me.[e] 7If you really knew me, you would know[q] my Father as well.[f] From now on, you do know him and have seen him." 8Philip[g] said, "Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us." 9Jesus answered: "Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father.[h] How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? 10Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me?[i] The words I say to you are not just my own.[j] Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work.
11Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the miracles themselves.[k] 12I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith[l] in me will do what I have been doing.[m] He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. 13And I will do whatever you ask[n] in my name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father. 14You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.

Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit

15"If you love me, you will obey what I command.[o] 16And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor[p] to be with you forever—17the Spirit of truth.[q] The world cannot accept him,[r] because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be[r] in you. 18I will not leave you as orphans;[s] I will come to you.[t] 19Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me.[u] Because I live, you also will live.[v] 20On that day[w] you will realize that I am in my Father,[x] and you are in me, and I am in you.[y] 21Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me.[z] He who loves me will be loved by my Father,[a] and I too will love him and show myself to him." 22Then Judas[b] (not Judas Iscariot) said, "But, Lord, why do you intend to show yourself to us and not to the world?"[a] 23Jesus replied, "If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching.[b] My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.[c] 24He who does not love me will not obey my teaching. These words you hear are not my own; they belong to the Father who sent me.[d] 25"All this I have spoken while still with you. 26But the Counselor,[e] the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name,[f] will teach you all things[g] and will remind you of everything I have said to you.[h] 27Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you.[i] I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled[j] and do not be afraid.

28"You heard me say, 'I am going away and I am coming back to you.'[k] If you loved me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father,[l] for the Father is greater than I.[m] 29I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe.[n] 30I will not speak with you much longer, for the prince of this world[o] is coming. He has no hold on me, 31but the world must learn that I love the Father and that I do exactly what my Father has commanded me.[p]
"Come now; let us leave.

The Vine and the Branches

15 "I am[q] the true vine,[r] and my Father is the gardener. 2He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit,[s] while every branch that does bear fruit[t] he prunes[a] so that it will be even more fruitful. 3You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you.[u] 4Remain in me, and I will remain in you.[v] No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.
5"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit;[w] apart from me you can do nothing. 6If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned.[x] 7If you remain in me[y] and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you.[z] 8This is to my Father's glory,[a] that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.[b] 9"As the Father has loved me,[c] so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. 10If you obey my commands,[d] you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love. 11I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.[e] 12My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you.[f] 13Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.[g] 14You are my friends[h] if you do what I command.[i] 15I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you.[j] 16You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you[k] to go and bear fruit[l]—fruit that will last.
Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.[m] 17This is my command: Love each other.[n]

The World Hates the Disciples

18"If the world hates you,[o] keep in mind that it hated me first. 19If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you[p] out of the world. That is why the world hates you.[q] 20Remember the words I spoke to you: 'No servant is greater than his master.'[b][r] If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also.[s] If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also. 21They will treat you this way because of my name,[t] for they do not know the One who sent me.[u] 22If I had not come and spoken to them,[v] they would not be guilty of sin.
Now, however, they have no excuse for their sin.[w] 23He who hates me hates my Father as well. 24If I had not done among them what no one else did,[x] they would not be guilty of sin.[y] But now they have seen these miracles, and yet they have hated both me and my Father. 25But this is to fulfill what is written in their Law:[z] 'They hated me without reason.'[c][a] 26"When the Counselor[b] comes, whom I will send to you from the Father,[c] the Spirit of truth[d] who goes out from the Father, he will testify about

The Work of the Holy Spirit

5"Now I am going to him who sent me,[k] yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?'[l] 6Because I have said these things, you are filled with grief.[m] 7But I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Counselor[n] will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.[o] 8When he comes, he will convict the world of guilt[v] in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment: 9in regard to sin,[p] because men do not believe in me; 10in regard to righteousness,[q] because I am going to the Father,[r] where you can see me no longer; 11and in regard to judgment, because the prince of this world[s] now stands condemned.

12"I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear.[t] 13But when he, the Spirit of truth,[u] comes, he will guide you into all truth.[v] He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. 14He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you.
15All that belongs to the Father is mine.[w] That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you.

16"In a little while[x] you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me."[y]

The Disciples' Grief Will Turn to Joy

17Some of his disciples said to one another, "What does he mean by saying, 'In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me,'[z] and 'Because I am going to the Father'?"[a] 18They kept asking, "What does he mean by 'a little while'?
We don't understand what he is saying."

17:1 [b]Jn 11:41

19Jesus saw that they wanted to ask him about this, so he said to them, "Are you asking one another what I meant when I said, 'In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me'? 20I tell you the truth, you will weep and mourn[b] while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy.[c] 21A woman giving birth to a child has pain[d] because her time has come; but when her baby is born she forgets the anguish because of her joy that a child is born into the world. 22So with you: Now is your time of grief,[e] but I will see you again[f] and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.[g] 23In that day[h] you will no longer ask me anything. I tell you the truth, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.[i] 24Until now you have not asked for anything in my name.
Ask and you will receive,[j] and your joy will be complete.[k]

25"Though I have been speaking figuratively,[l] a time is coming[m] when I will no longer use this kind of language but will tell you plainly about my Father. 26In that day you will ask in my name.[n] I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf. 27No, the Father himself loves you because you have loved me[o] and have believed that I came from God.[p] 28I came from the Father and entered the world; now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father."[q]

29Then Jesus' disciples said, "Now you are speaking clearly and without figures of speech.[r] 30Now we can see that you know all things and that you do not even need to have anyone ask you questions. This makes us believe[s] that you came from God."[t]

31"You believe at last!"[w] Jesus answered. 32"But a time is coming,[u] and has come, when you will be scattered,[v] each to his own home. You will leave me all alone.[w] Yet I am not alone, for my Father is with me.[x]

33"I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace.[y] In this world you will have trouble.[z] But take heart! I have overcome[a] the world."

Jesus Prays for Himself

17 After Jesus said this, he looked toward heaven[b] and prayed:

v8 Or will expose the guilt of the world w31 Or "Do you now believe?"

"Father, the time has come.[a] Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you.[b] 2For you granted him authority over all people[c] that he might give eternal life[d] to all those you have given him.[e] 3Now this is eternal life: that they may know you,[f] the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.[g] 4I have brought you glory[h] on earth by completing the work you gave me to do.[i] 5And now, Father, glorify me[j] in your presence with the glory I had with you[k] before the world began.[l]

Jesus Prays for His Disciples

6"I have revealed you[a][m] to those whom you gave me[n] out of the world. They were yours; you gave them to me and they have obeyed your word. 7Now they know that everything you have given me comes from you. 8For I gave them the words you gave me[p] and they accepted them. They knew with certainty that I came from you,[q] and they believed that you sent me.[r] 9I pray for them.[s] I am not praying for the world, but for those you have given me,[t] for they are yours. 10All I have is yours, and all you have is mine.[u] And glory has come to me through them. 11I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world,[v] and I am coming to you.[w] Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name—the name you gave me—so that they may be one[x] as we are one.[y] 12While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that name you gave me. None has been lost[z] except the one doomed to destruction[a] so that Scripture would be fulfilled.[b] 13"I am coming to you now,[c] but I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have the full measure of my joy[d] within them. 14I have given them your word and the world has hated them,[e] for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world.[f] 15My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one.[g] 16They are not of the world, even as I am not of it.[h] 17Sanctify[b] them by the truth; your word is truth.[i] 18As you sent me into the world,[j] I have sent them into the world.[k] 19For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified.[l]

Jesus Prays for All Believers

20"My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, 21that all of them may be one,[m] Father, just as you are in me and I am in you.[n] May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me.[o] 22I have given them the glory that you gave me,[p] that they may be one as we are one:[q] 23I in them and you in me. May they be brought to complete unity to let the world know that you sent me[r] and have loved them[s] even as you have loved me.

24"Father, I want those you have given me[t] to be with me where I am,[u] and to see my glory,[v] the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.[w]

25"Righteous Father, though the world does not know you,[x] I know you, and they know that you have sent me.[y] 26I have made you known to them,[z] and will continue to make you known in order that the love you have for me may be in them[a] and that I myself may be in them."

18 When he had finished praying, Jesus left with his disciples and crossed the Kidron Valley.[a] On the other side there was an olive grove,[b] and he and his disciples went into it.[c]

2Now Judas, who betrayed him, knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with his disciples.[d] 3So Judas came to the grove, guiding[e] a detachment of soldiers and some officials from the chief priests and Pharisees.[f] They were carrying torches, lanterns and weapons.

4Jesus, knowing all that was going to happen to him,[g] went out and asked them, "Who is it you want?"[h]

5"Jesus of Nazareth,"[i] they replied.

"I am he," Jesus said. (And Judas the traitor was standing there with them.) 6When Jesus said, "I am he," they drew back and fell to the ground.

7Again he asked them, "Who is it you want?"[a]
And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth." 8"I told you that I am he," Jesus answered. "If you are looking for me, then let these men go." 9This happened so that the words he had spoken would be fulfilled: "I have not lost one of those you gave me."[a] [b] 10Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, cutting off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.) 11Jesus commanded Peter, "Put your sword away! Shall I not drink the cup[c] the Father has given me?"

Jesus Taken to Annas

12Then the detachment of soldiers with its commander and the Jewish officials[d] arrested Jesus. They bound him 13and brought him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas,[e] the high priest that year. 14Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it would be good if one man died for the people.[f]

Peter's First Denial

15Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. Because this disciple was known to the high priest,[g] he went with Jesus into the high priest's courtyard,[h] 16but Peter had to wait outside at the door. The other disciple, who was known to the high priest, came back, spoke to the girl on duty there and brought Peter in.
17"You are not one of his disciples, are you?" the girl at the door asked Peter.
He replied, "I am not."[i] 18It was cold, and the servants and officials stood around a fire[j] they had made to keep warm. Peter also was standing with them, warming himself.[k]

The High Priest Questions Jesus

19Meanwhile, the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching.
20"I have spoken openly to the world," Jesus replied. "I always taught in synagogues[l] or at the temple,[m] where all the Jews come together. I said nothing in secret.[n] 21Why question me? Ask those who heard me. Surely they know what I said." 22When Jesus said this, one of the officials[o] nearby struck him in the face.[p]
"Is this the way you answer the high priest?" he demanded.
23"If I said something wrong," Jesus replied, "testify as to what is wrong.
But if I spoke the truth, why did you strike me?"[q] 24Then Annas sent him, still bound, to Caiaphas[r] the high priest.[a]

Peter's Second and Third Denials

18:25-27pp — Mt 26:71-75; Mk 14:69-72; Lk 22:58-62

25As Simon Peter stood warming himself,[s] he was asked, "You are not one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it, saying, "I am not."[t] 26One of the high priest's servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off,[u] challenged him, "Didn't I see you with him in the olive grove?"[v] 27Again Peter denied it, and at that moment a rooster began to crow.[w]

28Then the Jews led Jesus from Caia-phas to the palace of the Roman governor.[x] By now it was early morning, and to avoid ceremonial uncleanness the Jews did not enter the palace;[y] they wanted to be able to eat the Passover.[z] 29So Pilate came out to them and asked, "What charges are you bringing against this man?" 30"If he were not a criminal," they replied, "we would not have handed him over to you." 31Pilate said, "Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law."
"But we have no right to execute anyone," the Jews objected. 32This happened so that the words Jesus had spoken indicating the kind of death he was going to die[a] would be fulfilled.
33Pilate then went back inside the palace,[b] summoned Jesus and asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"[c] 34"Is that your own idea," Jesus asked, "or did others talk to you about me?" 35"Am I a Jew?" Pilate replied. "It was your people and your chief priests who handed you over to me. What is it you have done?" 36Jesus said, "My kingdom[d] is not of this world. If it were, my servants 37 "You are a king, then!" said Pilate.

Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth.[c] Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."[d] 38 "What is truth?" Pilate asked. With this he went out again to the Jews and said, "I find no basis for a charge against him.[e] 39 But it is your custom for me to release to you one prisoner at the time of the Passover. Do you want me to release 'the king of the Jews'?" 40 They shouted back, "No, not him!
Give us Barabbas!" Now Barabbas had taken part in a rebellion.[f]

Jesus Sentenced to be Crucified

19:1-16pp — Mt 27:27-31; Mk 15:16-20

19 Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged.[g] 2 The soldiers
put it on his head. They clothed him in a purple robe 3 and went up to him again and again, saying, "Hail, king of the Jews!"[h] And they struck him in the face.[i] 4 Once more Pilate came out and said to the Jews, "Look, I am bringing him out[j] to you to let you know that I find no basis for a charge against him."[k] 5 When Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe,[l] Pilate said to them, "Here is the man!" 6 As soon as the chief priests and their officials saw him, they shouted, "Crucify! Crucify!" But Pilate answered, "You take him and crucify him.[m] As for me, I find no basis for a charge against him."[n] 7 The Jews insisted, "We have a law, and according to that law he must die,[o] because he claimed to be the Son of God."[p] 8 When Pilate heard this, he was even more afraid, 9 and he went back inside the palace.[q] "Where do you come from?" he asked Jesus, but Jesus gave him no answer.[r] 10 "Do you refuse to speak to me?" Pilate said. "Don't you realize I have power either to free you or to crucify you?" 11 Jesus answered, "You would have no power over me if it were not given to you from above.[s] Therefore the one who handed me over to you[t] is guilty of a greater sin."

12 From then on, Pilate tried to set Jesus free, but the Jews kept shouting,
"If you let this man go, you are no friend of Caesar. Anyone who claims to be a king[u] opposes Caesar." 13 When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judge's seat[v] at a place known as the Stone Pavement (which in Aramaic[w] is Gabbatha). 14 It was the day of Preparation[x] of Passover Week, about the sixth hour.[y]
"Here is your king,"[z] Pilate said to the Jews.
15 But they shouted, "Take him away!
Take him away! Crucify him!"
"Shall I crucify your king?" Pilate asked.
"We have no king but Caesar," the chief priests answered.
16 Finally Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified.[a]

19:17-24pp — Mt 27:33-44; Mk 15:22-32; Lk 23:33-43

So the soldiers took charge of Jesus.
17 Carrying his own cross,[b] he went out to the place of the Skull[c] (which in Aramaic[d] is called Golgotha). 18 Here they crucified him, and with him two others[e]—one on each side and Jesus in the middle.
19 Pilate had a notice prepared and fastened to the cross. It read: JESUS OF NAZARETH,[f] THE KING OF THE JEWS.[g] 20 Many of the Jews read this sign, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city,[h] and the sign was written in Aramaic, Latin and Greek. 21 The chief priests of the Jews protested to Pilate, "Do not write 'The King of the Jews,' but that this man claimed to be king of the Jews."[i] 22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written." 23 When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes, dividing them into four shares, one for each of them, with the undergarment remaining.
This garment was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom.
24 "Let's not tear it," they said to one another. "Let's decide by lot who will get it."
This happened that the scripture might be fulfilled[j] which said, "They divided my garments among

them
and cast lots for my clothing."[b][k]

So this is what the soldiers did.
25Near the cross[a] of Jesus stood his mother,[b] his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas,[c] and Mary Magdalene.[d] 26When Jesus saw his mother[e] there, and the disciple whom he loved[f] standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Dear woman, here is your son," 27and to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that time on, this disciple took her into his home.

28Later, knowing that all was now completed,[g] and so that the Scripture would be fulfilled,[h] Jesus said, "I am thirsty." 29A jar of wine vinegar[i] was there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put the sponge on a stalk of the hyssop plant, and lifted it to Jesus' lips.
30When he had received the drink, Jesus said, "It is finished."[j] With that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.
31Now it was the day of Preparation,[k] and the next day was to be a special Sabbath. Because the Jews did not want the bodies left on the crosses[l] during the Sabbath, they asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken down. 32The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with Jesus, and then those of the other.[m] 33But when they came to Jesus and found that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. 34Instead, one of the soldiers pierced[n] Jesus' side with a spear, bringing a sudden flow of blood and water.[o] 35The man who saw it[p] has given testimony, and his testimony is true.[q] He knows that he tells the truth, and he testifies so that you also may believe. 36These things happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled:[r] "Not one of his bones will be broken,"[c][s] 37and, as another scripture says, "They will look on the one they have pierced."[d][t]

38Later, Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate for the body of Jesus. Now Joseph was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly because he feared the Jews.[u] With Pilate's permission, he came and took the body away. 39He was accompanied by Nicodemus,[v] the man who earlier had visited Jesus at night. Nicodemus brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds.[e] 40Taking Jesus' body, the two of them wrapped it, with the spices, in strips of linen.[w] This was in accordance with Jewish burial customs.[x] 41At the place where Jesus was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had ever been laid. 42Be-cause it was the Jewish day of Preparation[y] and since the tomb was nearby,[z] they laid Jesus there.

The Empty Tomb

20 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene[a] went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance.[b] 2So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved,[c] and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"[d] 3So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb.[e] 4Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. 5He bent over and looked in[f] at the strips of linen[g] lying there but did not go in.
6Then Simon Peter, who was behind him, arrived and went into the tomb.
He saw the strips of linen lying there, 7as well as the burial cloth that had been around Jesus' head.[h] The cloth was folded up by itself, separate from the linen. 8Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first,[i] also went inside. He saw and believed.
9(They still did not understand from Scripture[j] that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)[k]

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

10Then the disciples went back to their homes, 11but Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb[l] 12and saw two angels in white,[m] seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot.
13They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?"[n]
"They have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I don't know where they have put him."[o] 14At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there,[a] but she did not realize that it was Jesus.[b] 15"Woman," he said, "why are you crying?[c] Who is it you are looking for?"

Thinking he was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him." 16Jesus said to her, "Mary."

She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic,[d] "Rabboni!"[e] (which means Teacher).
17Jesus said, "Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet returned to the Father.
Go instead to my brothers[f] and tell them, 'I am returning to my Father[g] and your Father, to my God and
your God.'" 18Mary Magdalene[h] went to the disciples[i] with the news: "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them that he had said these things to her.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

19On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jews,[j] Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace[k] be with you!"[l] 20After he said this, he showed them his hands and side.[m] The disciples were overjoyed[n] when they saw
the Lord.
21Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you![o] As the Father has sent me,[p] I am sending you."[q] 22And with that he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit.[r] 23If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven."[s]

Jesus Appears to Thomas

24Now Thomas[t] (called Didymus), one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. 25So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!"

But he said to them, "Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side,[u] I will not believe it."[v] 26A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace[w] be with you!"[x] 27Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe."[y] 28Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!" 29Then Jesus told him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed;[z] blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."[a] 30Jesus did many other miraculous signs[b] in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book.[c] 31But these are written that you may[f] believe[d] that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God,[e] and that by believing you may have life in his name.[f]

Jesus and the Miraculous Catch of Fish

21 Afterward Jesus appeared again to his disciples,[g] by the Sea of Tiberias.[g][h] It happened this way: 2Simon Peter, Thomas[i] (called Didymus), Nathanael[j] from Cana in Galilee,[k] the sons of Zebedee,[l] and two other disciples were together. 3"I'm going out to fish," Simon Peter told them, and they said, "We'll go with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.[m] 4Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus.[n] 5He called out to them, "Friends, haven't you any fish?"

"No," they answered.
6He said, "Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some." When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.[o] 7Then the disciple whom Jesus loved[p] said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, "It is the Lord," he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water. 8The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, about a hundred yards.[h] 9When they landed, they saw a fire[q] of burning coals there with fish on it,[r] and some bread.
10Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught." 11Simon Peter climbed aboard and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many the net was not torn. 12Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast."

None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. 13 Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.[a] 14 This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples[b] after he was raised from the dead.

Jesus Reinstates Peter

15 When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you truly love me more than these?"
"Yes, Lord," he said, "you know that I love you."[c] Jesus said, "Feed my lambs."[d] 16 Again Jesus said, "Simon son of John, do you truly love me?" He answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Take care of my sheep."[e] 17 The third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?"[f] He said, "Lord, you know all things;[g] you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep.[h] 18 I tell you the truth, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." 19 Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death[i] by which Peter would glorify God.[j] Then he said to him, "Follow me!"[k] 20 Peter turned and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved[l] was following them. (This was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and had said, "Lord, who is going to betray you?")[m] 21 When Peter saw him, he asked, "Lord, what about him?" 22 Jesus answered, "If I want him to remain alive until I return,[n] what is that to you? You must follow me."[o] 23 Because of this, the rumor spread among the brothers[p] that this disciple would not die. But Jesus did not say that he would not die; he only said, "If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?" 24 This is the disciple who testifies to these things[q] and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true.[r] 25 Jesus did many other things as well.[s] If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.

Acts

Jesus Taken Up Into Heaven

1 In my former book,[a] Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach[b] 2until the day he was taken up to heaven,[c] after giving instructions[d] through the Holy Spirit to the apostles[e] he had chosen.[f] 3After his suffering, he showed himself to these men and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them[g] over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God.[h] 4On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait[i] for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about.[j] 5For John baptized with[a] water,[k] but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."[l] 6So when they met together, they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore[m] the kingdom to Israel?" 7He said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority.[n] 8But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you;[o] and you will be my witnesses[p] in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria,[q] and to the ends of the earth."[r] 9After he said this, he was taken up[s] before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight.
10They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white[t] stood beside them. 11"Men of Galilee,"[u] they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back[v] in the same way you have seen him go into heaven."

Matthias Chosen to Replace Judas from the hill called the Mount of Olives,[x] a Sabbath day's walk[b] from the city. 13When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room[y] where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James.[z] 14They all joined together constantly in prayer,[a] along with the women[b] and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.[c] 15In those days Peter stood up among the believers[c] (a group numbering about a hundred and twenty) 16and said, "Brothers,[d] the Scripture had to be fulfilled[e] which the Holy Spirit spoke long ago through the mouth of David concerning Judas,[f] who served as guide for those who arrested Jesus—17he was one of our number[g] and shared in this ministry."[h] 18(With the reward[i] he got for his wickedness, Judas bought a field;[j] there he fell headlong, his body burst open and all his intestines spilled out.

19Everyone in Jerusalem heard about this, so they called that field in their language[k] Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) 20"For," said Peter, "it is written in the book of Psalms,

" 'May his place be deserted; let there be no one to dwell in it,'[d] [l]

and,

" 'May another take his place of leadership.'[e] [m]

21Therefore it is necessary to choose one of the men who have been with us the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22beginning from John's baptism[n] to the time when Jesus was taken up from us. For one of these must become a witness[o] with us of his resurrection."
23So they proposed two men: Joseph

[a]5 Or in [b]12 That is, about 3/4 mile (about 1,100 meters) [c]15 Greek brothers [d]20 Psalm 69:25 [e]20 Psalm 109:8

called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. 24Then they prayed,[a] "Lord, you know everyone's heart.[b] Show us[c] which of these two you have chosen 25to take over this apostolic ministry, which Judas left to go where he belongs." 26Then they cast lots, and the lot fell to Matthias; so he was added to the eleven apostles.[d]

The Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost

2 When the day of Pentecost[e] came, they were all together[f] in one place. 2Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting.[g] 3They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. 4All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit[h] and began to speak in other tongues[f] [i] as the Spirit enabled them.

5Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing[j] Jews from every nation under heaven. 6When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking in his own language.
7Utterly amazed,[k] they asked: "Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans?[l] 8Then how is it that each of us hears them in his own native language?
9Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia,[m] Pontus[n] and Asia,[o] 10Phrygia[p] and Pamphylia,[q] Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene;[r] visitors from Rome 11(both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" 12Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?"

13Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine.[g]"[s]

Peter Addresses the Crowd

14Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. 15These men are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning![t] 16No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17" 'In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people.[u]
Your sons and daughters will prophesy,[v]
your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams.
18Even on my servants, both men and women,
I will pour out my Spirit in those days,
and they will prophesy.[w] 19I will show wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below,[x] blood and fire and billows of smoke.
20The sun will be turned to darkness

22"Men of Israel, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth[b] was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders and signs,[c] which God did among you through him,[d] as you yourselves know. 23This man was handed over to you by God's set purpose and fore-knowledge;[e] and you, with the help of wicked men,[i] put him to death by nailing him to the cross.[f] 24But God raised him from the dead,[g] freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him.[h] 25David said about him:

" 'I saw the Lord always before me.
Because he is at my right hand,
I will not be shaken.
26Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
my body also will live in hope, 27because you will not abandon me to the grave, nor will you let your Holy One see decay.[i] 28You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence.'[j] [j]

29"Brothers,[k] I can tell you confidently that the patriarch[l] David died and was buried,[m] and his tomb is here[n] to this day. 30But he was a prophet and knew that God had promised him on oath that he would place one of his descendants on his throne.[o] 31Seeing what was ahead, he spoke of the resurrection of the Christ,[k] that he was not abandoned to the grave, nor did his body see decay.[a] 32 God has raised this Jesus to life,[b] and we are all witnesses[c] of the fact. 33 Exalted[d] to the right hand of God,[e] he has received from the Father[f] the promised Holy Spirit[g] and has poured out[h] what you now see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend to heaven, and yet he said,

" 'The Lord said to my Lord:
"Sit at my right hand
35 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet." '[l] [i] 36 "Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord[j] and Christ."[k]

37 When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?"[l] 38 Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized,[m] every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins.[n] And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.[o] 39 The promise is for you and your children[p] and for all who are far off[q]—for all whom the Lord our God will call." 40 With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation."[r] 41 Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number[s] that day.

The Fellowship of the Believers

42 They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching[t] and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread[u] and to prayer.[v] 43 Everyone was filled with awe, and many wonders and miraculous signs were done by the apostles.[w] 44 All the believers were together and had everything in common.[x] 45 Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need.[y] 46 Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts.[z] They broke bread[a] in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, 47 praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people.[b] And the Lord added to their number[c] daily those who were being saved.

Peter Heals the Crippled Beggar

3 One day Peter and John[d] were going up to the temple[e] at the time of prayer—at three in the afternoon.[f] 2 Now a man crippled from birth[g] was being carried to the temple gate[h] called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg[i] from those going into the temple courts. 3 When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money. 4 Peter looked straight at him, as did John. Then Peter said, "Look at us!" 5 So the man gave them his attention, expecting to get something from them.
6 Then Peter said, "Silver or gold I do not have, but what I have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth,[j] walk." 7 Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up, and instantly the man's feet and ankles became strong.
8 He jumped to his feet and began to walk. Then he went with them into the temple courts, walking and jumping,[k] and praising God. 9 When all the people[l] saw him walking and praising God, 10 they recognized him as the same man who used to sit begging at the temple gate called Beautiful,[m] and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to
him.

Peter Speaks to the Onlookers

11 While the beggar held on to Peter and John,[n] all the people were astonished and came running to them in the place called Solomon's Colonnade.[o] 12 When Peter saw this, he said to them:
"Men of Israel, why does this surprise you? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? 13 The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob,[p] the God of our fathers,[q] has glorified his servant Jesus. You handed him over[r] to be killed, and you disowned him before Pilate,[s] though he had decided to let him go.[t] 14 You disowned the Holy[u] and Righteous One[v] and asked that a murderer be released to you.[w] 15 You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead.[x] We are witnesses[y] of this. 16 By faith in the name of Jesus,[z] this man whom you see and know was made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through him that has given this complete healing to him, as you can all see.
17 "Now, brothers,[a] I know that you acted in ignorance,[b] as did your leaders.[c] 18 But this is how God fulfilled[d]

Peter and John Before the Sanhedrin

4 The priests and the captain of the temple guard[q] and the Sadducees[r] came up to Peter and John while they were speaking to the people. 2 They were greatly disturbed because the apostles were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection of the dead.[s] 3 They seized Peter and John, and because it was evening, they put them in jail[t] until the next day.
4 But many who heard the message believed, and the number of men grew[u] to about five thousand.
5 The next day the rulers,[v] elders and teachers of the law met in Jerusalem.
6 Annas the high priest was there, and so were Caiaphas,[w] John, Alexander and the other men of the high priest's family. 7 They had Peter and John brought before them and began to question them: "By what power or what name did you do this?"
8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit,[x] said to them: "Rulers and elders of the people![y] 9 If we are being called to account today for an act of kindness shown to a cripple[z] and are asked how he was healed, 10 then know reth,[a] whom you crucified but whom 12 Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved."[d] 13 When they saw the courage of Peter and John[e] and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men,[f] they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.[g] 14 But since they could see the man who had been healed standing there with them, there was nothing they could say. 15 So they ordered them to withdraw from the Sanhedrin[h] and then conferred together. 16 "What are we going to do with these men?"[i] they asked. "Everybody living in Jerusalem knows they have done an outstanding miracle,[j] and we cannot deny it. 17 But to stop this thing from spreading any further among the people, we must warn these men to speak no longer to anyone in this name." 18 Then they called them in again and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.[k] 19 But Peter and John replied, "Judge for yourselves whether it is right in God's sight to obey you rather than God.[l] 20 For we cannot help speaking[m] about what we have seen and heard."[n] 21 After further threats they let them go. They could not decide how to punish them, because all the people[o] were praising God[p] for what had happened.

22 For the man who was miraculously healed was over forty years old.

The Believers' Prayer

23 On their release, Peter and John went back to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. 24 When they heard this, they raised their voices together in prayer to God.[q] "Sovereign Lord," they said, "you made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and everything in them.[r] 25 You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of your servant, our father David:[s]

" 'Why do the nations rage

27 Indeed Herod[c] and Pontius Pilate[d] met together with the Gentiles and the people[t] of Israel in this city to conspire against your holy servant Jesus,[e] whom you anointed. 28 They did what your power and will had decided beforehand should happen.[f] 29 Now, Lord, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness.[g] 30 Stretch out your hand to heal and perform miraculous signs and wonders[h] through the name of your holy servant Jesus."[i] 31 After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken.[j] And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit[k] and spoke the word of God[l] boldly.[m]

The Believers Share Their Possessions

32 All the believers were one in heart and mind. No one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they shared everything they had.[n] 33 With great power the apostles continued to testify[o] to the resurrection[p] of the Lord Jesus, and much grace[q] was upon them all. 34 There were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned lands or houses sold them,[r] brought the money from the sales 35 and put it at the apostles' feet,[s] and it was distributed to anyone as he had need.[t] 36 Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas[u] (which means Son of Encouragement), 37 sold a field he owned and brought the money and put it at the apostles' feet.[v]

Ananias and Sapphira

5 Now a man named Ananias, together with his wife Sapphira, also sold a piece of property. 2 With his wife's full knowledge he kept back part of the money for himself,[w] but brought the rest and put it at the apostles' feet.[x] 3 Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan[y] has so filled your heart[z] that you have lied to the Holy Spirit[a] and have kept for yourself some of the money you received for the land?[b] 4 Didn't it belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn't the money at your disposal?[c] What made you think of doing such a thing? You have not lied to men but to God."[d] 5 When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died.[e] And great fear[f] seized all who heard what had happened. 6 Then the young men came forward, wrapped up his body,[g] and carried him out and buried him.
7 About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land?"
"Yes," she said, "that is the price."[h] 9 Peter said to her, "How could you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord?[i] Look! The feet of the men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also." 10 At that moment she fell down at his feet and died.[j] Then the young men came in and, finding her dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband.[k] 11 Great fear[l] seized the whole church and all who heard about these events.

The Apostles Heal Many

12 The apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders[m] among the people. And all the believers used to meet together[n] in Solomon's Colon-nade.[o] 13 No one else dared join them, even though they were highly regarded by the people.[p] 14 Nevertheless, more and more men and women believed in the Lord and were added to their number.[q] 15 As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and mats so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by.[r] 16 Crowds gathered also from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those tormented by evil[u] spirits, and all of them were healed.[s]

The Apostles Persecuted

17 Then the high priest and all his associates, who were members of the party[t] of the Sadducees,[u] were filled with jealousy. 18 They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail.[v] 19 But during the night an angel[w] of the Lord opened the doors of the jail[x] and brought them out.[y] 20 "Go, stand in the temple courts," he said,
"and tell the people the full message of this new life."[z] r26 That is, Christ or Messiah s26 Psalm 2:1,2 t27 The Greek is plural. u16 Greek unclean

21At daybreak they entered the temple courts, as they had been told, and began to teach the people.
When the high priest and his associates[a] arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin[b]—the full assembly of the elders of Israel—and sent to the jail for the apostles. 22But on arriving at the jail, the officers did not find them there.[c] So they went back and reported, 23"We found the jail securely locked, with the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside." 24On hearing this report, the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests[d] were puzzled, wondering what would come of this.
25Then someone came and said, "Look! The men you put in jail are standing in the temple courts teaching the people." 26At that, the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles. They did not use force, because they feared that the people[e] would stone them.
27Having brought the apostles, they made them appear before the Sanhedrin[f] to be questioned by the high priest. 28"We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name,"[g] he said. "Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us guilty of this man's blood."[h] 29Peter and the other apostles replied: "We must obey God rather than men![i] 30The God of our fathers[j] raised Jesus from the dead[k]—whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree.[l] 31God exalted him to his own right hand[m] as Prince and Savior[n] that he might give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel.[o] 32We are witnesses of these things,[p] and so is the Holy Spirit,[q] whom God has given to those who obey him."
furious[r] and wanted to put them to death. 34But a Pharisee named Gamaliel,[s] a teacher of the law,[t] who was honored by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered that the men be put outside for a little while.
35Then he addressed them: "Men of Israel, consider carefully what you intend to do to these men. 36Some time ago Theudas appeared, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men rallied to him. He was killed, all his followers were dispersed, and it all came to nothing. 37After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census[u] and led a band of people in revolt. He too was killed, and all his followers were scattered. 38Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail.[v] 39But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God."[w] 40His speech persuaded them. They called the apostles in and had them flogged.[x] Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
41The apostles left the Sanhedrin, rejoicing[y] because they had been counted worthy of suffering disgrace for the Name.[z] 42Day after day, in the temple courts[a] and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news[b] that Jesus is the Christ.[v] [c]

The Choosing of the Seven

6 In those days when the number of disciples was increasing,[d] the Grecian Jews[e] among them complained against the Hebraic Jews because their widows[f] were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food.[g] 2So the Twelve gathered all the disciples[h] together and said, "It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God[i] in order to wait on tables. 3Brothers,[j] choose seven men from among you who are known to be full of the Spirit[k] and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them[l] 4and will give our attention to prayer[m] and the ministry of the word." 5This proposal pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen,[n] a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit;[o] also Philip,[p] Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas from Antioch, a convert to Judaism. 6They presented these men to the apostles, who prayed[q] and laid their hands on them.[r] 7So the word of God spread.[s] The number of disciples in Jerusalem increased rapidly,[t] and a large number of priests became obedient to the faith.

Stephen Seized

8Now Stephen, a man full of God's grace and power, did great wonders and miraculous signs[u] among the people. 9Opposition arose, however, from members of the Synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called)—Jews of Cyrene[a] and Alexandria as well as the provinces of Cilicia[b] and Asia.[c] These men began to argue with Stephen, 10but they could not stand up against his wisdom or the Spirit by whom he spoke.[d]

11Then they secretly[e] persuaded some men to say, "We have heard Stephen speak words of blasphemy against Moses and against God."[f] 12So they stirred up the people and the elders and the teachers of the law.

They seized Stephen and brought him before the Sanhedrin.[g] 13They produced false witnesses,[h] who testified, "This fellow never stops speaking against this holy place[i] and against the law. 14For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place[j] and change the customs Moses handed down to us."[k]

15All who were sitting in the Sanhedrin[l] looked intently at Stephen, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Stephen's Speech to the Sanhedrin

7 Then the high priest asked him, "Are these charges true?"

2To this he replied: "Brothers and fathers,[m] listen to me! The God of glory[n] appeared to our father Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran.[o] 3'Leave your country and your people,' God said, 'and go to the land I will show you.'[w][p]

4"So he left the land of the Chal-deans and settled in Haran. After the death of his father, God sent him to this land where you are now living.[q] 5He gave him no inheritance here,[r] not even a foot of ground. But God promised him that he and his descendants after him would possess the land,[s] even though at that time Abraham had no child. 6God spoke to him in this way: 'Your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own, and they will be enslaved and mistreated four hundred years.[t] 7But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves,' God said, 'and afterward they will come out of that country and worship me in this place.'[x][u] 8Then he gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision.[v] And Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him eight days after his birth.[w] Later Isaac became the father of Jacob,[x] and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.[y]

9"Because the patriarchs were jealous of Joseph,[z] they sold him as a slave into Egypt.[a] But God was with him[b] 10and rescued him from all his troubles. He gave Joseph wisdom and enabled him to gain the goodwill of Pharaoh king of Egypt; so he made him ruler over Egypt and all his palace.[c]

11"Then a famine struck all Egypt and Canaan, bringing great suffering, and our fathers could not find food.[d] 12When Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers on their first visit.[e] 13On their second visit, Joseph told his brothers who he was,[f] and Pharaoh learned about Joseph's family.[g] 14After this, Joseph sent for his father Jacob and his whole family,[h] seventy-five in all.[i] 15Then Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and our fathers died.[j] 16Their bodies were brought back to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought from the sons of Hamor at Shechem for a certain sum of money.[k]

17"As the time drew near for God to fulfill his promise to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt greatly increased.[l] 18Then another king, who knew nothing about Joseph, became ruler of Egypt.[m] 19He dealt treacherously with our people and oppressed our forefathers by forcing them to throw out their newborn babies so that they would die.[n]

20"At that time Moses was born, and he was no ordinary child.[y] For three months he was cared for in his father's house.[o] 21When he was placed outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him and brought him up as her own son.[p] 22Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians[q] and was powerful in speech and action.

23"When Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his fellow Israelites.
24He saw one of them being mistreated by an Egyptian, so he went to his defense and avenged him by killing the Egyptian. 25Moses thought that his own people would realize that God was using him to rescue them, but they did not. 26The next day Moses came upon two Israelites who were fighting.
He tried to reconcile them by saying, 'Men, you are brothers; why do you want to hurt each other?'

27"But the man who was mistreating the other pushed Moses aside and said,

'Who made you ruler and judge over us?[a] 28Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'[z] 29When Moses heard this, he fled to Midian, where he settled as a foreigner and had two sons.[b] 30"After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush in the desert near Mount Sinai. 31When he saw this, he was amazed at the sight. As he went over to look more closely, he heard the Lord's voice:[c] 32'I am the God of your fathers,[d] the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.'[a] Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look.[e] 33"Then the Lord said to him, 'Take off your sandals; the place where you are standing is holy ground.[f] 34I have indeed seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their groaning and have come down to set them free. Now come, I will send you back to Egypt.'[b g] 35"This is the same Moses whom they had rejected with the words, 'Who made you ruler and judge?'[h] He was sent to be their ruler and deliverer by God himself, through the angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36He led them out of Egypt[i] and did wonders and miraculous signs[j] in Egypt, at the Red Sea[c k] and for forty years in the desert.[l] 37"This is that Moses who told the Israelites, 'God will send you a prophet like me from your own people.'[d m] 38He was in the assembly in the desert, with the angel[n] who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers;[o] and he received living words[p] to pass on to us.[q] 39"But our fathers refused to obey him. Instead, they rejected him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt.[r] 40They told Aaron, 'Make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who led us out of Egypt—we don't know what has happened to him!'[e s] 41That was the time they made an idol in the form of a calf. They brought sacrifices to it and held a celebration in honor of what their hands had made.[t] 42But God turned away[u] and gave them over to the worship of the heavenly bodies.[v] This agrees with what is written in the book of the prophets:

" 'Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings forty years in the desert, O house of Israel?
43You have lifted up the shrine of Molech
and the star of your god Rephan, the idols you made to worship.
Therefore I will send you into exile'[f w] beyond Babylon.

44"Our forefathers had the tabernacle of the Testimony[x] with them in the desert. It had been made as God directed Moses, according to the pattern he had seen.[y] 45Having received the tabernacle, our fathers under Joshua brought it with them when they took the land from the nations God drove out before them.[z] It remained in the land until the time of David,[a] 46who enjoyed God's favor and asked that he might provide a dwelling place for the God of Jacob.[g b] 47But it was Solomon who built the house for him.[c] 48"However, the Most High[d] does not live in houses made by men.[e] As the prophet says:

49" 'Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool.[f] What kind of house will you build for me?
says the Lord.
Or where will my resting place be?
50Has not my hand made all these things?'[h g]

51"You stiff-necked people,[h] with uncircumcised hearts[i] and ears! You are just like your fathers: You always resist the Holy Spirit! 52Was there ever a prophet your fathers did not persecute?[j] They even killed those who predicted the coming of the Righteous One. And now you have betrayed and murdered him[k]— 53you who have received the law that was put into effect through angels[l] but have not obeyed it."

The Stoning of Stephen

furious[m] and gnashed their teeth at him. 55But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit,[n] looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.[o] 56"Look," he said, "I see heaven open[p] and the Son of Man[q] standing at the right hand of God." 57At this they covered their ears and, yelling at the top of their voices, they all rushed at him, 58 dragged him out of the city[a] and began to stone him.[b] Meanwhile, the witnesses[c] laid their clothes[d] at the feet of a young man named Saul.[e] 59 While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit."[f] 60 Then he fell on his knees[g] and cried out, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them."[h] When he had said this, he fell asleep.[i] 8 And Saul[j] was there, giving approval to his death.

The Church Persecuted and Scattered

On that day a great persecution broke out against the church at Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered[k] throughout Judea and Samaria.[l] 2 Godly men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him. 3 But Saul[m] began to destroy the church.[n] Going from house to house, he dragged off men and women and put them in prison.

Philip in Samaria

4 Those who had been scattered[o] preached the word wherever they went.[p] 5 Philip[q] went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Christ[i] there. 6 When the crowds heard Philip and saw the miraculous signs he did, they all paid close attention to what he said. 7 With shrieks, evil[j] spirits came out of many,[r] and many paralytics and cripples were healed.[s] 8 So there was great joy in that city.

Simon the Sorcerer

9 Now for some time a man named Simon had practiced sorcery[t] in the city and amazed all the people of Samaria. He boasted that he was someone great,[u] 10 and all the people, both high and low, gave him their attention and exclaimed, "This man is the divine power known as the Great Power."[v] 11 They followed him because he had amazed them for a long time with his magic. 12 But when they believed Philip as he preached the good news of the kingdom of God[w] and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized,[x] both men and women. 13 Simon himself believed and was baptized. And he followed Philip everywhere, astonished by the great signs and miracles[y] he saw.
14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria[z] had accepted the word of God,[a] they sent Peter and John[b] to them. 15 When they arrived, they prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit,[c] 16 because the Holy Spirit had not yet come upon any of them;[d] they had simply been baptized into[k] the name of the Lord Jesus.[e] 17 Then Peter and John placed their hands on them,[f] and they received the Holy Spirit.[g] 18 When Simon saw that the Spirit was given at the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money 19 and said, "Give me also this ability so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit." 20 Peter answered: "May your money perish with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God with money![h] 21 You have no part or share[i] in this ministry, because your heart is not right[j] before God. 22 Repent[k] of this wickedness and pray to the Lord.
Perhaps he will forgive you for having such a thought in your heart. 23 For I see that you are full of bitterness and captive to sin." 24 Then Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me[l] so that nothing you have said may happen to me." 25 When they had testified and proclaimed the word of the Lord,[m] Peter and John returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many Samaritan villages.[n]

Philip and the Ethiopian 26 Now an angel[o] of the Lord said to Philip,[p] "Go south to the road—the desert road—that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." 27 So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian[l][q] eunuch,[r] an important official in charge of all the treasury of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians. This man had gone to Jerusalem to worship,[s] 28 and on his way home was sitting in his chariot reading the book of Isaiah the prophet. 29 The Spirit told[t] Philip, "Go to that chariot and stay near it." 30 Then Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked.

31 "How can I," he said, "unless someone explains it to me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with
him.
32 The eunuch was reading this passage of Scripture:

34 The eunuch asked Philip, "Tell me, please, who is the prophet talking about, himself or someone else?" 35 Then Philip began[b] with that very passage of Scripture[c] and told him the good news[d] about Jesus.
36 As they traveled along the road, they came to some water and the eu-nuch said, "Look, here is water. Why shouldn't I be baptized?"[n] [e] 38 And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptized him.
39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away,[f] and the eunuch did not see him again, but went on his way rejoicing. 40 Philip, however, appeared at Azotus and traveled about, preaching the gospel in all the towns[g] until he reached Caesarea.[h]

Saul's Conversion

9:1-19Ref — Ac 22:4-16; 26:9-18

9 Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the Lord's disciples.[i] He went to the high priest 2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus,[j] so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way,[k] whether men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem. 3 As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him.[l] 4 He fell to the ground and heard a voice[m] say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute
me?"
5 "Who are you, Lord?" Saul asked.
"I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting," he replied. 6 "Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."[n] 7 The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless; they heard the sound[o] but did not see anyone.[p] 8 Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing.[q] So they led him by the hand into Damascus. 9 For three days he was blind, and did not eat or drink anything.

10 In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to him in a vision,[r] "Ananias!"
"Yes, Lord," he answered.
11 The Lord told him, "Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus[s] named Saul, for he is praying. 12 In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on[t] him to restore his sight." 13 "Lord," Ananias answered, "I have heard many reports about this man and all the harm he has done to your saints[u] in Jerusalem.[v] 14 And he has come here with authority from the chief priests[w] to arrest all who call on your name."[x] 15 But the Lord said to Ananias, "Go!
This man is my chosen instrument[y] to carry my name before the Gentiles[z] and their kings[a] and before the people of Israel. 16 I will show him how much he must suffer for my name."[b] 17 Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing his hands on[c] Saul, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord—Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here—has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit."[d] 18 Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized,[e] 19 and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

Saul in Damascus and Jerusalem

Saul spent several days with the disciples[f] in Damascus.[g] 20 At once he began to preach in the synagogues[h] that Jesus is the Son of God.[i] 21 All those who heard him were astonished and asked, "Isn't he the man who raised havoc in Jerusalem among those who call on this name?[j] And hasn't he come here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests?"[k] 22 Yet Saul grew more and more powerful and baffled the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Christ.[o] [l] 23 After many days had gone by, the Jews conspired to kill him,[m] 24 but Saul learned of their plan.[n] Day and night they kept close watch on the city gates in order to kill him. 25 But his followers

[m]33 Isaiah 53:7,8 [n]36 Some late manuscripts baptized?" 37 Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." The eunuch answered, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." [o]22 Or Messiah took him by night and lowered him in a basket through an opening in the wall.[a]

26When he came to Jerusalem,[b] he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he really was a disciple. 27But Barnabas[c] took him and brought him to the apostles. He told them how Saul on his journey had seen the Lord and that the Lord had spoken to him,[d] and how in Damascus he had preached fearlessly in the name of Jesus.[e] 28So Saul stayed with them and moved about freely in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. 29He talked and debated with the Grecian Jews,[f] but they tried to kill him.[g] 30When the brothers[h] learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea[i] and sent him off to Tarsus.[j]

31Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee and Samaria[k] enjoyed a time of peace. It was strengthened; and encouraged by the Holy Spirit, it grew in numbers,[l] living in the fear of the Lord.

Aeneas and Dorcas

32As Peter traveled about the country, he went to visit the saints[m] in Lydda. 33There he found a man named Aeneas, a paralytic who had been bedridden for eight years. 34"Aeneas," Peter said to him, "Jesus Christ heals you.[n] Get up and take care of your mat." Immediately Aeneas got up. 35All those who lived in Lydda and Sharon[o] saw him and turned to the Lord.[p]

36In Joppa[q] there was a disciple named Tabitha (which, when translated, is Dorcas[p]), who was always doing good[r] and helping the poor. 37About that time she became sick and died, and her body was washed and placed in an upstairs room.[s] 38Lydda was near Joppa; so when the disciples[t] heard that Peter was in Lydda, they sent two men to him and urged him, "Please come at once!"

39Peter went with them, and when he arrived he was taken upstairs to the room. All the widows[u] stood around him, crying and showing him the robes and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.

40Peter sent them all out of the room;[v] then he got down on his knees[w] and prayed. Turning toward the dead woman, he said, "Tabitha, get up."[x] She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter she sat up. 41He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called the believers and the widows and presented her to them alive. 42This became known all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord.[y] 43Peter stayed in Joppa for some time with a tanner named Simon.[z]

Cornelius Calls for Peter

10 At Caesarea[a] there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was known as the Italian Regiment. 2He and all his family were devout and God-fearing;[b] he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly. 3One day at about three in the afternoon[c] he had a vision.[d] He distinctly saw an angel[e] of God, who came to him and said, "Cornelius!"

4Cornelius stared at him in fear. "What is it, Lord?" he asked.

The angel answered, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offering[f] before God.[g] 5Now send men to Joppa[h] to bring back a man named Simon who is called Peter. 6He is staying with Simon the tanner,[i] whose house is by the sea."

7When the angel who spoke to him had gone, Cornelius called two of his servants and a devout soldier who was one of his attendants. 8He told them everything that had happened and sent them to Joppa.[j]

Peter's Vision

9About noon the following day as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof[k] to pray. 10He became hungry and wanted something to eat, and while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance.[l] 11He saw heaven opened[m] and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners. 12It contained all kinds of four-footed animals, as well as reptiles of the earth and birds of the air. 13Then a voice told him, "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat."

14"Surely not, Lord!"[n] Peter replied. "I have never eaten anything impure or unclean."[o]

15The voice spoke to him a second time, "Do not call anything impure that God has made clean."[p] 16This happened three times, and immediately the sheet was taken back to heaven.

17 While Peter was wondering about the meaning of the vision,[a] the men sent by Cornelius[b] found out where Simon's house was and stopped at the gate. 18 They called out, asking if Simon who was known as Peter was staying there.
19 While Peter was still thinking about the vision,[c] the Spirit said[d] to him, "Simon, three[q] men are looking for you. 20 So get up and go downstairs. Do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them."[e] 21 Peter went down and said to the men, "I'm the one you're looking for.
Why have you come?" 22 The men replied, "We have come from Cornelius the centurion. He is a righteous and God-fearing man,[f] who is respected by all the Jewish people. A holy angel told him to have you come to his house so that he could hear what you have to say."[g] 23 Then Peter invited the men into the house to be his guests.

Peter at Cornelius' House

The next day Peter started out with them, and some of the brothers[h] from Joppa went along.[i] 24 The following day he arrived in Caesarea.[j] Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends.
25 As Peter entered the house, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet in reverence. 26 But Peter made him get up.
"Stand up," he said, "I am only a man myself."[k] 27 Talking with him, Peter went inside and found a large gathering of people.[l] 28 He said to them: "You are well aware that it is against our law for a Jew to associate with a Gentile or visit him.[m] But God has shown me that I should not call any man impure or unclean.[n] 29 So when I was sent for, I came without raising any objection.
May I ask why you sent for me?" 30 Cornelius answered: "Four days ago I was in my house praying at this hour, at three in the afternoon. Suddenly a man in shining clothes[o] stood before me 31 and said, 'Cornelius, God has heard your prayer and remembered your gifts to the poor. 32 Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter.
He is a guest in the home of Simon the tanner, who lives by the sea.' 33 So I sent for you immediately, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us." 34 Then Peter began to speak: "I now realize how true it is that God does not show favoritism[p] 35 but accepts men from every nation who fear him and do what is right.[q] 36 You know the message[r] God sent to the people of Israel, telling the good news[s] of peace[t] through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.[u] 37 You know what has happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached—38 how God anointed[v] Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and how he went around doing good and healing[w] all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with him.[x] 39 "We are witnesses[y] of everything he did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a tree,[z] 40 but God raised him from the dead[a] on the third day and caused him to be seen. 41 He was not seen by all the people,[b] but by witnesses whom God had already chosen—by us who ate[c] and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 He commanded us to preach to the people[d] and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead.[e] 43 All the prophets testify about him[f] that everyone[g] who believes[h] in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."[i] 44 While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came on[j] all who heard the message. 45 The circumcised believers who had come with Peter[k] were astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out[l] even on the Gentiles.[m] 46 For they heard them speaking in tongues[r][n] and praising God.
Then Peter said, 47 "Can anyone keep these people from being baptized with water?[o] They have received the Holy Spirit just as we have."[p] 48 So he ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.[q] Then they asked Peter to stay with them for a few days.

God.[a] ²So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers[b] criticized him ³and said, "You went into the house of uncircumcised men and ate with them."[c] ⁴Peter began and explained everything to them precisely as it had happened: ⁵"I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision.[d] I saw something like a large sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came down to where I was. ⁶I looked into it and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, reptiles, and birds of the air.
⁷Then I heard a voice telling me, 'Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.' ⁸"I replied, 'Surely not, Lord! Nothing impure or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'
⁹"The voice spoke from heaven a second time, 'Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.'[e] ¹⁰This happened three times, and then it was all pulled up to heaven again.
¹¹"Right then three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea[f] stopped at the house where I was staying. ¹²The Spirit told[g] me to have no hesitation about going with them.[h] These six brothers[i] also went with me, and we entered the man's house. ¹³He told us how he had seen an angel[j] appear in his house and say, 'Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter. ¹⁴He will bring you a message[k] through which you and all your household[l] will be saved.'
¹⁵"As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came on[m] them as he had come on us at the beginning.[n] ¹⁶Then I remembered what the Lord had said:
'John baptized with[a] water,[o] but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'[p] ¹⁷So if God gave them the same gift[q] as he gave us,[r] who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to think that I could oppose God?" ¹⁸When they heard this, they had no further objections and praised God, saying, "So then, God has granted even the Gentiles repentance unto life."[s]

The Church in Antioch

¹⁹Now those who had been scattered by the persecution in connection with Stephen[t] traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus and Antioch,[u] telling the message only to Jews. ²⁰Some of them, however, men from Cyprus[v] and Cyrene,[w] went to Antioch[x] and began to speak to Greeks also, telling them the good news[y] about the Lord Jesus.
²¹The Lord's hand was with them,[z] and a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord.[a] ²²News of this reached the ears of the church at Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas[b] to Antioch. ²³When he arrived and saw the evidence of the grace of God,[c] he was glad and encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with all their hearts.[d] ²⁴He was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit[e] and faith, and a great number of people were brought to the Lord.[f] ²⁵Then Barnabas went to Tarsus[g] to look for Saul, ²⁶and when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. So for a whole year Barnabas and Saul met with the church and taught great numbers of people. The disciples[h] were called Christians first[i] at Antioch.
²⁷During this time some prophets[j] came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.
²⁸One of them, named Agabus,[k] stood up and through the Spirit predicted that a severe famine would spread over the entire Roman world.[l] (This happened during the reign of Claudius.)[m] ²⁹The disciples,[n] each according to his ability, decided to provide help[o] for the brothers[p] living in Judea. ³⁰This they did, sending their gift to the elders[q] by Barnabas[r] and Saul.[s]

Peter's Miraculous Escape From Prison

12 It was about this time that King Herod[t] arrested some who belonged to the church, intending to persecute them. ²He had James, the brother of John,[u] put to death with the sword.[v] ³When he saw that this pleased the Jews,[w] he proceeded to seize Peter also. This happened during the Feast of Unleavened Bread.[x] ⁴After arresting him, he put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out for public trial after the Passover.[y] ⁵So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was earnestly praying to God for him.[z] ⁶The night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains,[a] and sentries stood guard at the entrance. ⁷Suddenly an angel[b] of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up. "Quick, get up!" he said, and the chains fell off Peter's wrists.[a] 8Then the angel said to him, "Put on your clothes and sandals." And Peter did so. "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me," the angel told him.

9Peter followed him out of the prison, but he had no idea that what the angel was doing was really happening; he thought he was seeing a vision.[b] 10They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city. It opened for them by itself,[c] and they went through it.
When they had walked the length of one street, suddenly the angel left him.
11Then Peter came to himself[d] and said, "Now I know without a doubt that the Lord sent his angel and rescued me[e] from Herod's clutches and from everything the Jewish people were anticipating." 12When this had dawned on him, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, also called Mark,[f] where many people had gathered and were praying.[g] 13Peter knocked at the outer entrance, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer the door.[h] 14When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed[i] she ran back without opening it and exclaimed, "Peter is at the door!" 15"You're out of your mind," they told her. When she kept insisting that it was so, they said, "It must be his angel."[j] 16But Peter kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. 17Peter motioned with his hand[k] for them to be quiet and described how the Lord had brought him out of prison. "Tell James[l] and the brothers[m] about this," he said, and then he left for another place.
18In the morning, there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter. 19After Herod had a thorough search made for him and did not find him, he cross-examined the guards and ordered that they be executed.[n]

Herod's Death

Then Herod went from Judea to Caesarea[o] and stayed there a while.
20He had been quarreling with the people of Tyre and Sidon;[p] they now joined together and sought an audience with him. Having secured the support of Blastus, a trusted personal servant of the king, they asked for peace, because they depended on the king's country for their food supply.[q] 21On the appointed day Herod, wearing his royal robes, sat on his throne and delivered a public address to the people. 22They shouted, "This is the voice of a god, not of a man." 23Immediately, because Herod did not give praise to God, an angel[r] of the Lord struck him down,[s] and he was eaten by worms and died.
24But the word of God[t] continued to increase and spread.[u] 25When Barnabas[v] and Saul had finished their mission,[w] they returned from[t] Jerusalem, taking with them John, also called Mark.[x]

Barnabas and Saul Sent Off

13 In the church at Antioch[y] there were prophets[z] and teachers:[a] Barnabas,[b] Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene,[c] Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod[d] the tetrarch) and Saul. 2While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said,[e] "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work[f] to which I have called them."[g] 3So after they had fast-ed and prayed, they placed their hands on them[h] and sent them off.[i]

On Cyprus

4The two of them, sent on their way by the Holy Spirit,[j] went down to Se-leucia and sailed from there to Cyprus.[k] 5When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God[l] in the Jewish synagogues.[m] John[n] was with them as their helper.
6They traveled through the whole island until they came to Paphos. There they met a Jewish sorcerer[o] and false prophet[p] named Bar-Jesus, 7who was an attendant of the proconsul,[q] Sergius Paulus. The proconsul, an intelligent man, sent for Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God. 8But Elymas the sorcerer[r] (for that is what his name means) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul[s] from the faith.[t] 9Then Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit,[u] looked straight at Elymas and said, 10"You are a child of the devil[v] and an enemy of everything that is right! You are full of all kinds of deceit

Immediately mist and darkness came ing someone to lead him by the hand.

happened, he believed, for he was amazed at the teaching about the Lord.

In Pisidian Antioch

13From Paphos,[e] Paul and his companions sailed to Perga in Pamphylia,[f] where John[g] left them to return to Jerusalem. 14From Perga they went on to Pisidian Antioch.[h] On the Sabbath[i] they entered the synagogue[j] and sat down. 15After the reading from the Law[k] and the Prophets, the synagogue rulers sent word to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have a message of encouragement for the people, please speak." 16Standing up, Paul motioned with his hand[l] and said: "Men of Israel and you Gentiles who worship God, listen to me! 17The God of the people of Israel chose our fathers; he made the people prosper during their stay in Egypt, with mighty power he led them out of that country,[m] 18he endured their conduct[u][n] for about forty years in the desert,[o] 19he overthrew seven nations in Canaan[p] and gave their land to his people[q] as their inheritance.[r] 20All this took about 450 years.
"After this, God gave them judges[s] until the time of Samuel the prophet.[t] 21Then the people asked for a king,[u] and he gave them Saul[v] son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin,[w] who ruled forty years. 22After removing Saul,[x] he made David their king.[y] He testified concerning him: 'I have found David son of Jesse a man after my own heart;[z] he will do everything I want him to do.'[a] 23"From this man's descendants[b] God has brought to Israel the Savior[c] Jesus,[d] as he promised.[e] 24Before the coming of Jesus, John preached repentance and baptism to all the people of Israel.[f] 25As John was completing his work,[g] he said: 'Who do you think I am? I am not that one.[h] No, but he is coming after me, whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'[i] 26"Brothers,[j] children of Abraham,[k] and you God-fearing Gentiles, it is to us that this message of salvation[l] has been sent. 27The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize Jesus,[m] yet in condemning him they fulfilled the words of the prophets[n] that are read every Sabbath. 28Though they found no proper ground for a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have him executed.[o] 29When they had carried out all that was written about him,[p] they took him down from the tree[q] and laid him in a tomb.[r] 30But God raised him from the dead,[s] 31and for many days he was seen by those who had traveled with him from Galilee to Jerusalem.[t] They are now his witnesses[u] to our people.
32"We tell you the good news:[v] What God promised our fathers[w] 33he has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising up Jesus.[x] As it is written in the second Psalm:

"'You are my Son;
today I have become your Father.'[v][w][y]

34The fact that God raised him from the dead, never to decay, is stated in these words:

"'I will give you the holy and sure blessings promised to David.'[x][z]

35So it is stated elsewhere:

"'You will not let your Holy One see decay.'[y][a]

36"For when David had served God's purpose in his own generation, he fell asleep;[b] he was buried with his fathers[c] and his body decayed. 37But the one whom God raised from the dead[d] did not see decay.
38"Therefore, my brothers, I want you to know that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you.[e] 39Through him everyone who believes[f] is justified from everything you could not be justified from by the law of Moses.[g] 40Take care that what the prophets have said does not happen to
you:

41"'Look, you scoffers, wonder and perish,
for I am going to do something in
your days
that you would never believe, even if someone told you.'[z]"[h] the synagogue,[a] the people invited them to speak further about these things on the next Sabbath. 43When the congregation was dismissed, many of the Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who talked with them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.[b]

44On the next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. 45When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and talked abusively[c] against what Paul was saying.[d]

46Then Paul and Barnabas answered them boldly: "We had to speak the word of God to you first.[e] Since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles.[f] 47For this is what the Lord has commanded us:

" 'I have made you[a] a light for the Gentiles,[g] that you[a] may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.'[b]"[h]

48When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and honored the word of the Lord;[i] and all who were appointed for eternal life believed.

49The word of the Lord[j] spread through the whole region. 50But the Jews incited the God-fearing women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region.[k] 51So they shook the dust from their feet[l] in protest against them and went to Iconium.[m] 52And the disciples[n] were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.[o]

In Iconium

14 At Iconium[p] Paul and Barnabas went as usual into the Jewish synagogue.[q] There they spoke so effectively that a great number[r] of Jews and Gentiles believed. 2But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.[s] 3So Paul and Barnabas spent considerable time there, speaking boldly[t] for the Lord, who confirmed the message of his grace by enabling them to do miraculous signs and wonders.[u] 4The people of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, others with the apostles.[v] 5There was a plot afoot among the Gentiles and Jews,[w] together with their leaders, to mistreat them and stone them.[x] 6But they found out about it and fled[y] to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding country,[z] 7where they continued to preach[a] the good news.[a]

In Lystra and Derbe

8In Lystra there sat a man crippled in his feet, who was lame from birth[b] and had never walked. 9He listened to Paul as he was speaking. Paul looked directly at him, saw that he had faith to be healed[c] 10and called out, "Stand up on your feet!"[d] At that, the man jumped up and began to walk.[e]

11When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human form!"[f] 12Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes because he was the chief speaker.[g] 13The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and wreaths to the city gates because he and the crowd wanted to offer sacrifices to them.

14But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of this, they tore their clothes[h] and rushed out into the crowd, shouting: 15"Men, why are you doing this? We too are only men,[i] human like you. We are bringing you good news,[j] telling you to turn from these worthless things[k] to the living God,[l] who made heaven and earth[m] and sea and everything in them.[n] 16In the past, he let[o] all nations go their own way.[p] 17Yet he has not left himself without testimony:[q] He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons;[r] he provides you with plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy."[s] 18Even with these words, they had difficulty keeping the crowd from sacrificing to them.

19Then some Jews[t] came from Antioch and Iconium[u] and won the crowd over. They stoned Paul[v] and dragged him outside the city, thinking he was dead. 20But after the disciples[w] had gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe.

The Return to Antioch in Syria

21They preached the good news[x] in that city and won a large number[y] of disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium[z] and Antioch, 22strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to the faith.[a] "We must go through many hardships[b] to enter the kingdom of God," they said. 23Paul and Barnabas appointed elders[c][c] for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting,[d] committed them to the Lord,[e] in whom they had put their trust. 24After going through Pisidia, they came into Pamphylia,[f] 25and when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

26From Attalia they sailed back to Antioch,[g] where they had been committed to the grace of God[h] for the work they had now completed.[i] 27On arriving there, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them[j] and how he had opened the door[k] of faith to the Gentiles. 28And they stayed there a long time with the disciples.[l]

The Council at Jerusalem

15 Some men[m] came down from Judea to Antioch and were teaching the brothers:[n] "Unless you are circumcised,[o] according to the custom taught by Moses,[p] you cannot be saved." 2This brought Paul and Barnabas into sharp dispute and debate with them. So Paul and Barnabas were appointed, along with some other believers, to go up to Jerusalem[q] to see the apostles and elders[r] about this question. 3The church sent them on their way, and as they traveled through Phoenicia[s] and Samaria, they told how the Gentiles had been converted.[t] This news made all the brothers very glad.
4When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and elders, to whom they reported everything God had done through them.[u]

5Then some of the believers who belonged to the party[v] of the Pharisees[w] stood up and said, "The Gentiles must be circumcised and required to obey the law of Moses."[x]

6The apostles and elders met to consider this question. 7After much discussion, Peter got up and addressed them:
"Brothers, you know that some time ago God made a choice among you that the Gentiles might hear from my lips the message of the gospel and believe.[y] 8God, who knows the heart,[z] showed that he accepted them by giving the Holy Spirit to them,[a] just as he did to us. 9He made no distinction between us and them,[b] for he purified their hearts by faith.[c] 10Now then, why do you try to test God[d] by putting on the necks of the disciples a yoke[e] that neither we nor our fathers have been able to bear? 11No! We believe it is through the grace[f] of our Lord Jesus that we are saved, just as they are."

12The whole assembly became silent as they listened to Barnabas and Paul telling about the miraculous signs and wonders[g] God had done among the Gentiles through them.[h] 13When they finished, James[i] spoke up: "Brothers, listen to me. 14Simon[d] has described to us how God at first showed his concern by taking from the Gentiles a people for himself.[j] 15The words of the prophets are in agreement with this, as it is written:

16" 'After this I will return and rebuild David's fallen tent.
Its ruins I will rebuild, and I will restore it, 17that the remnant of men may seek
 the Lord, and all the Gentiles who bear my
 name,
says the Lord, who does these things'[e][k]
18 that have been known for ages.[f][l]

19"It is my judgment, therefore, that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God. 20Instead we should write to them, telling them to abstain from food polluted by idols,[m] from sexual immorality,[n] from the meat of strangled animals and from blood.[o] 21For Moses has been preached in every city from the earliest times and is read in the synagogues on every Sabbath."[p]

The Council's Letter to Gentile Believers

22Then the apostles and elders,[q] with the whole church, decided to choose some of their own men and send them to Antioch[r] with Paul and Barnabas.
They chose Judas (called Barsabbas) and Silas,[s] two men who were leaders among the brothers. 23With them they sent the following letter:

The apostles and elders, your brothers,

To the Gentile believers in Antioch,[t] Syria[u] and Cilicia:[v]

Greetings.[a]

24We have heard that some went out from us without our authorization and disturbed you, troubling your minds by what they said.[b] 25So we all agreed to choose some men and send them to you with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul— 26men who have risked their lives[c] for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27Therefore we are sending Judas and Silas[d] to confirm by word of mouth what we are writing. 28It seemed good to the Holy Spirit[e] and to us not to burden you with anything beyond the following requirements: 29You are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality.[f] You will do well to avoid these things.

Farewell.

30The men were sent off and went down to Antioch, where they gathered the church together and delivered the letter. 31The people read it and were glad for its encouraging message. 32Judas and Silas,[g] who themselves were prophets,[h] said much to encourage and strengthen the brothers. 33After spending some time there, they were sent off by the brothers with the blessing of peace[i] to return to those who had sent them.[§] 35But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, where they and many others taught and preached[j] the word of the Lord.[k]

Disagreement Between Paul and Barnabas

36Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go back and visit the brothers in all the towns[l] where we preached the word of the Lord[m] and see how they are doing." 37Barnabas wanted to take John, also called Mark,[n] with them, 38but Paul did not think it wise to take him, because he had deserted them[o] in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in the work. 39They had such a sharp disagreement that they parted company. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus, 40but Paul chose Silas[p] and left, commended by the brothers to the grace of the Lord.[q] 41He went through Syria[r] and Cilicia,[s] strengthening the churches.[t]

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

16 He came to Derbe and then to Lystra,[a] where a disciple named Timothy[b] lived, whose mother was a Jewess and a believer,[c] but whose father was a Greek. 2The brothers[d] at Lystra and Iconium[e] spoke well of him. 3Paul wanted to take him along on the journey, so he circumcised him because of the Jews who lived in that area, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.[f] 4As they traveled from town to town, they delivered the decisions reached by the apostles and elders[g] in Jerusalem[h] for the people to obey.[i] 5So the churches were strengthened[j] in the faith and grew daily in numbers.[k]

Paul's Vision of the Man of Macedonia

6Paul and his companions traveled throughout the region of Phrygia[l] and Galatia,[m] having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia.[n] 7When they came to the border of Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus[o] would not allow them to. 8So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas.[p] 9During the night Paul had a vision[q] of a man of Macedonia[r] standing and begging him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." 10After Paul had seen the vision, we[s] got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel[t] to them.

Lydia's Conversion in Philippi

11From Troas[u] we put out to sea and sailed straight for Samothrace, and the next day on to Neapolis. 12From there we traveled to Philippi,[v] a Roman colony and the leading city of that district of Macedonia.[w] And we stayed there several days.

13On the Sabbath[x] we went outside the city gate to the river, where we expected to find a place of prayer. We sat down and began to speak to the women who had gathered there. 14One of those listening was a woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira,[y] who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart[z] to respond to Paul's message. 15When she and the members of her household[a] were baptized,[b] she invited us to her home. "If you consider me a believer in the Lord," she said, "come and stay at

Paul and Silas in Prison

16Once when we were going to the place of prayer,[a] we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit[b] by which she predicted the future. She earned a great deal of money for her owners by fortune-telling. 17This girl followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God,[c] who are telling you the way to be saved." 18She kept this up for many days. Finally Paul became so troubled that he turned around and said to the spirit, "In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!" At that moment the spirit left her.[d]

19When the owners of the slave girl realized that their hope of making money[e] was gone, they seized Paul and Silas[f] and dragged[g] them into the marketplace to face the authorities.
20They brought them before the magistrates and said, "These men are Jews, and are throwing our city into an uproar[h] 21by advocating customs unlawful for us Romans[i] to accept or practice."[j]

22The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas, and the magistrates ordered them to be stripped and beaten.[k] 23After they had been severely flogged, they were thrown into prison, and the jailer[l] was commanded to guard them carefully. 24Upon receiving such orders, he put them in the inner cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.[m]

25About midnight[n] Paul and Silas[o] were praying and singing hymns[p] to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. 26Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken.[q] At once all the prison doors flew open,[r] and everybody's chains came loose.[s] 27The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped.[t] 28But Paul shouted, "Don't harm yourself! We are all here!"

29The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas.[u] 30He then brought them out and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"[v]

31They replied, "Believe[w] in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved[x]—you and your household."[y] 32Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house. 33At that hour of the night[z] the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his family were baptized.[a] 34The jailer brought them into his house and set a meal before them; he[b] was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God—he and his whole family.

35When it was daylight, the magistrates sent their officers to the jailer with the order: "Release those men." 36The jailer[c] told Paul, "The magistrates have ordered that you and Silas be released. Now you can leave. Go in peace."[d]

37But Paul said to the officers: "They beat us publicly without a trial, even though we are Roman citizens,[e] and threw us into prison. And now do they want to get rid of us quietly? No! Let them come themselves and escort us out."

38The officers reported this to the magistrates, and when they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were alarmed.[f] 39They came to appease them and escorted them from the prison, requesting them to leave the city.[g] 40After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia's house,[h] where they met with the brothers[i] and encouraged them. Then they left.

In Thessalonica

17 When they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica,[j] where there was a Jewish synagogue. 2As his custom was, Paul went into the synagogue,[k] and on three Sabbath[l] days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures,[m] 3explaining and proving that the Christ[h] had to suffer[n] and rise from the dead.[o] "This Jesus I am proclaiming to you is the Christ,[h][p]" he said. 4Some of the Jews were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas,[q] as did a large number of God-fearing Greeks and not a few prominent women.

5But the Jews were jealous; so they rounded up some bad characters from the marketplace, formed a mob and started a riot in the city.[r] They rushed to Jason's[s] house in search of Paul and Silas in order to bring them out to the crowd.[i] 6But when they did not find them, they dragged[a] Jason and some other brothers[b] before the city officials, shouting: "These men who have caused trouble all over the world[c] have now come here,[d] 7and Jason has welcomed them into his house. They are all defying Caesar's decrees, saying that there is another king, one called Jesus."[e] 8When they heard this, the crowd and the city officials were thrown into turmoil. 9Then they made Jason[f] and the others post bond and let them go.

In Berea

10As soon as it was night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas[g] away to Berea.[h] On arriving there, they went to the Jewish synagogue.[i] 11Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians,[j] for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures[k] every day to see if what Paul said was true.[l] 12Many of the Jews believed, as did also a number of prominent Greek women and many Greek men.[m]

13When the Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God at Berea,[n] they went there too, agitating the crowds and stirring them up. 14The brothers[o] immediately sent Paul to the coast, but Silas[p] and Timothy[q] stayed at Berea. 15The men who escorted Paul brought him to Athens[r] and then left with instructions for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible.[s]

In Athens

16While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was greatly distressed to see that the city was full of idols. 17So he reasoned in the synagogue[t] with the Jews and the God-fearing Greeks, as well as in the marketplace day by day with those who happened to be there. 18A group of Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to dispute with him. Some of them asked, "What is this babbler trying to say?" Others remarked, "He seems to be advocating foreign gods." They said this because Paul was preaching the good news[u] about Jesus and the resurrection.[v] 19Then they took him and brought him to a meeting of the Areopagus,[w] where they said to him, "May we know what this new teaching[x] is that you are presenting? 20You are bringing some strange ideas to our ears, and we want to know what they mean." 21(All the Athenians[y] and the foreigners who lived there spent their time doing nothing but talking about and listening to the latest ideas.)

22Paul then stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus[z] and said: "Men of Athens! I see that in every way you are very religious.[a] 23For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. Now what you worship as something unknown[b] I am going to proclaim to you.

24"The God who made the world and everything in it[c] is the Lord of heaven and earth[d] and does not live in temples built by hands.[e] 25And he is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything, because he himself gives all men life and breath and everything else.[f] 26From one man he made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live.[g] 27God did this so that men would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us.[h] 28'For in him we live and move and have our being.'[i] As some of your own poets have said, 'We are his offspring.'[j]

29"Therefore since we are God's offspring, we should not think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone—an image made by man's design and skill.[k] 30In the past God overlooked[l] such ignorance,[m] but now he commands all people everywhere to repent.[n] 31For he has set a day when he will judge[o] the world with justice[p] by the man he has appointed.[q] He has given proof of this to all men by raising him from the dead."[r]

32When they heard about the resurrection of the dead,[s] some of them sneered, but others said, "We want to hear you again on this subject." 33At that, Paul left the Council. 34A few men became followers of Paul and believed. Among them was Dionysius, a member of the Areopagus,[t] also a woman named Damaris, and a number of others.

In Corinth

18 After this, Paul left Athens[u] and went to Corinth.[v] 2There he met

[i]5 Or the assembly of the people a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla,[a] because Claudius[b] had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to see them, 3and because he was a tentmaker as they were, he stayed and worked with them.[c] 4Every Sabbath[d] he reasoned in the synagogue,[e] trying to persuade Jews and Greeks.

5When Silas[f] and Timothy[g] came from Macedonia,[h] Paul devoted himself exclusively to preaching, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.[j][i] 6But when the Jews opposed Paul and became abusive,[j] he shook out his clothes in protest[k] and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads![l] I am clear of my responsibility.[m] From now on I will go to the Gentiles."[n]

7Then Paul left the synagogue and went next door to the house of Titius Justus, a worshiper of God.[o] 8Crispus,[p] the synagogue ruler,[q] and his entire household[r] believed in the Lord; and many of the Corinthians who heard him believed and were baptized.

9One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision:[s] "Do not be afraid;[t] keep on speaking, do not be silent. 10For I am with you,[u] and no one is going to attack and harm you, because I have many people in this city." 11So Paul stayed for a year and a half, teaching them the word of God.[v]

14Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, "If you Jews were making a complaint about some misdemeanor or serious crime, it would be reasonable for me to listen to you. 15But since it involves questions about words and names and your own law[y]—settle the matter yourselves. I will not be a judge of such things." 16So he had them ejected from the court. 17Then they all turned on Sosthenes[z] the synagogue ruler[a] and beat him in front of the court. But Gallio showed no concern whatever.

Priscilla, Aquila and Apollos

18Paul stayed on in Corinth for some time. Then he left the brothers[b] and sailed for Syria,[c] accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila.[d] Before he sailed, he had his hair cut off at Cenchrea[e] because of a vow he had taken.[f] 19They arrived at Ephesus,[g] where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. He himself went into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. 20When they asked him to spend more time with them, he declined. 21But as he left, he promised, "I will come back if it is God's will."[h] Then he set sail from Ephesus. 22When he landed at Caesarea,[i] he went up and greeted the church and then went down to Antioch.[j]

23After spending some time in Antioch, Paul set out from there and traveled from place to place throughout the region of Galatia[k] and Phrygia,[l] strengthening all the disciples.[m] 24Meanwhile a Jew named Apollos,[n] a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus.[o] He was a learned man, with a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures. 25He had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and he spoke with great fervor[k][p] and taught about Jesus accurately, though he knew only the baptism of John.[q] 26He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila[r] heard him, they invited him to their home and explained to him the way of God more adequately.

27When Apollos wanted to go to Achaia,[s] the brothers[t] encouraged him and wrote to the disciples there to welcome him. On arriving, he was a great help to those who by grace had believed. 28For he vigorously refuted the Jews in public debate, proving from the Scriptures[u] that Jesus was the Christ.[v]

Paul in Ephesus

19 While Apollos[w] was at Corinth,[x] Paul took the road through the interior and arrived at Ephesus.[y] There he found some disciples 2and asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit[z] when[l] you believed?"

They answered, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

3So Paul asked, "Then what baptism did you receive?"

"John's baptism," they replied.

4Paul said, "John's baptism[a] was a baptism of repentance. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus."[b] 5On hearing this, they were baptized into[m] the name of the Lord Jesus.[c] 6When Paul placed his hands on them,[d] the Holy

[j]5 Or Messiah; also in verse 28 [k]25 Or with fervor in the Spirit [l]2 Or after [m]5 Or in

Spirit came on them,[a] and they spoke in tongues[n][b] and prophesied. 7There were about twelve men in all.
8Paul entered the synagogue[c] and spoke boldly there for three months, arguing persuasively about the kingdom of God.[d] 9But some of them[e] became obstinate; they refused to believe and publicly maligned the Way.[f] So Paul left them. He took the disciples[g] with him and had discussions daily in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.
10This went on for two years,[h] so that all the Jews and Greeks who lived in the province of Asia[i] heard the word of the Lord.[j] 11God did extraordinary miracles[k] through Paul, 12so that even handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched him were taken to the sick, and their illnesses were cured[l] and the evil spirits left them.
13Some Jews who went around driving out evil spirits[m] tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who were demon-possessed. They would say, "In the name of Jesus,[n] whom Paul preaches, I command you to come out." 14Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this. 15One day the evil spirit answered them, "Jesus I know, and I know about Paul, but who are you?" 16Then the man who had the evil spirit jumped on them and overpowered them all. He gave them such a beating that they ran out of the house naked and bleeding.
17When this became known to the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus,[o] they were all seized with fear,[p] and the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honor. 18Many of those who believed now came and openly confessed their evil deeds. 19A number who had practiced sorcery brought their scrolls together and burned them publicly.
When they calculated the value of the scrolls, the total came to fifty thousand drachmas.[o] 20In this way the word of the Lord[q] spread widely and grew in power.[r] 21After all this had happened, Paul decided to go to Jerusalem,[s] passing through Macedonia[t] and Achaia.[u] "After I have been there," he said, "I must visit Rome also."[v] 22He sent two of his helpers,[w] Timothy[x] and Erastus,[y] to Macedonia, while he stayed in the province of Asia[z] a little longer.

The Riot in Ephesus

23About that time there arose a great disturbance about the Way.[a] 24A silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought in no little business for the craftsmen. 25He called them together, along with the workmen in related trades, and said:
"Men, you know we receive a good income from this business.[b] 26And you see and hear how this fellow Paul has convinced and led astray large numbers of people here in Ephesus[c] and in practically the whole province of Asia.[d] He says that man-made gods are no gods at all.[e] 27There is danger not only that our trade will lose its good name, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be discredited, and the goddess herself, who is worshiped throughout the province of Asia and the world, will be robbed of her divine majesty."
furious and began shouting: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"[f] 29Soon the whole city was in an uproar. The people seized Gaius[g] and Aristarchus,[h] Paul's traveling companions from Macedonia,[i] and rushed as one man into the theater. 30Paul wanted to appear before the crowd, but the disciples[j] would not let him. 31Even some of the officials of the province, friends of Paul, sent him a message begging him not to venture into the theater.
32The assembly was in confusion: Some were shouting one thing, some another.[k] Most of the people did not even know why they were there. 33The Jews pushed Alexander to the front, and some of the crowd shouted instructions to him. He motioned[l] for silence in order to make a defense before the people. 34But when they realized he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for about two hours: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"[m] 35The city clerk quieted the crowd and said: "Men of Ephesus,[n] doesn't all the world know that the city of Ephesus is the guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of her image, which fell from heaven? 36Therefore, since these facts are undeniable, you ought to be quiet and not do anything rash. 37You have brought these men here, though they have neither robbed temples[o] nor blasphemed our goddess. 38If, then, Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen[p] have a grievance we are in danger of being charged with rioting because of today's events. In that case we would not be able to account for this commotion, since there is no reason for it." 41After he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Through Macedonia and Greece

20 When the uproar had ended, Paul sent for the disciples[b] and, after encouraging them, said good-by and set out for Macedonia.[c] 2He traveled through that area, speaking many words of encouragement to the people, and finally arrived in Greece, 3where he stayed three months. Because the Jews made a plot against him[d] just as he was about to sail for Syria,[e] he decided to go back through Macedonia.[f] 4He was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea, Aristarchus[g] and Secundus from Thessalonica,[h] Gaius[i] from Derbe, Timothy[j] also, and Tychicus[k] and Trophimus[l] from the province of Asia.[m] 5These men went on ahead and waited for us[n] at Troas.[o] 6But we sailed from Philippi[p] after the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and five days later joined the others at Troas,[q] where we stayed seven days.

Eutychus Raised From the Dead at Troas

7On the first day of the week[r] we came together to break bread.[s] Paul spoke to the people and, because he intended to leave the next day, kept on talking until midnight. 8There were many lamps in the upstairs room[t] where we were meeting. 9Seated in a window was a young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on. When he was sound asleep, he fell to the ground from the third story and was picked up dead. 10Paul went down, threw himself on the young man[u] and put his arms around him. "Don't be alarmed," he said. "He's alive!"[v] 11Then he went upstairs again and broke bread[w] and ate. After talking until daylight, he left. 12The people took the young man home alive and were greatly comforted.

Paul's Farewell to the Ephesian Elders

13We went on ahead to the ship and sailed for Assos, where we were going to take Paul aboard. He had made this arrangement because he was going there on foot. 14When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and went on to Mitylene. 15The next day we set sail from there and arrived off Kios. The day after that we crossed over to Samos, and on the following day arrived at Miletus.[x] 16Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus[y] to avoid spending time in the province of Asia,[z] for he was in a hurry to reach Jerusalem,[a] if possible, by the day of Pentecost.[b] 17From Miletus,[c] Paul sent to Ephesus for the elders[d] of the church.
18When they arrived, he said to them:
"You know how I lived the whole time I was with you,[e] from the first day I came into the province of Asia.[f] 19I served the Lord with great humility and with tears,[g] although I was severely tested by the plots of the Jews.[h] 20You know that I have not hesitated to preach anything[i] that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and from house to house. 21I have declared to both Jews[j] and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance[k] and have faith in our Lord Jesus.[l] 22"And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem,[m] not knowing what will happen to me there. 23I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me[n] that prison and hardships are facing me.[o] 24However, I consider my life worth nothing to me,[p] if only I may finish the race[q] and complete the task[r] the Lord Jesus has given me[s]—the task of testifying to the gospel of God's grace.[t] 25"Now I know that none of you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom[u] will ever see me again.[v] 26Therefore, I declare to you today that I am innocent of the blood of all men.[w] 27For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the whole will of God.[x] 28Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock[y] of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers.[p][z] Be shepherds of the church of God,[q][a] which he bought[b] with his own blood.[c] 29I know that after I leave, savage wolves[d] will come in among you and will not spare the flock.[e] 30Even from your own number men will arise

[36]When he had said this, he knelt

[37]They all wept as they embraced him and kissed him. [38]What grieved them most was his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

On to Jerusalem

21 After we had torn ourselves away from them, we put out to sea and sailed straight to Cos. The next day we went to Rhodes and from there to Patara. [2]We found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, went on board and set sail. [3]After sighting Cyprus and passing to the south of it, we sailed on to Syria. We landed at Tyre, where our ship was to unload its cargo. [4]Finding the disciples there, we stayed with them seven days. Through the Spirit they urged Paul not to go on to Jerusalem. [5]But when our time was up, we left and continued on our way. All the disciples and their wives and children accompanied us out of the city, and there on the beach we knelt to pray. [6]After saying good-by to each other, we went aboard the ship, and they returned home.
[7]We continued our voyage from Tyre and landed at Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and stayed with them for a day. [8]Leaving the next day, we reached Caesarea and stayed at the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the Seven. [9]He had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.
[10]After we had been there a number of days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. [11]Coming over to us, he took Paul's belt, tied his own hands and feet with it and said, "The Holy Spirit says, 'In this way the Jews of Jerusalem will bind the owner of this belt and will hand him over to the Gentiles.' " [12]When we heard this, we and the people there pleaded with Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. [13]Then Paul answered, "Why are you weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." [14]When he would not be dissuaded, we gave up and said, "The Lord's will be done." [15]After this, we got ready and went up to Jerusalem. [16]Some of the disciples from Caesarea accompanied us and brought us to the home of Mna-son, where we were to stay. He was a man from Cyprus and one of the early disciples.

Paul's Arrival at Jerusalem

[17]When we arrived at Jerusalem, the brothers received us warmly. [18]The next day Paul and the rest of us went to see James, and all the elders were present. [19]Paul greeted them and reported in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.
[20]When they heard this, they praised God. Then they said to Paul: "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have believed, and all of them are zealous for the law. [21]They have been informed that you teach all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to turn away from Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or live according to our customs. [22]What shall we do? They will certainly hear that you have come, [23]so do what we tell you. There are four men with us who have made a vow. [24]Take these men, join in their purification rites and pay their expenses, so that they can have their heads shaved. Then everybody will know there is no truth in these reports about you, but that you yourself are living in obedience to the law. [25]As for the Gentile believers, we have written to them our decision that they should abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality." [26]The next day Paul took the men and purified himself along with them.
Then he went to the temple to give notice of the date when the days of purifi-

Paul Arrested

[27]When the seven days were nearly over, some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul at the temple. They stirred up the whole crowd and seized him,[b] [28]shouting, "Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against our people and our law and this place. And besides, he has brought Greeks into the temple area and defiled this holy place."[c] [29](They had previously seen Trophimus[d] the Ephesian[e] in the city with Paul and assumed that Paul had brought him into the temple area.) [30]The whole city was aroused, and the people came running from all directions. Seizing Paul,[f] they dragged him[g] from the temple, and immediately the gates were shut. [31]While they were trying to kill him, news reached the commander of the Roman troops that the whole city of Jerusalem was in an uproar. [32]He at once took some officers and soldiers and ran down to the crowd. When the rioters saw the commander and his soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.[h] [33]The commander came up and arrested him and ordered him to be bound[i] with two[j] chains.[k] Then he asked who he was and what he had done. [34]Some in the crowd shouted one thing and some another,[l] and since the commander could not get at the truth because of the uproar, he ordered that Paul be taken into the barracks.[m] [35]When Paul reached the steps,[n] the violence of the mob was so great he had to be carried by the soldiers. [36]The crowd that followed kept shouting, "Away with him!"[o]

Paul Speaks to the Crowd

[37]As the soldiers were about to take Paul into the barracks,[p] he asked the commander, "May I say something to
you?"
"Do you speak Greek?" he replied.
[38]"Aren't you the Egyptian who started a revolt and led four thousand terrorists out into the desert[q] some time ago?" [39]Paul answered, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus[r] in Cilicia,[s] a citizen of no ordinary city. Please let me speak to the people."

[40]Having received the commander's permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned[u] to the crowd. When they were all silent, he said to them in 22 Aramaic[a]:[v] [1]"Brothers and fathers,[w] listen now to my defense."
[2]When they heard him speak to them in Aramaic,[x] they became very quiet.
Then Paul said: [3]"I am a Jew,[y] born in Tarsus[z] of Cilicia,[a] but brought up in this city. Under[b] Gamaliel[c] I was thoroughly trained in the law of our fathers[d] and was just as zealous[e] for God as any of you are today. [4]I persecuted[f] the followers of this Way[g] to their death, arresting both men and women and throwing them into prison,[h] [5]as also the high priest and all the Council[i] can testify. I even obtained letters from them to their brothers[j] in Damascus,[k] and went there to bring these people as prisoners to Jerusalem to be punished.
[6]"About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me.[l] [7]I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?' [8]"'Who are you, Lord?' I asked.
"'I am Jesus of Nazareth,[m] whom you are persecuting,' he replied. [9]My companions saw the light,[n] but they did not understand the voice[o] of him who was speaking to me.
[10]"'What shall I do, Lord?' I asked.
"'Get up,' the Lord said, 'and go into Damascus. There you will be told all that you have been assigned to do.'[p] [11]My companions led me by the hand into Damascus, because the brilliance of the light had blinded me.[q] [12]"A man named Ananias came to see me.[r] He was a devout observer of the law and highly respected by all the Jews living there.[s] [13]He stood beside me and said, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight!' And at that very moment I was able to see him.
[14]"Then he said: 'The God of our fathers[t] has chosen you to know his will and to see[u] the Righteous One[v] and to hear words from his mouth. [15]You will be his witness[w] to all men of what you have seen[x] and heard. [16]And now what are you waiting for? Get up, be baptized[y] and wash your sins away,[z] calling on his name.'[a] [17]"When I returned to Jerusalem[b]

[a]40 Or possibly Hebrew; also in 22:2 and was praying at the temple, I fell into a trance[z] 18and saw the Lord speaking. 'Quick!' he said to me.

'Leave Jerusalem immediately, because they will not accept your testimony about me.' 19"'Lord,' I replied, 'these men know that I went from one synagogue to another to imprison[b] and beat[c] those who believe in you. 20And when the blood of your martyr[a] Stephen was shed, I stood there giving my approval and guarding the clothes of those who were killing him.'[d] 21"Then the Lord said to me, 'Go; I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"[e]

Paul the Roman Citizen

22The crowd listened to Paul until he said this. Then they raised their voices and shouted, "Rid the earth of him![f] He's not fit to live!"[g] 23As they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks[h] and flinging dust into the air,[i] 24the commander ordered Paul to be taken into the barracks.[j] He directed[k] that he be flogged and questioned in order to find out why the people were shouting at him like this.
25As they stretched him out to flog him, Paul said to the centurion standing there, "Is it legal for you to flog a Roman citizen who hasn't even been found guilty?"[l] 26When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and reported it. "What are you going to do?" he asked. "This man is a Roman citizen." 27The commander went to Paul and asked, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?"
"Yes, I am," he answered.
28Then the commander said, "I had to pay a big price for my citizenship."
"But I was born a citizen," Paul replied.
29Those who were about to question him[m] withdrew immediately. The commander himself was alarmed when he realized that he had put Paul, a Roman citizen,[n] in chains.[o]

30The next day, since the commander wanted to find out exactly why Paul was being accused by the Jews,[p] he released him[q] and ordered the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin[r] to assemble. Then he brought Paul and had him stand before them.

23 Paul looked straight at the San-hedrin[s] and said, "My brothers,[t] I have fulfilled my duty to God in all good conscience[u] to this day." 2At this the high priest Ananias[v] ordered those standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth.[w] 3Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall![x] You sit there to judge me according to the law, yet you yourself violate the law by commanding that I be struck!"[y] 4Those who were standing near Paul said, "You dare to insult God's high priest?" 5Paul replied, "Brothers, I did not realize that he was the high priest; for it is written: 'Do not speak evil about the ruler of your people.'[b]"[z] 6Then Paul, knowing that some of them were Sadducees[a] and the others Pharisees, called out in the Sanhedrin, "My brothers,[b] I am a Pharisee,[c] the son of a Pharisee. I stand on trial because of my hope in the resurrection of the dead."[d] 7When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. 8(The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection,[e] and that there are neither angels nor spirits, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.) 9There was a great uproar, and some of the teachers of the law who were Pharisees[f] stood up and argued vigorously. "We find nothing wrong with this man,"[g] they said. "What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?"[h] 10The dispute became so violent that the commander was afraid Paul would be torn to pieces by them. He ordered the troops to go down and take him away from them by force and bring him into the barracks.[i] 11The following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, "Take courage![j] As you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome."[k]

The Plot to Kill Paul

12The next morning the Jews formed a conspiracy[l] and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul.[m] 13More than forty men were involved in this plot.
14They went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have taken a solemn oath not to eat anything until we have killed Paul.[n] 15Now then, you and kill him before he gets here." 16But when the son of Paul's sister heard of this plot, he went into the barracks[b] and told Paul.

17Then Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commander; he has something to tell him." 18So he took him to the commander.

The centurion said, "Paul, the prisoner,[c] sent for me and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you." 19The commander took the young man by the hand, drew him aside and asked, "What is it you want to tell me?" 20He said: "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul before the Sanhedrin[d] tomorrow on the pretext of wanting more accurate information about him.[e] 21Don't give in to them, because more than forty[f] of them are waiting in ambush for him. They have taken an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him.[g] They are ready now, waiting for your consent to their request." 22The commander dismissed the young man and cautioned him, "Don't tell anyone that you have reported this
to me."

Paul Transferred to Caesarea

23Then he called two of his centurions and ordered them, "Get ready a detachment of two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen[u] to go to Caesarea[h] at nine tonight.[i] 24Provide mounts for Paul so that he may be taken safely to Governor Felix."[j] 25He wrote a letter as follows:

26Claudius Lysias,

To His Excellency,[k] Governor Felix:

Greetings.[l]

27This man was seized by the Jews and they were about to kill him,[m] but I came with my troops and rescued him,[n] for I had learned that he is a Roman citizen.[o] 28I wanted to know why they were accusing him, so I brought him to their Sanhedrin.[p] 29I found that the accusation had to do with questions about their law,[q] but there was no charge against him[r] that deserved death or imprisonment. 30When I was informed[s] of a plot[t] to be carried out against the man, I sent him to you at once. I also ordered his accusers[u] to present to you their case against
him.

31So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul with them during the night and brought him as far as Antipatris. 32The next day they let the cavalry[v] go on with him, while they returned to the barracks.[w] 33When the cavalry[x] arrived in Caesarea,[y] they delivered the letter to the governor[z] and handed Paul over to him. 34The governor read the letter and asked what province he was from. Learning that he was from Cilicia,[a] 35he said, "I will hear your case when your accusers[b] get here." Then he ordered that Paul be kept under guard[c] in Herod's palace.

The Trial Before Felix

24 Five days later the high priest Ananias[d] went down to Caesarea with some of the elders and a lawyer named Tertullus, and they brought their charges[e] against Paul before the governor.[f] 2When Paul was called in, Tertullus presented his case before Felix: "We have enjoyed a long period of peace under you, and your foresight has brought about reforms in this nation. 3Everywhere and in every way, most excellent[g] Felix, we acknowledge this with profound gratitude. 4But in order not to weary you further, I would request that you be kind enough to hear us briefly.
5"We have found this man to be a troublemaker, stirring up riots[h] among the Jews[i] all over the world. He is a ringleader of the Nazarene[j] sect[k] 6and even tried to desecrate the temple;[l] so we seized him. 8By[v] examining him yourself you will be able to learn the truth about all these charges we are bringing against him." 9The Jews joined in the accusation,[m] asserting that these things were true.
10When the governor[n] motioned for him to speak, Paul replied: "I know that for a number of years you have been a judge over this nation; so I gladly make my defense. 11You can easily verify that no more than twelve days[a] ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship. 12My accusers did not find me arguing with anyone at the temple,[b] or stirring up a crowd[c] in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city. 13And they cannot prove to you the charges they are now making against me.[d] 14However, I admit that I worship the God of our fathers[e] as a follower of the Way,[f] which they call a sect.[g] I believe everything that agrees with the Law and that is written in the Prophets,[h] 15and I have the same hope in God as these men, that there will be a resurrection[i] of both the righteous and the wicked.[j] 16So I strive always to keep my conscience clear[k] before God and man.

17"After an absence of several years, I came to Jerusalem to bring my people gifts for the poor[l] and to present offerings. 18I was ceremonially clean[m] when they found me in the temple courts doing this. There was no crowd with me, nor was I involved in any disturbance.[n] 19But there are some Jews from the province of Asia,[o] who ought to be here before you and bring charges if they have anything against me.[p] 20Or these who are here should state what crime they found in me when I stood before the Sanhedrin— 21unless it was this one thing I shouted as I stood in their presence: 'It is concerning the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.' "[q]

22Then Felix, who was well acquainted with the Way,[r] adjourned the proceedings. "When Lysias the commander comes," he said, "I will decide your case." 23He ordered the centurion to keep Paul under guard[s] but to give him some freedom[t] and permit his friends to take care of his needs.[u]

24Several days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess.
He sent for Paul and listened to him as he spoke about faith in Christ Jesus.[v] 25As Paul discoursed on righteousness, self-control[w] and the judgment[x] to come, Felix was afraid[y] and said, "That's enough for now! You may leave. When I find it convenient, I will send for you." 26At the same time he was hoping that Paul would offer him a bribe, so he sent for him frequently and talked with him.

27When two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus,[z] but because Felix wanted to grant a favor to the Jews,[a] he left Paul in prison.[b]

The Trial Before Festus

25 Three days after arriving in the province, Festus[c] went up from Caesarea[d] to Jerusalem, 2where the chief priests and Jewish leaders appeared before him and presented the charges against Paul.[e] 3They urgently requested Festus, as a favor to them, to have Paul transferred to Jerusalem, for they were preparing an ambush to kill him along the way.[f] 4Festus answered, "Paul is being held[g] at Caesarea,[h] and I myself am going there soon. 5Let some of your leaders come with me and press charges against the man there, if he has done anything wrong."

6After spending eight or ten days with them, he went down to Caesarea, and the next day he convened the court[i] and ordered that Paul be brought before him.[j] 7When Paul appeared, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious charges against him,[k] which they could not prove.[l] 8Then Paul made his defense: "I have done nothing wrong against the law of the Jews or against the temple[m] or against Caesar."

9Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor,[n] said to Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and stand trial before me there on these charges?"[o] 10Paul answered: "I am now standing before Caesar's court, where I ought to be tried. I have not done any wrong to the Jews,[p] as you yourself know very well. 11If, however, I am guilty of doing anything deserving death, I do not refuse to die. But if the charges brought against me by these Jews are not true, no one has the right to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!"[q] 12After Festus had conferred with his council, he declared: "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go!"

Festus Consults King Agrippa

13A few days later King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea[r] to pay their respects to Festus. 14Since they were spending many days there, Festus discussed Paul's case with the king.
He said: "There is a man here whom Felix left as a prisoner.[s] 15When I went to Jerusalem, the chief priests and elders of the Jews brought charges against him[a] and asked that he be condemned.

16“I told them that it is not the Roman custom to hand over any man before he has faced his accusers and has had an opportunity to defend himself against their charges.[b] 17When they came here with me, I did not delay the case, but convened the court the next day and ordered the man to be brought in.[c] 18When his accusers got up to speak, they did not charge him with any of the crimes I had expected. 19Instead, they had some points of dispute[d] with him about their own religion[e] and about a dead man named Jesus who Paul claimed was alive. 20I was at a loss how to investigate such matters; so I asked if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem and stand trial there on these charges.[f] 21When Paul made his appeal to be held over for the Emperor's decision, I ordered him held until I could send him to Caesar.”[g]

22Then Agrippa said to Festus, “I would like to hear this man myself.”

He replied, “Tomorrow you will hear him.”[h]

Paul Before Agrippa

26:12-18pp — Ac 9:3-8; 22:6-11

23The next day Agrippa and Bernice[i] came with great pomp and entered the audience room with the high ranking officers and the leading men of the city. At the command of Festus, Paul was brought in. 24Festus said: “King Agrippa, and all who are present with us, you see this man! The whole Jewish community[j] has petitioned me about him in Jerusalem and here in Caesarea, shouting that he ought not to live any longer.[k] 25I found he had done nothing deserving of death,[l] but because he made his appeal to the Emperor[m] I decided to send him to Rome. 26But I have nothing definite to write to His Majesty about him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that as a result of this investigation I may have something to write. 27For I think it is unreasonable to send on a prisoner without specifying the charges against him.”

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You have permission to speak for yourself.”[n]

So Paul motioned with his hand[o] and began his defense: 2“King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate to stand before you[p] today as I make my defense against all the accusations of the Jews,[q] 3and especially so because you are well acquainted with all the Jewish customs[r] and controversies.[s] Therefore, I beg you to listen to me patiently.

4“The Jews all know the way I have lived ever since I was a child,[t] from the beginning of my life in my own country, and also in Jerusalem. 5They have known me for a long time[u] and can testify, if they are willing, that according to the strictest sect[v] of our religion, I lived as a Pharisee.[w] 6And now it is because of my hope[x] in what God has promised our fathers[y] that I am on trial today. 7This is the promise our twelve tribes[z] are hoping to see fulfilled as they earnestly serve God day and night.[a] O king, it is because of this hope that the Jews are accusing me.[b] 8Why should any of you consider it incredible that God raises the dead?[c]

9“I too was convinced[d] that I ought to do all that was possible to oppose[e] the name of Jesus of Nazareth.[f] 10And that is just what I did in Jerusalem. On the authority of the chief priests I put many of the saints[g] in prison,[h] and when they were put to death, I cast my vote against them.[i] 11Many a time I went from one synagogue to another to have them punished,[j] and I tried to force them to blaspheme. In my obsession against them, I even went to foreign cities to persecute them.

12“On one of these journeys I was going to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. 13About noon, O king, as I was on the road, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, blazing around me and my companions. 14We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice[k] saying to me in Aramaic,[w][l] ‘Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.’

15“Then I asked, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

“‘I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,’ the Lord replied. 16‘Now get up and stand on your feet.[m] I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and as a witness of what you have seen of me and what I will show you.[n] 17I will rescue you[o] from your own people and from the Gentiles.[p] I am sending you to them 18to open their eyes[q] and turn them from darkness to light,[a] and from the power of Satan to ness of sins[b] and a place among those 19 "So then, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient[d] to the vision from heaven. 20 First to those in Damascus,[e] then to those in Jerusalem[f] and in all Judea, and to the Gentiles[g] also, I preached that they should repent[h] and turn to God and prove their repentance by their deeds.[i] 21 That is why the Jews seized me[j] in the temple courts and tried to kill me.[k] 22 But I have had God's help to this very day, and so I stand here and testify to small and great alike. I am saying nothing beyond what the prophets and Moses said would happen[l]— 23 that the Christ[x] would suffer[m] and, as the first to rise from the dead,[n] would proclaim light to his own people and to the Gentiles."[o] 24 At this point Festus interrupted Paul's defense. "You are out of your mind,[p] Paul!" he shouted. "Your great learning[q] is driving you insane." 25 "I am not insane, most excellent[r] Festus," Paul replied. "What I am saying is true and reasonable. 26 The king is familiar with these things,[s] and I can speak freely to him. I am convinced that none of this has escaped his notice, because it was not done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do." 28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "Do you think that in such a short time you can persuade me to be a Christian?"[t] 29 Paul replied, "Short time or long—I pray God that not only you but all who are listening to me today may become what I am, except for these chains."[u] 30 The king rose, and with him the governor and Bernice[v] and those sitting with them. 31 They left the room, and while talking with one another, they said, "This man is not doing anything that deserves death or imprisonment."[w] 32 Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been set free[x] if he had not appealed to Caesar."[y]

Paul Sails for Rome

27 When it was decided that we[z] would sail for Italy,[a] Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a centurion named Julius, who belonged to the Imperial Regiment.[b] 2 We boarded a ship from Adramyttium about to sail for ports along the coast of the province of Asia,[c] and we put out to sea. Aristarchus,[d] a Macedonian[e] from Thessalonica,[f] was with us.
3 The next day we landed at Sidon;[g] and Julius, in kindness to Paul,[h] allowed him to go to his friends so they might provide for his needs.[i] 4 From there we put out to sea again and passed to the lee of Cyprus because the winds were against us.[j] 5 When we had sailed across the open sea off the coast of Cilicia[k] and Pamphylia,[l] we landed at Myra in Lycia. 6 There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship[m] sailing for Italy[n] and put us on board. 7 We made slow headway for many days and had difficulty arriving off Cnidus. When the wind did not allow us to hold our course,[o] we sailed to the lee of Crete,[p] opposite Salmone. 8 We moved along the coast with difficulty and came to a place called Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea.
9 Much time had been lost, and sailing had already become dangerous because by now it was after the Fast.[y][q] So Paul warned them, 10 "Men, I can see that our voyage is going to be disastrous and bring great loss to ship and cargo, and to our own lives also."[r] 11 But the centurion, instead of listening to what Paul said, followed the advice of the pilot and of the owner of the ship. 12 Since the harbor was unsuitable to winter in, the majority decided that we should sail on, hoping to reach Phoenix and winter there. This was a harbor in Crete,[s] facing both southwest and northwest.

The Storm

13 When a gentle south wind began to blow, they thought they had obtained what they wanted; so they weighed anchor and sailed along the shore of Crete. 14 Before very long, a wind of hurricane force,[t] called the "northeaster," swept down from the island. 15 The ship was caught by the storm and could not head into the wind; so we gave way to it and were driven along.
16 As we passed to the lee of a small island called Cauda, we were hardly able to make the lifeboat[u] secure. 17 When the men had hoisted it aboard, they passed ropes under the ship itself to hold it together. Fearing that they would run aground[v] on the sandbars of Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor and let the ship be driven along. 18 We

[y] 9 That is, the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) took such a violent battering from the storm that the next day they began to throw the cargo overboard.[a] 19On the third day, they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.

20When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally gave up all hope of being saved.
21After the men had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up before them and said: "Men, you should have taken my advice[b] not to sail from Crete;[c] then you would have spared yourselves this damage and loss. 22But now I urge you to keep up your courage,[d] because not one of you will be lost; only the ship will be destroyed.
23Last night an angel[e] of the God whose I am and whom I serve[f] stood beside me[g] 24and said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar;[h] and God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.'[i] 25So keep up your courage,[j] men, for I have faith in God that it will happen just as he told me.[k] 26Nevertheless, we must run aground[l] on some island."[m]

The Shipwreck

27On the fourteenth night we were still being driven across the Adriatic[z] Sea, when about midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land.
28They took soundings and found that the water was a hundred and twenty feet[a] deep. A short time later they took soundings again and found it was ninety feet[b] deep. 29Fearing that we would be dashed against the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight. 30In an attempt to escape from the ship, the sailors let the lifeboat[n] down into the sea, pretending they were going to lower some anchors from the bow. 31Then Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay with the ship, you cannot be saved."[o] 32So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the life-boat and let it fall away.
33Just before dawn Paul urged them all to eat. "For the last fourteen days," he said, "you have been in constant suspense and have gone without food—you haven't eaten anything.
34Now I urge you to take some food.
You need it to survive. Not one of you will lose a single hair from his head."[p] 35After he said this, he took some bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it[q] and began to eat. 36They were all encouraged[r] and ate some food themselves. 37Alto-gether there were 276 of us on board.
38When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.[s] 39When daylight came, they did not recognize the land, but they saw a bay with a sandy beach,[t] where they decided to run the ship aground if they could. 40Cutting loose the anchors,[u] they left them in the sea and at the same time untied the ropes that held the rudders. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and made for the beach. 41But the ship struck a sandbar and ran aground. The bow stuck fast and would not move, and the stern was broken to pieces by the pounding of the surf.[v] 42The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners to prevent any of them from swimming away and escaping. 43But the centurion wanted to spare Paul's life[w] and kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. 44The rest were to get there on planks or on pieces of the ship. In this way everyone reached land in safety.[x]

Ashore on Malta

28 Once safely on shore, we[y] found out that the island[z] was called Malta. 2The islanders showed us unusual kindness. They built a fire and welcomed us all because it was raining and cold. 3Paul gathered a pile of brushwood and, as he put it on the fire, a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself on his hand. 4When the islanders saw the snake hanging from his hand,[a] they said to each other, "This man must be a murderer; for though he escaped from the sea, Justice has not allowed him to live."[b] 5But Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no ill effects.[c] 6The people expected him to swell up or suddenly fall dead, but after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.[d] 7There was an estate nearby that belonged to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us to his home and for three days entertained us suffering from fever and dysentery.

Paul went in to see him and, after prayer,[a] placed his hands on him[b] and healed him.[c] 9When this had happened, the rest of the sick on the island came and were cured. 10They honored us[d] in many ways and when we were ready to sail, they furnished us with the supplies we needed.

Arrival at Rome

11After three months we put out to sea in a ship that had wintered in the island. It was an Alexandrian ship[e] with the figurehead of the twin gods Castor and Pollux. 12We put in at Syracuse and stayed there three days.
13From there we set sail and arrived at Rhegium. The next day the south wind came up, and on the following day we reached Puteoli. 14There we found some brothers[f] who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we came to Rome. 15The brothers[g] there had heard that we were coming, and they traveled as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us.
At the sight of these men Paul thanked God and was encouraged. 16When we got to Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself, with a soldier to guard him.[h]

Paul Preaches at Rome Under Guard

17Three days later he called together the leaders of the Jews.[i] When they had assembled, Paul said to them: "My brothers,[j] although I have done nothing against our people[k] or against the customs of our ancestors,[l] I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans. 18They examined me[m] and wanted to release me,[n] because I was not guilty of any crime deserving death.[o] 19But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar[p]—not that I had any charge to bring against my own people. 20For this reason I have asked to see you and talk with you. It is because of the hope of Israel[q] that I am bound with this chain."[r] 21They replied, "We have not received any letters from Judea concerning you, and none of the brothers[s] who have come from there has reported or said anything bad about you.
22But we want to hear what your views are, for we know that people everywhere are talking against this sect."[t] 23They arranged to meet Paul on a certain day, and came in even larger numbers to the place where he was staying. From morning till evening he explained and declared to them the kingdom of God[u] and tried to convince them about Jesus[v] from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets.[w] 24Some were convinced by what he said, but others would not believe.[x] 25They disagreed among themselves and began to leave after Paul had made this final statement: "The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your forefathers when he said[y] through Isaiah the prophet:

26" 'Go to this people and say,
"You will be ever hearing but never
understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never
27For this people's heart has become calloused;[z]
they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their
eyes,
hear with their ears,
and turn, and I would heal them.'[c][a] 28"Therefore I want you to know that God's salvation[b] has been sent to the Gentiles,[c] and they will listen!"[d] 30For two whole years Paul stayed there in his own rented house and welcomed all who came to see him. 31Bold-ly[d] and without hindrance he preached the kingdom of God[e] and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans

1 Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle[a] and set apart[b] for the gospel of God[c]— 2 the gospel he promised beforehand[d] through his prophets[e] in the Holy Scriptures[f] 3 regarding his Son, who as to his human nature[g] was a descendant of David,[h] 4 and who through the Spirit[a] of holiness was declared with power to be the Son of God[b][i] by his resurrection from the dead:[j] Jesus Christ our Lord.[k] 5 Through him and for his name's sake, we received grace[l] and apostleship to call people from among all the Gentiles[m] to the obedience that comes from faith.[n] 6 And you also are among those who are called to belong to Jesus Christ.[o]

7 To all in Rome who are loved by God[p] and called to be saints:[q]

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.[r]

Paul's Longing to Visit Rome

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you,[s] because your faith is being reported all over the world.[t] 9 God, whom I serve[u] with my whole heart in preaching the gospel of his Son, is my witness[v] how constantly I remember you 10 in my prayers at all times;[w] and I pray that now at last by God's will[x] the way may be opened for me to come to you.[y]

11 I long to see you[z] so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift[a] to make you strong— 12 that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith. 13 I do not want you to be unaware,[b] brothers,[c] that I planned many times to come to you (but have been prevented from doing so until now)[d] in order that I might have a harvest among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles.

14 I am obligated[e] both to Greeks and non-Greeks, both to the wise and the foolish. 15 That is why I am so eager to preach the gospel also to you who are at Rome.[f]

16 I am not ashamed of the gospel,[g] because it is the power of God[h] for the salvation of everyone who believes:[i] first for the Jew,[j] then for the Gentile.[k] 17 For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed,[l] a righteousness that is by faith[m] from first to last,[c] just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith."[d][n]

God's Wrath Against Mankind

18 The wrath of God[o] is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness, 19 since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them.[p] 20 For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made,[q] so that men are without excuse.[r]

21 For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened.[s] 22 Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools[t] 23 and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images[u] made to look like mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles.

24 Therefore God gave them over[v] in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another.[w] 25 They exchanged the truth of God for a lie,[x] and worshiped and served created things[y] rather than the Creator—who is forever praised.[z] Amen.[a] 26Because of this, God gave them over[a] to shameful lusts.[b] Even their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural ones.[c] 27In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed indecent acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their perversion.[d] 28Furthermore, since they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, he gave them over[e] to a depraved mind, to do what ought not to be done. 29They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice.

They are gossips,[f] 30slanderers, Godhaters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents;[g] 31they are senseless, faithless, heartless,[h] ruthless. 32Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death,[i] they not only continue to do these very things but also approve[j] of those who practice them.

God's Righteous Judgment

2 You, therefore, have no excuse,[k] you who pass judgment on someone else, for at whatever point you judge the other, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgment do the same things.[l] 2Now we know that God's judgment against those who do such things is based on truth. 3So when you, a mere man, pass judgment on them and yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God's judgment? 4Or do you show contempt for the riches[m] of his kindness,[n] tolerance[o] and patience,[p] not realizing that God's kindness leads you toward repentance?[q] 5But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God's wrath[r], when his righteous judgment[s] will be revealed.
6God "will give to each person according to what he has done."[e][t] 7To those who by persistence in doing good seek glory, honor[u] and immortality,[v] he will give eternal life.[w] 8But for those who are self-seeking and who reject the truth and follow evil,[x] there will be wrath and anger.[y] 9There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil:[z] first for the Jew, then for the Gentile;[a] 10but glory, honor and peace for everyone who does good: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile.[b] 11For God does not show favoritism.[c] 12All who sin apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who sin under the law[d] will be judged by the law. 13For it is not those who hear the law who are righteous in God's sight, but it is those who obey[e] the law who will be declared righteous.
14(Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature things required by the law,[f] they are a law for themselves, even though they do not have the law, 15since they show that the requirements of the law are written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts now accusing, now even defending them.) 16This will take place on the day when God will judge men's secrets[g] through Jesus Christ,[h] as my gospel[i] declares.

The Jews and the Law

17Now you, if you call yourself a Jew; if you rely on the law and brag about your relationship to God;[j] 18if you know his will and approve of what is superior because you are instructed by the law; 19if you are convinced that you are a guide for the blind, a light for those who are in the dark, 20an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of infants, because you have in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth—21you, then, who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal?[k] 22You who say that people should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?[l] 23You who brag about the law,[m] do you dishonor God by breaking the law?
24As it is written: "God's name is blas-phemed among the Gentiles because of you."[f][n] 25Circumcision has value if you observe the law,[o] but if you break the law, you have become as though you had not been circumcised.[p] 26If those who are not circumcised keep the law's requirements,[q] will they not be regarded as though they were circumcised?[r] 27The one who is not circumcised physically and yet obeys the law will condemn you[s] who, even though you have the[g] written code and circumcision, are a lawbreaker.

28A man is not a Jew if he is only one outwardly,[a] nor is circumcision merely outward and physical.[b] 29No, a man is a Jew if he is one inwardly; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart,[c] by the Spirit,[d] not by the written code.[e] Such a man's praise is not from men, but from God.[f]

God's Faithfulness

3 What advantage, then, is there in being a Jew, or what value is there in circumcision? 2Much in every way![g] First of all, they have been entrusted with the very words of God.[h] 3What if some did not have faith?[i] Will their lack of faith nullify God's faithfulness?[j] 4Not at all! Let God be true,[k] and every man a liar.[l] As it is written:

"So that you may be proved right when you speak and prevail when you judge."[h] [m] 5But if our unrighteousness brings out God's righteousness more clearly,[n] what shall we say? That God is unjust in bringing his wrath on us? (I am using a human argument.)[o] 6Certainly not! If that were so, how could God judge the world?[p] 7Someone might argue, "If my falsehood enhances God's truthfulness and so increases his glory,[q] why am I still condemned as a sinner?"[r] 8Why not say—as we are being slanderously reported as saying and as some claim that we say—"Let us do evil that good may result"?[s] Their condemnation is deserved.

No One Is Righteous

9What shall we conclude then? Are we any better[i]?[t] Not at all! We have already made the charge that Jews and Gentiles alike are all under sin.[u] 10As it is written:

"There is no one righteous, not even one; 11 there is no one who understands, no one who seeks God.
12 All have turned away, they have together become worthless;
there is no one who does good, not even one."[j] [v] 13 "Their throats are open graves; their tongues practice deceit."[k] [w]
"The poison of vipers is on their lips."[l] [x] 14 "Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness."[m] [y] 15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood;
16 ruin and misery mark their ways, 17 and the way of peace they do not know."[n] [z] 18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."[o] [a]

19Now we know that whatever the law says,[b] it says to those who are under the law,[c] so that every mouth may be silenced[d] and the whole world held accountable to God.[e] 20Therefore no one will be declared righteous in his sight by observing the law;[f] rather, through the law we become conscious of sin.[g]

Righteousness Through Faith

21But now a righteousness from God,[h] apart from law, has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify.[i] 22This righteousness from God[j] comes through faith[k] in Jesus Christ[l] to all who believe.[m] There is no difference,[n] 23for all have sinned[o] and fall short of the glory of God, 24and are justified[p] freely by his grace[q] through the redemption[r] that came by Christ Jesus. 25God presented him as a sacrifice of atonement,[p] [s] through faith in his blood.[t] He did this to demonstrate his justice, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpun-ished[u]— 26he did it to demonstrate his justice at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.
27Where, then, is boasting?[v] It is excluded. On what principle? On that of observing the law? No, but on that of faith. 28For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from observing the law.[w] 29Is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles too?
Yes, of Gentiles too,[x] 30since there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith.[y] 31Do we, then, nullify the law by this faith?
Not at all! Rather, we uphold the law.

Abraham Justified by Faith

4 What then shall we say[a] that Abraham, our forefather,[b] discovered in this matter? 2If, in fact, Abraham was justified by works, he had something to boast about—but not before God.[c] 3What does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."[a][d] 4Now when a man works, his wages are not credited to him as a gift,[e] but as an obligation. 5However, to the man who does not work but trusts God who justifies the wicked, his faith is credited as righteousness.[f] 6David says the same thing when he speaks of the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

7"Blessed are they whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.
8Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord will never count against him."[b][g]

9Is this blessedness only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised?[h] We have been saying that Abraham's faith was credited to him as righteousness.[i] 10Under what circumstances was it credited? Was it after he was circumcised, or before? It was not after, but before! 11And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised.[j] So then, he is the father[k] of all who believe[l] but have not been circumcised, in order that righteousness might be credited to them. 12And he is also the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.
13It was not through law that Abraham and his offspring received the promise[m] that he would be heir of the world,[n] but through the righteousness that comes by faith.[o] 14For if those who live by law are heirs, faith has no value and the promise is worthless,[p] 15because law brings wrath.[q] And where there is no law there is no transgression.[r] 16Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may be by grace[s] and may be guaranteed[t] to all Abraham's offspring—not only to those who are of the law but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all.[u] 17As it is written: "I have made you a father of many nations."[c][v] He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed—the God who gives life[w] to the dead and calls[x] things that are not[y] as though they were.
18Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations,[z] just as it had been said to him, "So shall your offspring be."[d][a] 19Without weakening in his faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead[b]—since he was about a hundred years old[c]—and that Sarah's womb was also dead.[d] 20Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened[e] in his faith and gave glory to God,[f] 21being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised.[g] 22This is why "it was credited to him as righteousness."[h] 23The words "it was credited to him" were written not for him alone, 24but also for us,[i] to whom God will credit righteousness—for us who believe in him[j] who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.[k] 25He was delivered over to death for our sins[l] and was raised to life for our justification.[m]

Peace and Joy

5 Therefore, since we have been justified[n] through faith,[o] we[e] have peace[p] with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,[q] 2through whom we have gained access[r] by faith into this grace in which we now stand.[s] And we[e] rejoice in the hope[t] of the glory of God.
3Not only so, but we[e] also rejoice in our sufferings,[u] because we know that suffering produces perseverance;[v] 4perseverance, character; and character, hope. 5And hope[w] does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love[x] into our hearts by the Holy Spirit,[y] whom he has given us.
6You see, at just the right time,[z] when we were still powerless,[a] Christ died for the ungodly.[b] 7Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous man, though for a good man someone might possibly dare to die. 8But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.[c] 9Since we have now been justified[d] by his blood,[e] how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath[f]

Death Through Adam, Life Through Christ

12Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man,[e] and death through sin,[f] and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned[g]— 13for before the law was given, sin was in the world. But sin is not taken into account when there is no law.[h] 14Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin by breaking a command, as did Adam,[i] who was a pattern of the one to come.[j] 15But the gift is not like the trespass.
For if the many died by the trespass of the one man,[k] how much more did God's grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ,[l] overflow to the many!
16Again, the gift of God is not like the result of the one man's sin: The judgment followed one sin and brought condemnation, but the gift followed many trespasses and brought justification. 17For if, by the trespass of the one man, death[m] reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive God's abundant provision of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life[n] through the one man, Jesus Christ.
18Consequently, just as the result of one trespass was condemnation for all men,[o] so also the result of one act of righteousness was justification[p] that brings life[q] for all men. 19For just as through the disobedience of the one man[r] the many were made sinners,[s] so also through the obedience[t] of the one man the many will be made righteous.
20The law was added so that the trespass might increase.[u] But where sin increased, grace increased all the more,[v] 21so that, just as sin reigned in death,[w] so also grace[x] might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life[y] through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive in Christ

6 What shall we say, then?[z] Shall we go on sinning so that grace may increase?[a] 2By no means! We died to sin;[b] how can we live in it any longer?
3Or don't you know that all of us who were baptized[c] into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death[d] in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead[e] through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.[f] 5If we have been united with him like this in his death, we will certainly also be united with him in his resurrection.[g] 6For we know that our old self[h] was crucified with him[i] so that the body of sin[j] might be done away with,[v] that we should no longer be slaves to sin[k]— 7because anyone who has died has been freed from sin.[l] 8Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.[m] 9For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead,[n] he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him.[o] 10The death he died, he died to sin[p] once for all;[q] but the life he lives, he lives to God.
11In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin[r] but alive to God in Christ Jesus. 12Therefore do not let sin reign[s] in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires. 13Do not offer the parts of your body to sin, as instruments of wickedness,[t] but rather offer yourselves to God, as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer the parts of your body to him as instruments of righteousness.[u] 14For sin shall not be your master,[v] because you are not under law,[w] but under grace.[x]

Slaves to Righteousness

15What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace?[y] By no means! 16Don't you know that when you offer yourselves to someone to obey him as slaves, you are slaves to the one whom you obey[z]—whether you are slaves to sin,[a] which leads to death,[b] or to obedience, which leads to righteousness? 17But thanks be to God[c] that, though you used to be slaves to sin,[d] you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching[e] to which you were entrusted. 18You

[v]6 Or be rendered powerless have been set free from sin[a] and have become slaves to righteousness.[b] 19 I put this in human terms[c] because you are weak in your natural selves.

Just as you used to offer the parts of your body in slavery to impurity and to ever-increasing wickedness, so now offer them in slavery to righteousness[d] leading to holiness. 20 When you were slaves to sin,[e] you were free from the control of righteousness.[f] 21 What benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? Those things result in death![g] 22 But now that you have been set free from sin[h] and have become slaves to God,[i] the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life.[j] 23 For the wages of sin is death,[k] but the gift of God is eternal life[l] in[w] Christ Jesus our Lord.

An Illustration From Marriage

7 Do you not know, brothers[m]—for I am speaking to men who know the law—that the law has authority over a man only as long as he lives? 2 For example, by law a married woman is bound to her husband as long as he is alive, but if her husband dies, she is released from the law of marriage.[n] 3 So then, if she marries another man while her husband is still alive, she is called an adulteress.[o] But if her husband dies, she is released from that law and is not an adulteress, even though she marries another man.
4 So, my brothers, you also died to the law[p] through the body of Christ,[q] that you might belong to another,[r] to him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit to God.
5 For when we were controlled by the sinful nature,[x][s] the sinful passions aroused by the law[t] were at work in our bodies,[u] so that we bore fruit for death.[v] 6 But now, by dying to what once bound us, we have been released from the law[w] so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code.[x]

Struggling With Sin

7 What shall we say, then?[y] Is the law sin? Certainly not![z] Indeed I would not have known what sin was except through the law.[a] For I would not have known what coveting really was if the law had not said, "Do not covet."[y][b] 8 But sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment,[c] produced in me every kind of covetous desire. For apart from law, sin is dead.[d] 9 Once I was alive apart from law; but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died. 10 I found that the very commandment that was intended to bring life[e] actually brought death. 11 For sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment,[f] deceived me,[g] and through the commandment put me to death. 12 So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous and good.[h] 13 Did that which is good, then, become death to me? By no means! But in order that sin might be recognized as sin, it produced death in me[i] through what was good,[j] so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.
14 We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual,[k] sold[l] as a slave to sin.[m] 15 I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do.[n] 16 And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good.[o] 17 As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me.[p] 18 I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature.[z][q] For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out.
19 For what I do is not the good I want to do; no, the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing.[r] 20 Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.[s] 21 So I find this law at work:[t] When I want to do good, evil is right there with me. 22 For in my inner being[u] I delight in God's law;[v] 23 but I see another law at work in the members of my body, waging war[w] against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin[x] at work within my members. 24 What a wretched man I am!
Who will rescue me from this body of death?[y] 25 Thanks be to God—through Jesus Christ our Lord![z] So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law,[a] but in the sinful nature a slave to the law of sin.[b]

Life Through the Spirit

8 Therefore, there is now no condemnation[c] for those who are in Christ Jesus,[a][d] 2 because through Christ Jesus[e] the law of the Spirit of life[f] set me free[g] from the law of sin[h] and death. 3For what the law was powerless[a] to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature,[b][b] God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful man[c] to be a sin offering.[c][d] And so he condemned sin in sinful man,[d] 4in order that the righteous requirements[e] of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the sinful nature but according to the Spirit.[f] 5Those who live according to the sinful nature have their minds set on what that nature desires;[g] but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires.[h] 6The mind of sinful man[e] is death,[i] but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life[j] and peace; 7the sinful mind[f] is hostile to God.[k] It does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. 8Those controlled by the sinful nature[l] cannot please God.

9You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature[m] but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you.[n] And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ,[o] he does not belong to Christ.
10But if Christ is in you,[p] your body is dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive because of righteousness. 11And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead[q] is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies[r] through his Spirit, who lives in you.
12Therefore, brothers, we have an obligation—but it is not to the sinful nature, to live according to it.[s] 13For if you live according to the sinful nature, you will die;[t] but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body,[u] you will live,[v] 14because those who are led by the Spirit of God[w] are sons of God.[x] 15For you did not receive a spirit[y] that makes you a slave again to fear,[z] but you received the Spirit of sonship.[g] And by him we cry, "Abba,[h] Father."[a] 16The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit[b] that we are God's children.[c] 17Now if we are children, then we are heirs[d]—heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings[e] in order that we may also share in his glory.[f]

Future Glory

18I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.[g] 19The creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God[h] to be revealed. 20For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it,[i] in hope 21that[i] the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay[j] and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.[k] 22We know that the whole creation has been groaning[l] as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time.
23Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit,[m] groan[n] inwardly as we wait eagerly[o] for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies.[p] 24For in this hope we were saved.[q] But hope that is seen is no hope at all.[r] Who hopes for what he already has? 25But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.[s] 26In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit[t] himself intercedes for us[u] with groans that words cannot express.
27And he who searches our hearts[v] knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes[w] for the saints in accordance with God's will.

More Than Conquerors

28And we know that in all things God works for the good[x] of those who love him,[j] who[k] have been called[y] according to his purpose.[z] 29For those God foreknew[a] he also predestined[b] to be conformed to the likeness of his Son,[c] that he might be the firstborn[d] among many brothers. 30And those he predestined,[e] he also called;[f] those he called, he also justified;[g] those he justified, he also glorified.[h] 31What, then, shall we say in response to this?[i] If God is for us,[j] who can be against us?[k] 32He who did not spare his own Son,[l] but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?
33Who will bring any charge[m] against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. 34Who is he that condemns?[n] Christ Jesus, who died[a]—more than that, who was raised to life[b]—is at the right hand of God[c] and is also interceding for us.[d] 35Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?[e] Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?[f] 36As it is written:

"For your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered."[l][g]

37No, in all these things we are more than conquerors[h] through him who loved us.[i] 38For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons,[m] neither the present nor the future,[j] nor any powers,[k] 39neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God[l] that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.[m]

God's Sovereign Choice

9 I speak the truth in Christ—I am not lying,[n] my conscience confirms[o] it in the Holy Spirit— 2I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. 3For I could wish that I myself[p] were cursed[q] and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers,[r] those of my own race,[s] 4the people of Israel.[t] Theirs is the adoption as sons;[u] theirs the divine glory,[v] the covenants,[w] the receiving of the law,[x] the temple worship[y] and the promises.[z] 5Theirs are the patriarchs,[a] and from them is traced the human ancestry of Christ,[b] who is God over all,[c] forever praised![n][d] Amen.

6It is not as though God's word[e] had failed. For not all who are descended from Israel are Israel.[f] 7Nor because they are his descendants are they all Abraham's children. On the contrary, "It is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned."[o][g] 8In other words, it is not the natural children who are God's children,[h] but it is the children of the promise who are regarded as Abraham's offspring.[i] 9For this was how the promise was stated: "At the appointed time I will return, and Sarah will have a son."[p][j]

10Not only that, but Rebekah's children had one and the same father, our father Isaac.[k] 11Yet, before the twins were born or had done anything good or bad[l]—in order that God's purpose[m] in election might stand: 12not by works but by him who calls—she was told, "The older will serve the younger."[q][n] 13Just as it is written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."[r][o]

14What then shall we say?[p] Is God unjust? Not at all![q] 15For he says to Moses,

"I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."[s][r]

16It does not, therefore, depend on man's desire or effort, but on God's mercy.[s] 17For the Scripture says to Pharaoh: "I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display my power in you and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."[t][t] 18Therefore God has mercy on whom he wants to have mercy, and he hardens whom he wants to harden.[u]

19One of you will say to me:[v] "Then why does God still blame us?[w] For who resists his will?"[x] 20But who are you, O man, to talk back to God?[y] "Shall what is formed say to him who formed it,[z] 'Why did you make me like this?'"[u][a] 21Does not the potter have the right to make out of the same lump of clay some pottery for noble purposes and some for common use?[b]

22What if God, choosing to show his wrath and make his power known, bore with great patience[c] the objects of his wrath—prepared for destruction?[d] 23What if he did this to make the riches of his glory[e] known to the objects of his mercy, whom he prepared in advance for glory[f]— 24even us, whom he also called,[g] not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles?[h] 25As he says in Hosea:

"I will call them 'my people' who are not my people;
and I will call her 'my loved one' who is not my loved one,"[v][i]

26and,

"It will happen that in the very place where it was said to them,
'You are not my people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.'"[w][j]

"Unless the Lord Almighty[d] had left us descendants, we would have become like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah."[y][e]

Israel's Unbelief

30What then shall we say?[f] That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have obtained it, a righteousness that is by faith;[g] 31but Israel, who pursued a law of righteousness,[h] has not attained it.[i] 32Why not? Because they pursued it not by faith but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the "stumbling stone."[j] 33As it is written:

"See, I lay in Zion a stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame."[z][k]

10 Brothers, my heart's desire[l] and prayer to God for the Israelites is that they may be saved. 2For I can testify about them that they are zealous[m] for God, but their zeal is not based on knowledge. 3Since they did not know the righteousness that comes from God and sought to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness.[n] 4Christ is the end of the law[o] so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.[p] 5Moses describes in this way the righteousness that is by the law: "The man who does these things will live by them."[a][q] 6But the righteousness that is by faith[r] says: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'[b]
"[s] (that is, to bring Christ down) 7"or 'Who will descend into the deep?'[c]"[t] (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).[u] 8But what does it say? "The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart,"[d][v] that is, the word of faith we are proclaiming: 9That if you confess[w] with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord,"[x] and believe[y] in your heart that God raised him from the dead,[z] you will be saved.[a] 10For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved. 11As the Scripture says, "Anyone who trusts in him will never be put to shame."[e][b] 12For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile[c]—the same Lord is Lord of all[d] and richly blesses all who call on him, 13for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord[e] will be saved."[f][f] 14How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? 15And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"[g][g] 16But not all the Israelites accepted the good news.[h] For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our message?"[h][i] 17Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message,[j] and the message is heard through the word of Christ.[k] 18But I ask: Did they not hear?
Of course they did:

"Their voice has gone out into all the earth,
their words to the ends of the world."[i][l]

19Again I ask: Did Israel not understand? First, Moses says,

"I will make you envious[m] by those who are not a nation; I will make you angry by a nation that has no understanding."[j][n]

20And Isaiah boldly says,

"I was found by those who did not seek me;
I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me."[k][o]

21But concerning Israel he says,

"All day long I have held out my hands
to a disobedient and obstinate people."[l][p]

The Remnant of Israel

11 I ask then: Did God reject his people? By no means![q] I am an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham,[r] from the tribe of Benjamin.[s] 2God did not reject his people,[t] whom he foreknew.[a] Don't you know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah—how he appealed to God against Israel: 3"Lord, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars; I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me"[m]?[b] 4And what was God's answer to him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal."[n][c] 5So too, at the present time there is a remnant[d] chosen by grace.[e] 6And if by grace, then it is no longer by works;[f] if it were, grace would no longer be grace.[o] 7What then? What Israel sought so earnestly it did not obtain,[g] but the elect did. The others were hardened,[h] 8as it is written:

"God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes so that they could not see and ears so that they could not hear,[i]
to this very day."[p][j]

9And David says:

"May their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them.
10May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see,[k]
and their backs be bent forever."[q][l]

Ingrafted Branches

11Again I ask: Did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all![m] Rather, because of their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles[n] to make Israel envious.[o] 12But if their transgression means riches for the world, and their loss means riches for the Gentiles,[p] how much greater riches will their fullness bring!
13I am talking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles,[q] I make much of my ministry 14in the hope that I may somehow arouse my own people to envy[r] and save[s] some of them. 15For if their rejection is the reconciliation[t] of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?[u] 16If the part of the dough offered as firstfruits[v] is holy, then the whole batch is holy; if the root is holy, so are the branches.
17If some of the branches have been broken off,[w] and you, though a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others[x] and now share in the nourishing sap from the olive root, 18do not boast over those branches. If you do, consider this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you.[y] 19You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in." 20Granted. But they were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith.[z] Do not be arrogant,[a] but be afraid.[b] 21For if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare you either.
22Consider therefore the kindness[c] and sternness of God: sternness to those who fell, but kindness to you, provided that you continue[d] in his kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off.[e] 23And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.[f] 24After all, if you were cut out of an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree,[g] how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

All Israel Will Be Saved

25I do not want you to be ignorant[h] of this mystery,[i] brothers, so that you may not be conceited:[j] Israel has experienced a hardening[k] in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in.[l] 26And so all Israel will be saved,[m] as it is written:

"The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob.
27And this is[r] my covenant with them when I take away their sins."[s][n] 28As far as the gospel is concerned, they are enemies[o] on your account; but as far as election is concerned, they are loved on account of the patriarchs,[p] 29for God's gifts and his call[q] are irrevocable.[r] 30Just as you who were at one time disobedient[s] to God have now received mercy as a result of their disobedience, 31so they too have now become disobedient in order that they too may now[t] receive mercy as a result of God's mercy to you. 32For God has bound all men over to disobedience[t] so that he may have mercy on them all.

Doxology

33 Oh, the depth of the riches[a] of the wisdom and[a] knowledge of God![b]
How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out![c] 34 "Who has known the mind of the Lord?
Or who has been his counselor?"[b] [d] 35 "Who has ever given to God, that God should repay him?"[c] [e] 36 For from him and through him and to him are all things.[f]
To him be the glory forever!
Amen.[g]

Living Sacrifices

12 Therefore, I urge you,[h] brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices,[i] holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual[d] act of worship. 2 Do not conform[j] any longer to the pattern of this world,[k] but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.[l] Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is[m]—his good, pleasing[n] and perfect will.
3 For by the grace given me[o] I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you. 4 Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function,[p] 5 so in Christ we who are many form one body,[q] and each member belongs to all the others. 6 We have different gifts,[r] according to the grace given us. If a man's gift is prophesying,[s] let him use it in proportion to his[e] faith.[t] 7 If it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach;[u] 8 if it is encouraging, let him encourage;[v] if it is contributing to the needs of others, let him give generously;[w] if it is leadership, let him govern diligently; if it is showing mercy, let him do it cheerfully.

Love

9 Love must be sincere.[x] Hate what is evil; cling to what is good.[y] 10 Be devoted to one another in brotherly love.[z] Honor one another above yourselves.[a] 11 Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor,[b] serving the Lord. 12 Be joyful in hope,[c] patient in affliction,[d] faithful in prayer.[e] 13 Share with God's people who are in need.[f] Practice hospitality.[g] 14 Bless those who persecute you;[h] bless and do not curse. 15 Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn.[i] 16 Live in harmony with one another.[j] Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position.[f] Do not be conceited.[k] 17 Do not repay anyone evil for evil.[l] Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everybody.[m] 18 If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone.[n] 19 Do not take revenge,[o] my friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay,"[g] [p] says the Lord. 20 On the contrary:

"If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink.
In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head."[h] [q]

21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Submission to the Authorities

13 Everyone must submit himself to the governing authorities,[r] for there is no authority except that which God has established.[s] The authorities that exist have been established by God. 2 Consequently, he who rebels against the authority is rebelling against what God has instituted,[t] and those who do so will bring judgment on themselves. 3 For rulers hold no terror for those who do right, but for those who do wrong. Do you want to be free from fear of the one in authority? Then do what is right and he will commend you.[u] 4 For he is God's servant to do you good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword for nothing. He is God's servant, an agent of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer.[v] 5 Therefore, it is necessary to submit to the authorities, not only because of possible punishment but also because of conscience.[w] 6 This is also why you pay taxes,[x] for the authorities are God's servants, who

Love, for the Day Is Near 8 Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for he who loves his fellow-man has fulfilled the law.[b] 9 The commandments, "Do not commit adultery," "Do not murder," "Do not steal," "Do not covet,"[c][c] and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up[d] in this one rule:

"Love your neighbor as yourself."[d][e] 10 Love does no harm to its neighbor.
Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.[f]

11 And do this, understanding the present time. The hour has come[g] for you to wake up from your slumber,[h] because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. 12 The night is nearly over; the day is almost here.[i] So let us put aside the deeds of darkness[j] and put on the armor[k] of light. 13 Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness,[l] not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy.[m] 14 Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ,[n] and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature.[e][o]

The Weak and the Strong

14 Accept him whose faith is weak,[p] without passing judgment on disputable matters. 2 One man's faith allows him to eat everything, but another man, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables.[q] 3 The man who eats everything must not look down on[r] him who does not, and the man who does not eat everything must not condemn[s] the man who does, for God has accepted him. 4 Who are you to judge someone else's servant?[t] To his own master he stands or falls. And he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

5 One man considers one day more sacred than another;[u] another man considers every day alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. 6 He who regards one day as special, does so to the Lord. He who eats meat, eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God;[v] and he who abstains, does so to the Lord and gives thanks to God. 7 For none of us lives to himself alone[w] and none of us dies to himself alone. 8 If we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.[x]

9 For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life[y] so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living.[z] 10 You, then, why do you judge your brother? Or why do you look down on[a] your brother? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat.[b] 11 It is written:

"'As surely as I live,'[c] says the
Lord,
'every knee will bow before me; every tongue will confess to God.'"[f][d]

12 So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.[e]

13 Therefore let us stop passing judgment[f] on one another. Instead, make up your mind not to put any stumbling block or obstacle in your brother's way.[g] 14 As one who is in the Lord Jesus, I am fully convinced that no food[g] is unclean in itself.[h] But if anyone regards something as unclean, then for him it is unclean.[i] 15 If your brother is distressed because of what you eat, you are no longer acting in love.[j] Do not by your eating destroy your brother for whom Christ died.[k] 16 Do not allow what you consider good to be spoken of as evil.[l] 17 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking,[m] but of righteousness, peace[n] and joy in the Holy Spirit,[o] 18 because anyone who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by men.[p]

19 Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace[q] and to mutual edification.[r] 20 Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food.[s] All food is clean,[t] but it is wrong for a man to eat anything that causes someone else to stumble.[u] 21 It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or to do anything else that will cause your brother to fall.[v]

22 So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the man who does not condemn[w] himself by what he approves. 23But the man who has doubts[a] is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and everything that does not come from faith is sin.

15 We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak[b] and not to please ourselves. 2Each of us should please his neighbor for his good,[c] to build him up.[d] 3For even Christ did not please himself[e] but, as it is written: "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me."[h][f] 4For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us,[g] so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

5May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you a spirit of unity[h] among yourselves as you follow Christ Jesus, 6so that with one heart and mouth you may glorify[i] the God and Father[j] of our Lord Jesus Christ.
7Accept one another,[k] then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God. 8For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews[i][l] on behalf of God's truth, to confirm the promises[m] made to the patriarchs 9so that the Gentiles[n] may glorify God[o] for his mercy, as it is written:

"Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles;
I will sing hymns to your name."[j][p]

10Again, it says,

"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people."[k][q]

11And again,

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and sing praises to him, all you peoples."[l][r]

12And again, Isaiah says,

"The Root of Jesse[s] will spring up, one who will arise to rule over the nations;
the Gentiles will hope in him."[m][t] 13May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace[u] as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.[v]

Paul the Minister to the Gentiles

14I myself am convinced, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness,[w] complete in knowledge[x] and competent to instruct one another.
15I have written you quite boldly on some points, as if to remind you of them again, because of the grace God gave me[y] 16to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles[z] with the priestly duty of proclaiming the gospel of God,[a] so that the Gentiles might become an offering[b] acceptable to God, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17Therefore I glory in Christ Jesus[c] in my service to God.[d] 18I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in leading the Gentiles[e] to obey God[f] by what I have said and done— 19by the power of signs and miracles,[g] through the power of the Spirit.[h] So from Jerusalem[i] all the way around to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ.[j] 20It has always been my ambition to preach the gospel[k] where Christ was not known, so that I would not be building on someone else's foundation.[l] 21Rather, as it is written:

"Those who were not told about him will see,
and those who have not heard will understand."[n][m]

22This is why I have often been hindered from coming to you.[n]

Paul's Plan to Visit Rome

23But now that there is no more place for me to work in these regions, and since I have been longing for many years to see you,[o] 24I plan to do so when I go to Spain.[p] I hope to visit you while passing through and to have you assist[q] me on my journey there, after I have enjoyed your company for a while. 25Now, however, I am on my way to Jerusalem[r] in the service[s] of the saints[t] there. 26For Macedonia[u] and Achaia[v] were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem.[w] 27They were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in the Jews' spiritual blessings, they owe it to the Jews to share with them their material blessings.[x] 28So after I have completed this task and have made sure that they have received this fruit, I will go to Spain[y] and visit you on the way. 29I know that when I come to you,[z] I will come in the full measure of the blessing of Christ.

praying to God for me.[b] 31Pray that I may be rescued[c] from the unbelievers in Judea and that my service[d] in saints[e] there, 32so that by God's will[f] I may come to you[g] with joy and to-

God of peace[i] be with you all. Amen.

Personal Greetings

16 1I commend[j] to you our sister Phoebe, a servant[o] of the church in Cenchrea.[k] 2I ask you to receive her in the Lord[l] in a way worthy of the saints[m] and to give her any help she may need from you, for she has been a great help to many people, including me.

3Greet Priscilla[p] and Aquila,[n] my fellow workers[o] in Christ Jesus.[p] 4They risked their lives for me.
Not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them.
5Greet also the church that meets at their house.[q] Greet my dear friend Epenetus, who was the first convert[r] to Christ in the province of Asia.[s] 6Greet Mary, who worked very hard for you.
7Greet Andronicus and Junias, my relatives[t] who have been in prison with me.[u] They are outstanding among the apostles, and they were in Christ[v] before I was.
8Greet Ampliatus, whom I love in the Lord.
9Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ,[w] and my dear friend Sta-chys.
10Greet Apelles, tested and approved in Christ.[x] Greet those who belong to the household[y] of Aristobulus.
11Greet Herodion, my relative.[z] Greet those in the household[a] of Narcissus who are in the Lord.
12Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, those women who work hard in the Lord.
Greet my dear friend Persis, another woman who has worked very hard in the Lord.

16Greet one another with a holy kiss.[f] All the churches of Christ send greetings.

17I urge you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and put obstacles in your way that are contrary to the teaching you have learned.[g] Keep away from them.[h] 18For such people are not serving our Lord Christ,[i] but their own appetites.[j] By smooth talk and flattery they deceive[k] the minds of naive people. 19Everyone has heard[l] about your obedience, so I am full of joy over you; but I want you to be wise about what is good, and innocent about what is evil.[m] 20The God of peace[n] will soon crush[o] Satan[p] under your feet.
The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.[q] 21Timothy,[r] my fellow worker, sends his greetings to you, as do Lucius,[s] Jason[t] and Sosipater, my relatives.[u] 22I, Tertius, who wrote down this letter, greet you in the Lord.
23Gaius,[v] whose hospitality I and the whole church here enjoy, sends you his greetings.
Erastus,[w] who is the city's director of public works, and our brother Quartus send you their greetings.[q] 25Now to him who is able[x] to establish you by my gospel[y] and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery[z] hidden for long ages past, 26but now revealed and made known through the prophetic writings[a] by the command of the eternal God, so that all nations might believe and obey[b] him— 27to the only wise God be glory forever through

1 Corinthians

1 Paul, called to be an apostle[a] of Christ Jesus by the will of God,[b] and our brother Sosthenes,[c]

2To the church of God[d] in Corinth,[e] to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called[f] to be holy, together with all those everywhere who call on the name[g] of our Lord Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours:

3Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.[h]

Thanksgiving

4I always thank God for you[i] because of his grace given you in Christ Jesus. 5For in him you have been enriched[j] in every way—in all your speaking and in all your knowledge[k]— 6because our testimony[l] about Christ was confirmed in you. 7Therefore you do not lack any spiritual gift[m] as you eagerly wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed.[n] 8He will keep you strong to the end, so that you will be blameless[o] on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.[p] 9God, who has called you[q] into fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord,[r] is faithful.[s]

Divisions in the Church

10I appeal to you, brothers,[t] in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another so that there may be no divisions among you[u] and that you may be perfectly united[v] in mind and thought. 11My brothers, some from Chloe's household[w] have informed me that there are quarrels among you. 12What I mean is this: One of you says, "I follow Paul";[x] another, "I follow Apollos";[y] another, "I follow Cephas[a]";[z] still another, "I follow Christ."

13Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized into[b] the name of Paul?[a] 14I am thankful that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus[b] and Gaius,[c] 15so no one can say that you were baptized into my name. 16(Yes, I also baptized the household[d] of Stephanas;[e] beyond that, I don't remember if I baptized anyone else.) 17For Christ did not send me to baptize,[f] but to preach the gospel—not with words of human wisdom,[g] lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

Christ the Wisdom and Power of God

18For the message of the cross is foolishness[h] to those who are perishing,[i] but to us who are being saved[j] it is the power of God.[k] 19For it is written:

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise; the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate."[c][l]

20Where is the wise man?[m] Where is the scholar? Where is the philosopher of this age?[n] Has not God made foolish[o] the wisdom of the world? 21For since in the wisdom of God the world[p] through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save[q] those who believe.[r] 22Jews demand miraculous signs[s] and Greeks look for wisdom, 23but we preach Christ crucified:[t] a stumbling block[u] to Jews and foolishness[v] to Gentiles, 24but to those whom God has called,[w] both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God[x] and the wisdom of God.[y] 25For the foolishness[z] of God is wiser than man's wisdom, and the weakness[a] of God is stronger than man's strength.

26Brothers, think of what you were when you were called.[b] Not many of you were wise[c] by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. 27But God chose[d] the foolish[e] things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the ness[w] and redemption.[x] [31]Therefore, as it is written: "Let him who boasts

2 When I came to you, brothers, I did not come with eloquence or superior wisdom[h] as I proclaimed to you the testimony about God.[e] [2]For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.[i] [3]I came to you[j] in weakness[k] and fear, and with much trembling.[l] [4]My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words,[m] but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power,[n] [5]so that your faith might not rest on men's wisdom, but on God's power.[o]

Wisdom From the Spirit

[6]We do, however, speak a message of wisdom among the mature,[p] but not the wisdom of this age[q] or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing.[r] [7]No, we speak of God's secret wisdom, a wisdom[s] that has been hidden[t] and that God destined for our glory before time began. [8]None of the rulers of this age[u] understood it, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.[v] [9]However, as it is written:

"No eye has seen,
no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him"[f][w]—

[10]but God has revealed[x] it to us by his Spirit.[y]
The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. [11]For who among men knows the thoughts of a man[z] except the man's spirit[a] within him? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. [12]We have not received the spirit[b] of the world[c] but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us. [13]This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom[d] but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words.[g] [14]The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God,[e] for they are foolishness[f] to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.

[15]The spiritual[g] man makes judgments about all things, but he himself is not subject to any man's judgment:

[16]"For who has known the mind of
the Lord
that he may instruct him?"[h][h]

But we have the mind of Christ.[i]

On Divisions in the Church

3 Brothers, I could not address you as spiritual[j] but as worldly[k]—mere infants[l] in Christ. [2]I gave you milk, not solid food,[m] for you were not yet ready for it.[n] Indeed, you are still not ready.
[3]You are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and quarreling[o] among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere men? [4]For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos,"[p] are you not mere men?
[5]What, after all, is Apollos?[q] And what is Paul? Only servants,[r] through whom you came to believe—as the Lord has assigned to each his task. [6]I planted the seed,[s] Apollos watered it, but God made it grow. [7]So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. [8]The man who plants and the man who waters have one purpose, and each will be rewarded according to his own labor.[t] [9]For we are God's fellow workers;[u] you are God's field,[v] God's building.[w] [10]By the grace God has given me,[x] I laid a foundation[y] as an expert builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should be careful how he builds. [11]For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.[z] [12]If any man builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, [13]his work will be shown for what it is,[a] because the Day[b] will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each man's work.[c] [14]If what he has built survives, he will receive his reward.[d] [15]If it is burned up, he will suffer loss;

[c]Nu 31:22,23; Jer 23:28,29; Mal 3:3; S 2Th 1:7 3:14 [d]S ver 8

[d]31 Jer. 9:24 [e]1 Some manuscripts as I proclaimed to you God's mystery [f]9 Isaiah 64:4 [g]13 Or Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to spiritual men [h]16 Isaiah 40:13 he himself will be saved, but only as one escaping through the flames.[a] 16Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple[b] and that God's Spirit lives in you?[c] 17If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is sacred, and you are that temple.

18Do not deceive yourselves. If any one of you thinks he is wise[d] by the standards of this age,[e] he should become a "fool" so that he may become wise. 19For the wisdom of this world is foolishness[f] in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness"[i][g]; 20and again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile."[j][h] 21So then, no more boasting about men![i] All things are yours,[j] 22whether Paul or Apollos[k] or Cephas[k][l] or the world or life or death or the present or the future[m]—all are yours, 23and you are of Christ,[n] and Christ is of God.

Apostles of Christ

4 So then, men ought to regard us as servants[o] of Christ and as those entrusted[p] with the secret things[q] of God. 2Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful. 3I care very little if I am judged by you or by any human court; indeed, I do not even judge myself.
4My conscience[r] is clear, but that does not make me innocent.[s] It is the Lord who judges me.[t] 5Therefore judge nothing[u] before the appointed time; wait till the Lord comes.[v] He will bring to light[w] what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of men's hearts. At that time each will receive his praise from God.[x] 6Now, brothers, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us the meaning of the saying, "Do not go beyond what is written."[y] Then you will not take pride in one man over against another.[z] 7For who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive?[a] And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not?
8Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich![b] You have become kings—and that without us! How I wish that you really had become kings so that we might be kings with you! 9For it seems to me that God has put us apostles on display at the end of the procession, like men condemned to die[c] in the arena. We have been made a spectacle[d] to the whole universe, to angels as well as to men. 10We are fools for Christ,[e] but you are so wise in Christ![f] We are weak, but you are strong![g] You are honored, we are dishonored! 11To this very hour we go hungry and thirsty, we are in rags, we are brutally treated, we are homeless.[h] 12We work hard with our own hands.[i] When we are cursed, we bless;[j] when we are persecuted,[k] we endure it; 13when we are slandered, we answer kindly. Up to this moment we have become the scum of the earth, the refuse[l] of the world.

14I am not writing this to shame you,[m] but to warn you, as my dear children.[n] 15Even though you have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became your father[o] through the gospel.[p] 16Therefore I urge you to imitate me.[q] 17For this reason I am sending to you[r] Timothy,[s] my son[t] whom I love, who is faithful in the Lord. He will remind you of my way of life in Christ Jesus, which agrees with what I teach everywhere in every church.[u] 18Some of you have become arrogant,[v] as if I were not coming to you.[w] 19But I will come to you very soon,[x] if the Lord is willing,[y] and then I will find out not only how these arrogant people are talking, but what power they have. 20For the kingdom of God is not a matter of[z] talk but of power.[a] 21What do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a whip,[b] or in love and with a gentle spirit?

Expel the Immoral Brother!

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that does not occur even among pagans: A man has his father's wife.[c] 2And you are proud! Shouldn't you rather have been filled with grief[d] and have put out of your fellowship[e] the man who did this? 3Even though I am not physically present, I am with you in spirit.[f] And I have already passed judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present. 4When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus[g] and I am with you in spirit, and the power of our Lord Jesus is present, 5hand this man over[h] to Sai19 Job 5:13 j20 Psalm 94:11 k22 That is, Peter man,[x] so that the sinful nature[b] may be destroyed and his spirit saved on the day of the Lord.[y]

[6]Your boasting is not good.[z] Don't you know that a little yeast[a] works through the whole batch of dough?[b] [7]Get rid of the old yeast that you may be a new batch without yeast—as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed.[c] [8]Therefore let us keep the Festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with bread without yeast,[d] the bread of sincerity and truth.

[9]I have written you in my letter not to associate[e] with sexually immoral people— [10]not at all meaning the people of this world[f] who are immoral, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters. In that case you would have to leave this world. [11]But now I am writing you that you must not associate with anyone who calls himself a brother[g] but is sexually immoral or greedy, an idolater[h] or a slanderer, a drunkard or a swindler. With such a man do not even eat.[i]

[12]What business is it of mine to judge those outside[j] the church? Are you not to judge those inside?[k] [13]God will judge those outside. "Expel the wicked man from among you."[c][l]

Lawsuits Among Believers

6 If any of you has a dispute with another, dare he take it before the ungodly for judgment instead of before the saints?[m] [2]Do you not know that the saints will judge the world?[n] And if you are to judge the world, are you not competent to judge trivial cases? [3]Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more the things of this life! [4]Therefore, if you have disputes about such matters, appoint as judges even men of little account in the church![d] [5]I say this to shame you.[o] Is it possible that there is nobody among you wise enough to judge a dispute between believers?[p] [6]But instead, one brother[q] goes to law against another—and this in front of unbelievers![r]

[7]The very fact that you have lawsuits among you means you have been completely defeated already. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated?[s] [8]Instead, you yourselves cheat and do wrong, and you do this to your brothers.[t]

[9]Do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God?[u] Do not be deceived:[v] Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers[z] nor male prostitutes nor homosexual offenders[a] [10]nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers[b] will inherit the kingdom of God. [11]And that is what some of you were.[c] But you were washed,[d] you were sanctified,[e] you were justified[f] in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Sexual Immorality

[12]"Everything is permissible for me"—but not everything is beneficial.[g] "Everything is permissible for me"—but I will not be mastered by anything. [13]"Food for the stomach and the stomach for food"—but God will destroy them both.[h] The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord,[i] and the Lord for the body. [14]By his power God raised the Lord from the dead,[j] and he will raise us also.[k] [15]Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ himself?[l] Shall I then take the members of Christ and unite them with a prostitute? Never! [16]Do you not know that he who unites himself with a prostitute is one with her in body? For it is said, "The two will become one flesh."[e][m] [17]But he who unites himself with the Lord is one with him in spirit.[n]

[18]Flee from sexual immorality.[o] All other sins a man commits are outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body.[p] [19]Do you not know that your body is a temple[q] of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own;[r] [20]you were bought at a price.[s] Therefore honor God with your body.[t]

Marriage

7 Now for the matters you wrote about: It is good for a man not to marry.[f][u] [2]But since there is so much immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman her own husband. [3]The husband should fulfill his marital duty to his wife,[v] and likewise the wife to her husband. [4]The wife's body does not belong to her alone but also to her husband. In the same way, the husband's body does not belong to him alone but also to his wife. 5Do not deprive each other except by mutual consent and for a time,[a] so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again so that Satan[b] will not tempt you[c] because of your lack of self-control. 6I say this as a concession, not as a command.[d] 7I wish that all men were as I am.[e] But each man has his own gift from God; one has this gift, another has that.[f]

8Now to the unmarried and the widows I say: It is good for them to stay unmarried, as I am.[g] 9But if they cannot control themselves, they should marry,[h] for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

10To the married I give this command (not I, but the Lord): A wife must not separate from her husband.[i] 11But if she does, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband.[j] And a husband must not divorce his wife.

12To the rest I say this (I, not the Lord):[k] If any brother has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her.
13And if a woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him.
14For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified through her believing husband.
Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy.[l]

15But if the unbeliever leaves, let him do so. A believing man or woman is not bound in such circumstances; God has called us to live in peace.[m] 16How do you know, wife, whether you will save[n] your husband?[o] Or, how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

17Nevertheless, each one should retain the place in life that the Lord assigned to him and to which God has called him.[p] This is the rule I lay down in all the churches.[q] 18Was a man already circumcised when he was called?
He should not become uncircumcised.
Was a man uncircumcised when he was called? He should not be circumcised.[r] 19Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing.[s] Keeping God's commands is what counts.
20Each one should remain in the situation which he was in when God called him.[t] 21Were you a slave when you were called? Don't let it trouble you—although if you can gain your freedom, do so. 22For he who was a slave when he was called by the Lord is the Lord's freedman;[u] similarly, he who was a free man when he was called is Christ's slave.[v] 23You were bought at a price;[w] do not become slaves of men. 24Brothers, each man, as responsible to God, should remain in the situation God called him to.[x]

25Now about virgins: I have no command from the Lord,[y] but I give a judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy[z] is trustworthy. 26Because of the present crisis, I think that it is good for you to remain as you are.[a] 27Are you married? Do not seek a divorce. Are you unmarried? Do not look for a wife.[b] 28But if you do marry, you have not sinned;[c] and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But those who marry will face many troubles in this life, and I want to spare you this.

29What I mean, brothers, is that the time is short.[d] From now on those who have wives should live as if they had none; 30those who mourn, as if they did not; those who are happy, as if they were not; those who buy something, as if it were not theirs to keep; 31those who use the things of the world, as if not engrossed in them. For this world in its present form is passing away.[e]

32I would like you to be free from concern. An unmarried man is concerned about the Lord's affairs[f]—how he can please the Lord. 33But a married man is concerned about the affairs of this world—how he can please his wife— 34and his interests are divided.
An unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the Lord's affairs: Her aim is to be devoted to the Lord in both body and spirit.[g] But a married woman is concerned about the affairs of this world—how she can please her husband. 35I am saying this for your own good, not to restrict you, but that you may live in a right way in undivided[h] devotion to the Lord.

36If anyone thinks he is acting improperly toward the virgin he is engaged to, and if she is getting along in years and he feels he ought to marry, he should do as he wants. He is not sinning.[i] They should get married.
37But the man who has settled the matter in his own mind, who is under no compulsion but has control over his own will, and who has made up his mind not to marry the virgin—this man also does the right thing. 38So then, he who marries the virgin does right,[a] but he who does not marry her does even better.[q] 39A woman is bound to her husband as long as he lives.[b] But if her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but he must belong to the Lord.[c] 40In my judgment,[d] she is happier if she stays as she is—and I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

Food Sacrificed to Idols

8 Now about food sacrificed to idols:[e] We know that we all possess knowledge.[r][f] Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. 2The man who thinks he knows something[g] does not yet know as he ought to know.[h] 3But the man who loves God is known by God.[i] 4So then, about eating food sacrificed to idols:[j] We know that an idol is nothing at all in the world[k] and that there is no God but one.[l] 5For even if there are so-called gods,[m] whether in heaven or on earth (as indeed there are many "gods" and many "lords"), 6yet for us there is but one God,[n] the Father,[o] from whom all things came[p] and for whom we live; and there is but one Lord,[q] Jesus Christ, through whom all things came[r] and through whom we live.
7But not everyone knows this.[s] Some people are still so accustomed to idols that when they eat such food they think of it as having been sacrificed to an idol, and since their conscience is weak,[t] it is defiled. 8But food does not bring us near to God;[u] we are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do.
9Be careful, however, that the exercise of your freedom does not become a stumbling block[v] to the weak.[w] 10For if anyone with a weak conscience sees you who have this knowledge eating in an idol's temple, won't he be emboldened to eat what has been sacrificed to idols?[x] 11So this weak brother, for whom Christ died, is destroyed[y] by your knowledge. 12When you sin against your brothers[z] in this way and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.[a] 13Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother to fall into sin, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause him to fall.[b]

The Rights of an Apostle

9 Am I not free?[c] Am I not an apostle?[d] Have I not seen Jesus our Lord?[e] Are you not the result of my work in the Lord?[f] 2Even though I may not be an apostle to others, surely I am to you! For you are the seal[g] of my apostleship in the Lord.
3This is my defense to those who sit in judgment on me. 4Don't we have the right to food and drink?[h] 5Don't we have the right to take a believing wife[i] along with us, as do the other apostles and the Lord's brothers[j] and Cephas[s]?[k] 6Or is it only I and Barnabas[l] who must work for a living?
7Who serves as a soldier[m] at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard[n] and does not eat of its grapes? Who tends a flock and does not drink of the milk?
8Do I say this merely from a human point of view? Doesn't the Law say the same thing? 9For it is written in the Law of Moses: "Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain."[t][o] Is it about oxen that God is concerned?[p] 10Surely he says this for us, doesn't he?
Yes, this was written for us,[q] because when the plowman plows and the thresher threshes, they ought to do so in the hope of sharing in the harvest.[r] 11If we have sown spiritual seed among you, is it too much if we reap a material harvest from you?[s] 12If others have this right of support from you, shouldn't we have it all the more?
But we did not use this right.[t] On the contrary, we put up with anything rather than hinder[u] the gospel of Christ. 13Don't you know that those who work in the temple get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar?[v] 14In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel.[w] 15But I have not used any of these rights.[x] And I am not writing this in the hope that you will do such things for me. I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of this boast.[y] 16Yet when I preach the gospel, I cannot boast, for I am compelled to preach.[z] Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! 17If I preach voluntarily, I have a reward;[a] if not voluntarily, I am simply discharging the trust committed to me.[b] 18What then is my reward? Just this: that in preaching the gospel I may offer it free of charge,[c] and so not make use of my rights[d] in preaching it.

19Though I am free[e] and belong to no man, I make myself a slave to everyone,[f] to win as many as possible.[g] 20To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews.[h] To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law),[i] so as to win those under the law. 21To those not having the law I became like one not having the law[j] (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law),[k] so as to win those not having the law. 22To the weak I became weak, to win the weak.[l] I have become all things to all men[m] so that by all possible means I might save some.[n] 23I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.
24Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize?[o] Run[p] in such a way as to get the prize. 25Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training.
They do it to get a crown[q] that will not last; but we do it to get a crown that will last forever.[r] 26Therefore I do not run like a man running aimlessly;[s] I do not fight like a man beating the air.[t] 27No, I beat my body[u] and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize.[v]

Warnings From Israel's History

10 For I do not want you to be ignorant[w] of the fact, brothers, that our forefathers were all under the cloud[x] and that they all passed through the sea.[y] 2They were all baptized into[z] Moses in the cloud and in the sea. 3They all ate the same spiritual food[a] 4and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock[b] that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ. 5Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them; their bodies were scattered over the desert.[c] 6Now these things occurred as examples[u][d] to keep us from setting our hearts on evil things as they did. 7Do not be idolaters,[e] as some of them were; as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in pagan revelry."[v][f] 8We should not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did—and in one day twenty-three thousand of them died.[g] 9We should not test the Lord,[h] as some of them did—and were killed by snakes.[i] 10And do not grumble, as some of them did[j]—and were killed[k] by the destroying angel.[l] 11These things happened to them as examples[m] and were written down as warnings for us,[n] on whom the fulfillment of the ages has come.[o] 12So, if you think you are standing firm,[p] be careful that you don't fall! 13No temptation has seized you except what is common to man. And God is faithful;[q] he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear.[r] But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it.

Idol Feasts and the Lord's Supper

14Therefore, my dear friends,[s] flee from idolatry.[t] 15I speak to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. 16Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break[u] a participation in the body of Christ?[v] 17Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body,[w] for we all partake of the one loaf.
18Consider the people of Israel: Do not those who eat the sacrifices[x] participate in the altar? 19Do I mean then that a sacrifice offered to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything?[y] 20No, but the sacrifices of pagans are offered to demons,[z] not to God, and I do not want you to be participants with demons. 21You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons too; you cannot have a part in both the Lord's table and the table of demons.[a] 22Are we trying to arouse the Lord's jealousy?[b] Are we stronger than he?[c]

Lord's, and everything in it."[w][b] 27If some unbeliever invites you to a meal and you want to go, eat whatever is put before you[c] without raising questions of conscience. 28But if anyone says to you, "This has been offered in sacrifice," then do not eat it, both for the sake of the man who told you and for conscience' sake[x][d]— 29the other man's conscience, I mean, not yours.
For why should my freedom[e] be judged by another's conscience? 30If I take part in the meal with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of something I thank God for?[f] 31So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.[g] 32Do not cause anyone to stumble,[h] whether Jews, Greeks or the church of God[i]— 33even as I try to please everybody in every way.[j] For I am not seeking my own good but the good of many,[k] so that they may be 11 saved.[l] 1Follow my example,[m] as I follow the example of Christ.[n]

Propriety in Worship

2I praise you[o] for remembering me in everything[p] and for holding to the teachings,[y] just as I passed them on to you.[q] 3Now I want you to realize that the head of every man is Christ,[r] and the head of the woman is man,[s] and the head of Christ is God.[t] 4Every man who prays or prophesies[u] with his head covered dishonors his head. 5And every woman who prays or prophesies[v] with her head uncovered dishon-ors her head—it is just as though her head were shaved.[w] 6If a woman does not cover her head, she should have her hair cut off; and if it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair cut or shaved off, she should cover her head. 7A man ought not to cover his head,[z] since he is the image[x] and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man. 8For man did not come from woman, but woman from man;[y] 9neither was man created for woman, but woman for man.[z] 10For this reason, and because of the angels, the woman ought to have a sign of authority on her head.
11In the Lord, however, woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman. 12For as woman came from man, so also man is born of woman. But everything comes from God.[a] 13Judge for yourselves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? 14Does not the very nature of things teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him, 15but that if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For long hair is given to her as a covering. 16If anyone wants to be contentious about this, we have no other practice—nor do the churches of God.[b]

17In the following directives I have no praise for you,[c] for your meetings do more harm than good. 18In the first place, I hear that when you come together as a church, there are divisions[d] among you, and to some extent I believe it. 19No doubt there have to be differences among you to show which of you have God's approval.[e] 20When you come together, it is not the Lord's Supper you eat, 21for as you eat, each of you goes ahead without waiting for anybody else.[f] One remains hungry, another gets drunk. 22Don't you have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God[g] and humiliate those who have nothing?[h] What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you[i] for this? Certainly not!
23For I received from the Lord[j] what I also passed on to you:[k] The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, 24and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body,[l] which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." 25In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant[m] in my blood;[n] do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." 26For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.[o] 27Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord.[p] 28A man ought to examine himself[q] before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup. 29For anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment on himself. 30 That is why many among you are weak and sick, and a number of you have fallen asleep.[a] 31 But if we judged ourselves, we would not come under judgment.[b] 32 When we are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined[c] so that we will not be condemned with the world.[d]

33 So then, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for each other. 34 If anyone is hungry,[e] he should eat at home,[f] so that when you meet together it may not result in judgment.

And when I come[g] I will give further directions.

Spiritual Gifts

12 Now about spiritual gifts,[h] brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant.[i] 2 You know that when you were pagans,[j] somehow or other you were influenced and led astray to mute idols.[k] 3 Therefore I tell you that no one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus be cursed,"[l] and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord,"[m] except by the Holy Spirit.[n]

4 There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.[o] 5 There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. 6 There are different kinds of working, but the same God[p] works all of them in all men.[q]

7 Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.[r] 8 To one there is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom,[s] to another the message of knowledge[t] by means of the same Spirit, 9 to another faith[u] by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing[v] by that one Spirit, 10 to another miraculous powers,[w] to another prophecy,[x] to another distinguishing between spirits,[y] to another speaking in different kinds of tongues,[a][z] and to still another the interpretation of tongues.[a] 11 All these are the work of one and the same Spirit,[a] and he gives them to each one, just as he determines.

One Body, Many Parts

12 The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body.[b] So it is with Christ.[c] 13 For we were all baptized[d] by[b] one Spirit[e] into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free[f]—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink.[g]

14 Now the body is not made up of one part but of many.[h] 15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. 16 And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? 18 But in fact God has arranged[i] the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be.[j] 19 If they were all one part, where would the body be? 20 As it is, there are many parts, but one body.[k]

21 The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" And the head cannot say to the feet, "I don't need you!" 22 On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, 23 and the parts that we think are less honorable we treat with special honor. And the parts that are unpresentable are treated with special modesty, 24 while our presentable parts need no special treatment. But God has combined the members of the body and has given greater honor to the parts that lacked it, 25 so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. 26 If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.

27 Now you are the body of Christ,[l] and each one of you is a part of it.[m] 28 And in the church[n] God has appointed first of all apostles,[o] second prophets,[p] third teachers, then workers of miracles, also those having gifts of healing,[q] those able to help others, those with gifts of administration,[r] and those speaking in different kinds of tongues.[s] 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? 30 Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues[c]?[t] Do all interpret? 31 But eagerly desire[d][u] the greater gifts.

clanging cymbal. 2If I have the gift of prophecy[b] and can fathom all mysteries[c] and all knowledge,[d] and if I have a faith[e] that can move mountains,[f] but have not love, I am nothing. 3If I give all I possess to the poor[g] and surrender my body to the flames,[f][h] but have not love, I gain nothing.
4Love is patient,[i] love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.[j] 5It is not rude, it is not self-seeking,[k] it is not easily angered,[l] it keeps no record of wrongs.[m] 6Love does not delight in evil[n] but rejoices with the truth.[o] 7It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always per-severes.[p] 8Love never fails. But where there are prophecies,[q] they will cease; where there are tongues,[r] they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. 9For we know in part[s] and we prophesy in part, 10but when perfection comes,[t] the imperfect disappears.
11When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways[u] behind me. 12Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror;[v] then we shall see face to face.[w] Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.[x] 13And now these three remain: faith, hope and love.[y] But the greatest of these is love.[z]

Gifts of Prophecy and Tongues

14 Follow the way of love[a] and eagerly desire[b] spiritual gifts,[c] especially the gift of prophecy.[d] 2For anyone who speaks in a tongue[g][e] does not speak to men but to God. Indeed, no one understands him;[f] he utters mysteries[g] with his spirit.[h] 3But everyone who prophesies speaks to men for their strengthening,[k] encouragement[l] and comfort. 4He who speaks in a tongue[j] edifies[k] himself, but he who prophesies[l] edifies the church. 5I would like every one of you to speak in tongues,[i] but I would rather have you prophesy.[m] He who prophesies is greater than one who speaks in tongues,[i] unless he interprets, so that the church may be edified.[n] 6Now, brothers, if I come to you and speak in tongues, what good will I be to you, unless I bring you some revelation[o] or knowledge[p] or prophecy or word of instruction?[q] 7Even in the case of lifeless things that make sounds, such as the flute or harp, how will anyone know what tune is being played unless there is a distinction in the notes? 8Again, if the trumpet does not sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle?[r] 9So it is with you. Unless you speak intelligible words with your tongue, how will anyone know what you are saying? You will just be speaking into the air. 10Undoubtedly there are all sorts of languages in the world, yet none of them is without meaning.
11If then I do not grasp the meaning of what someone is saying, I am a foreigner to the speaker, and he is a foreigner to me.[s] 12So it is with you. Since you are eager to have spiritual gifts,[t] try to excel in gifts that build up[u] the church.
13For this reason anyone who speaks in a tongue should pray that he may interpret what he says.[v] 14For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays,[w] but my mind is unfruitful. 15So what shall I do?
I will pray with my spirit,[x] but I will also pray with my mind; I will sing[y] with my spirit, but I will also sing with my mind. 16If you are praising God with your spirit, how can one who finds himself among those who do not understand[j] say "Amen"[z] to your thanksgiving,[a] since he does not know what you are saying? 17You may be giving thanks well enough, but the other man is not edified.[b] 18I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. 19But in the church I would rather speak five intelligible words to instruct others than ten thousand words in a tongue.[c] 20Brothers, stop thinking like children.[d] In regard to evil be infants,[e] but in your thinking be adults. 21In the Law[f] it is written:

"Through men of strange tongues and through the lips of foreigners I will speak to this people, but even then they will not listen to me,"[k][g]
says the Lord.

22Tongues, then, are a sign, not for believers but for unbelievers; prophecy,[a] however, is for believers, not for unbelievers. 23So if the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and some who do not understand[l] or some unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your mind?[b] 24But if an unbeliever or someone who does not understand[m] comes in while everybody is prophesying, he will be convinced by all that he is a sinner and will be judged by all, 25and the secrets[c] of his heart will be laid bare. So he will fall down and worship God, exclaiming, "God is really among you!"[d]

Orderly Worship

26What then shall we say, brothers?[e] When you come together, everyone[f] has a hymn,[g] or a word of instruction,[h] a revelation, a tongue[i] or an interpretation.[j] All of these must be done for the strengthening[k] of the church. 27If anyone speaks in a tongue, two—or at the most three—should speak, one at a time, and someone must interpret. 28If there is no interpreter, the speaker should keep quiet in the church and speak to himself and God.
29Two or three prophets[l] should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said.[m] 30And if a revelation comes to someone who is sitting down, the first speaker should stop.
31For you can all prophesy in turn so that everyone may be instructed and encouraged. 32The spirits of prophets are subject to the control of prophets.[n] 33For God is not a God of disorder[o] but of peace.[p]
As in all the congregations[q] of the saints,[r] 34women should remain silent in the churches. They are not allowed to speak,[s] but must be in submission,[t] as the Law[u] says. 35If they want to inquire about something, they should ask their own husbands at home; for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church.
36Did the word of God[v] originate with you? Or are you the only people it has reached? 37If anybody thinks he is a prophet[w] or spiritually gifted,[x] let him acknowledge that what I am writing to you is the Lord's command.[y] 38If he ignores this, he himself will be ignored.[n] 39Therefore, my brothers, be eager[z] to prophesy,[a] and do not forbid speaking in tongues. 40But everything should be done in a fitting and orderly[b] way.

The Resurrection of Christ

15 Now, brothers, I want to remind you of the gospel[c] I preached to you,[d] which you received and on which you have taken your stand. 2By this gospel you are saved,[e] if you hold firmly[f] to the word I preached to you.
Otherwise, you have believed in vain.
3For what I received[g] I passed on to you[h] as of first importance[o]: that Christ died for our sins[i] according to the Scriptures,[j] 4that he was buried,[k] that he was raised[l] on the third day[m] according to the Scriptures,[n] 5and that he appeared to Peter,[p o] and then to the Twelve.[p] 6After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep.[q] 7Then he appeared to James,[r] then to all the apostles,[s] 8and last of all he appeared to me also,[t] as to one abnormally born.
9For I am the least of the apostles[u] and do not even deserve to be called an apostle, because I persecuted[v] the church of God.[w] 10But by the grace[x] of God I am what I am, and his grace to me[y] was not without effect. No, I worked harder than all of them[z]—yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me.[a] 11Whether, then, it was I or they,[b] this is what we preach, and this is what you believed.

The Resurrection of the Dead

12But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead,[c] how can some of you say that there is no resurrection[d] of the dead?[e] 13If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. 14And if Christ has not been raised,[f] our preaching is useless and so is your faith. 15More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that he raised Christ from the dead.[g] But he did not raise him if in fact the dead are not raised.
16For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either. 17And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins.[h] 18Then those also who have fallen asleep[i] in Christ are lost. 19If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all men.[j] 20But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead,[a] the firstfruits[b] of those who have fallen asleep.[c] 21For since death came through a man,[d] the resurrection of the dead[e] comes also through a man. 22For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.[f] 23But each in his own turn: Christ, the firstfruits;[g] then, when he comes,[h] those who belong to him.[i] 24Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom[j] to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power.[k] 25For he must reign[l] until he has put all his enemies under his feet.[m] 26The last enemy to be destroyed is death.[n] 27For he "has put everything under his feet."[q][o] Now when it says that "everything" has been put under him, it is clear that this does not include God himself, who put everything under Christ.[p] 28When he has done this, then the Son himself will be made subject to him who put everything under him,[q] so that God may be all in all.[r]

29Now if there is no resurrection, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized for them? 30And as for us, why do we endanger ourselves every hour?[s] 31I die every day[t]—I mean that, brothers—just as surely as I glory over you in Christ Jesus our Lord. 32If I fought wild beasts[u] in Ephesus[v] for merely human reasons, what have I gained? If the dead are not raised,

"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."[r][w]

33Do not be misled:[x] "Bad company corrupts good character."[y] 34Come back to your senses as you ought, and stop sinning; for there are some who are ignorant of God[z]—I say this to your shame.[a]

The Resurrection Body

35But someone may ask,[b] "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come?"[c] 36How foolish![d] What you sow does not come to life unless it dies.[e] 37When you sow, you do not plant the body that will be, but just a seed, perhaps of wheat or of something else. 38But God gives it a body as he has determined, and to each kind of seed he gives its own body.[f] 39All flesh is not the same: Men have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds another and fish another. 40There are also heavenly bodies and there are earthly bodies; but the splendor of the heavenly bodies is one kind, and the splendor of the earthly bodies is another. 41The sun has one kind of splendor,[g] the moon another and the stars another;[h] and star differs from star in splendor.

42So will it be[i] with the resurrection of the dead.[j] The body that is sown is perishable, it is raised imperishable;[k] 43it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory;[l] it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; 44it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body.[m]

If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. 45So it is written: "The first man Adam became a living being"[s];[n] the last Adam,[o] a life-giving spirit.[p] 46The spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual.[q] 47The first man was of the dust of the earth,[r] the second man from heaven.[s] 48As was the earthly man, so are those who are of the earth; and as is the man from heaven, so also are those who are of heaven.[t] 49And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man,[u] so shall we[t] bear the likeness of the man from heaven.[v]

50I declare to you, brothers, that flesh and blood[w] cannot inherit the kingdom of God,[x] nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.[y] 51Listen, I tell you a mystery:[z] We will not all sleep,[a] but we will all be changed[b]— 52in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound,[c] the dead[d] will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. 53For the perishable[e] must clothe itself with the imperishable,[f] and the mortal with immortality. 54When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory."[u][g]

55"Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?"[v][h]

56The sting of death is sin,[i] and the power of sin is the law.[j] 57But thanks be to God![k] He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.[l]

58Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord,[m] because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.[n]

The Collection for God's People

16 Now about the collection[a] for God's people:[b] Do what I told the Galatian[c] churches to do. 2On the first day of every week,[d] each one of you should set aside a sum of money in keeping with his income, saving it up, so that when I come no collections will have to be made.[e] 3Then, when I arrive, I will give letters of introduction to the men you approve[f] and send them with your gift to Jerusalem. 4If it seems advisable for me to go also, they will accompany me.

Personal Requests

5After I go through Macedonia, I will come to you[g]—for I will be going through Macedonia.[h] 6Perhaps I will stay with you awhile, or even spend the winter, so that you can help me on my journey,[i] wherever I go. 7I do not want to see you now and make only a passing visit; I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits.[j] 8But I will stay on at Ephesus[k] until Pentecost,[l] 9because a great door for effective work has opened to me,[m] and there are many who oppose me.

10If Timothy[n] comes, see to it that he has nothing to fear while he is with you, for he is carrying on the work of the Lord,[o] just as I am. 11No one, then, should refuse to accept him.[p] Send him on his way[q] in peace[r] so that he may return to me. I am expecting him along with the brothers.

12Now about our brother Apollos:[s] I strongly urged him to go to you with the brothers. He was quite unwilling to go now, but he will go when he has the opportunity.

13Be on your guard; stand firm[t] in the faith; be men of courage; be strong.[u] 14Do everything in love.[v]

15You know that the household of Stephanas[w] were the first converts[x] in Achaia,[y] and they have devoted themselves to the service[z] of the saints.[a] I urge you, brothers, 16to submit[b] to such as these and to everyone who joins in the work, and labors at it. 17I was glad when Stephanas, Fortunatus and Achaicus arrived, because they have supplied what was lacking from you.[c] 18For they refreshed[d] my spirit and yours also. Such men deserve recognition.[e]

Final Greetings

19The churches in the province of Asia[f] send you greetings. Aquila and Priscilla[w][g] greet you warmly in the Lord, and so does the church that meets at their house.[h] 20All the brothers here send you greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.[i]

21I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand.[j]

22If anyone does not love the Lord[k]—a curse[l] be on him. Come, O Lord[x]![m]

23The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.[n]

24My love to all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.[y]

1 Paul, an apostle[a] of Christ Jesus by the will of God,[b] and Timothy[c] our brother,

To the church of God[d] in Corinth,[e] together with all the saints throughout Achaia:[f]

2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.[g]

The God of All Comfort

3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,[h] the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, 4 who comforts us[i] in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God. 5 For just as the sufferings of Christ flow over into our lives,[j] so also through Christ our comfort overflows. 6 If we are distressed, it is for your comfort and salvation;[k] if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you patient endurance of the same sufferings we suffer. 7 And our hope for you is firm, because we know that just as you share in our sufferings,[l] so also you share in our comfort.

8 We do not want you to be uninformed,[m] brothers, about the hardships we suffered[n] in the province of Asia.[o] We were under great pressure, far beyond our ability to endure, so that we despaired even of life. 9 Indeed, in our hearts we felt the sentence of death. But this happened that we might not rely on ourselves but on God,[p] who raises the dead.[q] 10 He has delivered us from such a deadly peril,[r] and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope[s] that he will continue to deliver us, 11 as you help us by your prayers.[t] Then many will give thanks[u] on our[a] behalf for the gracious favor granted us in answer to the prayers of many.

Paul's Change of Plans

12 Now this is our boast: Our conscience[v] testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially in our relations with you, in the holiness[w] and sincerity[x] that are from God. We have done so not according to worldly wisdom[y] but according to God's grace. 13 For we do not write you anything you cannot read or understand. And I hope that, 14 as you have understood us in part, you will come to understand fully that you can boast of us just as we will boast of you in the day of the Lord Jesus.[z]

15 Because I was confident of this, I planned to visit you[a] first so that you might benefit twice.[b] 16 I planned to visit you on my way[c] to Macedonia[d] and to come back to you from Macedonia, and then to have you send me on my way[e] to Judea.[f] 17 When I planned this, did I do it lightly? Or do I make my plans in a worldly manner[g] so that in the same breath I say, "Yes, yes" and "No, no"?

18 But as surely as God is faithful,[h] our message to you is not "Yes" and "No." 19 For the Son of God,[i] Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by me and Silas[b][j] and Timothy,[k] was not "Yes" and "No," but in him it has always[l] been "Yes." 20 For no matter how many promises[m] God has made, they are "Yes" in Christ. And so through him the "Amen"[n] is spoken by us to the glory of God.[o] 21 Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm[p] in Christ. He anointed[q] us, 22 set his seal[r] of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.[s]

23 I call God as my witness[t] that it was in order to spare you[u] that I did not return to Corinth. 24 Not that we lord it over[v] your faith, but we work with you for your joy, because it is by 2 faith you stand firm.[w] 1 So I made up my mind that I would not make another painful visit to you.[x] 2 For if I grieve you,[a] who is left to make me glad but you whom I have grieved? 3I wrote as I did[b] so that when I came I should not be distressed[c] by those who ought to make me rejoice. I had confidence[d] in all of you, that you would all share my joy. 4For I wrote you[e] out of great distress and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to grieve you but to let you know the depth of my love for you.

Forgiveness for the Sinner

5If anyone has caused grief,[f] he has not so much grieved me as he has grieved all of you, to some extent—not to put it too severely. 6The punishment[g] inflicted on him by the majority is sufficient for him. 7Now instead, you ought to forgive and comfort him,[h] so that he will not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. 8I urge you, therefore, to reaffirm your love for him. 9The reason I wrote you[i] was to see if you would stand the test and be obedient in everything.[j] 10If you forgive anyone, I also forgive him. And what I have forgiven—if there was anything to forgive—I have forgiven in the sight of Christ for your sake, 11in order that Satan[k] might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes.[l]

Ministers of the New Covenant

12Now when I went to Troas[m] to preach the gospel of Christ[n] and found that the Lord had opened a door[o] for me, 13I still had no peace of mind,[p] because I did not find my brother Titus[q] there. So I said good-by to them and went on to Macedonia.[r] 14But thanks be to God,[s] who always leads us in triumphal procession in Christ and through us spreads everywhere the fragrance[t] of the knowledge[u] of him. 15For we are to God the aroma[v] of Christ among those who are being saved and those who are perishing.[w] 16To the one we are the smell of death;[x] to the other, the fragrance of life. And who is equal to such a task?[y] 17Unlike so many, we do not peddle the word of God for profit.[z] On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity,[a] like men sent from God.[b]

3 Are we beginning to commend ourselves[c] again? Or do we need, like some people, letters of recommendation[d] to you or from you? 2You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everybody.[e] 3You show that you are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God,[f] not on tablets of stone[g] but on tablets of human hearts.[h]

4Such confidence[i] as this is ours through Christ before God. 5Not that we are competent in ourselves[j] to claim anything for ourselves, but our competence comes from God.[k] 6He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant[l]—not of the letter[m] but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.[n]

The Glory of the New Covenant

7Now if the ministry that brought death,[o] which was engraved in letters on stone, came with glory, so that the Israelites could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of its glory,[p] fading though it was, 8will not the ministry of the Spirit be even more glorious? 9If the ministry that condemns men[q] is glorious, how much more glorious is the ministry that brings righteousness![r] 10For what was glorious has no glory now in comparison with the surpassing glory. 11And if what was fading away came with glory, how much greater is the glory of that which lasts!

12Therefore, since we have such a hope,[s] we are very bold.[t] 13We are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face[u] to keep the Israelites from gazing at it while the radiance was fading away. 14But their minds were made dull,[v] for to this day the same veil remains when the old covenant[w] is read.[x] It has not been removed, because only in Christ is it taken away.
15Even to this day when Moses is read, a veil covers their hearts. 16But whenever anyone turns to the Lord,[y] the veil is taken away.[z] 17Now the Lord is the Spirit,[a] and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.[b] 18And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect[c c] the Lord's glory,[d] are being transformed into his likeness[e] with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

renounced secret and shameful ways;[a] we do not use deception, nor do we distort the word of God.[b] On the contrary, by setting forth the truth plainly we commend ourselves to every man's conscience[c] in the sight of God. 3And even if our gospel[d] is veiled,[e] it is veiled to those who are perishing.[f] 4The god[g] of this age[h] has blinded[i] the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ,[j] who is the image of God.[k] 5For we do not preach ourselves,[l] but Jesus Christ as Lord,[m] and ourselves as your servants[n] for Jesus' sake. 6For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness,"[a][o] made his light shine in our hearts[p] to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.[q] 7But we have this treasure in jars of clay[r] to show that this all-surpassing power is from God[s] and not from us.
8We are hard pressed on every side,[t] but not crushed; perplexed,[u] but not in despair; 9persecuted,[v] but not abandoned;[w] struck down, but not destroyed.[x] 10We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus,[y] so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.[z] 11For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake,[a] so that his life may be revealed in our mortal body. 12So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.[b] 13It is written: "I believed; therefore I have spoken."[b][c] With that same spirit of faith[d] we also believe and therefore speak, 14because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead[e] will also raise us with Jesus[f] and present us with you in his presence.[g] 15All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving[h] to overflow to the glory of God.
16Therefore we do not lose heart.[i] Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly[j] we are being renewed[k] day by day. 17For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all.[l] 18So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen.[m] For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Our Heavenly Dwelling

5 Now we know that if the earthly[n] tent[o] we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands. 2Meanwhile we groan,[p] longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling,[q] 3because when we are clothed, we will not be found naked.
4For while we are in this tent, we groan[r] and are burdened, because we do not wish to be unclothed but to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling,[s] so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. 5Now it is God who has made us for this very purpose and has given us the Spirit as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.[t] 6Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. 7We live by faith, not by sight.[u] 8We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord.[v] 9So we make it our goal to please him,[w] whether we are at home in the body or away from it. 10For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive what is due him[x] for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

The Ministry of Reconciliation

11Since, then, we know what it is to fear the Lord,[y] we try to persuade men. What we are is plain to God, and I hope it is also plain to your conscience.[z] 12We are not trying to commend ourselves to you again,[a] but are giving you an opportunity to take pride in us,[b] so that you can answer those who take pride in what is seen rather than in what is in the heart. 13If we are out of our mind,[c] it is for the sake of God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. 14For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died.[d] 15And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves[e] but for him who died for them[f] and was raised again.
16So from now on we regard no one from a worldly[g] point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. 17Therefore, if anyone is in Christ,[h] he is a new creation;[i] the old has gone, the new has come![j] 18All this is from God,[k] who reconciled us to himself through Christ[l] and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: 19that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them.[a] And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation.

20We are therefore Christ's ambassadors,[b] as though God were making his appeal through us.[c] We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God.[d] 21God made him who had no sin[e] to be sin[f] for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.[f]

6 As God's fellow workers[g] we urge you not to receive God's grace in vain.[h] 2For he says,

"In the time of my favor I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you."[g][i]

I tell you, now is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation.

Paul's Hardships

3We put no stumbling block in anyone's path,[j] so that our ministry will not be discredited. 4Rather, as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: in great endurance; in troubles, hardships and distresses; 5in beatings, imprisonments[k] and riots; in hard work, sleepless nights and hunger;[l] 6in purity, understanding, patience and kindness; in the Holy Spirit[m] and in sincere love;[n] 7in truthful speech[o] and in the power of God;[p] with weapons of righteousness[q] in the right hand and in the left; 8through glory and dishonor,[r] bad report[s] and good report; genuine, yet regarded as impostors;[t] 9known, yet regarded as unknown; dying,[u] and yet we live on;[v] beaten, and yet not killed; 10sorrowful, yet always rejoicing;[w] poor, yet making many rich;[x] having nothing,[y] and yet possessing everything.[z]

11We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians, and opened wide our hearts to you.[a] 12We are not withholding our affection from you, but you are withholding yours from us. 13As a fair exchange—I speak as to my children[b]—open wide your hearts[c] also.

Do Not Be Yoked With Unbelievers

14Do not be yoked together[d] with unbelievers.[e] For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?[f] 15What harmony is there between Christ and Belial[h]?[g] What does a believer[h] have in common with an unbeliever?[i] 16What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols?[j] For we are the temple[k] of the living God.[l] As God has said: "I will live with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people."[i][m]

17"Therefore come out from them[n] and be separate,
says the Lord.
Touch no unclean thing, and I will receive you."[j][o] 18"I will be a Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters,[p]
says the Lord Almighty."[k][q]

7 Since we have these promises,[r] dear friends,[s] let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, perfecting holiness[t] out of reverence for God.

Paul's Joy

2Make room for us in your hearts.[u] We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have exploited no one. 3I do not say this to condemn you; I have said before that you have such a place in our hearts[v] that we would live or die with you. 4I have great confidence in you; I take great pride in you.[w] I am greatly encouraged;[x] in all our troubles my joy knows no bounds.[y]

5For when we came into Macedonia,[z] this body of ours had no rest, but we were harassed at every turn[a]—conflicts on the outside, fears within.[b] 6But God, who comforts the downcast,[c] comforted us by the coming of Titus,[d] 7and not only by his coming but also by the comfort you had given him. He told us about your longing for me, your deep sorrow, your ardent concern for me, so that my joy was greater than ever.

8Even if I caused you sorrow by my letter,[e] I do not regret it. Though I did regret it—I see that my letter hurt you, but only for a little while— 9yet now I am happy, not because you were made sorry, but because your sorrow led you to repentance. For you became sorrowful as God intended and so were not harmed in any way by us. 10Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation[f] and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death. 11See what this godly sorrow has produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what concern,[a] what readiness to see justice done. At every point you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter. 12So even though I wrote to you,[b] it was not on account of the one who did the wrong[c] or of the injured party, but rather that before God you could see for yourselves how devoted to us you are. 13By all this we are encouraged.

In addition to our own encouragement, we were especially delighted to see how happy Titus[d] was, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you.
14I had boasted to him about you,[e] and you have not embarrassed me. But just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting about you to Titus[f] has proved to be true as well. 15And his affection for you is all the greater when he remembers that you were all obedient,[g] receiving him with fear and trembling.[h] 16I am glad I can have complete confidence in you.[i]

Generosity Encouraged

8 And now, brothers, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the Macedonian[j] churches. 2Out of the most severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity.[k] 3For I testify that they gave as much as they were able,[l] and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own, 4they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing[m] in this service[n] to the saints.[o] 5And they did not do as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then to us in keeping with God's will. 6So we urged[p] Titus,[q] since he had earlier made a beginning, to bring also to completion[r] this act of grace on your part. 7But just as you excel in everything[s]—in faith, in speech, in knowledge,[t] in complete earnestness and in your love for us[l]—see that you also excel in this grace of giving.

8I am not commanding you,[u] but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others. 9For you know the grace[v] of our Lord Jesus Christ,[w] that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor,[x] so that you through his poverty might become rich.[y]

10And here is my advice[z] about what is best for you in this matter: Last year you were the first not only to give but also to have the desire to do so.[a] 11Now finish the work, so that your eager willingness[b] to do it may be matched by your completion of it, according to your means. 12For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has,[c] not according to what he does not have.

13Our desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed, but that there might be equality. 14At the present time your plenty will supply what they need,[d] so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need.
Then there will be equality, 15as it is written: "He who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little."[m]

Titus Sent to Corinth

16I thank God,[f] who put into the heart[g] of Titus[h] the same concern I have for you. 17For Titus not only welcomed our appeal, but he is coming to you with much enthusiasm and on his own initiative.[i] 18And we are sending along with him the brother[j] who is praised by all the churches[k] for his service to the gospel.[l] 19What is more, he was chosen by the churches to accompany us[m] as we carry the offering, which we administer in order to honor the Lord himself and to show our eagerness to help.[n] 20We want to avoid any criticism of the way we administer this liberal gift. 21For we are taking pains to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of men.[o]

22In addition, we are sending with them our brother who has often proved to us in many ways that he is zealous, and now even more so because of his great confidence in you. 23As for Titus,[p] he is my partner[q] and fellow worker[r] among you; as for our brothers,[s] they are representatives of the churches and an honor to Christ.
24Therefore show these men the proof of your love and the reason for our pride in you,[t] so that the churches can see it.

9 There is no need[u] for me to write to you about this service[v] to the saints.[w] 2For I know your eagerness to help,[x] and I have been boasting[y] about it to the Macedonians, telling them that since last year[z] you in Achaia[a] were ready to give; and your enthusiasm has stirred most of them to action. 3But I am sending the brothers[a] in order that our boasting about you in this matter should not prove hollow, but that you may be ready, as I said you would be.[b] 4For if any Macedonians[c] come with me and find you unprepared, we—not to say anything about you—would be ashamed of having been so confident.

5So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers[d] to visit you in advance and finish the arrangements for the generous gift you had promised. Then it will be ready as a generous gift,[e] not as one grudgingly given.[f]

Sowing Generously

6Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.[g] 7Each man should give what he has decided in his heart to give,[h] not reluctantly or under compulsion,[i] for God loves a cheerful giver.[j] 8And God is able[k] to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need,[l] you will abound in every good work.
9As it is written:

> "He has scattered abroad his gifts[m] > to the poor;
> his righteousness endures > forever."[n][n]

10Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food[o] will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness.[p] 11You will be made rich[q] in every way so that you can be generous[r] on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.[s] 12This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs[t] of God's people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God.[u] 13Because of the service[v] by which you have proved yourselves, men will praise God[w] for the obedience that accompanies your confession[x] of the gospel of Christ,[y] and for your generosity[z] in sharing with them and with everyone else. 14And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you. 15Thanks be to God[a] for his indescribable gift![b]

Paul's Defense of His Ministry

10 By the meekness and gentleness[c] of Christ, I appeal to you—I, Paul,[d] who am "timid" when face to face with you, but "bold" when away! 2I beg you that when I come I may not have to be as bold[e] as I expect to be toward some people who think that we live by the standards of this world.[f] 3For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does.[g] 4The weapons we fight with[h] are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power[i] to demolish strongholds.[j] 5We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God,[k] and we take captive every thought to make it obedient[l] to Christ. 6And we will be ready to punish every act of disobedience, once your obedience is complete.[m] 7You are looking only on the surface of things.[o][n] If anyone is confident that he belongs to Christ,[o] he should consider again that we belong to Christ just as much as he.[p] 8For even if I boast somewhat freely about the authority the Lord gave us[q] for building you up rather than pulling you down,[r] I will not be ashamed of it. 9I do not want to seem to be trying to frighten you with my letters. 10For some say, "His letters are weighty and forceful, but in person he is unimpressive[s] and his speaking amounts to nothing."[t] 11Such people should realize that what we are in our letters when we are absent, we will be in our actions when we are present.
12We do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves.[u] When they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are not wise. 13We, however, will not boast beyond proper limits, but will confine our boasting to the field God has assigned to us,[v] a field that reaches even to you. 14We are not going too far in our boasting, as would be the case if we had not come to you, for we did get as far as you[w] with the gospel of Christ.[x] 15Neither do we go beyond our limits[y] by boasting of work done by others.[p][z] Our hope is that, as your faith continues to grow,[a] our area of activity among you will greatly expand, 16so that we can preach the gospel[b] in n9 Psalm 112:9 o7 Or Look at the obvious facts p13-15 Or 13We, however, will not boast about things that cannot be measured, but we will boast according to the standard of measurement that the God of measure has assigned us—a measurement that relates even to you. 14 . . . . 15Neither do we boast about things that cannot be measured in regard to the work done by others.

the regions beyond you.[a] For we do not want to boast about work already done in another man's territory. 17But,

Paul and the False Apostles

11 I hope you will put up with[e] a little of my foolishness;[f] but you are already doing that. 2I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. I promised you to one husband,[g] to Christ, so that I might present you[h] as a pure virgin to him. 3But I am afraid that just as Eve was deceived by the serpent's cunning,[i] your minds may somehow be led astray from your sincere and pure devotion to Christ. 4For if someone comes to you and preaches a Jesus other than the Jesus we preached,[j] or if you receive a different spirit[k] from the one you received, or a different gospel[l] from the one you accepted, you put up with it[m] easily enough. 5But I do not think I am in the least inferior to those "super-apostles."[n] 6I may not be a trained speaker,[o] but I do have knowledge.[p] We have made this perfectly clear to you in every way.
7Was it a sin[q] for me to lower myself in order to elevate you by preaching the gospel of God[r] to you free of charge?[s] 8I robbed other churches by receiving support from them[t] so as to serve you. 9And when I was with you and needed something, I was not a burden to anyone, for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied what I needed.[u] I have kept myself from being a burden to you[v] in any way, and will continue to do so. 10As surely as the truth of Christ is in me,[w] nobody in the regions of Achaia[x] will stop this boasting[y] of mine. 11Why? Because I do not love you? God knows[z] I do![a] 12And I will keep on doing what I am doing in order to cut the ground from under those who want an opportunity to be considered equal with us in the things they boast about.
13For such men are false apostles,[b] deceitful[c] workmen, masquerading as apostles of Christ.[d] 14And no wonder, for Satan[e] himself masquerades as an angel of light. 15It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve.[f]

Paul Boasts About His Sufferings

16I repeat: Let no one take me for a fool.[g] But if you do, then receive me just as you would a fool, so that I may do a little boasting. 17In this self-confident boasting I am not talking as the Lord would,[h] but as a fool.[i] 18Since many are boasting in the way the world does,[j] I too will boast.[k] 19You gladly put up with[l] fools since you are so wise![m] 20In fact, you even put up with[n] anyone who enslaves you[o] or exploits you or takes advantage of you or pushes himself forward or slaps you in the face. 21To my shame I admit that we were too weak[p] for that!
What anyone else dares to boast about—I am speaking as a fool—I also dare to boast about.[q] 22Are they Hebrews? So am I.[r] Are they Israelites?
So am I.[s] Are they Abraham's descendants? So am I.[t] 23Are they servants of Christ?[u] (I am out of my mind to talk like this.) I am more. I have worked much harder,[v] been in prison more frequently,[w] been flogged more severely,[x] and been exposed to death again and again.[y] 24Five times I received from the Jews the forty lashes[z] minus one. 25Three times I was beaten with rods,[a] once I was stoned,[b] three times I was shipwrecked,[c] I spent a night and a day in the open sea, 26I have been constantly on the move. I have been in danger from rivers, in danger from bandits, in danger from my own countrymen,[d] in danger from Gentiles; in danger in the city,[e] in danger in the country, in danger at sea; and in danger from false brothers.[f] 27I have labored and toiled[g] and have often gone without sleep; I have known hunger and thirst and have often gone without food;[h] I have been cold and naked. 28Besides everything else, I face daily the pressure of my concern for all the churches.[i] 29Who is weak, and I do not feel weak?[j] Who is led into sin,[k] and I do not inwardly burn?
30If I must boast, I will boast[l] of the things that show my weakness.[m] 31The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is to be praised forever,[n] knows[o] that I am not lying. 32In Damascus the governor under King Aretas had the city of the Damascenes guarded in order to arrest me.[p] 33But I was lowered in a bas-

Paul's Vision and His Thorn

12 I must go on boasting.[b] Although there is nothing to be gained, I will go on to visions and revelations[c] from the Lord. 2I know a man in Christ[d] who fourteen years ago was caught up[e] to the third heaven.[f] Whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know—God knows.[g] 3And I know that this man—whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, but God knows— 4was caught up[h] to paradise.[i] He heard inexpressible things, things that man is not permitted to tell. 5I will boast about a man like that, but I will not boast about myself, except about my weaknesses.[j] 6Even if I should choose to boast,[k] I would not be a fool,[l] because I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so no one will think more of me than is warranted by what I do or say.
7To keep me from becoming conceit-ed because of these surpassingly great revelations,[m] there was given me a thorn in my flesh,[n] a messenger of Satan,[o] to torment me. 8Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me.[p] 9But he said to me, "My grace[q] is sufficient for you, for my power[r] is made perfect in weakness.[s][t] Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me.
10That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight[u] in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships,[v] in persecutions,[w] in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.[x]

Paul's Concern for the Corinthians 11I have made a fool of myself,[y] but you drove me to it. I ought to have been commended by you, for I am not in the least inferior to the "super-apostles,"[z] even though I am nothing.[a] 12The things that mark an apostle—signs, wonders and miracles[b]—were done among you with great perseverance. 13How were you inferior to the other churches, except that I was never a burden to you?[c] Forgive me this wrong![d] 14Now I am ready to visit you for the third time,[e] and I will not be a burden to you, because what I want is not your possessions but you. After all, children should not have to save up for their parents,[f] but parents for their children.[g] 15So I will very gladly spend for you everything I have and expend myself as well.[h] If I love you more,[i] will you love me less? 16Be that as it may, I have not been a burden to you.[j] Yet, crafty fellow that I am, I caught you by trickery! 17Did I exploit you through any of the men I sent you? 18I urged[k] Titus[l] to go to you and I sent our brother[m] with him. Titus did not exploit you, did he? Did we not act in the same spirit and follow the same course?

19Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? We have been speaking in the sight of God[n] as those in Christ; and everything we do, dear friends,[o] is for your strengthening.[p] 20For I am afraid that when I come[q] I may not find you as I want you to be, and you may not find me as you want me to be.[r] I fear that there may be quarreling,[s] jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions,[t] slander,[u] gossip,[v] arrogance[w] and disorder.[x] 21I am afraid that when I come again my God will humble me before you, and I will be grieved[y] over many who have sinned earlier[z] and have not repented of the impurity, sexual sin and debauchery[a] in which they have indulged.

Final Warnings

13 This will be my third visit to you.[b] "Every matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses."[r][c] 2I already gave you a warning when I was with you the second time. I now repeat it while absent:[d] On my return I will not spare[e] those who sinned earlier[f] or any of the others, 3since you are demanding proof that Christ is speaking through me.[g] He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you. 4For to be sure, he was crucified in weakness,[h] yet he lives by God's power.[i] Likewise, we are weak[j] in him, yet by God's power we will live with him[k] to serve you.
5Examine yourselves[l] to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves.[m] Do you not realize that Christ Jesus is in you[n]—unless, of course, you fail the test? 6And I trust that you will discover that we have not failed the test. 7Now we pray to God that you will not do anything wrong. Not that people will

11Finally, brothers,[f] good-by. Aim for perfection, listen to my appeal, be of one mind, live in peace.[g] And the God of love[h] and peace[i] will be with
you.

12Greet one another with a holy

14May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ,[l] and the love of God,[m] and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit[n] be with you all.

Galatians

1 Paul, an apostle[a]—sent not from men nor by man,[b] but by Jesus Christ[c] and God the Father,[d] who raised him from the dead[e]— 2and all the brothers with me,[f]

To the churches in Galatia:[g]

3Grace and peace to you from God
our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,[h] 4who gave himself for our sins[i] to rescue us from the present evil age,[j] according to the will of our God and Father,[k] 5to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.[l]

No Other Gospel

6I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called[m] you by the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel[n]— 7which is really no gospel at all. Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion[o] and are trying to pervert[p] the gospel of Christ. 8But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you,[q] let him be eternally condemned![r] 9As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel other than what you accepted,[s] let him be eternally condemned!

10Am I now trying to win the approval of men, or of God? Or am I trying to please men?[t] If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Paul Called by God

11I want you to know, brothers,[u] that the gospel I preached[v] is not something that man made up. 12I did not receive it from any man,[w] nor was I taught it; rather, I received it by revelation[x] from Jesus Christ.[y] 13For you have heard of my previous way of life in Judaism,[z] how intensely I persecuted the church of God[a] and tried to destroy it.[b] 14I was advancing in Judaism beyond many Jews of my own age and was extremely zealous[c] for the traditions of my fathers.[d] 15But when God, who set me apart from birth[a][e] and called me[f] by his grace, was pleased 16to reveal his Son in me so that I might preach him among the Gentiles,[g] I did not consult any man,[h] 17nor did I go up to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before I was, but I went immediately into Arabia and later returned to Damascus.[i] 18Then after three years,[j] I went up to Jerusalem[k] to get acquainted with Peter[b] and stayed with him fifteen days. 19I saw none of the other apostles—only James,[l] the Lord's brother.

20I assure you before God[m] that what I am writing you is no lie.[n] 21Later I went to Syria[o] and Cilicia.[p] 22I was personally unknown to the churches of Judea[q] that are in Christ.[r] 23They only heard the report: "The man who formerly persecuted us is now preaching the faith[s] he once tried to destroy."[t] 24And they praised God[u] because of me.

Paul Accepted by the Apostles

2 Fourteen years later I went up again to Jerusalem,[v] this time with Barnabas.[w] I took Titus[x] along also. 2I went in response to a revelation[y] and set before them the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles.[z] But I did this privately to those who seemed to be leaders, for fear that I was running or had run my race[a] in vain. 3Yet not even Titus,[b] who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, even though he was a Greek.[c] 4This matter arose because some false brothers[d] had infiltrated our ranks to spy on[e] the freedom[f] we have in Christ Jesus and to make us slaves. 5We did not give in to them for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel[g] might remain with you.

6As for those who seemed to be important[h]—whatever they were makes no difference to me; God does not

[a]15 Or from my mother's womb [b]18 Greek Cephas judge by external appearance[a]—those men added nothing to my message.[b] 7On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the task[c] of preaching the gospel to the Gentiles,[c][d] just as Peter[e] had been to the Jews.[d] 8For God, who was at work in the ministry of Peter as an apostle[f] to the Jews, was also at work in my ministry as an apostle[g] to the Gentiles. 9James,[h] Peter[e][i] and John, those reputed to be pillars,[j] gave me and Barnabas[k] the right hand of fellowship when they recognized the grace given to me.[l] They agreed that we should go to the Gentiles,[m] and they to the Jews. 10All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor,[n] the very thing I was eager to do.

Paul Opposes Peter

11When Peter[o] came to Antioch,[p] I opposed him to his face, because he was clearly in the wrong. 12Before certain men came from James,[q] he used to eat with the Gentiles.[r] But when they arrived, he began to draw back and separate himself from the Gentiles because he was afraid of those who belonged to the circumcision group.[s] 13The other Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that by their hypocrisy even Barnabas[t] was led astray.

14When I saw that they were not acting in line with the truth of the gospel,[u] I said to Peter[v] in front of them all, "You are a Jew, yet you live like a Gentile and not like a Jew.[w] How is it, then, that you force Gentiles to follow Jewish customs?[x]

15"We who are Jews by birth[y] and not 'Gentile sinners'[z] 16know that a man is not justified by observing the law,[a] but by faith in Jesus Christ.[b] So we, too, have put our faith in Christ Jesus that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by observing the law, because by observing the law no one will be justified.[c]

17"If, while we seek to be justified in Christ, it becomes evident that we ourselves are sinners,[d] does that mean that Christ promotes sin? Absolutely not![e] 18If I rebuild what I destroyed, I prove that I am a lawbreaker. 19For through the law I died to the law[f] so that I might live for God.[g] 20I have been crucified with Christ[h] and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me.[i] The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God,[j] who loved me[k] and gave himself for me.[l] 21I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness could be gained through the law,[m] Christ died for nothing!"[f]

Faith or Observance of the Law

3 You foolish[n] Galatians![o] Who has bewitched you?[p] Before your very eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed as crucified.[q] 2I would like to learn just one thing from you: Did you receive the Spirit[r] by observing the law,[s] or by believing what you heard?[t] 3Are you so foolish? After beginning with the Spirit, are you now trying to attain your goal by human effort? 4Have you suffered so much for nothing—if it really was for nothing? 5Does God give you his Spirit and work miracles[u] among you because you observe the law, or because you believe what you heard?[v]

6Consider Abraham: "He believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."[g][w] 7Understand, then, that those who believe[x] are children of Abraham.[y] 8The Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, and announced the gospel in advance to Abraham: "All nations will be blessed through you."[h][z] 9So those who have faith[a] are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith.[b]

10All who rely on observing the law[c] are under a curse,[d] for it is written:
"Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law."[i][e] 11Clearly no one is justified before God by the law,[f] because, "The righteous will live by faith."[j][g] 12The law is not based on faith; on the contrary, "The man who does these things will live by them."[k][h] 13Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law[i] by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: "Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree."[l][j] 14He redeemed us in order that the blessing given to Abraham might come to the Gentiles through Christ Jesus,[k] so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.[l]

that has been duly established, so it is in this case. 16The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed.[a] The Scripture does not say "and to seeds," meaning many people, but "and to your seed,"[m][b] meaning one person, who is Christ. 17What I mean is this: The law, introduced 430 years[c] later, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God and thus do away with the promise. 18For if the inheritance depends on the law, then it no longer depends on a promise;[d] but God in his grace gave it to Abraham through a promise.

19What, then, was the purpose of the law? It was added because of transgressions[e] until the Seed[f] to whom the promise referred had come. The law was put into effect through angels[g] by a mediator.[h] 20A mediator,[i] however, does not represent just one party; but God is one.

21Is the law, therefore, opposed to the promises of God? Absolutely not![j] For if a law had been given that could impart life, then righteousness would certainly have come by the law.[k] 22But the Scripture declares that the whole world is a prisoner of sin,[l] so that what was promised, being given through faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who believe.

23Before this faith came, we were held prisoners[m] by the law, locked up until faith should be revealed.[n] 24So the law was put in charge to lead us to Christ[n][o] that we might be justified by faith.[p] 25Now that faith has come, we are no longer under the supervision of the law.[q]

Sons of God

26You are all sons of God[r] through faith in Christ Jesus, 27for all of you who were baptized into Christ[s] have clothed yourselves with Christ.[t] 28There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free,[u] male nor female,[v] for you are all one in Christ Jesus.[w] 29If you belong to Christ,[x] then you are Abraham's seed,[y] and heirs[z] according to the promise.[a]

4 What I am saying is that as long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, although he owns the whole estate. 2He is subject to guardians and trustees until the time set by his father. 3So also, when we were children, we were in slavery[b] under the basic principles of the world.[c] 4But when the time had fully come,[d] God sent his Son,[e] born of a woman,[f] born under law,[g] 5to redeem[h] those under law, that we might receive the full rights[i] of sons.[j] 6Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son[k] into our hearts,[l] the Spirit who calls out, "Abba,[o] Father."[m] 7So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and since you are a son, God has made you also an heir.[n]

Paul's Concern for the Galatians

8Formerly, when you did not know God,[o] you were slaves[p] to those who by nature are not gods.[q] 9But now that you know God—or rather are known by God[r]—how is it that you are turning back to those weak and miserable principles? Do you wish to be enslaved[s] by them all over again?[t] 10You are observing special days and months and seasons and years![u] 11I fear for you, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you.[v]

12I plead with you, brothers,[w] become like me, for I became like you. You have done me no wrong. 13As you know, it was because of an illness[x] that I first preached the gospel to you. 14Even though my illness was a trial to you, you did not treat me with contempt or scorn. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were an angel of God, as if I were Christ Jesus himself.[y] 15What has happened to all your joy? I can testify that, if you could have done so, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me. 16Have I now become your enemy by telling you the truth?[z]

17Those people are zealous to win you over, but for no good. What they want is to alienate you ⌞from us⌟, so that you may be zealous for them.[a] 18It is fine to be zealous, provided the purpose is good, and to be so always and not just when I am with you.[b] 19My dear children,[c] for whom I am again in the pains of childbirth until Christ is formed in you,[d] 20how I wish I could be with you now and change my tone, because I am perplexed about you!

Hagar and Sarah

21Tell me, you who want to be under the law,[e] are you not aware of what the law says? 22For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman[f] and the other by the free woman.[g] 23His son by the slave

[m]16 Gen. 12:7; 13:15; 24:7 [n]24 Or charge until Christ came [o]6 Aramaic for Father woman was born in the ordinary way; but his son by the free woman was born as the result of a promise.

24These things may be taken figuratively, for the women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves: This is Hagar. 25Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. 26But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother. 27For it is written:

"Be glad, O barren woman, who bears no children;
break forth and cry aloud, you who have no labor pains; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband."[p]

28Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. 29At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. 30But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son."[q] 31Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Freedom in Christ

5 It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.
2Mark my words! I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no value to you at all. 3Again I declare to every man who lets himself be circumcised that he is obligated to obey the whole law.
4You who are trying to be justified by law have been alienated from Christ; you have fallen away from grace. 5But by faith we eagerly await through the Spirit the righteousness for which we hope. 6For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value. The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love.
7You were running a good race.
Who cut in on you and kept you from obeying the truth? 8That kind of persuasion does not come from the one who calls you. 9"A little yeast works through the whole batch of dough."

10I am confident in the Lord that you will take no other view. The one who is throwing you into confusion will pay the penalty, whoever he may be.
11Brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been abolished. 12As for those agitators, I wish they would go the whole way and emasculate themselves!
13You, my brothers, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the sinful nature[r]; rather, serve one another in love. 14The entire law is summed up in a single command: "Love your neighbor as yourself."[s] 15If you keep on biting and devouring each other, watch out or you will be destroyed by each other.

Life by the Spirit

16So I say, live by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature. 17For the sinful nature desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the sinful nature. They are in conflict with each other, so that you do not do what you want. 18But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under law.
19The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; 20idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions 21and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God.
22But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. 24Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires.
25Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. 26Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other.

Doing Good to All

6 Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted. 2Car-ry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.
3If anyone thinks he is something

[p]27 Isaiah 54:1 [q]30 Gen. 21:10 [r]13 Or the flesh; also in verses 16, 17, 19 and 24 [s]14 Lev. 19:18 when he is nothing, he deceives himself.[a] 4Each one should test his own actions. Then he can take pride in himself,[b] without comparing himself to somebody else,[c] 5for each one should carry his own load.[d]

6Anyone who receives instruction in the word must share all good things with his instructor.[e]

7Do not be deceived:[f] God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.[g] 8The one who sows to please his sinful nature,[h] from that nature[t] will reap destruction;[i] the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.[j] 9Let us not become weary in doing good,[k] for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.[l] 10Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good[m] to all people, especially to those who belong to the family[n] of believers.

Not Circumcision but a New Creation

11See what large letters I use as I write to you with my own hand![o]

12Those who want to make a good impression outwardly[p] are trying to compel you to be circumcised.[q] The only reason they do this is to avoid being persecuted[r] for the cross of Christ.
13Not even those who are circumcised obey the law,[s] yet they want you to be circumcised that they may boast about your flesh.[t] 14May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ,[u] through which[u] the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.[v] 15Neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything;[w] what counts is a new creation.[x] 16Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, even to the Israel of God.

17Finally, let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks[y] of Jesus.

18The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ[z] be with your spirit,[a] brothers. Amen.

Spiritual Blessings in Christ

[3]Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,[g] who has blessed us in the heavenly realms[h] with every spiritual blessing in Christ.
[4]For he chose us[i] in him before the creation of the world[j] to be holy and predestined[m] us to be adopted as his sons[n] through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure[o] and will— [6]to the praise of his glorious grace,[p] which he has freely given us in the One he loves.[q] [7]In him we have redemption[r] through his blood,[s] the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches[t] of God's grace [8]that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding.

[9]And he[d] made known to us the mystery[u] of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed[v] in Christ, [10]to be put into effect when the times will have reached their fulfillment[w]—to bring all things in heaven and on earth together under one head, even Christ.[x]

[11]In him we were also chosen,[e] having been predestined[y] according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose[z] of his will, [12]in order that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, might be for the praise of his glory.[a] [13]And you also were included in Christ[b] when you heard the word of truth,[c] the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal,[d] the promised Holy Spirit,[e] [14]who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance[f] until the redemption[g] of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory.[h]

Thanksgiving and Prayer

[15]For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus[i] and your love for all the saints,[j] [16]I have not stopped giving thanks for you,[k] remembering you in my prayers.[l] [17]I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father,[m] may give you the Spirit[f] of wisdom[n] and revelation, so that you may know him better. [18]I pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened[o] in order that you may know the hope to which he has called[p] you, the riches[q] of his glorious inheritance[r] in the saints,[s] [19]and his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power[t] is like the working of his mighty strength,[u] [20]which he exerted in Christ when he raised him from the dead[v] and seated him at his right hand[w] in the heavenly realms,[x] [21]far above all rule and authority, power and dominion,[y] and every title[z] that can be given, not only in the present age but also in the one to come.[a] [22]And God placed all things under his feet[b] and appointed him to be head[c] over everything for the church, [23]which is his body,[d] the fullness of him[e] who fills everything in every way.[f]

Made Alive in Christ

2 As for you, you were dead in your transgressions and sins,[g] [2]in which you used to live[h] when you followed the ways of this world[i] and of the ruler of the kingdom of the air,[j] the spirit who is now at work in those who are disobedient.[k] [3]All of us also lived among them at one time,[l] gratifying the cravings of our sinful nature[g][m] and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature objects of wrath. 4But because of his great love for us,[a] God, who is rich in mercy, 5made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions[b]—it is by grace you have been saved.[c] 6And God raised us up with Christ[d] and seated us with him[e] in the heavenly realms[f] in Christ Jesus, 7in order that in the coming ages he might show the incomparable riches of his grace,[g] expressed in his kindness[h] to us in Christ Jesus. 8For it is by grace[i] you have been saved,[j] through faith[k] —and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— 9not by works,[l] so that no one can boast.[m] 10For we are God's workmanship,[n] created[o] in Christ Jesus to do good works,[p] which God prepared in advance for us to do.

One in Christ

11Therefore, remember that formerly[q] you who are Gentiles by birth and called "uncircumcised" by those who call themselves "the circumcision" (that done in the body by the hands of men)[r]— 12remember that at that time you were separate from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and foreigners[s] to the covenants of the promise,[t] without hope[u] and without God in the world. 13But now in Christ Jesus you who once[v] were far away have been brought near[w] through the blood of Christ.[x]

14For he himself is our peace,[y] who has made the two one[z] and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, 15by abolishing in his flesh[a] the law with its commandments and regulations.[b] His purpose was to create in himself one[c] new man out of the two, thus making peace, 16and in this one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross,[d] by which he put to death their hostility. 17He came and preached peace[e] to you who were far away and peace to those who were near.[f] 18For through him we both have access[g] to the Father[h] by one Spirit.[i] 19Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens,[j] but fellow citizens[k] with God's people and members of God's household,[l] 20built[m] on the foundation[n] of the apostles and prophets,[o] with Christ Jesus himself[p] as the chief cornerstone.[q] 21In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple[r] in the Lord.

22And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit.[s]

Paul the Preacher to the Gentiles

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner[t] of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—

2Surely you have heard about the administration of God's grace that was given to me[u] for you, 3that is, the mystery[v] made known to me by revelation,[w] as I have already written briefly.
4In reading this, then, you will be able to understand my insight[x] into the mystery of Christ, 5which was not made known to men in other generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to God's holy apostles and prophets.[y] 6This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs[z] together with Israel, members together of one body,[a] and sharers together in the promise in Christ Jesus.[b] 7I became a servant of this gospel[c] by the gift of God's grace given me[d] through the working of his power.[e] 8Although I am less than the least of all God's people,[f] this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles[g] the un-searchable riches of Christ,[h] 9and to make plain to everyone the administration of this mystery,[i] which for ages past was kept hidden in God, who created all things. 10His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God[j] should be made known[k] to the rulers and authorities[l] in the heavenly realms,[m] 11according to his eternal purpose[n] which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. 12In him and through faith in him we may approach God[o] with freedom and confidence.[p] 13I ask you, therefore, not to be discouraged because of my sufferings for you, which are your glory.

A Prayer for the Ephesians 14For this reason I kneel[q] before the Father, 15from whom his whole family[h] in heaven and on earth derives its name. 16I pray that out of his glorious riches[r] he may strengthen you with power[s] through his Spirit in your inner being,[t] 17so that Christ may dwell in your hearts[u] through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted[v] and established in love, 18may have power, together with all the saints,[w] to grasp measurably more than all we ask[f] or

Unity in the Body of Christ

4 As a prisoner[i] for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy[j] of the calling[k] you have received. 2Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another[l] in love.[m] 3Make every effort to keep the unity[n] of the Spirit through the bond of peace.[o] 4There is one body[p] and one Spirit[q]— just as you were called to one hope when you were called[r]— 5one Lord,[s] one faith, one baptism; 6one God and Father of all,[t] who is over all and through all and in all.[u] 7But to each one of us[v] grace[w] has been given[x] as Christ apportioned it.
8This is why it[i] says:

"When he ascended on high, he led captives[y] in his train and gave gifts to men."[j] [z]

9(What does "he ascended" mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions[k]? 10He who descended is the very one who ascended[a] higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.)[b] 11It was he who gave[c] some to be apostles,[d] some to be prophets,[e] some to be evangelists,[f] and some to be pastors and teachers,[g] 12to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ[h] may be built up[i] 13until we all reach unity[j] in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God[k] and become mature,[l] attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.[m] 14Then we will no longer be infants,[n] tossed back and forth by the waves,[o] and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming.[p] 15Instead, speaking the truth in love,[q] we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head,[r] that is, Christ. 16From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows[s] and builds itself up[t] in love,[u] as each part does its work.

Living as Children of Light

17So I tell you this, and insist on it in the Lord, that you must no longer[v] live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking.[w] 18They are darkened in their understanding[x] and separated from the life of God[y] because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts.[z] 19Having lost all sensitivity,[a] they have given themselves over[b] to sensuality[c] so as to indulge in every kind of impurity, with a continual lust for more.
20You, however, did not come to know Christ that way. 21Surely you heard of him and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus. 22You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off[d] your old self,[e] which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires;[f] 23to be made new in the attitude of your minds;[g] 24and to put on[h] the new self,[i] created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.[j] 25Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully[k] to his neighbor, for we are all members of one body.[l] 26"In your anger do not sin"[l] [m] Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, 27and do not give the devil a foothold.[n] 28He who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work,[o] doing something useful with his own hands,[p] that he may have something to share with those in need.[q] 29Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths,[r] but only what is helpful for building others up[s] according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. 30And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God,[t] with whom you were sealed[u] for the day of redemption.[v] 31Get rid of[w] all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice.[x] 32Be kind and compassionate to one another,[y] forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.[z]

5 Be imitators of God,[a] therefore, as dearly loved children[b] 2and live a life of love, just as Christ loved us[c] and 3But among you there must not be even a hint of sexual immorality,[c] or of any kind of impurity, or of greed,[d] because these are improper for God's holy people. 4Nor should there be obscenity, foolish talk[e] or coarse joking, which are out of place, but rather thanksgiving.[f] 5For of this you can be sure: No immoral, impure or greedy person—such a man is an idola-ter[g]—has any inheritance[h] in the kingdom of Christ and of God.[m][i] 6Let no one deceive you[j] with empty words, for because of such things God's wrath[k] comes on those who are disobedient.[l] 7Therefore do not be partners with them.

8For you were once[m] darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light[n] 9(for the fruit[o] of the light consists in all goodness,[p] righteousness and truth) 10and find out what pleases the Lord.[q] 11Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness,[r] but rather expose them.
12For it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. 13But everything exposed by the light[s] becomes visible, 14for it is light that makes everything visible. This is why it is said:

"Wake up, O sleeper,[t] rise from the dead,[u] and Christ will shine on you."[v] 15Be very careful, then, how you live[w]—not as unwise but as wise, 16making the most of every opportunity,[x] because the days are evil.[y] 17Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is.[z] 18Do not get drunk on wine,[a] which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit.[b] 19Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs.[c] Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord, 20always giving thanks[d] to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

21Submit to one another[e] out of reverence for Christ.

Wives and Husbands

5:22-6:9pp — Col 3:18-4:1

22Wives, submit to your husbands[f] as to the Lord.[g] 23For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church,[h] his body, of which he is the Savior. 24Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands[i] in everything.
25Husbands, love your wives,[j] just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her[k] 26to make her holy,[l] cleansing[n] her by the washing[m] with water through the word, 27and to present her to himself[n] as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless.[o] 28In this same way, husbands ought to love their wives[p] as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. 29After all, no one ever hated his own body, but he feeds and cares for it, just as Christ does the church—30for we are members of his body.[q] 31"For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh."[o][r] 32This is a profound mystery—but I am talking about Christ and the church. 33However, each one of you also must love his wife[s] as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

Children and Parents

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.[t] 2"Honor your father and mother"—which is the first commandment with a promise—3"that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy long life on the earth."[p][u] 4Fathers, do not exasperate your children;[v] instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.[w]

Slaves and Masters

5Slaves, obey your earthly masters with respect[x] and fear, and with sincerity of heart,[y] just as you would obey Christ.[z] 6Obey them not only to win their favor when their eye is on you, but like slaves of Christ,[a] doing the will of God from your heart. 7Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not men,[b] 8because you know that the Lord will reward everyone for whatever good he does,[c] whether he is slave or free.
9And masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Do not threaten them, since you know that he who is both their Master and yours[d] is in heaven, and there is no favoritism[e] with him.

The Armor of God

10Finally, be strong in the Lord[a] and in his mighty power.[b] 11Put on the full armor of God[c] so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes.
12For our struggle is not against flesh and blood,[d] but against the rulers, against the authorities,[e] against the powers[f] of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.[g] 13Therefore put on the full armor of God,[h] so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. 14Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist,[i] with the breast-plate of righteousness in place,[j] 15and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace.[k] 16In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith,[l] with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.[m] 17Take the helmet of salvation[n] and the sword of the Spirit,[o] which is the word of God.[p] 18And pray in the Spirit[q] on all occasions[r] with all kinds of prayers and requests.[s] With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying[t] for all the saints.

19Pray also for me,[u] that whenever I open my mouth, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly[v] make known the mystery[w] of the gospel, 20for which I am an ambassador[x] in chains.[y] Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should.

21Tychicus,[z] the dear brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will tell you everything, so that you also may know how I am and what I am doing.
22I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are,[a] and that he may encourage you.[b]

23Peace[c] to the brothers, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 24Grace to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love.

Philippians

1 Paul and Timothy,[a] servants of Christ Jesus,

To all the saints[b] in Christ Jesus at Philippi,[c] together with the overseers[a][d] and deacons:[e]

2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.[f]

Thanksgiving and Prayer

3 I thank my God every time I remember you.[g] 4 In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray[h] with joy 5 because of your partnership[i] in the gospel from the first day[j] until now, 6 being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion[k] until the day of Christ Jesus.[l]

7 It is right[m] for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart;[n] for whether I am in chains[o] or defending[p] and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me.
8 God can testify[q] how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

9 And this is my prayer: that your love[r] may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight,[s] 10 so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ,[t] 11 filled with the fruit of righteousness[u] that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

Paul's Chains Advance the Gospel

12 Now I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel.
13 As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard[b] and to everyone else that I am in chains[v] for Christ. 14 Because of my chains,[w] most of the brothers in the Lord have been encouraged to speak the word of God more courageously and fearlessly.[x]

15 It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill. 16 The latter do so in love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel.[y] 17 The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition,[z] not sincerely, supposing that they can stir up trouble for me while I am in chains.[c][a] 18 But what does it matter?
The important thing is that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is preached. And because of this I rejoice.

Yes, and I will continue to rejoice, 19 for I know that through your prayers[b] and the help given by the Spirit of Jesus Christ,[c] what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance.[d][d] 20 I eagerly expect[e] and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage[f] so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body,[g] whether by life or by death.[h] 21 For to me, to live is Christ[i] and to die is gain. 22 If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know! 23 I am torn between the two: I desire to depart[j] and be with Christ,[k] which is better by far; 24 but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body. 25 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain, and I will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, 26 so that through my being with you again your joy in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me.

27 Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy[l] of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm[m] in one spirit, contending[n] as one man for the faith of the gospel 28 without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved—and that by God. 29 For it has been granted to you[o]

Imitating Christ's Humility

2 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit,[e] if any tenderness and compassion,[f] 2then make my joy complete[g] by being like-minded,[h] having the same love, being one[i] in spirit and purpose. 3Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit,[j] but in humility consider others better than yourselves.[k] 4Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.[l] 5Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus:[m] 6Who, being in very nature[e] God,[n] did not consider equality with God[o] something to be grasped, 7but made himself nothing,[p] taking the very nature[f] of a servant,[q]

being made in human likeness.[r] 8And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death[s]— even death on a cross![t] 9Therefore God exalted him[u] to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name,[v] 10that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,[w] in heaven and on earth and under the earth,[x] 11and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,[y] to the glory of God the Father.

Shining as Stars

12Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling,[z] 13for it is God who works in you[a] to will and to act according to his good purpose.[b] 14Do everything without complaining[c] or arguing, 15so that you may become blameless[d] and pure, children of God[e] without fault in a crooked and depraved generation,[f] in which you shine like stars in the universe 16as you hold out[g] the word of life—in order that I may boast on the day of Christ[g] that I did not run[h] or labor for nothing.[i] 17But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering[j] on the sacrifice[k] and service coming from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you.[l] 18So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

19I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy[m] to you soon,[n] that I also may be cheered when I receive news about you. 20I have no one else like him,[o] who takes a genuine interest in your welfare. 21For everyone looks out for his own interests,[p] not those of Jesus Christ. 22But you know that Timothy has proved himself, because as a son with his father[q] he has served with me in the work of the gospel. 23I hope, therefore, to send him as soon as I see how things go with me.[r] 24And I am confident[s] in the Lord that I myself will come soon.
25But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker[t] and fellow soldier,[u] who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs.[v] 26For he longs for all of you[w] and is distressed because you heard he was ill.
27Indeed he was ill, and almost died.
But God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow. 28Therefore I am all the more eager to send him,[x] so that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety.
29Welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honor men like him,[y] 30because he almost died for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up for the help you could not give me.[z]

No Confidence in the Flesh

3 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again,[a] and it is a safeguard for you.
2Watch out for those dogs,[b] those men who do evil, those mutilators of the flesh. 3For it is we who are the circumcision,[c] we who worship by the Spirit of God, who glory in Christ Jesus,[d] and who put no confidence in the flesh— 4though I myself have reasons for such confidence.[a] If anyone else thinks he has reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more: 5circumcised[b] on the eighth day, of the people of Israel,[c] of the tribe of Benjamin,[d] a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee;[e] 6as for zeal,[f] persecuting the church;[g] as for legalistic righteousness,[h] faultless.

7But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss[i] for the sake of Christ.
8What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing[j] Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ[k] 9and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law;[l] but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness[m] that comes from God and is by faith.[n] 10I want to know[o] Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in his sufferings,[p] becoming like him in his death,[q] 11and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection[r] from the dead.

Pressing on Toward the Goal

12Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect,[s] but I press on to take hold[t] of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me.[u] 13Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind[v] and straining toward what is ahead, 14I press on[w] toward the goal to win the prize[x] for which God has called[y] me heavenward in Christ Jesus.
15All of us who are mature[z] should take such a view of things.[a] And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you.[b] 16Only let us live up to what we have already attained.
17Join with others in following my example,[c] brothers, and take note of those who live according to the pattern we gave you.[d] 18For, as I have often told you before and now say again even with tears,[e] many live as enemies of the cross of Christ.[f] 19Their destiny[g] is destruction, their god is their stomach,[h] and their glory is in their shame.[i] Their mind is on earthly things.[j] 20But our citizenship[k] is in heaven.[l] And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ,[m] 21who, by the power[n] that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies[o] so that they will be like his glorious body.[p] 4 Therefore, my brothers, you whom I love and long for,[q] my joy and crown, that is how you should stand firm[r] in the Lord, dear friends!

Exhortations

2I plead with Euodia and I plead with Syntyche to agree with each other[s] in the Lord. 3Yes, and I ask you, loyal yokefellow,[h] help these women who have contended at my side in the cause of the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers,[t] whose names are in the book of life.[u] 4Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice![v] 5Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near.[w] 6Do not be anxious about anything,[x] but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.[y] 7And the peace of God,[z] which transcends all understanding,[a] will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
8Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. 9Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice.[b] And the God of peace[c] will be with
you.

Thanks for Their Gifts

10I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me.[d] Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. 11I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content[e] whatever the circumstances.
12I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry,[f] whether living in plenty or in want.[g] 13I can do everything through him who gives me strength.[h] 14Yet it was good of you to share[i] in my troubles. 15Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days[j] of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia,[k] not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only;[a] 16for even when I was in Thessalonica,[b] you sent me aid again and again when I was in need.[c] 17Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account.[d] 18I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaph-roditus[e] the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant[f] offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. 19And my God will meet all your needs[g] according to his glorious riches[h] in Christ Jesus.

21Greet all the saints in Christ Jesus.
The brothers who are with me[k] send greetings. 22All the saints[l] send you greetings, especially those who belong to Caesar's household.

Colossians

1 Paul, an apostle[a] of Christ Jesus by
the will of God,[b] and Timothy[c] our
brother,

2To the holy and faithful[a] brothers in Christ at Colosse:

Grace[d] and peace to you from God our Father.[b] [e]

Thanksgiving and Prayer

3We always thank God,[f] the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, 4because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love[g] you have for all the saints[h]— 5the faith and love that spring from the hope[i] that is stored up for you in heaven[j] and that you have already heard about in the word of truth,[k] the gospel 6that has come to you. All over the world[l] this gospel is bearing fruit[m] and growing, just as it has been doing among you since the day you heard it and understood God's grace in all its truth. 7You learned it from Epaphras,[n] our dear fellow servant, who is a faithful minister[o] of Christ on our[c] behalf, 8and who also told us of your love in the Spirit.[p]

9For this reason, since the day we heard about you,[q] we have not stopped praying for you[r] and asking God to fill you with the knowledge of his will[s] through all spiritual wisdom and understanding.[t] 10And we pray this in order that you may live a life worthy[u] of the Lord and may please him[v] in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God,[w] 11being strengthened with all power[x] according to his glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience,[y] and joyfully 12giving thanks to the Father,[z] who has qualified you[d] to share in the inheritance[a] of the saints in the kingdom of light.[b] 13For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness[c] and brought us into the kingdom[d] of the Son he loves,[e] 14in whom we have redemption,[e] [f] the forgiveness of sins.[g]

The Supremacy of Christ

15He is the image[h] of the invisible God,[i] the firstborn[j] over all creation.
16For by him all things were created:[k] things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities;[l] all things were created by him and for him.[m] 17He is before all things,[n] and in him all things hold together. 18And he is the head[o] of the body, the church;[p] he is the beginning and the firstborn[q] from among the dead,[r] so that in everything he might have the supremacy. 19For God was pleased[s] to have all his fullness[t] dwell in him, 20and through him to reconcile[u] to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven,[v] by making peace[w] through his blood,[x] shed on the cross.

21Once you were alienated from God and were enemies[y] in your minds[z] because of[f] your evil behavior. 22But now he has reconciled[a] you by Christ's physical body[b] through death to present you[c] holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation[d]— 23if you continue[e] in your faith, established[f] and firm, not moved from the hope[g] held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven,[h] and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.[i]

Paul's Labor for the Church

24Now I rejoice[j] in what was suffered for you, and I fill up in my flesh what is still lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions,[k] for the sake of his body, which is the church.[l] 25I have become its servant[m] by the commission God gave me[n] to present to you the word of God—in its fullness— 26the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the saints. 27To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

28We proclaim him, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone perfect in Christ. 29To this end I labor, struggling with all his energy, which so powerfully works in me.

2 I want you to know how much I am struggling for you and for those at Laodicea, and for all who have not met me personally. 2My purpose is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, 3in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. 4I tell you this so that no one may deceive you by fine-sounding arguments. 5For though I am absent from you in body, I am present with you in spirit and delight to see how orderly you are and how firm your faith in Christ is.

Freedom From Human Regulations Through Life With Christ

6So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him, 7rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.
8See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the basic principles of this world rather than on Christ.
9For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form, 10and you have been given fullness in Christ, who is the head over every power and authority. 11In him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of the sinful nature,[g] not with a circumcision done by the hands of men but with the circumcision done by Christ, 12having been buried with him in baptism and raised with him through your faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.
13When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature,[h] God made you[i] alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, 14having canceled the written code, with its regulations, that was against us and that stood opposed to us; he took it away, nailing it to the cross. 15And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them[j] by the cross.
16Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. 17These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ. 18Do not let anyone who delights in false humility and the worship of angels disqualify you for the prize. Such a person goes into great detail about what he has seen, and his unspiritual mind puffs him up with idle notions. 19He has lost connection with the Head, from whom the whole body, supported and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows as God causes it to grow.
20Since you died with Christ to the basic principles of this world, why, as though you still belonged to it, do you submit to its rules: 21"Do not handle!
Do not taste! Do not touch!"? 22These are all destined to perish with use, because they are based on human commands and teachings. 23Such regulations indeed have an appearance of wisdom, with their self-imposed worship, their false humility and their harsh treatment of the body, but they lack any value in restraining sensual indulgence.

Rules for Holy Living

3 Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. 2Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. 3For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God.
4When Christ, who is your[k] life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.
5Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry.
6Because of these, the wrath of God[l] is coming. 7You used to walk in these ways, in the life you once lived.[a] 8But now you must rid yourselves[b] of all such things as these: anger, rage, malice, slander,[c] and filthy language from your lips.[d] 9Do not lie to each other,[e] since you have taken off your old self[f] with its practices 10and have put on the new self,[g] which is being renewed[h] in knowledge in the image of its Creator.[i] 11Here there is no Greek or Jew,[j] circumcised or uncircumcised,[k] barbarian, Scythian, slave or free,[l] but Christ is all,[m] and is in all.

12Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves[n] with compassion, kindness, humility,[o] gentleness and patience.[p] 13Bear with each other[q] and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.[r] 14And over all these virtues put on love,[s] which binds them all together in perfect unity.[t] 15Let the peace of Christ[u] rule in your hearts, since as members of one body[v] you were called to peace.[w] And be thankful. 16Let the word of Christ[x] dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom,[y] and as you sing psalms,[z] hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.[a] 17And whatever you do,[b] whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks[c] to God the Father through him.

Rules for Christian Households

3:18-4:1pp — Eph 5:22-6:9

18Wives, submit to your husbands,[d] as is fitting in the Lord.

19Husbands, love your wives and do not be harsh with them.

20Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.

21Fathers, do not embitter your children, or they will become discouraged.

in everything; and do it, not only when their eye is on you and to win their favor, but with sincerity of heart and reverence for the Lord. 23Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men, 24since you know that you will receive an inheritance[e] from the Lord as a reward.[f] It is the Lord Christ you are serving. 25Anyone who does wrong will be repaid for his wrong, and there is no favoritism.[g]

Further Instructions

2Devote yourselves to prayer,[i] being watchful and thankful. 3And pray for us, too, that God may open a door[j] for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery[k] of Christ, for which I am in chains.[l] 4Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should. 5Be wise[m] in the way you act toward outsiders;[n] make the most of every opportunity.[o] 6Let your conversation be always full of grace,[p] seasoned with salt,[q] so that you may know how to answer everyone.[r]

Final Greetings

7Tychicus[s] will tell you all the news about me. He is a dear brother, a faithful minister and fellow servant[t] in the Lord. 8I am sending him to you for the express purpose that you may know about our[m] circumstances and that he may encourage your hearts.[u] 9He is coming with Onesimus,[v] our faithful and dear brother, who is one of you.[w] They will tell you everything that is happening here.

10My fellow prisoner Aristarchus[x] sends you his greetings, as does Mark,[y] the cousin of Barnabas.[z] (You have received instructions about him; if he comes to you, welcome him.) 11Jesus, who is called Justus, also sends greetings. These are the only Jews among my fellow workers[a] for the kingdom of God, and they have proved a comfort to me. 12Epaphras,[b] who is one of you[c] and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends greetings. He is always wrestling in prayer for you,[d] that you may stand firm in all the will of God, mature[e] and fully assured. 13I vouch for him that he is working hard for you and for those at Laodicea[f] and Hierapolis. 14Our dear friend Luke,[g] the doctor, and Demas[h] send greetings. 15Give my greetings to the brothers at Laodicea,[i] and to Nympha and the church in her house.[j] 16After this letter has been read to you, see that it is also read[k] in the church of the Laodiceans and that you in turn read the letter from Laodicea.

1 Thessalonians

1 Paul, Silas[a][a] and Timothy,[b]
To the church of the Thessalonians[c] in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace and peace to you.[b][d]

Thanksgiving for the Thessalonians' Faith

2We always thank God for all of you,[e] mentioning you in our prayers.[f] 3We continually remember before our God and Father[g] your work produced by faith,[h] your labor prompted by love,[i] and your endurance inspired by hope[j] in our Lord Jesus Christ.
4For we know, brothers loved by God,[k] that he has chosen you, 5be-cause our gospel[l] came to you not simply with words, but also with power,[m] with the Holy Spirit and with deep conviction. You know[n] how we lived among you for your sake. 6You became imitators of us[o] and of the Lord; in spite of severe suffering,[p] you welcomed the message with the joy[q] given by the Holy Spirit.[r] 7And so you became a model[s] to all the believers in Macedonia[t] and Achaia.[u] 8The Lord's message[v] rang out from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia—your faith in God has become known everywhere.[w] Therefore we do not need to say anything about it, 9for they themselves report what kind of reception you gave us. They tell how you turned[x] to God from idols[y] to serve the living and true God,[z] 10and to wait for his Son from heaven,[a] whom he raised from the dead[b]—Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.[c]

Paul's Ministry in Thessalonica

2 You know, brothers, that our visit to you[d] was not a failure.[e] 2We had previously suffered[f] and been insulted in Philippi,[g] as you know, but with the help of our God we dared to tell you his gospel in spite of strong opposition.[h] 3For the appeal we make does not spring from error or impure motives,[i] nor are we trying to trick you.[j] 4On the contrary, we speak as men approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel.[k] We are not trying to please men[l] but God, who tests our hearts.[m] 5You know we never used flattery, nor did we put on a mask to cover up greed[n]—God is our witness.[o] 6We were not looking for praise from men,[p] not from you or anyone else.
As apostles[q] of Christ we could have been a burden to you,[r] 7but we were gentle among you, like a mother caring for her little children.[s] 8We loved you so much that we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God[t] but our lives as well,[u] because you had become so dear to us. 9Surely you remember, brothers, our toil and hardship; we worked[v] night and day in order not to be a burden to anyone[w] while we preached the gospel of God to you.
10You are witnesses,[x] and so is God,[y] of how holy,[z] righteous and blameless we were among you who believed. 11For you know that we dealt with each of you as a father deals with his own children,[a] 12encouraging, comforting and urging you to live lives worthy[b] of God, who calls[c] you into his kingdom and glory.
13And we also thank God continually[d] because, when you received the word of God,[e] which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men, but as it actually is, the word of God, which is at work in you who believe. 14For you, brothers, became imitators[f] of God's churches in Judea,[g] which are in Christ Jesus: You suffered from your own countrymen[h] the same things those churches suffered from the Jews, 15who killed the Lord Jesus[i] and the prophets[j] and also drove us out. They displease God and are hostile to all men 16in their effort to keep us from speaking to the Gentiles[a] so that they may be saved. In this way they always heap up their sins to the limit.[b] The wrath of God has come upon them at last.[c]

Paul's Longing to See the Thessalonians

17But, brothers, when we were torn away from you for a short time (in person, not in thought),[c] out of our intense longing we made every effort to see you.[d] 18For we wanted to come to you—certainly I, Paul, did, again and again—but Satan[e] stopped us.[f] 19For what is our hope, our joy, or the crown[g] in which we will glory[h] in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes?[i] Is it not you? 20Indeed, you are our glory[j] and joy.

3 So when we could stand it no longer,[k] we thought it best to be left by ourselves in Athens.[l] 2We sent Timothy,[m] who is our brother and God's fellow worker[d][n] in spreading the gospel of Christ,[o] to strengthen and encourage you in your faith, 3so that no one would be unsettled by these trials.[p] You know quite well that we were destined for them.[q] 4In fact, when we were with you, we kept telling you that we would be persecuted.
And it turned out that way, as you well know.[r] 5For this reason, when I could stand it no longer,[s] I sent to find out about your faith.[t] I was afraid that in some way the tempter[u] might have tempted you and our efforts might have been useless.[v]

Timothy's Encouraging Report

6But Timothy[w] has just now come to us from you[x] and has brought good news about your faith and love.[y] He has told us that you always have pleasant memories of us and that you long to see us, just as we also long to see you.[z] 7Therefore, brothers, in all our distress and persecution we were encouraged about you because of your faith. 8For now we really live, since you are standing firm[a] in the Lord. 9How can we thank God enough for you[b] in return for all the joy we have in the presence of our God because of you?[c] 10Night and day we pray[d] most earnestly that we may see you again[e] and supply what is lacking in your faith.
11Now may our God and Father[f] will be blameless[h] and holy in the presence of our God and Father[i] when our

Living to Please God

4 Finally, brothers,[l] we instructed you how to live[m] in order to please God,[n] as in fact you are living. Now we ask you and urge you in the Lord Jesus to do this more and more. 2For you know what instructions we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.
3It is God's will[o] that you should be sanctified: that you should avoid sexual immorality;[p] 4that each of you should learn to control his own body[e][q] in a way that is holy and honorable, 5not in passionate lust[r] like the heathen,[s] who do not know God;[t] 6and that in this matter no one should wrong his brother or take advantage of him.[u] The Lord will punish men[v] for all such sins,[w] as we have already told you and warned you. 7For God did not call us to be impure, but to live a holy life.[x] 8Therefore, he who rejects this instruction does not reject man but God, who gives you his Holy Spirit.[y] 9Now about brotherly love[z] we do not need to write to you,[a] for you yourselves have been taught by God[b] to love each other.[c] 10And in fact, you do love all the brothers throughout Macedonia.[d] Yet we urge you, brothers, to do so more and more.[e] 11Make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, to mind your own business and to work with your hands,[f] just as we told you, 12so that your daily life may win the respect of outsiders[g] and so that you will not be dependent on anybody.

The Coming of the Lord

13Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant[h] about those who fall asleep,[i] or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope.[j] 14We believe that Jesus died and rose again[k] and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in c16 Or them fully d2 Some manuscripts brother and fellow worker; other manuscripts brother and God's servant e4 Or learn to live with his own wife; or learn to acquire a wife him.[a] 15According to the Lord's own word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left till the coming of the Lord,[b] will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep.[c] 16For the Lord himself will come down from heaven,[d] with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel[e] and with the trumpet call of God,[f] and the dead in Christ will rise first.[g] 17After that, we who are still alive and are left[h] will be caught up together with them in the clouds[i] to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord[j] forever. 18There-fore encourage each other[k] with these words.

5 Now, brothers, about times and dates[l] we do not need to write to you,[m] 2for you know very well that the day of the Lord[n] will come like a thief in the night.[o] 3While people are saying, "Peace and safety,"[p] destruction will come on them suddenly,[q] as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.[r]

4But you, brothers, are not in darkness[s] so that this day should surprise you like a thief.[t] 5You are all sons of the light[u] and sons of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness. 6So then, let us not be like others, who are asleep,[v] but let us be alert[w] and self-controlled.[x] 7For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, get drunk at night.[y] 8But since we belong to the day,[z] let us be self-controlled, putting on faith and love as a breastplate,[a] and the hope of salvation[b] as a helmet.[c] 9For God did not appoint us to suffer wrath[d] but to receive salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.[e] 10He died for us so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with him.[f] 11There-fore encourage one another[g] and build each other up,[h] just as in fact you are doing.

Final Instructions

12Now we ask you, brothers, to respect those who work hard[i] among you, who are over you in the Lord[j] and who admonish you. 13Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other.[k] 14And we urge you, brothers, warn those who are idle,[l] encourage the timid, help the weak,[m] be patient with everyone. 15Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong,[n] but always try to be kind to each other[o] and to everyone else.

16Be joyful always;[p] 17pray continually;[q] 18give thanks in all circumstances,[r] for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

19Do not put out the Spirit's fire;[s] 20do not treat prophecies[t] with contempt. 21Test everything.[u] Hold on to the good.[v] 22Avoid every kind of evil.

23May God himself, the God of peace,[w] sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul[x] and body be kept blameless[y] at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.[z] 24The one who calls[a] you is faithful[b] and he will do it.[c]

25Brothers, pray for us.[d] 26Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.[e] 27I charge you before the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers.[f]

28The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.[g]

1 Paul, Silas[a][a] and Timothy,[b]
To the church of the Thessalonians[c] in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2Grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.[d]

Thanksgiving and Prayer

3We ought always to thank God for you,[e] brothers, and rightly so, because your faith is growing more and more, and the love every one of you has for each other is increasing.[f] 4Therefore, among God's churches we boast[g] about your perseverance and faith[h] in all the persecutions and trials you are enduring.[i] 5All this is evidence[j] that God's judgment is right, and as a result you will be counted worthy[k] of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering. 6God is just:[l] He will pay back trouble to those who trouble you[m] 7and give relief to you who are troubled, and to us as well. This will happen when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven[n] in blazing fire[o] with his powerful angels.[p] 8He will punish[q] those who do not know God[r] and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.[s] 9They will be punished with everlasting destruction[t] and shut out from the presence of the Lord[u] and from the majesty of his power[v] 10on the day[w] he comes to be glorified[x] in his holy people and to be marveled at among all those who have believed. This includes you, because you believed our testimony to you.[y] 11With this in mind, we constantly pray for you,[z] that our God may count you worthy[a] of his calling,[b] and that by his power he may fulfill every good purpose[c] of yours and every act prompted by your faith.[d] 12We pray this so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you,[e] and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.[b]

The Man of Lawlessness

2 Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ[f] and our being gathered to him,[g] we ask you, brothers, 2not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by some prophecy, report or letter[h] supposed to have come from us, saying that the day of the Lord[i] has already come.[j] 3Don't let anyone deceive you[k] in any way, for that day will not come, until the rebellion[l] occurs and the man of lawlessness[c] is revealed,[m] the man doomed to destruction. 4He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God[n] or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God.[o] 5Don't you remember that when I was with you I used to tell you these things?[p] 6And now you know what is holding him back,[q] so that he may be revealed at the proper time. 7For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back[r] will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way. 8And then the lawless one will be revealed,[s] whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with the breath of his mouth[t] and destroy by the splendor of his coming.[u] 9The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with the work of Satan[v] displayed in all kinds of counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders,[w] 10and in every sort of evil that deceives those who are perishing.[x] They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.[y] 11For this reason God sends them[z] a powerful delusion[a] so that they will believe the lie[b] 12and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness.[c]

Stand Firm

13But we ought always to thank God

[a]1 Greek Silvanus, a variant of Silas [b]12 Or God and Lord, Jesus Christ [c]3 Some manuscripts sin for you,[a] brothers loved by the Lord, because from the beginning God chose you[d][b] to be saved[c] through the sanctifying work of the Spirit[d] and through belief in the truth. 14He called you[e] to this through our gospel,[f] that you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15So then, brothers, stand firm[g] and hold to the teachings[e] we passed on to you,[h] whether by word of mouth or by letter.

16May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father,[i] who loved us[j] and by his grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope, 17encourage[k] your hearts and strengthen[l] you in every good deed and word.

Request for Prayer

3 Finally, brothers,[m] pray for us[n] that the message of the Lord[o] may spread rapidly and be honored, just as it was with you.[p] 2And pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men,[q] for not everyone has faith. 3But the Lord is faithful,[r] and he will strengthen and protect you from the evil one.[s] 4We have confidence[t] in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we command.
5May the Lord direct your hearts[u] into God's love and Christ's perseverance.

Warning Against Idleness

6In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,[v] we command you, brothers, to keep away from[w] every brother who is idle[x] and does not live according to the teaching[f] you received from us.[y] 7For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example.[z] We were not idle when we were with you, 8nor did we eat anyone's food without paying for it. On the contrary, we worked[a] night and day, laboring and toiling so that we would not be a burden to any of you. 9We did this, not because we do not have the right to such help,[b] but in order to make ourselves a model for you to follow.[c] 10For even when we were with you,[d] we gave you this rule: "If a man will not work,[e] he shall not eat." 11We hear that some among you are idle. They are not busy; they are busybodies.[f] 12Such people we command and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ[g] to settle down and earn the bread they eat.[h] 13And as for you, brothers, never tire of doing what is right.[i] 14If anyone does not obey our instruction in this letter, take special note of him. Do not associate with him,[j] in order that he may feel ashamed.[k] 15Yet do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.[l]

16Now may the Lord of peace[m] himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.[n] 17I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand,[o] which is the distinguishing mark in all my letters. This is how I write.
18The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.[p]

faith:

Grace, mercy and peace from God

Warning Against False Teachers of the Law

3As I urged you when I went into Macedonia,[g] stay there in Ephesus[h] so that you may command certain men not to teach false doctrines[i] any longer 4nor to devote themselves to myths[j] and endless genealogies.[k] These promote controversies[l] rather than God's work—which is by faith. 5The goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heart[m] and a good conscience[n] and a sincere faith.[o] 6Some have wandered away from these and turned to meaningless talk. 7They want to be teachers[p] of the law, but they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm.[q] 8We know that the law is good[r] if one uses it properly. 9We also know that law[a] is made not for the righteous[s] but for lawbreakers and rebels,[t] the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious; for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, 10for adulterers and perverts, for slave traders and liars and perjurers—and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine[u] 11that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me.[v]

The Lord's Grace to Paul

12I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength,[w] that he considered me faithful, appointing me to his service.[x] 13Even though I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor[y] and a violent man, I was shown mercy[z] because I acted in ignorance and unbelief.[a] 14The grace of our Lord was poured out on me abundantly,[b] along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.[c] 15Here is a trustworthy saying[d] that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners[e]—of whom I am the worst. 16But for that very reason I was shown mercy[f] so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his unlimited patience[g] as an example for those who would believe[h] on him and receive eternal life.[i] 17Now to the King[j] eternal, immortal,[k] invisible,[l] the only God,[m] be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.[n] 18Timothy, my son,[o] I give you this instruction in keeping with the prophecies once made about you,[p] so that by following them you may fight the good fight,[q] 19holding on to faith and a good conscience.[r] Some have rejected these and so have shipwrecked their faith.[s] 20Among them are Hymenaeus[t] and Alexander,[u] whom I have handed over to Satan[v] to be taught not to blaspheme.

Instructions on Worship

2 I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers,[w] intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone—2for kings and all those in authority,[x] that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness[y] and holiness.
3This is good, and pleases[z] God our Savior,[a] 4who wants[b] all men[c] to be saved[d] and to come to a knowledge of the truth.[e] 5For there is one God[f] and one mediator[g] between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,[h] 6who gave himself as a ransom[i] for all men—the testimony[j] given in its proper time.[k] 7And for this purpose I was appointed a herald and an apostle—I am telling the truth, I am not lying[a]—and a teacher[b] of the true faith to the Gentiles.[c]

8 I want men everywhere to lift up holy hands[d] in prayer, without anger or disputing.

9 I also want women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or expensive clothes,[e] 10 but with good deeds,[f] appropriate for women who profess to worship God.

11 A woman should learn in quietness and full submission.[g] 12 I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man; she must be silent.[h] 13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve.[i] 14 And Adam was not the one deceived; it was the woman who was deceived and became a sinner.[j] 15 But women[b] will be saved[c] through childbearing—if they continue in faith, love[k] and holiness with propriety.

Overseers and Deacons

3 Here is a trustworthy saying:[l] If anyone sets his heart on being an overseer,[d][m] he desires a noble task. 2 Now the overseer must be above reproach,[n] the husband of but one wife,[o] temperate,[p] self-controlled, respectable, hospitable,[q] able to teach,[r] 3 not given to drunkenness,[s] not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome,[t] not a lover of money.[u] 4 He must manage his own family well and see that his children obey him with proper respect.[v] 5 (If anyone does not know how to manage his own family, how can he take care of God's church?)[w] 6 He must not be a recent convert, or he may become conceited[x] and fall under the same judgment[y] as the devil. 7 He must also have a good reputation with outsiders,[z] so that he will not fall into disgrace and into the devil's trap.[a]

8 Deacons,[b] likewise, are to be men worthy of respect, sincere, not indulging in much wine,[c] and not pursuing dishonest gain. 9 They must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith with a clear conscience.[d] 10 They must first be tested;[e] and then if there is nothing against them, let them serve as deacons.

11 In the same way, their wives[e] are to be women worthy of respect, not malicious talkers[f] but temperate[g] and trustworthy in everything.

12 A deacon must be the husband of but one wife[h] and must manage his children and his household well.[i] 13 Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus.

14 Although I hope to come to you soon, I am writing you these instructions so that, 15 if I am delayed, you will know how people ought to conduct themselves in God's household, which is the church[j] of the living God,[k] the pillar and foundation of the truth. 16 Beyond all question, the mystery[l] of godliness[m] is great:

He[f] appeared in a body,[g][n] was vindicated by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was preached among the nations,[o] was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.[p]

Instructions to Timothy

4 The Spirit[q] clearly says that in later times[r] some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits[s] and things taught by demons. 2 Such teachings come through hypocritical liars, whose consciences have been seared as with a hot iron.[t] 3 They forbid people to marry[u] and order them to abstain from certain foods,[v] which God created[w] to be received with thanksgiving[x] by those who believe and who know the truth. 4 For everything God created is good,[y] and nothing is to be rejected[z] if it is received with thanksgiving, 5 because it is consecrated by the word of God[a] and prayer.

6 If you point these things out to the brothers, you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, brought up in the truths of the faith[b] and of the good teaching that you have followed.[c] 7 Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales;[d] rather, train yourself to be godly.[e] 8 For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things,[f] holding promise for both the present life[g] and the life to come.[h]

9 This is a trustworthy saying[i] that deserves full acceptance 10 (and for this we labor and strive), that we have put our hope in the living God,[j] who is the Savior of all men,[k] and especially of those who believe.

11 Command and teach these things.[l] 12 Don't let anyone look down on you[m] because you are young, but set an example[n] for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith[o] and in purity.

public reading of Scripture,[b] to preach-you.[e] 15Be diligent in these matters; give

Advice About Widows, Elders and Slaves

5 Do not rebuke an older man[g] harshly,[h] but exhort him as if he were your father. Treat younger men[i] as brothers, 2older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters, with absolute purity.
3Give proper recognition to those widows who are really in need.[j] 4But if a widow has children or grandchildren, these should learn first of all to put their religion into practice by caring for their own family and so repaying their parents and grandparents,[k] for this is pleasing to God.[l] 5The widow who is really in need[m] and left all alone puts her hope in God[n] and continues night and day to pray[o] and to ask God for help. 6But the widow who lives for pleasure is dead even while she lives.[p] 7Give the people these instructions,[q] too, so that no one may be open to blame. 8If anyone does not provide for his relatives, and especially for his immediate family, he has denied[r] the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.
9No widow may be put on the list of widows unless she is over sixty, has been faithful to her husband,[h] 10and is well known for her good deeds,[s] such as bringing up children, showing hospitality,[t] washing the feet[u] of the saints, helping those in trouble[v] and devoting herself to all kinds of good deeds.
11As for younger widows, do not put them on such a list. For when their sensual desires overcome their dedication to Christ, they want to marry. 12Thus they bring judgment on themselves, because they have broken their first pledge. 13Besides, they get into the habit of being idle and going about from house to house. And not only do they become idlers, but also gossips[w] and busybodies,[x] saying things they ought not to. 14So I counsel younger widows to marry,[y] to have children, to manage their homes and to give the enemy no opportunity for slander.[z] 15Some have in fact already turned away to follow Satan.[a] 16If any woman who is a believer has widows in her family, she should help them and not let the church be burdened with them, so that the church can help those widows who are really in need.[b] 17The elders[c] who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor,[d] especially those whose work is preaching and teaching. 18For the Scripture says, "Do not muzzle the ox while it is treading out the grain,"[i][e] and "The worker deserves his wages."[j][f] 19Do not entertain an accusation against an elder[g] unless it is brought by two or three witnesses.[h] 20Those who sin are to be rebuked[i] publicly, so that the others may take warning.[j] 21I charge you, in the sight of God and Christ Jesus[k] and the elect angels, to keep these instructions without partiality, and to do nothing out of favoritism.
22Do not be hasty in the laying on of hands,[l] and do not share in the sins of others.[m] Keep yourself pure.[n] 23Stop drinking only water, and use a little wine[o] because of your stomach and your frequent illnesses.
24The sins of some men are obvious, reaching the place of judgment ahead of them; the sins of others trail behind them. 25In the same way, good deeds are obvious, and even those that are not cannot be hidden.
6 All who are under the yoke of slavery should consider their masters worthy of full respect,[p] so that God's name and our teaching may not be slandered.[q] 2Those who have believing masters are not to show less respect for them because they are brothers.[r] Instead, they are to serve them even better, because those who benefit from their service are believers, and dear to them. These are the things you are to teach and urge on them.[s] struction[a] of our Lord Jesus Christ and to godly teaching, [4]he is conceited[b] and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy interest in controversies and quarrels about words[c] that result in envy, strife, malicious talk, evil suspicions [5]and constant friction between men of corrupt mind, who have been robbed of the truth[d] and who think that godliness is a means to financial gain.

[6]But godliness with contentment[e] is great gain.[f] [7]For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it.[g] [8]But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that.[h] [9]People who want to get rich[i] fall into temptation and a trap[j] and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction. [10]For the love of money[k] is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith[l] and pierced themselves with many griefs.[m]

Paul's Charge to Timothy

[11]But you, man of God,[n] flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, godliness,[o] faith, love,[p] endurance and gentleness. [12]Fight the good fight[q] of the faith. Take hold of[r] the eternal life[s] to which you were called when you made your good confession[t] in the presence of many witnesses. [13]In the sight of God, who gives life to everything, and of Christ Jesus, who while testifying before Pontius Pilate[u] made the good confession,[v] I charge you[w] [14]to keep this command without spot or blame[x] until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,[y] [15]which God will bring about in his own time[z]—God, the blessed[a] and only Ruler,[b] the King of kings and Lord of lords,[c] [16]who alone is immortal[d] and who lives in unap-proachable light,[e] whom no one has seen or can see.[f] To him be honor and might forever. Amen.[g]

[17]Command those who are rich[h] in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth,[i] which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God,[j] who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment.[k] [18]Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds,[l] and to be generous and willing to share.[m] [19]In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves[n] as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of[o] the life that is truly life.
[20]Timothy, guard what has been entrusted[p] to your care. Turn away from godless chatter[q] and the opposing ideas of what is falsely called knowledge, [21]which some have professed and in so doing have wandered from the faith.[r]
Grace be with you.[s]

2 Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle[a] of Christ Jesus by the will of God,[b] according to the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,[c] 2To Timothy,[d] my dear son:[e]

Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.[f]

Encouragement to Be Faithful

3I thank God,[g] whom I serve, as my forefathers did, with a clear conscience,[h] as night and day I constantly remember you in my prayers.[i] 4Recalling your tears,[j] I long to see you,[k] so that I may be filled with joy. 5I have been reminded of your sincere faith,[l] which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice[m] and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also.
6For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands.[n] 7For God did not give us a spirit of timidity,[o] but a spirit of power,[p] of love and of self-discipline.
8So do not be ashamed[q] to testify about our Lord, or ashamed of me his prisoner.[r] But join with me in suffering for the gospel,[s] by the power of God, 9who has saved[t] us and called[u] us to a holy life—not because of anything we have done[v] but because of his own purpose and grace. This grace was given us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time, 10but it has now been revealed[w] through the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus,[x] who has destroyed death[y] and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 11And of this gospel[z] I was appointed[a] a herald and an apostle and a teacher.[b] 12That is why I am suffering as I am. Yet I am not ashamed,[c] because I know whom I have believed, and am convinced that he is able to guard[d] what I have entrusted to him for that day.[e] 13What you heard from me,[f] keep[g] as the pattern[h] of sound teaching,[i] with faith and love in Christ Jesus.[j] 14Guard[k] the good deposit that was entrusted to you—guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.[l] 15You know that everyone in the province of Asia[m] has deserted me,[n] including Phygelus and Hermogenes.
16May the Lord show mercy to the household of Onesiphorus,[o] because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed[p] of my chains.[q] 17On the contrary, when he was in Rome, he searched hard for me until he found me. 18May the Lord grant that he will find mercy from the Lord on that day![r] You know very well in how many ways he helped me[s] in Ephesus.[t]

2 You then, my son,[u] be strong[v] in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
2And the things you have heard me say[w] in the presence of many witnesses[x] entrust to reliable men who will also be qualified to teach others.
3Endure hardship with us[y] like a good soldier[z] of Christ Jesus. 4No one serving as a soldier gets involved in civilian affairs—he wants to please his commanding officer. 5Similarly, if anyone competes as an athlete, he does not receive the victor's crown[a] unless he competes according to the rules. 6The hardworking farmer should be the first to receive a share of the crops.[b] 7Reflect on what I am saying, for the Lord will give you insight into all this.
8Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead,[c] descended from David.[d] This is my gospel,[e] 9for which I am suffering[f] even to the point of being chained[g] like a criminal. But God's word[h] is not chained. 10Therefore I endure everything[i] for the sake of the elect,[j] that they too may obtain the salvation[k] that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.[l] 11Here is a trustworthy saying:[m]

If we died with him, we will also live with him;[n] 12if we endure, we will also reign with him.[o]

A Workman Approved by God

14Keep reminding them of these things. Warn them before God against quarreling about words;[c] it is of no value, and only ruins those who listen.
15Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth.[d] 16Avoid godless chatter,[e] because those who indulge in it will become more and more ungodly. 17Their teaching will spread like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus[f] and Philetus, 18who have wandered away from the truth. They say that the resurrection has already taken place,[g] and they destroy the faith of some.[h] 19Neverthe-less, God's solid foundation stands firm,[i] sealed with this inscription:
"The Lord knows those who are his,"[a][j] and, "Everyone who confesses the name of the Lord[k] must turn away from wickedness." 20In a large house there are articles not only of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some are for noble purposes and some for ignoble.[l] 21If a man cleanses himself from the latter, he will be an instrument for noble purposes, made holy, useful to the Master and prepared to do any good work.[m] 22Flee the evil desires of youth, and pursue righteousness, faith, love[n] and peace, along with those who call on the Lord[o] out of a pure heart.[p] 23Don't have anything to do with foolish and stupid arguments, because you know they produce quarrels.[q] 24And the Lord's servant must not quarrel; instead, he must be kind to everyone, able to teach, not resentful.[r] 25Those who oppose him he must gently instruct, in the hope that God will grant them repentance leading them to a knowledge of the truth,[s] 26and that they will come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil,[t] who has taken them captive to do his will.

Godlessness in the Last Days

3 But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days.[u] 2People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money,[v] boastful, proud,[w] abusive,[x] disobedient to their parents,[y] ungrateful, unholy, 3without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, 4treacherous,[z] rash, conceited,[a] lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—5having a form of godliness[b] but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them.[c] 6They are the kind who worm their way[d] into homes and gain control over weak-willed women, who are loaded down with sins and are swayed by all kinds of evil desires, 7always learning but never able to acknowledge the truth.[e] 8Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses,[f] so also these men oppose[g] the truth—men of depraved minds,[h] who, as far as the faith is concerned, are rejected. 9But they will not get very far because, as in the case of those men,[i] their folly will be clear to everyone.

10You, however, know all about my teaching,[j] my way of life, my purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, 11persecutions, sufferings—what kinds of things happened to me in Antioch,[k] Iconium[l] and Lystra,[m] the persecutions I endured.[n] Yet the Lord rescued[o] me from all of them.[p] 12In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted,[q] 13while evil men and impostors will go from bad to worse,[r] deceiving and being deceived.[s] 14But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it,[t] 15and how from infancy[u] you have known the holy Scriptures,[v] which are able to make you wise[w] for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.
16All Scripture is God-breathed[x] and is useful for teaching,[y] rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness,[z] 17so that the man of God[a] may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.[b]

4 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead,[c] and in view of his appearing[d] and his kingdom, I give you this charge:[e] 2Preach[f] the Word;[g] be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke[h] and encourage[i]—with great patience and careful instruction. 3For the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. 4 They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths. 5 But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry.

6 For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure. 7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8 Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Personal Remarks

9 Do your best to come to me quickly, 10 for Demas, because he loved this world, has deserted me and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. 11 Only Luke is with me.
Get Mark and bring him with you, because he is helpful to me in my ministry. 12 I sent Tychicus to Ephesus.
13 When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, and my scrolls, especially the parchments.

[illegible]

14 Alexander the metalworker did me a great deal of harm. The Lord will repay him for what he has done.
15 You too should be on your guard against him, because he strongly opposed our message.
16 At my first defense, no one came to my support, but everyone deserted me. May it not be held against them.
17 But the Lord stood at my side and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it.
And I was delivered from the lion's mouth. 18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom.
To him be glory for ever and ever.
Amen.

19 Greet Priscilla[a] and Aquila and the household of Onesiphorus.
20 Erastus stayed in Corinth, and I left Trophimus sick in Miletus. 21 Do your best to get here before winter.
Eubulus greets you, and so do Pudens, Linus, Claudia and all the brothers.
22 The Lord be with your spirit.
Grace be with you.

Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.[o]

Titus' Task on Crete

1:6-8Ref — 1Ti 3:2-4

10For there are many rebellious people, mere talkers[a] and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision group.[b] 11They must be silenced, because they are ruining whole households[c] by teaching things they ought not to teach—and that for the sake of dishonest gain. 12Even one of their own prophets[d] has said, "Cretans[e] are always liars, evil brutes, lazy gluttons." 13This testimony is true. Therefore, rebuke[f] them sharply, so that they will be sound in the faith[g] 14and will pay no attention to Jewish myths[h] or to the commands[i] of those who reject the truth.[j] 15To the pure, all things are pure,[k] but to those who are corrupted and do not believe, nothing is pure.[l] In fact, both their minds and consciences are corrupted.[m] 16They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny him.[n] They are detestable, disobedient and unfit for doing anything good.[o]

What Must Be Taught to Various Groups

2 You must teach what is in accord with sound doctrine.[p] 2Teach the older men[q] to be temperate,[r] worthy of respect, self-controlled,[s] and sound in faith,[t] in love and in endurance.

3Likewise, teach the older women to be reverent in the way they live, not to be slanderers[u] or addicted to much wine,[v] but to teach what is good. 4Then they can train the younger women[w] to love their husbands and children, 5to be self-controlled[x] and pure, to be busy at home,[y] to be kind, and to be subject to their husbands,[z] so that no one will malign the word of God.[a]

6Similarly, encourage the young men[b] to be self-controlled.[c] 7In everything set them an example[d] by doing what is good.[e] In your teaching show integrity, seriousness 8and soundness of speech that cannot be condemned, so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about us.[f]

9Teach slaves to be subject to their masters in everything,[g] to try to please them, not to talk back to them, 10and not to steal from them, but to show that they can be fully trusted, so that in every way they will make the teaching about God our Savior[h] attractive.[i]

[a]5 Or ordain [b]7 Traditionally bishop

11For the grace[a] of God that brings salvation has appeared[b] to all men.[c] 12It teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions,[d] and to live self-controlled,[e] upright and godly lives[f] in this present age, 13while we wait for the blessed hope—the glorious appearing[g] of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ,[h] 14who gave himself for us[i] to redeem us from all wickedness[j] and to purify[k] for himself a people that are his very own,[l] eager to do what is good.[m]

15These, then, are the things you should teach. Encourage and rebuke with all authority. Do not let anyone despise you.

Doing What Is Good

3 Remind the people to be subject to rulers and authorities,[n] to be obedient, to be ready to do whatever is good,[o] 2to slander no one,[p] to be peaceable and considerate, and to show true humility toward all men.

3At one time[q] we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived and enslaved by all kinds of passions and pleasures. We lived in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another. 4But when the kindness[r] and love of God our Savior[s] appeared,[t] 5he saved us,[u] not because of righteous things we had done,[v] but because of his mercy.[w] He saved us through the washing[x] of rebirth and renewal[y] by the Holy Spirit, 6whom he poured out on us[z] generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, 7so that, having been justified by his grace,[a] we might become heirs[b] having the hope[c] of eternal life.[d] 8This is a trustworthy saying.[e] And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good.[f] These things are excellent and profitable for everyone.

9But avoid[g] foolish controversies and genealogies and arguments and quarrels[h] about the law,[i] because these are unprofitable and useless.[j] 10Warn a divisive person once, and then warn him a second time. After that, have nothing to do with him.[k] 11You may be sure that such a man is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned.

Final Remarks

12As soon as I send Artemas or Tychicus[l] to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to winter there.[m] 13Do everything you can to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos[n] on their way and see that they have everything they need. 14Our people must learn to devote themselves to doing what is good,[o] in order that they may provide for daily necessities and not live unproductive lives.

15Everyone with me sends you greetings. Greet those who love us in the faith.[p]

Grace be with you all.[q]

Philemon

1Paul, a prisoner[a] of Christ Jesus, and Timothy[b] our brother,[c]

To Philemon our dear friend and fellow worker,[d] 2to Apphia our sister, to Archippus[e] our fellow soldier[f] and to the church that meets in your home:[g]

3Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.[h]

Thanksgiving and Prayer

4I always thank my God[i] as I remember you in my prayers,[j] 5be-cause I hear about your faith in the Lord Jesus[k] and your love for all the saints.[l] 6I pray that you may be active in sharing your faith, so that you will have a full understanding of every good thing we have in Christ. 7Your love has given me great joy and encouragement,[m] because you, brother, have refreshed[n] the hearts of the saints.

Paul's Plea for Onesimus

8Therefore, although in Christ I could be bold and order you to do what you ought to do, 9yet I appeal to you[o] on the basis of love. I then, as Paul—an old man and now also a prisoner[p] of Christ Jesus— 10I appeal to you for my son[q] Onesimus,[a][r] who became my son while I was in chains.[s] 11Formerly he was useless to you, but now he has become useful both to you and to me.

12I am sending him—who is my very heart—back to you. 13I would have liked to keep him with me so that he could take your place in helping me while I am in chains[t] for the gospel.
14But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that any favor you do will be spontaneous and not forced.[u] 15Perhaps the reason he was separated from you for a little while was that you might have him back for good— 16no longer as a slave,[v] but better than a slave, as a dear brother.[w] He is very dear to me but even dearer to you, both as a man and as a brother in the Lord.

17So if you consider me a partner,[x] welcome him as you would welcome me. 18If he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to me.[y] 19I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand.[z] I will pay it back—not to mention that you owe me your very self. 20I do wish, brother, that I may have some benefit from you in the Lord; refresh[a] my heart in Christ. 21Confident[b] of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask.

22And one thing more: Prepare a guest room for me, because I hope to be[c] restored to you in answer to your prayers.[d]

23Epaphras,[e] my fellow prisoner[f] in Christ Jesus, sends you greetings.
24And so do Mark,[g] Aristarchus,[h] Demas[i] and Luke, my fellow workers.[j]

25The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.[k]

Hebrews

The Son Superior to Angels

1 In the past God spoke[a] to our forefathers through the prophets[b] at many times and in various ways,[c] 2 but in these last days[d] he has spoken to us by his Son,[e] whom he appointed heir[f] of all things, and through whom[g] he made the universe.[h] 3 The Son is the radiance of God's glory[i] and the exact representation of his being,[j] sustaining all things[k] by his powerful word.
After he had provided purification for sins,[l] he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.[m] 4 So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs.[n] 5 For to which of the angels did God ever say,

"You are my Son;
today I have become your Father[a]"[b]?[o]

Or again,

"I will be his Father, and he will be my Son"[c]?[p]

6 And again, when God brings his first-born[q] into the world,[r] he says,

"Let all God's angels worship him."[d][s]

7 In speaking of the angels he says,

"He makes his angels winds, his servants flames of fire."[e][t]

8 But about the Son he says, "Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever,[u] and righteousness will be the scepter of your kingdom.

9 You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has set you above your companions[v] by anointing you with the oil[w] of joy."[f][x]

10 He also says,

"In the beginning, O Lord, you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.[y] 11 They will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment.[z] 12 You will roll them up like a robe; like a garment they will be changed.
But you remain the same,[a] and your years will never end."[g][b]

13 To which of the angels did God ever say,

"Sit at my right hand[c] until I make your enemies a footstool[d] for your feet"[h]?[e]

14 Are not all angels ministering spirits[f] sent to serve those who will inherit[g] salvation?[h]

Warning to Pay Attention

2 We must pay more careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away.[i] 2 For if the message spoken[j] by angels[k] was binding, and every violation and disobedience received its just punishment,[l] 3 how shall we escape if we ignore such a great salvation?[m] This salvation, which was first announced by the Lord,[n] was confirmed to us by those who heard him.[o] 4 God also testified to it by signs, wonders and various miracles,[p] and gifts of the Holy Spirit[q] distributed according to his will.[r]

Jesus Made Like His Brothers

5 It is not to angels that he has subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking. 6 But there is a place where someone[s] has testified:

"What is man that you are mindful of him,

the son of man that you care for him?[a] 7You made him a little[i] lower than the angels;
you crowned him with glory and honor 8 and put everything under his feet."[j] [b]

In putting everything under him, God left nothing that is not subject to him.
Yet at present we do not see everything subject to him. 9But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honor[c] because he suffered death,[d] so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.[e]

10In bringing many sons to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists,[f] should make the author of their salvation perfect through suffering.[g] 11Both the one who makes men holy[h] and those who are made holy[i] are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers.[j] 12He says,

"I will declare your name to my brothers;
in the presence of the congregation I will sing your praises."[k] [k]

13And again,

"I will put my trust in him."[l] [l]

And again he says,

"Here am I, and the children God has given me."[m] [m]

14Since the children have flesh and blood,[n] he too shared in their humanity[o] so that by his death he might destroy[p] him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil[q]— 15and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear[r] of death. 16For surely it is not angels he helps, but Abraham's descendants.[s] 17For this reason he had to be made like his brothers[t] in every way, in order that he might become a merciful[u] and faithful high priest[v] in service to God,[w] and that he might make atonement for[n] the sins of the people.[x] 18Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.[y]

Jesus Greater Than Moses

3 Therefore, holy brothers,[z] who share in the heavenly calling,[a] fix your thoughts on Jesus, the apostle and high priest[b] whom we confess.[c] 2He was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses was faithful in all God's house.[d] 3Jesus has been found worthy of greater honor than Moses,[e] just as the builder of a house has greater honor than the house itself.
4For every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything.[f] 5Moses was faithful as a servant[g] in all God's house,[h] testifying to what would be said in the future. 6But Christ is faithful as a son[i] over God's house.
And we are his house,[j] if we hold on[k] to our courage and the hope[l] of which we boast.

Warning Against Unbelief

7So, as the Holy Spirit says:[m]

"Today, if you hear his voice, 8 do not harden your hearts[n] as you did in the rebellion, during the time of testing in the desert, 9where your fathers tested and tried
me and for forty years saw what I did.[o] 10That is why I was angry with that generation, and I said, 'Their hearts are always going astray, and they have not known my ways.'
11So I declared on oath in my anger,[p]
'They shall never enter my rest.'[q] "[o] [r]

12See to it, brothers, that none of you has a sinful, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.[s] 13But encourage one another daily,[t] as long as it is called Today, so that none of you may be hardened by sin's deceit-fulness.[u] 14We have come to share in Christ if we hold firmly[v] till the end the confidence[w] we had at first. 15As has just been said:

"Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as you did in the rebellion."[p] [x] 16Who were they who heard and rebelled? Were they not all those Moses led out of Egypt?[y] 17And with whom was he angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the desert?[a] 18And to whom did God swear that they would never enter his rest[b] if not to those who disobeyed[q]?[c] 19So we see that they were not able to enter, because of their unbelief.[d]

A Sabbath-Rest for the People of God

4 Therefore, since the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us be careful that none of you be found to have fallen short of it.[e] 2For we also have had the gospel preached to us, just as they did; but the message they heard was of no value to them, because those who heard did not combine it with faith.[r][f] 3Now we who have believed enter that rest, just as God has said,

> "So I declared on oath in my anger,
> 'They shall never enter my > rest.' "[s][g]

And yet his work has been finished since the creation of the world. 4For somewhere he has spoken about the seventh day in these words: "And on the seventh day God rested from all his work."[t][h] 5And again in the passage above he says, "They shall never enter my rest."[i]

6It still remains that some will enter that rest, and those who formerly had the gospel preached to them did not go in, because of their disobedience.[j] 7Therefore God again set a certain day, calling it Today, when a long time later he spoke through David, as was said before:

> "Today, if you hear his voice, > do not harden your hearts."[u][k]

8For if Joshua had given them rest,[l] God would not have spoken[m] later about another day. 9There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God; 10for anyone who enters God's rest also rests from his own work,[n] just as God did from his.[o] 11Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall by following their example of disobedience.[p] 12For the word of God[q] is living[r] and active.[s] Sharper than any double-edged sword,[t] it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.[u] 13Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight[v] Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

Jesus the Great High Priest

14Therefore, since we have a great high priest[w] who has gone through the heavens,[v][x] Jesus the Son of God,[y] let us hold firmly to the faith we profess.[z] 15For we do not have a high priest[a] who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are[b]—yet was without sin.[c] 16Let us then approach[d] the throne of grace with confidence,[e] so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

5 Every high priest is selected from among men and is appointed to represent them in matters related to God,[f] to offer gifts and sacrifices[g] for sins.[h] 2He is able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and are going astray,[i] since he himself is subject to weakness.[j] 3This is why he has to offer sacrifices for his own sins, as well as for the sins of the people.[k]

4No one takes this honor upon himself; he must be called by God, just as Aaron was.[l] 5So Christ also did not take upon himself the glory[m] of becoming a high priest.[n] But God said[o] to
him,

> "You are my Son;
> today I have become your > Father.[w]"[x][p]

6And he says in another place,

> "You are a priest forever, > in the order of Melchizedek.[q]"[y][r] 7During the days of Jesus' life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions[s] with loud cries and tears[t] to the one who could save him from death, and he was heard[u] because of his reverent submission.[v] 8Although he was a son,[w] he learned obedience from what he suffered[x] 9and, once made perfect,[y] he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him 10and was designated by God to be high priest[z] in the order of Melchizedek.[a]

Warning Against Falling Away

6:4-6Ref — Heb 10:26-31

11We have much to say about this,

[q]18 Or disbelieved [r]2 Many manuscripts because they did not share in the faith of those who obeyed [s]3 Psalm 95:11; also in verse 5 [t]4 Gen. 2:2 [u]7 Psalm 95:7,8 [v]14 Or gone into heaven [w]5 Or have begotten you [x]5 Psalm 2:7 [y]6 Psalm 110:4

but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn. 12In fact, though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths[a] of God's word all over again. You need milk, not solid food![b] 13Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant,[c] is not acquainted with the teaching about righteousness. 14But solid food is for the mature,[d] who by constant use have trained themselves to distinguish good from evil.[e]

6 Therefore let us leave[f] the elementary teachings[g] about Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from acts that lead to death,[z][h] and of faith in God, 2instruction about baptisms,[i] the laying on of hands,[j] the resurrection of the dead,[k] and eternal judgment. 3And God permitting,[l] we will do so.

4It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened,[m] who have tasted the heavenly gift,[n] who have shared in the Holy Spirit,[o] 5who have tasted the goodness[p] of the word of God[q] and the powers of the coming age, 6if they fall away, to be brought back to repentance,[r] because[a] to their loss they are crucifying the Son of God[s] all over again and subjecting him to public disgrace.

7Land that drinks in the rain often falling on it and that produces a crop useful to those for whom it is farmed receives the blessing of God. 8But land that produces thorns and thistles is worthless and is in danger of being cursed.[t] In the end it will be burned.

9Even though we speak like this, dear friends,[u] we are confident of better things in your case—things that accompany salvation. 10God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them.[v] 11We want each of you to show this same diligence to the very end, in order to make your hope[w] sure. 12We do not want you to become lazy, but to imitate[x] those who through faith and patience[y] inherit what has been promised.[z]

The Certainty of God's Promise

13When God made his promise to Abraham, since there was no one greater for him to swear by, he swore by himself,[a] 14saying, "I will surely bless you and give you many descendants."[b][b] 15And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised.[c]

16Men swear by someone greater than themselves, and the oath confirms what is said and puts an end to all argument.[d] 17Because God wanted to make the unchanging[e] nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised,[f] he confirmed it with an oath. 18God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie,[g] we who have fled to take hold of the hope[h] offered to us may be greatly encouraged. 19We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain,[i] 20where Jesus, who went before us, has entered on our behalf.[j] He has become a high priest[k] forever, in the order of Melchizedek.[l]

Melchizedek the Priest

7 This Melchizedek was king of Salem[m] and priest of God Most High.[n] He met Abraham returning from the defeat of the kings and blessed him,[o] 2and Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. First, his name means "king of righteousness"; then also, "king of Salem" means "king of peace." 3Without father or mother, without genealogy,[p] without beginning of days or end of life, like the Son of God[q] he remains a priest forever.

4Just think how great he was: Even the patriarch[r] Abraham gave him a tenth of the plunder![s] 5Now the law requires the descendants of Levi who become priests to collect a tenth from the people[t]—that is, their brothers—even though their brothers are descended from Abraham. 6This man, however, did not trace his descent from Levi, yet he collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed[u] him who had the promises.[v] 7And without doubt the lesser person is blessed by the greater.
8In the one case, the tenth is collected by men who die; but in the other case, by him who is declared to be living.[w] 9One might even say that Levi, who collects the tenth, paid the tenth through Abraham, 10because when Melchizedek met Abraham, Levi was still in the body of his ancestor.

Jesus Like Melchizedek

tained through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the law was given to the people),[a] why was there still need for another priest to come[b]—one in the order of Melchizedek,[c] not in the order of Aaron? 12For when there is a change of the priesthood, there must also be a change of the law. 13He of whom these things are said belonged to a different tribe,[d] and no one from that tribe has ever served at the altar.[e] 14For it is clear that our Lord descended from Judah,[f] and in regard to that tribe Moses said nothing about priests.
15And what we have said is even more clear if another priest like Melchizedek appears, 16one who has become a priest not on the basis of a regulation as to his ancestry but on the basis of the power of an indestructible life. 17For it is declared:

"You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek."[f][g] 18The former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless[h] 19(for the law made nothing perfect),[i] and a better hope[j] is introduced, by which we draw near to God.[k] 20And it was not without an oath!

Others became priests without any oath, 21but he became a priest with an oath when God said to him:

"The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind:[l]
'You are a priest forever.'"[f][m] 22Because of this oath, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.[n] 23Now there have been many of those priests, since death prevented them from continuing in office; 24but because Jesus lives forever, he has a permanent priesthood.[o] 25Therefore he is able to save[p] completely[g] those who come to God[q] through him, because he always lives to intercede for them.[r] 26Such a high priest[s] meets our need—one who is holy, blameless, pure, set apart from sinners,[t] exalted above the heavens.[u] 27Unlike the other high priests, he does not need to offer sacrifices[v] day after day, first for his own sins,[w] and then for the sins of the people. He sacrificed for their sins once for all[x] when he offered himself.[y] 28For the law appoints as high priests men who are weak;[z] but the oath, which came after the law, appointed the Son,[a] who has been made perfect[b] forever.

The High Priest of a New Covenant

8 The point of what we are saying is this: We do have such a high priest,[c] who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven,[d] 2and who serves in the sanctuary, the true tabernacle[e] set up by the Lord, not by man.
3Every high priest[f] is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices,[g] and so it was necessary for this one also to have something to offer.[h] 4If he were on earth, he would not be a priest, for there are already men who offer the gifts prescribed by the law.[i] 5They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy[j] and shadow[k] of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned[l] when he was about to build the tabernacle: "See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain."[h][m] 6But the ministry Jesus has received is as superior to theirs as the covenant[n] of which he is mediator[o] is superior to the old one, and it is founded on better promises.
7For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another.[p] 8But God found fault with the people and said[i]:

"The time is coming, declares the
Lord,
when I will make a new covenant[q] with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.
9It will not be like the covenant I made with their forefathers[r] when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they did not remain faithful to my covenant, and I turned away from them,
declares the Lord.
10This is the covenant[s] I will make
with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord.
I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts.[t] I will be their God, and they will be my people.[u] 11No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying,
'Know the Lord,' because they will all know me,[v] from the least of them to the greatest.

[f]17,21 Psalm 110:4 [g]25 Or forever [h]5 Exodus 25:40 [i]8 Some manuscripts may be translated fault and said to the people.

12 For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.[a]"[g][b]

13 By calling this covenant "new,"[c] he has made the first one obsolete;[d] and what is obsolete and aging will soon disappear.

Worship in the Earthly Tabernacle

9 Now the first covenant had regulations for worship and also an earthly sanctuary.[e] 2 A tabernacle[f] was set up. In its first room were the lamp-stand,[g] the table[h] and the consecrated bread;[i] this was called the Holy Place.[j] 3 Behind the second curtain was a room called the Most Holy Place,[k] 4 which had the golden altar of incense[l] and the gold-covered ark of the covenant.[m] This ark contained the gold jar of manna,[n] Aaron's staff that had budded,[o] and the stone tablets of the covenant.[p] 5 Above the ark were the cher-ubim of the Glory,[q] overshadowing the atonement cover.[h][r] But we cannot discuss these things in detail now.
6 When everything had been arranged like this, the priests entered regularly[s] into the outer room to carry on their ministry. 7 But only the high priest entered[t] the inner room,[u] and that only once a year,[v] and never without blood,[w] which he offered for himself[x] and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance.[y] 8 The Holy Spirit was showing[z] by this that the way[a] into the Most Holy Place had not yet been disclosed as long as the first tabernacle was still standing. 9 This is an illustration[b] for the present time, indicating that the gifts and sacrifices being offered[c] were not able to clear the conscience[d] of the worshiper. 10 They are only a matter of food[e] and drink[f] and various ceremonial washings[g]—external regulations[h] applying until the time of the new order.

The Blood of Christ

11 When Christ came as high priest[i] of the good things that are already here,[i][j] he went through the greater and more perfect tabernacle[k] that is not man-made,[l] that is to say, not a part of this creation. 12 He did not enter by means of the blood of goats and calves;[m] but he entered the Most Holy Place[n] once for all[o] by his own blood,[p] having obtained eternal redemption.
13 The blood of goats and bulls[q] and the ashes of a heifer[r] sprinkled on those who are ceremonially unclean sanctify them so that they are outwardly clean.
14 How much more, then, will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit[s] offered himself[t] unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences[u] from acts that lead to death,[j][v] so that we may serve the living God![w] 15 For this reason Christ is the mediator[x] of a new covenant,[y] that those who are called[z] may receive the promised[a] eternal inheritance[b]—now that he has died as a ransom to set them free from the sins committed under the first covenant.[c] 16 In the case of a will,[k] it is necessary to prove the death of the one who made it, 17 because a will is in force only when somebody has died; it never takes effect while the one who made it is living. 18 This is why even the first covenant was not put into effect without blood.[d] 19 When Moses had proclaimed[e] every commandment of the law to all the people, he took the blood of calves,[f] together with water, scarlet wool and branches of hyssop, and sprinkled the scroll and all the people.[g] 20 He said, "This is the blood of the covenant, which God has commanded you to keep."[l][h] 21 In the same way, he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle and everything used in its ceremonies. 22 In fact, the law requires that nearly everything be cleansed with blood,[i] and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.[j] 23 It was necessary, then, for the copies[k] of the heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ did not enter a man-made sanctuary that was only a copy of the true one;[l] he entered heaven itself,[m] now to appear for us in God's presence.[n] 25 Nor did he enter heaven to offer himself again and again, the way the high priest enters the Most Holy Place[o] every year with blood that is not his own.[p] 26 Then Christ would have had to suffer many times since the creation of the world.[q] But now he has appeared[r] once for all[s] at the end of the ages to do away with sin by the sacrifice of himself.[t] 27 Just as man is destined to die once,[u] and after that to face judgment,[v] 28 so Christ was sacrificed once[w] to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

Christ's Sacrifice Once for All

10 The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the realities themselves. For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship. 2If it could, would they not have stopped being offered? For the worshipers would have been cleansed once for all, and would no longer have felt guilty for their sins. 3But those sacrifices are an annual reminder of sins, 4because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

5Therefore, when Christ came into the world, he said:

"Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you prepared for me; 6with burnt offerings and sin offerings you were not pleased.
7Then I said, 'Here I am—it is written about me in the scroll—I have come to do your will, O God.'"[a]

8First he said, "Sacrifices and offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire, nor were you pleased with them" (although the law required them to be made). 9Then he said, "Here I am, I have come to do your will." He sets aside the first to establish the second. 10And by that will, we have been made holy through the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11Day after day every priest stands and performs his religious duties; again and again he offers the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. 12But when this priest had offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God. 13Since that time he waits for his enemies to be made his footstool, 14because by one sacrifice he has made perfect forever those who are being made holy.

15The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. First he says:

16"This is the covenant I will make with them after that time, says the Lord.
I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds."[b]

17Then he adds:

"Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more."[c] 18And where these have been forgiven, there is no longer any sacrifice for sin.

A Call to Persevere

19Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, 20by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, 21and since we have a great priest over the house of God, 22let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. 23Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. 24And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. 25Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

26If we deliberately keep on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left, 27but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire that will consume the enemies of God. 28Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. 29How much more severely do you think a man deserves to be punished who has trampled the Son of God under foot, who has treated as an unholy thing the blood of the covenant that sanctified him, and who has insulted the Spirit of grace? 30For we know him who said, "It is mine to avenge; I will repay,"[d] and again, "The Lord will judge his people."[e] 31It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32Remember those earlier days after you had received the light, when you stood your ground in a great contest in the face of suffering.[a] 33Sometimes you were publicly exposed to insult and persecution;[b] at other times you stood side by side with those who were so treated.[c] 34You sympathized with those in prison[d] and joyfully accepted the confiscation of your property, because you knew that you yourselves had better and lasting possessions.[e] 35So do not throw away your confidence;[f] it will be richly rewarded.

[a]7 Psalm 40:6-8 (see Septuagint) [b]16 Jer. 31:33 [c]17 Jer. 31:34 [d]30 Deut. 32:35 [e]30 Deut. 32:36; Psalm 135:14

36You need to persevere[g] so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised.[h] 37For in just a very little while,

"He who is coming[i] will come and will not delay.[j] 38 But my righteous one[r] will live by faith.[k]
And if he shrinks back, I will not be pleased with him."[s][l]

39But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who believe and are saved.

By Faith

11 Now faith is being sure of what we hope for[m] and certain of what we do not see.[n] 2This is what the ancients were commended for.[o] 3By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God's command,[p] so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible.
4By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain did. By faith he was commended[q] as a righteous man, when God spoke well of his offerings.[r] And by faith he still speaks, even though he is dead.[s] 5By faith Enoch was taken from this life, so that he did not experience death; he could not be found, because God had taken him away.[t] For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God. 6And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him[u] must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.
7By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen,[v] in holy fear built an ark[w] to save his family.[x] By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.[y] 8By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance,[z] obeyed and went,[a] even though he did not know where he was going. 9By faith he made his home in the promised land[b] like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents,[c] as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.[d] 10For he was looking forward to the city[e] with foundations[f] whose architect and builder is God.[g] 11By faith Abraham, even though he was past age—and Sarah herself was barren[h]—was enabled to become a father[i] because he[t] considered him faithful[j] who had made the promise.
12And so from this one man, and he as good as dead,[k] came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.[l] 13All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised;[m] they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance.[n] And they admitted that they were aliens and strangers on earth.[o] 14People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. 15If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return.[p] 16Instead, they were longing for a better country—a heavenly one.[q] Therefore God is not ashamed[r] to be called their God,[s] for he has prepared a city[t] for them.
17By faith Abraham, when God tested him, offered Isaac as a sacrifice.[u] He who had received the promises was about to sacrifice his one and only son, 18even though God had said to him, "It is through Isaac that your offspring[u] will be reckoned."[v][v] 19Abraham reasoned that God could raise the dead,[w] and figuratively speaking, he did receive Isaac back from death.
20By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau in regard to their future 21By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons,[y] and worshiped as he leaned on the top of his staff.
22By faith Joseph, when his end was near, spoke about the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt and gave instructions about his bones.[z] 23By faith Moses' parents hid him for three months after he was born,[a] because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king's edict.[a] 24By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter.[b] 25He chose to be mistreated[c] along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time. 26He regarded disgrace[d] for the sake of Christ[e] as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward.[f] 27By faith he left Egypt,[g] not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible. 28By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer[h] of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.[i] 29By faith the people passed through the Red Sea[w] as on dry land; but when the Egyptians tried to do so, they were drowned.[j] 30By faith the walls of Jericho fell, after the people had marched around them for seven days.[k] 31By faith the prostitute Raḥab, because she welcomed the spies, was not killed with those who were disobedient.[x] [l] 32And what more shall I say? I do not have time to tell about Gideon,[m] Barak,[n] Samson,[o] Jephthah,[p] David,[q] Samuel[r] and the prophets, 33who through faith conquered kingdoms,[s] administered justice, and gained what was promised; who shut the mouths of lions,[t] 34quenched the fury of the flames,[u] and escaped the edge of the sword;[v] whose weakness was turned to strength;[w] and who became powerful in battle and routed foreign armies.[x] 35Women received back their dead, raised to life again.[y] Others were tortured and refused to be released, so that they might gain a better resurrection. 36Some faced jeers and flogging,[z] while still others were chained and put in prison.[a] 37They were stoned[y];[b] they were sawed in two; they were put to death by the sword.[c] They went about in sheepskins and goatskins,[d] destitute, persecuted and mistreated— 38the world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves[e] and holes in the ground.

39These were all commended[f] for their faith, yet none of them received what had been promised.[g] 40God had planned something better for us so that only together with us[h] would they be made perfect.[i]

God Disciplines His Sons

12 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run[j] with perseverance[k] the race marked out for us.
2Let us fix our eyes on Jesus,[l] the author[m] and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross,[n] scorning its shame,[o] and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.[p] 3Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary[q] and lose heart.
4In your struggle against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.[r] 5And you have forgotten that word of encouragement that addresses you as sons:

"My son, do not make light of the Lord's discipline, and do not lose heart[s] when he rebukes you, 6because the Lord disciplines those he loves,[t]
and he punishes everyone he accepts as a son."[z] [u]

7Endure hardship as discipline; God is treating you as sons.[v] For what son is not disciplined by his father? 8If you are not disciplined (and everyone undergoes discipline),[w] then you are illegitimate children and not true sons.
9Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of our spirits[x] and live![y] 10Our fathers disciplined us for a little while as they thought best; but God disciplines us for our good, that we may share in his holiness.[z] 11No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace[a] for those who have been trained by it.
12Therefore, strengthen your feeble arms and weak knees.[b] 13"Make level paths for your feet,"[a] [c] so that the lame may not be disabled, but rather healed.[d]

up to cause trouble and defile many.

storm;[g] 19to a trumpet blast[h] or to such a voice speaking words[i] that those who heard it begged that no further word be spoken to them,[j] 20because they could not bear what was commanded: "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned."[b][k] 21The sight was so terrifying that Moses said, "I am trembling with fear."[c][l]

22But you have come to Mount Zion,[m] to the heavenly Jerusalem,[n] the city[o] of the living God.[p] You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, 23to the church of the firstborn,[q] whose names are written in heaven.[r] You have come to God, the judge of all men,[s] to the spirits of righteous men made perfect,[t] 24to Jesus the mediator[u] of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood[v] that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.[w]

25See to it that you do not refuse[x] him who speaks.[y] If they did not escape when they refused him who warned[z] them on earth, how much less will we, if we turn away from him who warns us from heaven?[a] 26At that time his voice shook the earth,[b] but now he has promised, "Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens."[d][c] 27The words "once more" indicate the removing of what can be shaken[d]—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain.

28Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken,[e] let us be thankful, and so worship God ac-ceptably with reverence and awe,[f] 29for our "God is a consuming fire."[e][g]

Concluding Exhortations

13 Keep on loving each other as brothers.[h] 2Do not forget to entertain strangers,[i] for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it.[j] 3Remember those in prison[k] as if you were their fellow prisoners, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering.
4Marriage should be honored by all,[l] and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral.[m] 5Keep your lives free from the love of money[n] and be content with what you have,[o] because God has said,

"Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you."[f][p]

6So we say with confidence,

"The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?"[g][q]

7Remember your leaders,[r] who spoke the word of God[s] to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate[t] their faith. 8Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.[u]

9Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings.[v] It is good for our hearts to be strengthened[w] by grace, not by ceremonial foods,[x] which are of no value to those who eat them.[y] 10We have an altar from which those who minister at the tabernacle[z] have no right to eat.[a]

11The high priest carries the blood of animals into the Most Holy Place as a sin offering,[b] but the bodies are burned outside the camp.[c] 12And so Jesus also suffered outside the city gate[d] to make the people holy[e] through his own blood.[f] 13Let us, then, go to him[g] outside the camp, bearing the disgrace he bore.[h] 14For here we do not have an enduring city,[i] but we are looking for the city that is to come.[j]

15Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice[k] of praise—the fruit of lips[l] that confess his name. 16And do not forget to do good and to share with others,[m] for with such sacrifices[n] God is pleased.

17Obey your leaders[o] and submit to their authority. They keep watch over you[p] as men who must give an account. Obey them so that their work

James

1 James,[a] a servant of God[b] and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes[c] scattered[d]
among the nations:

Greetings.[e]

Trials and Temptations

2Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds,[f] 3because you know that the testing of your faith[g] develops perseverance.[h] 4Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature[i] and complete, not lacking anything. 5If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God,[j] who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him.[k] 6But when he asks, he must believe and not doubt,[l] because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. 7That man should not think he will receive anything from the Lord; 8he is a double-minded man,[m] unstable[n] in all he does.

9The brother in humble circumstances ought to take pride in his high position.[o] 10But the one who is rich should take pride in his low position, because he will pass away like a wild flower.[p] 11For the sun rises with scorching heat[q] and withers[r] the plant; its blossom falls and its beauty is destroyed.[s] In the same way, the rich man will fade away even while he goes about his business.

12Blessed is the man who perseveres under trial,[t] because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life[u] that God has promised to those who love him.[v]

13When tempted, no one should say, "God is tempting me." For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone; 14but each one is tempted when, by his own[w] evil desire, he is dragged away and enticed. 15Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin;[x] and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death.[y]

16Don't be deceived,[z] my dear brothers.[a] 17Every good and perfect gift is from above,[b] coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights,[c] who does not change[d] like shifting shadows. 18He chose to give us birth[e] through the word of truth,[f] that we might be a kind of firstfruits[g] of all he created.

Listening and Doing

19My dear brothers,[h] take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak[i] and slow to become angry, 20for man's anger[j] does not bring about the righteous life that God desires. 21Therefore, get rid of[k] all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you,[l] which can save you.

22Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.[m] 23Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like a man who looks at his face in a mirror 24and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. 25But the man who looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom,[n] and continues to do this, not forgetting what he has heard, but doing it—he will be blessed in what he does.[o]

26If anyone considers himself religious and yet does not keep a tight rein on his tongue,[p] he deceives himself and his religion is worthless. 27Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after[q] orphans and widows[r] in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.[s]

Favoritism Forbidden

2 My brothers, as believers in our glorious[t] Lord Jesus Christ, don't show favoritism.[a] 2Suppose a man comes into your meeting wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor man in shabby clothes also comes in.

3If you show special attention to the man wearing fine clothes and say, "Here's a good seat for you," but say to the poor man, "You stand there" or "Sit on the floor by my feet," 4have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges[b] with evil thoughts?

5Listen, my dear brothers:[c] Has not God chosen those who are poor in the eyes of the world[d] to be rich in faith[e] and to inherit the kingdom[f] he promised those who love him?[g] 6But you have insulted the poor.[h] Is it not the rich who are exploiting you? Are they not the ones who are dragging you into court?[i] 7Are they not the ones who are slandering the noble name of him to whom you belong?

8If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, "Love your neighbor as yourself,"[a][j] you are doing right. 9But if you show favoritism,[k] you sin and are convicted by the law as lawbreakers.[l] 10For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles[m] at just one point is guilty of breaking all of it.[n] 11For he who said, "Do not commit adultery,"[b][o] also said, "Do not murder."[c][p] If you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a lawbreaker.

12Speak and act as those who are going to be judged[q] by the law that gives freedom,[r] 13because judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful.[s] Mercy triumphs over judgment!

Faith and Deeds

14What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds?[t] Can such faith save him?
15Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food.[u] 16If one of you says to him, "Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it?[v] 17In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.[w]

18But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds."

Show me your faith without deeds,[x] and I will show you my faith[y] by what I do.[z] 19You believe that there is one God.[a] Good! Even the demons believe that[b]—and shudder.

20You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless[d]?[c] 21Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar?[d] 22You see that his faith and his actions were working together,[e] and his faith was made complete by what he did.[f] 23And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,"[e][g] and he was called God's friend.[h] 24You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone.

25In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction?[i] 26As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.[j]

Taming the Tongue

3 Not many of you should presume to be teachers,[k] my brothers, because you know that we who teach will be judged[l] more strictly.[m] 2We all stumble[n] in many ways. If anyone is never at fault in what he says,[o] he is a perfect man,[p] able to keep his whole body in check.[q]

3When we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we can turn the whole animal.[r] 4Or take ships as an example. Although they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot wants to go.
5Likewise the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts.[s] Consider what a great forest is set on fire by a small spark. 6The tongue also is a fire,[t] a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole person,[u] sets the whole course of his life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell.[v]

7All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles and creatures of the sea are being tamed and have been tamed by man, 8but no man can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.[w]

9With the tongue we praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in God's likeness.[x] 10Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers, this should not be. 11Can both fresh water

Neither can a salt spring produce fresh

Two Kinds of Wisdom

13Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show it[b] by his good life, by deeds[c] done in the humility that comes from wisdom.
14But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition[d] in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth.[e] 15Such "wisdom" does not come down from heaven[f] but is earthly, unspiritual, of the devil.[g] 16For where you have envy and selfish ambition,[h] there you find disorder and every evil practice.
17But the wisdom that comes from heaven[i] is first of all pure; then peace-loving,[j] considerate, submissive, full of mercy[k] and good fruit, impartial and sincere.[l] 18Peacemakers[m] who sow in peace raise a harvest of righteousness.[n]

Submit Yourselves to God

4 What causes fights and quarrels[o] among you? Don't they come from your desires that battle[p] within you?
2You want something but don't get it.
You kill[q] and covet, but you cannot have what you want. You quarrel and fight. You do not have, because you do not ask God. 3When you ask, you do not receive,[r] because you ask with wrong motives,[s] that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.
4You adulterous[t] people, don't you know that friendship with the world[u] is hatred toward God?[v] Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.[w] 5Or do you think Scripture says without reason that the spirit he caused to live in us[x] envies intensely?[g] 6But he gives us more grace. That is why Scripture says:

"God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."[h][y]

7Submit yourselves, then, to God.
Resist the devil,[z] and he will flee from you. 8Come near to God and he will come near to you.[a] Wash your hands,[b] you sinners, and purify your hearts,[c] you double-minded.[d] 9Grieve, mourn and wail. Change your laughter to mourning and your joy to gloom.[e] 10Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up.[f] 11Brothers, do not slander one another.[g] Anyone who speaks against his brother or judges him[h] speaks against the law[i] and judges it. When you judge the law, you are not keeping it,[j] but sitting in judgment on it. 12There is only one Lawgiver and Judge,[k] the one who is able to save and destroy.[l] But you—who are you to judge your neighbor?[m]

Boasting About Tomorrow

13Now listen,[n] you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money."[o] 14Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.[p] 15Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will,[q] we will live and do this or that." 16As it is, you boast and brag. All such boasting is evil.[r] 17Anyone, then, who knows the good he ought to do and doesn't do it, sins.[s]

Warning to Rich Oppressors

5 Now listen,[t] you rich people,[u] weep and wail[v] because of the misery that is coming upon you. 2Your wealth has rotted, and moths have eaten your clothes.[w] 3Your gold and silver are corroded. Their corrosion will testify against you and eat your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the last days.[x] 4Look! The wages you failed to pay the workmen[y] who mowed your fields are crying out against you.
The cries[z] of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord Almighty.[a] 5You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened yourselves[b] in the day of slaughter.[i][c] 6You have condemned and murdered[d] innocent men,[e] who were not opposing you.

Patience in Suffering

7Be patient, then, brothers, until the Lord's coming.[f] See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop and how patient he is[g] for the autumn and spring rains.[h] 8You too, be patient and stand firm, because the Lord's coming[i] is near.[j] 9Don't grumble against each other, brothers,[k] or [10]Brothers, as an example of patience in the face of suffering, take the prophets[c] who spoke in the name of the Lord. [11]As you know, we consider blessed[d] those who have persevered.

You have heard of Job's perseverance[e] and have seen what the Lord finally brought about.[f] The Lord is full of compassion and mercy.[g] [12]Above all, my brothers, do not anything else. Let your "Yes" be yes, and your "No," no, or you will be condemned.[h]

The Prayer of Faith

[13]Is any one of you in trouble? He should pray.[i] Is anyone happy? Let him sing songs of praise.[j] [14]Is any one of you sick? He should call the elders[k] of the church to pray over him and anoint him with oil[l] in the name of the Lord. [15]And the prayer offered in faith[m] will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise him up. If he has sinned, he will be forgiven. [16]Therefore confess your sins[n] to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed.[o] The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective.[p] [17]Elijah was a man just like us.[q] He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years.[r] [18]Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops.[s] [19]My brothers, if one of you should wander from the truth[t] and someone should bring him back,[u] [20]remember this: Whoever turns a sinner from the error of his way will save[v] him from death and cover over a multitude of sins.[w]

1 Peter

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,[a] To God's elect,[b] strangers in the world,[c] scattered[d] throughout Pontus,[e] Galatia,[f] Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,[g] 2 who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge[h] of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit,[i] for obedience[j] to Jesus Christ and sprinkling by his blood:[k]

Grace and peace be yours in abundance.[l]

Praise to God for a Living Hope

3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ![m] In his great mercy[n] he has given us new birth[o] into a living hope[p] through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,[q] 4 and into an inheritance[r] that can never perish, spoil or fade[s]—kept in heaven for you,[t] 5 who through faith are shielded by God's power[u] until the coming of the salvation[v] that is ready to be revealed[w] in the last time. 6 In this you greatly rejoice,[x] though now for a little while[y] you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials.[z] 7 These have come so that your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire[a]—may be proved genuine[b] and may result in praise, glory and honor[c] when Jesus Christ is revealed.[d] 8 Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him[e] and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, 9 for you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.[f]

10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets, who spoke[g] of the grace that was to come to you,[h] searched intently and with the greatest care,[i] 11 trying to find out the time and circumstances to which the Spirit of Christ[j] in them was pointing when he predicted[k] the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow. 12 It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you,[l] when they spoke of the things that have now been told you by those who have preached the gospel to you[m] by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven.[n] Even angels long to look into these things.

Be Holy

13 Therefore, prepare your minds for action; be self-controlled;[o] set your hope[p] fully on the grace to be given you[q] when Jesus Christ is revealed.[r] 14 As obedient[s] children, do not conform[t] to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance.[u] 15 But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do;[v] 16 for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy."[a] [w] 17 Since you call on a Father[x] who judges each man's work[y] impartially,[z] live your lives as strangers[a] here in reverent fear.[b] 18 For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed[c] from the empty way of life[d] handed down to you from your forefathers, 19 but with the precious blood[e] of Christ, a lamb[f] without blemish or defect.[g] 20 He was chosen before the creation of the world,[h] but was revealed in these last times[i] for your sake.

21 Through him you believe in God,[j] who raised him from the dead[k] and glorified him,[l] and so your faith and hope[m] are in God.

22 Now that you have purified[n] yourselves by obeying[o] the truth so that you have sincere love for your brothers, love one another deeply,[p] from the heart.[b] 23 For you have been born again,[q] not of perishable seed, but of imperishable,[r] through the living and enduring word of God.[s] 24 For, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field; the grass withers and the flowers fall, 25 but the word of the Lord stands forever."[c a]

And this is the word that was preached
to you.

2 Therefore, rid yourselves[b] of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander[c] of every kind. 2Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk,[d] so that by it you may grow up[e] in your salvation, 3now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.[f]

The Living Stone and a Chosen People

4As you come to him, the living Stone[g]—rejected by men but chosen by God[h] and precious to him— 5you also, like living stones, are being built[i] into a spiritual house[j] to be a holy priesthood,[k] offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.[l] 6For in Scripture it says:

"See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone,[m] and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame."[d n] 7Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe,[o]

"The stone the builders rejected[p] has become the capstone,[e]"[f q]

8and,

"A stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall."[g r]

They stumble because they disobey the message—which is also what they were destined for.[s]

9But you are a chosen people,[t] a royal priesthood,[u] a holy nation,[v] a people belonging to God,[w] that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.[x] 10Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God;[y] once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

11Dear friends,[z] I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world,[a] to abstain from sinful desires,[b] which war against your soul.[c] 12Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds[d] and glorify God[e] on the day he visits us.

Submission to Rulers and Masters

13Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every authority[f] instituted among men: whether to the king, as the supreme authority, 14or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong[g] and to commend those who do right.[h] 15For it is God's will[i] that by doing good you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish men.[j] 16Live as free men,[k] but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil;[l] live as servants of God.[m] 17Show proper respect to everyone: Love the brotherhood of believers,[n] fear God, honor the king.[o]

18Slaves, submit yourselves to your masters with all respect,[p] not only to those who are good and considerate,[q] but also to those who are harsh. 19For it is commendable if a man bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because he is conscious of God.[r] 20But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God.[s] 21To this[t] you were called,[u] because Christ suffered for you,[v] leaving you an example,[w] that you should follow in his steps.

22"He committed no sin,[x] and no deceit was found in his mouth."[h y] 23When they hurled their insults at him,[z] he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats.[a] Instead, he entrusted himself[b] to him who judges justly.[c] 24He himself bore our sins[d] in his body on the tree,[e] so that we might die to sins[f] and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed.[g] 25For you were like sheep going astray,[h] but now you have returned to the Shepherd[i] and Overseer of your souls.[j]

Wives and Husbands

3 Wives, in the same way be submissive[k] to your husbands[l] so that, if any of them do not believe the word, they may be won over[m] without words by the behavior of their wives, 2when they see the purity and reverence of your lives. 3Your beauty should not as braided hair and the wearing of gold jewelry and fine clothes.[a] 4Instead, it should be that of your inner self,[b] the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God's sight.[c] 5For this is the way the holy women of the past who put their hope in God[d] used to make themselves beautiful.[e] They were submissive to their own husbands, 6like Sarah, who obeyed Abraham and called him her master.[f] You are her daughters if you do what is right and do not give way to fear.

7Husbands,[g] in the same way be considerate as you live with your wives, and treat them with respect as the weaker partner and as heirs with you of the gracious gift of life, so that nothing will hinder your prayers.

Suffering for Doing Good

8Finally, all of you, live in harmony with one another;[h] be sympathetic, love as brothers,[i] be compassionate and humble.[j] 9Do not repay evil with evil[k] or insult with insult,[l] but with blessing,[m] because to this[n] you were called[o] so that you may inherit a blessing.[p] 10For,

"Whoever would love life and see good days must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from deceitful speech.
11He must turn from evil and do good; he must seek peace and pursue it.
12For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their prayer, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."[i] [q] 13Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good?[r] 14But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed.[s] "Do not fear what they fear[j]; do not be frightened."[k] [t] 15But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer[u] to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope[v] that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, 16keeping a clear conscience,[w] so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander.[x] 17It is better, if it is God's will,[y] to suffer for doing good[z] than for doing evil. 18For Christ died for sins[a] once for all,[b] the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God.[c] He was put to death in the body[d] but made alive by the Spirit,[e] 19through whom[l] also he went and preached to the spirits in prison[f] 20who disobeyed long ago when God waited patiently[g] in the days of Noah while the ark was being built.[h] In it only a few people, eight in all,[i] were saved[j] through water, 21and this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you[k] also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge[m] of a good conscience[l] toward God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ,[m] 22who has gone into heaven[n] and is at God's right hand[o]—with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.[p]

Living for God

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered in his body,[q] arm yourselves also with the same attitude, because he who has suffered in his body is done with sin.[r] 2As a result, he does not live the rest of his earthly life for evil human desires,[s] but rather for the will of God.
3For you have spent enough time in the past[t] doing what pagans choose to do—living in debauchery, lust, drunkenness, orgies, carousing and detestable idolatry.[u] 4They think it strange that you do not plunge with them into the same flood of dissipation, and they heap abuse on you.[v] 5But they will have to give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.[w] 6For this is the reason the gospel was preached even to those who are now dead,[x] so that they might be judged according to men in regard to the body, but live according to God in regard to the spirit.

7The end of all things is near.[y] Therefore be clear minded and self-controlled[z] so that you can pray.
8Above all, love each other deeply,[a] because love covers over a multitude of sins.[b] 9Offer hospitality[c] to one another without grumbling.[d] 10Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others,[e] faithfully[f] administering God's grace in its various forms. 11If anyone speaks, he should do it as one speaking the very words of God.[g] If anyone serves, he should do it with the strength God provides,[h] so that in all things God may be praised[i] through Jesus Christ. To him be the Suffering for Being a Christian 12Dear friends, do not be surprised at the painful trial you are suffering, as though something strange were happening to you. 13But rejoice that you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when his glory is revealed. 14If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. 15If you suffer, it should not be as a murderer or thief or any other kind of criminal, or even as a meddler. 16However, if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name.

17For it is time for judgment to begin with the family of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God? 18And,

"If it is hard for the righteous to be saved,
what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?"

19So then, those who suffer according to God's will should commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

To Elders and Young Men

5 To the elders among you, I appeal as a fellow elder, a witness of Christ's sufferings and one who also will share in the glory to be revealed: 2Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, serving as overseers—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not greedy for money, but eager to serve; 3not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock. 4And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away.
5Young men, in the same way be submissive to those who are older. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because,

"God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."

6Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. 7Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for
you.
8Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. 9Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings.
10And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast.
11To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.

12With the help of Silas, whom I regard as a faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, encouraging you and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.
13She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you her greetings, and so does my son Mark.
14Greet one another with a kiss of love.
Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2 Peter

1 Simon Peter, a servant[a] and apostle of Jesus Christ,[b]

To those who through the righteousness[c] of our God and Savior Jesus Christ[d] have received a faith as precious as ours:

2Grace and peace be yours in abundance[e] through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.[f]

Making One's Calling and Election Sure

3His divine power[g] has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him[h] who called us[i] by his own glory and goodness. 4Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises,[j] so that through them you may participate in the divine nature[k] and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.[l]

5For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge;[m] 6and to knowledge, self-control;[n] and to self-control, perseverance;[o] and to perseverance, godliness;[p] 7and to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, love.[q] 8For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive[r] in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.[s] 9But if anyone does not have them, he is nearsighted and blind,[t] and has forgotten that he has been cleansed from his past sins.[u]

10Therefore, my brothers, be all the more eager to make your calling[v] and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never fall,[w] 11and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom[x] of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.[y]

Prophecy of Scripture

12So I will always remind you of these things,[z] even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth[a] you now have. 13I think it is right to refresh your memory[b] as long as I live in the tent of this body,[c] 14because I know that I will soon put it aside,[d] as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.[e] 15And I will make every effort to see that after my departure[f] you will always be able to remember these things.

16We did not follow cleverly invented stories when we told you about the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ,[g] but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.[h] 17For he received honor and glory from God the Father when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased."[a][i] 18We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven when we were with him on the sacred mountain.[j]

19And we have the word of the prophets made more certain,[k] and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light[l] shining in a dark place, until the day dawns[m] and the morning star[n] rises in your hearts.[o] 20Above all, you must understand[p] that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. 21For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God[q] as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.[r]

False Teachers and Their Destruction

2 But there were also false prophets[s] among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you.[t] They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the sovereign Lord[u] who bought them[v]—bringing swift destruction on themselves. 2Many will follow their shameful ways[w] and will bring the way of truth into disrepute.
3In their greed[x] these teachers will exploit you[y] with stories they have made up. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction has not been sleeping.

4For if God did not spare angels when they sinned,[a] but sent them to hell,[b] putting them into gloomy dungeons[c] to be held for judgment;[b] 5if he did not spare the ancient world[c] when he brought the flood on its ungodly people,[d] but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others;[e] 6if he condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by burning them to ashes,[f] and made them an example[g] of what is going to happen to the ungodly;[h] 7and if he rescued Lot,[i] a righteous man, who was distressed by the filthy lives of lawless men[j] 8(for that righteous man,[k] living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard)— 9if this is so, then the Lord knows how to rescue godly men from trials[l] and to hold the unrighteous for the day of judgment,[m] while continuing their punishment.[d] 10This is especially true of those who follow the corrupt desire[n] of the sinful nature[e] and despise authority.

Bold and arrogant, these men are not afraid to slander celestial beings;[o] 11yet even angels, although they are stronger and more powerful, do not bring slanderous accusations against such beings in the presence of the Lord.[p] 12But these men blaspheme in matters they do not understand. They are like brute beasts, creatures of instinct, born only to be caught and destroyed, and like beasts they too will perish.[q] 13They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. Their idea of pleasure is to carouse in broad daylight.[r] They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their pleasures while they feast with you.[f][s] 14With eyes full of adultery, they never stop sinning; they seduce[t] the unstable;[u] they are experts in greed[v]—an accursed brood![w] 15They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam[x] son of Beor, who loved the wages of wickedness.
16But he was rebuked for his wrongdoing by a donkey—a beast without speech—who spoke with a man's voice and restrained the prophet's madness.[y] 17These men are springs without water[z] and mists driven by a storm.
Blackest darkness is reserved for them.[a] 18For they mouth empty, boastful words[b] and, by appealing to the lustful desires of sinful human nature, they entice people who are just escaping[c] from those who live in error.
19They promise them freedom, while they themselves are slaves of depravity—for a man is a slave to whatever has mastered him.[d] 20If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing[e] our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ[f] and are again entangled in it and overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning.[g] 21It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them.[h] 22Of them the proverbs are true: "A dog returns to its vomit,"[g][i] and, "A sow that is washed goes back to her wallowing in the mud."

The Day of the Lord

3 Dear friends,[j] this is now my second letter to you. I have written both of them as reminders[k] to stimulate you to wholesome thinking. 2I want you to recall the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets[l] and the command given by our Lord and Savior through your apostles.[m] 3First of all, you must understand that in the last days[n] scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires.[o] 4They will say, "Where is this 'coming' he promised?[p] Ever since our fathers died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation."[q] 5But they deliberately forget that long ago by God's word[r] the heavens existed and the earth was formed out of water and by water.[s] 6By these waters also the world of that time[t] was deluged and destroyed.[u] 7By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire,[v] being kept for the day of judgment[w] and destruction of ungodly men.
8But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.[x] 9The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise,[y] as some understand slowness. He is patient[z] with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.[a] 10But the day of the Lord will come everything in it will be laid bare.[h] [d] 11Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives 12as you look forward[e] to the day of God and speed its com-destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat.[g] 13But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth,[h] the home of right-14So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this, make every ef-and at peace with him. 15Bear in mind that our Lord's patience[j] means salvation,[k] just as our dear brother Paul also wrote you with the wisdom that God gave him.[l] 16He writes the same way in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters. His letters contain some things that are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable[m] people distort,[n] as they do the other Scriptures,[o] to their own destruction.

17Therefore, dear friends, since you already know this, be on your guard[p] so that you may not be carried away by the error[q] of lawless men[r] and fall from your secure position.[s] 18But grow

The Word of Life

1 That which was from the beginning,[a] which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes,[b] which we have looked at and our hands have touched[c]—this we proclaim concerning the Word of life. 2The life appeared;[d] we have seen it and testify to it,[e] and we proclaim to you the eternal life,[f] which was with the Father and has appeared to us. 3We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard,[g] so that you also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ.[h] 4We write this[i] to make our[a] joy complete.[j]

Walking in the Light

5This is the message we have heard[k] from him and declare to you: God is light;[l] in him there is no darkness at all. 6If we claim to have fellowship with him yet walk in the darkness,[m] we lie and do not live by the truth.[n] 7But if we walk in the light,[o] as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all[b] sin.[p] 8If we claim to be without sin,[q] we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.[r] 9If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins[s] and purify us from all unrighteousness.[t] 10If we claim we have not sinned,[u] we make him out to be a liar[v] and his word has no place in our lives.[w]

2 My dear children,[x] I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defense[y]—Jesus Christ, the Righteous One. 2He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins,[z] and not only for ours but also for[c] the sins of the whole world.[a] 3We know[b] that we have come to know him[c] if we obey his commands.[d] 4The man who says, "I know him,"[e] but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him.[f] 5But if anyone obeys his word,[g] God's love[d] is truly made complete in him.[h] This is how we know[i] we are in him: 6Who-ever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did.[j]

7Dear friends,[k] I am not writing you a new command but an old one, which you have had since the beginning.[l] This old command is the message you have heard. 8Yet I am writing you a new command;[m] its truth is seen in him and you, because the darkness is passing[n] and the true light[o] is already shining.[p]

9Anyone who claims to be in the light but hates his brother[q] is still in the darkness.[r] 10Whoever loves his brother lives in the light,[s] and there is nothing in him[e] to make him stumble.[t] 11But whoever hates his brother[u] is in the darkness and walks around in the darkness;[v] he does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded him.[w]

12I write to you, dear children,[x] because your sins have been forgiven on account of his name.[y] 13I write to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning.[z]
I write to you, young men, because you have overcome[a] the evil one.[b]
I write to you, dear children,[c] because you have known the Father.
14I write to you, fathers,
because you have known him who is from the beginning.[d]
I write to you, young men, because you are strong,[e]

Do Not Love the World

15Do not love the world or anything in the world.[d] If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.[e] 16For everything in the world—the cravings of sinful man,[f] the lust of his eyes[g] and the boasting of what he has and does—comes not from the Father but from the world. 17The world and its desires pass away,[h] but the man who does the will of God[i] lives forever.

Warning Against Antichrists

18Dear children, this is the last hour;[j] and as you have heard that the anti-christ is coming,[k] even now many anti-christs have come.[l] This is how we know it is the last hour. 19They went out from us,[m] but they did not really belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us; but their going showed that none of them belonged to us.[n] 20But you have an anointing[o] from the Holy One,[p] and all of you know the truth.[q][a] 21I do not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it[r] and because no lie comes from the truth. 22Who is the liar? It is the man who denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a man is the antichrist—he denies the Father and the Son.[s] 23No one who denies the Son has the Father; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.[t] 24See that what you have heard from the beginning[u] remains in you. If it does, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father.[v] 25And this is what he promised us—even eternal life.[w] 26I am writing these things to you about those who are trying to lead you astray.[x] 27As for you, the anointing[y] you received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things[z] and as that anointing is real, not counterfeit—just as it has taught you, remain in him.[a]

Children of God

28And now, dear children,[b] continue in him, so that when he appears[c] we may be confident[d] and unashamed before him at his coming.[e] 29If you know that he is righteous,[f] you know that everyone who does what is right has been born of him.[g] 3 How great is the love[h] the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God![i] And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.[j] 2Dear friends,[k] now we are children of God,[l] and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when he appears,[b][m] we shall be like him,[n] for we shall see him as he is.[o] 3Everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself,[p] just as he is pure.[q] 4Everyone who sins breaks the law; in fact, sin is lawlessness.[r] 5But you know that he appeared so that he might take away our sins.[s] And in him is no sin.[t] 6No one who lives in him keeps on sinning.[u] No one who continues to sin has either seen him[v] or known him.[w] 7Dear children,[x] do not let anyone lead you astray.[y] He who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.[z] 8He who does what is sinful is of the devil,[a] because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God[b] appeared was to destroy the devil's work.[c] 9No one who is born of God[d] will continue to sin,[e] because God's seed[f] remains in him; he cannot go on sinning, because he has been born of God. 10This is how we know who the children of God[g] are and who the children of the devil[h] are:
Anyone who does not do what is right is not a child of God; nor is anyone who does not love[i] his brother.[j]

Love One Another

11This is the message you heard[k] from the beginning:[l] We should love one another.[m] 12Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one[n] and murdered his brother.[o] And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous.[p] 13Do not be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you.[q] 14We know that we have passed from death to life,[r] because we love our brothers.
Anyone who does not love remains in death.[s] 15Anyone who hates his brother[t] is a murderer,[u] and you know that no murderer has eternal life in him.[v] 16This is how we know what love is:

[b]2 Or when it is made known

Jesus Christ laid down his life for us.[a] And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.[b] 17If anyone has material possessions and sees his brother in need but has no pity on him,[c] how can the love of God be in him?[d] 18Dear children,[e] let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth.[f] 19This then is how we know that we belong to the truth, and how we set our hearts at rest in his presence 20whenever our hearts condemn us.
For God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.

21Dear friends,[g] if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God[h] 22and receive from him anything we ask,[i] because we obey his commands[j] and do what pleases him.[k] 23And this is his command: to believe[l] in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ,[m] and to love one another as he commanded us.[n] 24Those who obey his commands[o] live in him,[p] and he in them. And this is how we know that he lives in us: We know it by the Spirit he gave us.[q]

Test the Spirits

4 Dear friends,[r] do not believe every spirit,[s] but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.[t] 2This is how you can recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh[u] is from God,[v] 3but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist,[w] which you have heard is coming and even now is already in the world.[x]

4You, dear children,[y] are from God and have overcome them,[z] because the one who is in you[a] is greater than the one who is in the world.[b] 5They are from the world[c] and therefore speak from the viewpoint of the world, and the world listens to them. 6We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us.[d] This is how we recognize the Spirit[h] of truth[e] and the spirit of falsehood.[f]

God's Love and Ours

7Dear friends, let us love one another,[g] for love comes from God.
Everyone who loves has been born of God[h] and knows God.[i] 8Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.[j] 9This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son[i,k] into the world that we might live through him.[l] 10This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us[m] and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for[j] our sins.[n] 11Dear friends,[o] since God so loved us,[p] we also ought to love one another.[q] 12No one has ever seen God;[r] but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.[s] 13We know[t] that we live in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.[u] 14And we have seen and testify[v] that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world.[w] 15If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God,[x] God lives in him and he in God.[y] 16And so we know and rely on the love God has for us.

God is love.[z] Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in him.[a] 17In this way, love is made complete[b] among us so that we will have confidence[c] on the day of judgment,[d] because in this world we are like him. 18There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear,[e] because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.

19We love because he first loved us.[f] 20If anyone says, "I love God," yet hates his brother,[g] he is a liar.[h] For anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen,[i] cannot love God, whom he has not seen.[j] 21And he has given us this command:[k] Whoever loves God must also love his brother.[l]

Faith in the Son of God

5 Everyone who believes[m] that Jesus is the Christ[n] is born of God,[o] and everyone who loves the father loves his child as well.[p] 2This is how we know[q] that we love the children of God:[r] by loving God and carrying out his commands. 3This is love for God: to obey his commands.[s] And his commands are not burdensome,[t] 4for everyone born of God[u] overcomes[v] the world.
This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. 5Who is it that overcomes the world? Only he who believes that Jesus is the Son of

6This is the one who came by water and blood[x]—Jesus Christ. He did not come by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.[a] 7For there are three[b] that testify: 8the[k] Spirit, the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement. 9We accept man's testimony,[c] but God's testimony is greater because it is the testimony of God,[d] which he has given about his Son. 10Anyone who believes in the Son of God has this testimony in his heart.[e] Anyone who does not believe God has made him out to be a liar,[f] because he has not believed the testimony God has given about his Son. 11And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life,[g] and this life is in his Son.[h] 12He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.[i]

Concluding Remarks

13I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God[j] so that you may know that you have eternal life.[k] 14This is the confidence[l] we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.[m] 15And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know[n] that we have what we asked of him.[o] 16If anyone sees his brother commit a sin that does not lead to death, he should pray and God will give him life.[p] I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death.[q] I am not saying that he should pray about that.[r] 17All wrongdoing is sin,[s] and there is sin that does not lead to death.[t] 18We know that anyone born of God[u] does not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one[v] cannot harm him.[w] 19We know that we are children of God,[x] and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one.[y] 20We know also that the Son of God has come[z] and has given us understanding,[a] so that we may know him who is true.[b] And we are in him who is true—even in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.[c] 21Dear children,[d] keep yourselves from idols.[e]

2 John

1 The elder,[a]

To the chosen[b] lady and her children, whom I love in the truth[c]—and not I only, but also all who know the truth[d]— 2 because of the truth,[e] which lives in us[f] and will be with us forever:

3 Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and from Jesus Christ,[g] the Father's Son, will be with us in truth and love.

4 It has given me great joy to find some of your children walking in the truth,[h] just as the Father commanded us. 5 And now, dear lady, I am not writing you a new command but one we have had from the beginning.[i] I ask that we love one another. 6 And this is love:[j] that we walk in obedience to his commands.[k] As you have heard from the beginning,[l] his command is that you walk in love.

7 Many deceivers, who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ[m] as coming in the flesh,[n] have gone out into the world.[o] Any such person is the deceiver and the antichrist.[p] 8 Watch out that you do not lose what you have worked for, but that you may be rewarded fully.[q] 9 Anyone who runs ahead and does not continue in the teaching of Christ[r] does not have God; whoever continues in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.[s] 10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not take him into your house or welcome him.[t] 11 Anyone who welcomes him shares[u] in his wicked work.

12 I have much to write to you, but I do not want to use paper and ink. Instead, I hope to visit you and talk with you face to face,[v] so that our joy may be complete.[w]

13 The children of your chosen[x] sister send their greetings.

3 John

1 The elder,[a]

To my dear friend Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

2 Dear friend, I pray that you may enjoy good health and that all may go well with you, even as your soul is getting along well. 3 It gave me great joy to have some brothers[b] come and tell about your faithfulness to the truth and how you continue to walk in the truth.[c] 4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children[d] are walking in the truth.[e]

5 Dear friend, you are faithful in what you are doing for the brothers,[f] even though they are strangers to you.[g] 6 They have told the church about your love. You will do well to send them on their way[h] in a manner worthy[i] of God. 7 It was for the sake of the Name[j] that they went out, receiving no help from the pagans.[k] 8 We ought therefore to show hospitality to such men so that we may work together for the truth.

9 I wrote to the church, but Diotre-phes, who loves to be first, will have nothing to do with us. 10 So if I come,[l] I will call attention to what he is doing, gossiping maliciously about us. Not satisfied with that, he refuses to welcome the brothers.[m] He also stops those who want to do so and puts them out of the church.[n]

11 Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil but what is good.[o] Anyone who does what is good is from God.[p] Anyone who does what is evil has not seen God.[q] 12 Demetrius is well spoken of by everyone[r]—and even by the truth itself. We also speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true.[s]

13 I have much to write you, but I do not want to do so with pen and ink. 14 I hope to see you soon, and we will talk face to face.[t]

Peace to you.[u] The friends here send their greetings. Greet the friends there by name.[v]

Jude

1 Jude,[a] a servant of Jesus Christ[b] and a brother of James,

To those who have been called,[c] who are loved by God the Father and kept by[a] Jesus Christ:[d]

2 Mercy, peace[e] and love be yours in abundance.[f]

The Sin and Doom of Godless Men

3 Dear friends,[g] although I was very eager to write to you about the salvation we share,[h] I felt I had to write and urge you to contend[i] for the faith[j] that was once for all entrusted to the saints.[k] 4 For certain men whose condemnation was written about[b] long ago have secretly slipped in among you.[l] They are godless men, who change the grace of our God into a license for immorality and deny Jesus Christ our only Sovereign and Lord.[m]

5 Though you already know all this,[n] I want to remind you[o] that the Lord[c] delivered his people out of Egypt, but later destroyed those who did not believe.[p] 6 And the angels who did not keep their positions of authority but abandoned their own home—these he has kept in darkness, bound with everlasting chains for judgment on the great Day.[q] 7 In a similar way, Sodom and Gomorrah[r] and the surrounding towns[s] gave themselves up to sexual immorality and perversion. They serve as an example of those who suffer the punishment of eternal fire.[t]

8 In the very same way, these dreamers pollute their own bodies, reject authority and slander celestial beings.[u] 9 But even the archangel[v] Michael,[w] when he was disputing with the devil about the body of Moses,[x] did not dare to bring a slanderous accusation against him, but said, "The Lord rebuke you!"[y] 10 Yet these men speak abusively against whatever they do not understand; and what things they do understand by instinct, like unreasoning animals—these are the very things that destroy them.[z]

11 Woe to them! They have taken the way of Cain;[a] they have rushed for profit into Balaam's error;[b] they have been destroyed in Korah's rebellion.[c] 12 These men are blemishes at your love feasts,[d] eating with you without the slightest qualm—shepherds who feed only themselves.[e] They are clouds without rain,[f] blown along by the wind;[g] autumn trees, without fruit and uprooted[h]—twice dead. 13 They are wild waves of the sea,[i] foaming up their shame;[j] wandering stars, for whom blackest darkness has been reserved forever.[k]

14 Enoch,[l] the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men: "See, the Lord is coming[m] with thousands upon thousands of his holy ones[n] 15 to judge[o] everyone, and to convict all the ungodly of all the ungodly acts they have done in the ungodly way, and of all the harsh words ungodly sinners have spoken against him."[p] 16 These men are grumblers[q] and faultfinders; they follow their own evil desires;[r] they boast[s] about themselves and flatter others for their own advantage.

A Call to Persevere

17 But, dear friends, remember what the apostles[t] of our Lord Jesus Christ foretold.[u] 18 They said to you, "In the last times[v] there will be scoffers who will follow their own ungodly desires."[w] 19 These are the men who divide you, who follow mere natural instincts and do not have the Spirit.[x]

20 But you, dear friends, build yourselves up[y] in your most holy faith[z] and pray in the Holy Spirit.[a] 21 Keep yourselves in God's love as you wait[b] for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you to eternal life.[c]

22 Be merciful to those who doubt;

Revelation

Prologue

1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave[a] him to show his servants what must soon take place.[b] He made it known by sending his angel[c] to his servant John,[d] 2 who testifies to everything he saw—that is, the word of God[e] and the testimony of Jesus Christ.[f] 3 Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it,[g] because the time is near.[h]

Greetings and Doxology

4 John,

To the seven churches[i] in the province of Asia:

Grace and peace to you[j] from him who is, and who was, and who is to come,[k] and from the seven spirits[a][l] before his throne, 5 and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness,[m] the firstborn from the dead,[n] and the ruler of the kings of the earth.[o]

To him who loves us[p] and has freed us from our sins by his blood,[q] 6 and has made us to be a kingdom and priests[r] to serve his God and Father[s]—to him be glory and power for ever and ever! Amen.[t]

7 Look, he is coming with the clouds,[u] and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him;[v] and all the peoples of the earth will mourn[w] because of him.
So shall it be! Amen.

8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega,"[x] says the Lord God, "who is, and who was, and who is to come,[y] the Almighty."[z]

One Like a Son of Man

9 I, John,[a] your brother and companion in the suffering[b] and kingdom[c] and patient endurance[d] that are ours in Jesus, was on the island of Patmos because of the word of God[e] and the testimony of Jesus.[f] 10 On the Lord's Day[g] I was in the Spirit,[h] and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet,[i] 11 which said: "Write on a scroll what you see[j] and send it to the seven churches:[k] to Ephesus,[l] Smyrna,[m] Pergamum,[n] Thyatira,[o] Sardis,[p] Philadelphia[q] and Laodicea."[r]

12 I turned around to see the voice that was speaking to me. And when I turned I saw seven golden lamp-stands,[s] 13 and among the lampstands[t] was someone "like a son of man,"[b][u] dressed in a robe reaching down to his feet[v] and with a golden sash around his chest.[w] 14 His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and his eyes were like blazing fire.[x] 15 His feet were like bronze glowing in a furnace,[y] and his voice was like the sound of rushing waters.[z] 16 In his right hand he held seven stars,[a] and out of his mouth came a sharp double-edged sword.[b] His face was like the sun[c] shining in all its brilliance.

17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet[d] as though dead. Then he placed his right hand on me[e] and said: "Do not be afraid.[f] I am the First and the Last.[g] 18 I am the Living One; I was dead,[h] and behold I am alive for ever and ever![i] And I hold the keys of death and Hades.[j]

19 "Write, therefore, what you have seen,[k] what is now and what will take place later. 20 The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand[l] and of the seven golden lampstands[m] is this: The seven stars are the angels[c] of

To the Church in Ephesus

2 "To the angel[a1] of the church in Ephesus[c] write:

These are the words of him who holds the seven stars in his right hand[d] and walks among the seven golden lampstands:[e] 2 I know your deeds,[f] your hard work and your perseverance. I know that you cannot tolerate wicked men, that you have tested[g] those who claim to be apostles but are not, and have found them false.[h] 3 You have persevered and have endured hardships for my name,[i] and have not grown weary.
4 Yet I hold this against you: You have forsaken your first love.[j] 5 Remember the height from which you have fallen! Repent[k] and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand[l] from its place. 6 But you have this in your favor: You hate the practices of the Nicolaitans,[m] which I also hate.
7 He who has an ear, let him hear[n] what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes,[o] I will give the right to eat from the tree of life,[p] which is in the paradise[q] of God.

To the Church in Smyrna

8 "To the angel of the church in Smyrna[r] write:

These are the words of him who is the First and the Last,[s] who died and came to life again.[t] 9 I know your afflictions and your poverty—yet you are rich![u] I know the slander of those who say they are Jews and are not,[v] but are a synagogue of Satan.[w] 10 Do not be afraid of what you are about to suffer. I tell you, the devil will put some of you in prison to test you,[x] and you will suffer persecution for ten days.[y] Be faithful,[z] even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life.[a] gamum[d] write:

sword.[e] 13 I know where you live—where Satan has his throne. Yet you remain true to my name. You did not renounce your faith in me,[f] even in the days of Antipas, my faithful witness,[g] who was put to death in your city—where Satan lives.[h] 14 Nevertheless, I have a few things against you:[i] You have people there who hold to the teaching of Balaam,[j] who taught Balak to entice the Israelites to sin by eating food sacrificed to idols[k] and by committing sexual immorality.[l] 15 Likewise you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolai-tans.[m] 16 Repent[n] therefore! Otherwise, I will soon come to you and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.[o] 17 He who has an ear, let him hear[p] what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes,[q] I will give some of the hidden manna.[r] I will also give him a white stone with a new name[s] written on it, known only to him who receives it.[t]

To the Church in Thyatira

18 "To the angel of the church in Thyatira[u] write:

These are the words of the Son of God,[v] whose eyes are like blazing fire and whose feet are like burnished bronze.[w] 19 I know your deeds,[x] your love and faith, your service and perseverance, and that you are now doing more than you did at first.
20 Nevertheless, I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel,[y] who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching she misleads my servants into sexual immorality and the eating of food sacrificed to idols.[z] 21 I have given her time[a] to repent of her immorality, but she is unwilling.[b] 22 So I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and I will make those who commit adultery[c] with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways. 23 I crets (I will not impose any other does my will to the end,[g] I will

To the Church in Sardis

3 "To the angel[f] of the church in Sardis[m] write:

These are the words of him who holds the seven spirits[g][n] of God and the seven stars.[o] I know your deeds;[p] you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead.[q] 2Wake up! Strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of my God.
3Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard; obey it, and repent.[r] But if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief,[s] and you will not know at what time[t] I will come to you.
4Yet you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes.[u] They will walk with me, dressed in white,[v] for they are worthy. 5He who overcomes[w] will, like them, be dressed in white.[x] I will never blot out his name from the book of life,[y] but will acknowledge his name before my Father[z] and his angels. 6He who has an ear, let him hear[a] what the Spirit says to the churches.

To the Church in Philadelphia

7"To the angel of the church in Philadelphia[b] write:

These are the words of him who is holy[c] and true,[d] who holds the key of David.[e] What he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open. 8I know your deeds.[f] See, I have placed before you an open door[g] that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.[h] 9I will make those who are of the synagogue of Satan,[i] who claim to be Jews though they are not,[j] but are liars—I will make them come and fall down at your feet[k] and acknowledge that I have loved you.[l] 10Since you have kept my command to endure patiently, I will also keep you[m] from the hour of trial that is going to come upon the whole world[n] to test[o] those who live on the earth.[p] 11I am coming soon.[q] Hold on to what you have,[r] so that no one will take your crown.[s] 12Him who overcomes[t] I will make a pillar[u] in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God[v] and the name of the city of my God,[w] the new Jerusalem,[x] which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name. 13He who has an ear, let him hear[y] what the Spirit says to the churches.

cea[z] write:

ness,[a] the ruler of God's creation.[b] were either one or the other! 16So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth. 17You say, 'I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.'[e] But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked.[f] 18I counsel you to buy from me gold refined in the fire,[g] so you can become rich; and white clothes[h] to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness;[i] and salve to put on your eyes, so you can see.

19Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline.[a] So be earnest, and repent.[b] 20Here I am! I stand at the door[c] and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door,[d] I will come in[e] and eat with him, and he with me.
21To him who overcomes,[f] I will give the right to sit with me on my throne,[g] just as I overcame[h] and sat down with my Father on his throne. 22He who has an ear, let him hear[i] what the Spirit says to the churches."

The Throne in Heaven

4 After this I looked, and there before me was a door standing open[j] in heaven. And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet[k] said, "Come up here,[l] and I will show you what must take place after this."[m] 2At once I was in the Spirit,[n] and there before me was a throne in heaven[o] with someone sitting on it. 3And the one who sat there had the appearance of jasper[p] and carnelian.[q] A rainbow,[r] resembling an emerald,[s] encircled the throne. 4Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders.[t] They were dressed in white[u] and had crowns of gold on their heads. 5From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder.[v] Before the throne, seven lamps[w] were blazing. These are the seven spirits[h][x] of God. 6Also before the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass,[y] clear as crystal.
In the center, around the throne, were four living creatures,[z] and they were covered with eyes, in front and in back.[a] 7The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a face like a man, the fourth was like a flying eagle.[b] 8Each of the four living creatures[c] had six wings[d] and was covered with eyes all around,[e] even under his wings. Day and night[f] they never stop saying:

"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty,[g] who was, and is, and is to come."[h]

9Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor and thanks to him who sits on the throne[i] and who lives for ever and ever,[j] 10the twenty-four elders[k] fall down before him[l] who sits on the throne,[m] and worship him who lives for ever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say:

11"You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power,[n]
for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being."[o]

The Scroll and the Lamb

5 Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne[p] a scroll with writing on both sides[q] and sealed[r] with seven seals. 2And I saw a mighty angel[s] proclaiming in a loud voice, "Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?" 3But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. 4I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. 5Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! See, the Lion[t] of the tribe of Judah,[u] the Root of David,[v] has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals." 6Then I saw a Lamb,[w] looking as if it had been slain, standing in the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures[x] and the elders.[y] He had seven horns and seven eyes,[z] which are the seven spirits[h][a] of God sent out into all the earth. 7He came and took the scroll from the right hand of him who sat on the throne.[b] 8And when he had taken it, the four living creatures[c] and the twenty-four elders[d] fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp[e] and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers[f] of the saints. 9And they sang a new song:[g]

"You are worthy[h] to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slain, and with your blood[i] you purchased[j] men for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.[k] 10You have made them to be a kingdom and priests[l] to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth."[m]

11Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand.[a] They encircled the throne and the living creatures[b] and the elders.[c] 12 In a loud voice they sang:

"Worthy is the Lamb,[d] who was slain,[e]
to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!"[f]

13 Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth[g] and on the sea, and all that is in them, singing:

"To him who sits on the throne[h] and to the Lamb[i] be praise and honor and glory and power, for ever and ever!"[j]

14 The four living creatures[k] said, "Amen,"[l] and the elders[m] fell down and worshiped.[n]

The Seals

6 I watched as the Lamb[o] opened the first of the seven seals.[p] Then I heard one of the four living creatures[q] say in a voice like thunder,[r] "Come!" 2 I looked, and there before me was a white horse![s] Its rider held a bow, and he was given a crown,[t] and he rode out as a conqueror bent on conquest.[u] 3 When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature[v] say, "Come!" 4 Then another horse came out, a fiery red one.[w] Its rider was given power to take peace from the earth[x] and to make men slay each other. To him was given a large sword.
5 When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature[y] say, "Come!" I looked, and there before me was a black horse![z] Its rider was holding a pair of scales in his hand. 6 Then I heard what sounded like a voice among the four living creatures,[a] saying, "A quart[i] of wheat for a day's wages,[j] and three quarts of barley for a day's wages,[j][b] and do not damage[c] the oil and the wine!" 7 When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature[d] say, "Come!" 8 I looked, and there before me was a pale horse![e] Its rider was named Death, and Hades[f] was following close behind him. They were given power over a fourth of the earth to kill by sword, famine and plague, and by the wild beasts of the earth.[g] 9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under[h] the altar[i] the souls of those who had been slain[j] because of the word of God[k] and the testimony they had maintained. 10 They called out in a loud voice, "How long,[l] Sovereign Lord,[m] holy and true,[n] until you judge the inhabitants of the earth[o] and avenge our blood?"[p] 11 Then each of them was given a white robe,[q] and they were told to wait a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and brothers who were to be killed as they had been was completed.[r] 12 I watched as he opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake.[s] The sun turned black[t] like sackcloth[u] made of goat hair, the whole moon turned blood red, 13 and the stars in the sky fell to earth,[v] as late figs drop from a fig tree[w] when shaken by a strong wind. 14 The sky receded like a scroll, rolling up,[x] and every mountain and island was removed from its place.[y] 15 Then the kings of the earth, the princes, the generals, the rich, the mighty, and every slave and every free man[z] hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains.[a] 16 They called to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us[b] and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne[c] and from the wrath of the Lamb! 17 For the great day[d] of their wrath has come, and who can stand?"[e]

144,000 Sealed

7 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners[f] of the earth, holding back the four winds[g] of the earth to prevent[h] any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. 2 Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal[i] of the living God.[j] He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea:[k] 3 "Do not harm[l] the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads[m] of the servants of our God." 4 Then I heard the number[n] of those who were sealed: 144,- 000[o] from all the tribes of Israel.

The Great Multitude in White Robes

9After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language,[a] standing before the throne[b] and in front of the Lamb.
They were wearing white robes[c] and were holding palm branches in their hands. 10And they cried out in a loud voice:

"Salvation belongs to our God,[d] who sits on the throne,[e] and to the Lamb."

11All the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders[f] and the four living creatures.[g] They fell down on their faces[h] before the throne and worshiped God, 12saying:

"Amen!
Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength be to our God for ever and ever.
Amen!"[i]

13Then one of the elders asked me, "These in white robes[j]—who are they,
and where did they come from?"
14I answered, "Sir, you know." And he said, "These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes[k] and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.[l] 15Therefore,

"they are before the throne of God[m] never again will they thirst.[r] throne will be their shepherd;[t]

The Seventh Seal and the Golden Censer

8 When he opened the seventh seal,[w] there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.
2And I saw the seven angels[x] who stand before God, and to them were given seven trumpets.[y] 3Another angel,[z] who had a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense to offer, with the prayers of all the saints,[a] on the golden altar[b] before the throne. 4The smoke of the incense, together with the prayers of the saints, went up before God[c] from the angel's hand. 5Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar,[d] and hurled it on the earth; and there came peals of thunder,[e] rumblings, flashes of lightning and an earthquake.[f]

The Trumpets

6Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets[g] prepared to sound
them.
7The first angel[h] sounded his trumpet, and there came hail and fire[i] mixed with blood, and it was hurled down upon the earth. A third[j] of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.[k] 8The second angel sounded his trumpet, and something like a huge mountain,[l] all ablaze, was thrown into the sea. A third[m] of the sea turned into blood,[n] 9a third[o] of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.
10The third angel sounded his trumpet, and a great star, blazing like a torch, fell from the sky[p] on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water[q]— 11the name of the star is Wormwood.[k] A third[r] of the waters turned bitter, and many people died from the waters that had become bitter.[s] 12The fourth angel sounded his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third[t] of them turned dark.[u] A third of the day was without light, and also a third of the night.[v]

[k]11 That is, Bitterness 13As I watched, I heard an eagle that was flying in midair[a] call out in a loud voice: "Woe! Woe! Woe[b] to the inhabitants of the earth,[c] because of the trumpet blasts about to be sounded by the other three angels!"

9 The fifth angel sounded his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from the sky to the earth.[d] The star was given the key[e] to the shaft of the Abyss.[f] 2When he opened the Abyss, smoke rose from it like the smoke from a gigantic furnace.[g] The sun and sky were darkened[h] by the smoke from the Abyss.[i] 3And out of the smoke locusts[j] came down upon the earth and were given power like that of scorpions[k] of the earth. 4They were told not to harm[l] the grass of the earth or any plant or tree,[m] but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads.[n] 5They were not given power to kill them, but only to torture them for five months.[o] And the agony they suffered was like that of the sting of a scorpion[p] when it strikes a man. 6During those days men will seek death, but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will elude them.[q]

7The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle.[r] On their heads they wore something like crowns of gold, and their faces resembled human faces.[s] 8Their hair was like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions' teeth.[t] 9They had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the thundering of many horses and chariots rushing into battle.[u] 10They had tails and stings like scorpions, and in their tails they had power to torment people for five months.[v] 11They had as king over them the angel of the Abyss,[w] whose name in Hebrew[x] is Abaddon,[y] and in Greek, Apollyon.[l]

12The first woe is past; two other woes are yet to come.[z]

13The sixth angel sounded his trumpet, and I heard a voice coming from the horns[m][a] of the golden altar that is before God.[b] 14It said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels[c] who are bound at the great river Euphrates."[d] 15And the four angels who had been kept ready for this very hour and day and month and year were released[e] to kill a third[f] of mankind.[g] 16The number of the mounted troops was two hundred million. I heard their number.[h]

17The horses and riders I saw in my vision looked like this: Their breastplates were fiery red, dark blue, and yellow as sulfur. The heads of the horses resembled the heads of lions, and out of their mouths[i] came fire, smoke and sulfur.[j] 18A third[k] of mankind was killed[l] by the three plagues of fire, smoke and sulfur[m] that came out of their mouths. 19The power of the horses was in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails were like snakes, having heads with which they inflict injury.

20The rest of mankind that were not killed by these plagues still did not repent[n] of the work of their hands;[o] they did not stop worshiping demons,[p] and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood—idols that cannot see or hear or walk.[q] 21Nor did they repent[r] of their murders, their magic arts,[s] their sexual immorality[t] or their thefts.

The Angel and the Little Scroll

10 Then I saw another mighty angel[u] coming down from heaven.[v] He was robed in a cloud, with a rainbow[w] above his head; his face was like the sun,[x] and his legs were like fiery pillars.[y] 2He was holding a little scroll,[z] which lay open in his hand. He planted his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land,[a] 3and he gave a loud shout like the roar of a lion.[b] When he shouted, the voices of the seven thunders[c] spoke. 4And when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write;[d] but I heard a voice from heaven[e] say, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said and do not write it down."[f]

5Then the angel I had seen standing on the sea and on the land[g] raised his right hand to heaven.[h] 6And he swore[i] by him who lives for ever and ever,[j] who created the heavens and all that is in them, the earth and all that is in it, and the sea and all that is in it,[k] and said, "There will be no more delay![l] 7But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet,[m] the mystery[n] of God will be accomplished, just as he announced to his servants the prophets."[o]

8Then the voice that I had heard from heaven[p] spoke to me once more: "Go, take the scroll[q] that lies open in the 9So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, "Take it and eat it. It will turn your stomach sour, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey."[a] 10I took the little scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. It tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth,[b] but when I had eaten it, my stomach turned sour. 11Then I was told, "You must prophesy[c] again about many peoples, nations, languages and kings."[d]

The Two Witnesses

11 I was given a reed like a measuring rod[e] and was told, "Go and measure the temple of God and the altar, and count the worshipers there.
2But exclude the outer court;[f] do not measure it, because it has been given to the Gentiles.[g] They will trample on the holy city[h] for 42 months.[i] 3And I will give power to my two witnesses,[j] and they will prophesy for 1,260 days,[k] clothed in sackcloth."[l] 4These are the two olive trees[m] and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.[n] 5If anyone tries to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and devours their enemies.[o] This is how anyone who wants to harm them must die.[p] 6These men have power to shut up the sky[q] so that it will not rain during the time they are prophesying;[r] and they have power to turn the waters into blood[s] and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they want.
7Now when they have finished their testimony, the beast[t] that comes up from the Abyss[u] will attack them,[v] and overpower and kill them. 8Their bodies will lie in the street of the great city,[w] which is figuratively called Sodom[x] and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.[y] 9For three and a half days men from every people, tribe, language and nation[z] will gaze on their bodies and refuse them burial.[a] 10The inhabitants of the earth[b] will gloat over them and will celebrate by sending each other gifts,[c] because these two prophets had tormented those who live on the earth.
11But after the three and a half days[d] a breath of life from God entered them,[e] and they stood on their feet, and terror struck those who saw them.
12Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up a cloud,[g] while their enemies looked on.

13At that very hour there was a severe earthquake[h] and a tenth of the city collapsed. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the survivors were terrified and gave glory[i] to the God of heaven.[j] 14The second woe has passed; the third woe is coming soon.[k]

The Seventh Trumpet

15The seventh angel sounded his trumpet,[l] and there were loud voices[m] in heaven, which said:

"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ,[n] and he will reign for ever and ever."[o]

16And the twenty-four elders,[p] who were seated on their thrones before God, fell on their faces[q] and worshiped God, 17saying:

"We give thanks[r] to you, Lord God Almighty,[s]
the One who is and who was,[t] because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign.[u] 18The nations were angry;[v] and your wrath has come.
The time has come for judging the dead,[w]
and for rewarding your servants the prophets[x] and your saints and those who reverence your name, both small and great[y]— and for destroying those who destroy the earth."

19Then God's temple[z] in heaven was opened, and within his temple was seen the ark of his covenant.[a] And there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder,[b] an earthquake and a great hailstorm.[c]

The Woman and the Dragon

12 A great and wondrous sign[d] appeared in heaven:[e] a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars[f] on her head. 2She was pregnant and cried out in pain[g] as she was about to give birth. 3Then another sign appeared in heaven:[h] an enormous red dragon[i] with seven heads[j] and ten horns[k] and seven crowns[l] on his heads. 4His tail swept a third[a] of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth.[b] The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child[c] the moment it was born. 5She gave birth to a son, a male child, who will rule all the nations with an iron scepter.[d] And her child was snatched up[e] to God and to his throne. 6The woman fled into the desert to a place prepared for her by God, where she might be taken care of for 1,260 days.[f]

7And there was war in heaven. Michael[g] and his angels fought against the dragon,[h] and the dragon and his angels[i] fought back. 8But he was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven. 9The great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent[j] called the devil,[k] or Satan,[l] who leads the whole world astray.[m] He was hurled to the earth,[n] and his angels with him.

10Then I heard a loud voice in heaven[o] say:

"Now have come the salvation[p] and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ.
For the accuser of our brothers,[q] who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down.
11They overcame[r] him by the blood of the Lamb[s] and by the word of their testimony;[t] they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death.[u] 12Therefore rejoice, you heavens[v] and you who dwell in them!
But woe[w] to the earth and the sea,[x] because the devil has gone down
to you!
He is filled with fury, because he knows that his time is short."

13When the dragon[y] saw that he had been hurled to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child.[z] 14The woman was given the two wings of a great eagle,[a] so that she might fly to the place prepared for her in the desert, where she would be taken care of for a time, times and half a time,[b] out of the serpent's reach. 15Then from his mouth the serpent[c] spewed water like a river, to overtake the woman and sweep her away with the torrent. 16But the earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river that the dragon had spewed out of his mouth. 17Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war[d] against the rest of her offspring[e]—those who obey God's commandments[f] and hold to the testimony of Jesus.[g] 13 1And the dragon[n] stood on the shore of the sea.

The Beast out of the Sea

And I saw a beast coming out of the sea.[h] He had ten horns and seven heads,[i] with ten crowns on his horns, and on each head a blasphemous name.[j] 2The beast I saw resembled a leopard,[k] but had feet like those of a bear[l] and a mouth like that of a lion.[m] The dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority.[n] 3One of the heads of the beast seemed to have had a fatal wound, but the fatal wound had been healed.[o] The whole world was astonished[p] and followed the beast. 4Men worshiped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they also worshiped the beast and asked, "Who is like[q] the beast? Who can make war against him?"

5The beast was given a mouth to utter proud words and blasphemies[r] and to exercise his authority for forty-two months.[s] 6He opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to slander his name and his dwelling place and those who live in heaven.[t] 7He was given power to make war[u] against the saints and to conquer them. And he was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation.[v] 8All inhabitants of the earth[w] will worship the beast—all whose names have not been written in the book of life[x] belonging to the Lamb[y] that was slain from the creation of the world.[o][z]

9He who has an ear, let him hear.[a] 10If anyone is to go into captivity, into captivity he will go.

If anyone is to be killed[p] with the sword,
with the sword he will be killed.[b]

This calls for patient endurance and faithfulness[c] on the part of the saints.[d]

The Beast out of the Earth

11Then I saw another beast, coming out of the earth.[a] He had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon.[b] 12He exercised all the authority[c] of the first beast on his behalf,[d] and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast,[e] whose fatal wound had been healed.[f] 13And he performed great and miraculous signs,[g] even causing fire to come down from heaven[h] to earth in full view of men. 14Because of the signs[i] he was given power to do on behalf of the first beast, he deceived[j] the inhabitants of the earth.[k] He ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived.[l] 15He was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that it could speak and cause all who refused to worship[m] the image to be killed.[n] 16He also forced everyone, small and great,[o] rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead,[p] 17so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark,[q] which is the name of the beast or the number of his name.[r]

18This calls for wisdom.[s] If anyone has insight, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is man's number.[t] His number is 666.

The Lamb and the 144,000

14 Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb,[u] standing on Mount Zion,[v] and with him 144,000[w] who had his name and his Father's name[x] written on their foreheads.[y] 2And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of rushing waters[z] and like a loud peal of thunder.[a] The sound I heard was like that of harpists playing their harps.[b] 3And they sang a new song[c] before the throne and before the four living creatures[d] and the elders.[e] No one could learn the song except the 144,000[f] who had been redeemed from the earth. 4These are those who did not defile themselves with women, for they kept themselves pure.[g] They follow the Lamb wherever he goes.[h] They were purchased from among men[i] and offered as firstfruits[j] to God and the Lamb. 5No lie was found in their mouths;[k] they are blameless.[l]

The Three Angels

6Then I saw another angel flying in midair,[m] and he had the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth[n]—to every nation, tribe, language and people.[o] 7He said in a loud voice, "Fear God[p] and give him glory,[q] because the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made[r] the heavens, the earth, the sea and the springs of water."[s]

8A second angel followed and said, "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great,[t] which made all the nations drink the maddening wine of her adulteries."[u]

9A third angel followed them and said in a loud voice: "If anyone worships the beast[v] and his image[w] and receives his mark on the forehead[x] or on the hand, 10he, too, will drink of the wine of God's fury,[y] which has been poured full strength into the cup of his wrath.[z] He will be tormented with burning sulfur[a] in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb. 11And the smoke of their torment rises for ever and ever.[b] There is no rest day or night[c] for those who worship the beast and his image,[d] or for anyone who receives the mark of his name."[e] 12This calls for patient endurance[f] on the part of the saints[g] who obey God's commandments[h] and remain faithful to Jesus.

13Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord[i] from now on."

"Yes," says the Spirit,[j] "they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them."

The Harvest of the Earth

14I looked, and there before me was a white cloud,[k] and seated on the cloud was one "like a son of man"[q][l] with a crown[m] of gold on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. 15Then another angel came out of the temple[n] and called in a loud voice to him who was sitting on the cloud, "Take your sickle[o] and reap, because the time to reap has come, for the harvest[p] of the earth is ripe." 16So he who was seated on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

17Another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle.[q] 18Still another angel, who had charge of the fire, came from the altar[r] and called in a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, "Take your sharp sickle[s] and gather the clusters of grapes from the earth's vine, because its grapes are ripe." 19The angel swung his sickle on the earth, gathered its grapes and threw them into the great winepress of God's wrath.[a] 20They were trampled in the winepress[b] outside the city,[c] and blood[d] flowed out of the press, rising as high as the horses' bridles for a distance of 1,600 stadia.[r]

Seven Angels With Seven Plagues

15 I saw in heaven another great and marvelous sign:[e] seven angels[f] with the seven last plagues[g]— last, because with them God's wrath is completed. 2And I saw what looked like a sea of glass[h] mixed with fire and, standing beside the sea, those who had been victorious[i] over the beast[j] and his image[k] and over the number of his name.[l] They held harps[m] given them by God 3and sang the song of Moses[n] the servant of God[o] and the song of the Lamb:[p]

"Great and marvelous are your deeds,[q]
Lord God Almighty.[r]
Just and true are your ways,[s] King of the ages.
4Who will not fear you, O Lord,[t] and bring glory to your name?[u] For you alone are holy.
All nations will come and worship before you,[v] for your righteous acts[w] have been revealed."

5After this I looked and in heaven the temple,[x] that is, the tabernacle of the Testimony,[y] was opened.[z] 6Out of the temple[a] came the seven angels with the seven plagues.[b] They were dressed in clean, shining linen[c] and wore golden sashes around their chests.[d] 7Then one of the four living creatures[e] gave to the seven angels[f] seven golden bowls filled with the wrath of God, who lives for ever and ever.[g] 8And the temple was filled with smoke[h] from the glory of God and from his power, and no one could enter the temple[i] until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

The Seven Bowls of God's Wrath

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple[j] saying to the seven angels,[k] "Go, pour out the seven bowls of God's wrath on the earth."[l] 2The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the land,[m] and ugly and painful sores[n] broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and worshiped his image.[o] 3The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it turned into blood like that of a dead man, and every living thing in the sea died.[p] 4The third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water,[q] and they became blood.[r] 5Then I heard the angel in charge of the waters say:

"You are just in these judgments,[s] you who are and who were,[t] the Holy One,[u] because you have so judged;[v] 6for they have shed the blood of your saints and prophets,[w] and you have given them blood to drink[x] as they deserve."

7And I heard the altar[y] respond:

"Yes, Lord God Almighty,[z] true and just are your judgments."[a]

8The fourth angel[b] poured out his bowl on the sun,[c] and the sun was given power to scorch people with fire.[d] 9They were seared by the intense heat and they cursed the name of God,[e] who had control over these plagues, but they refused to repent[f] and glorify him.[g] 10The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast,[h] and his kingdom was plunged into darkness.[i] Men gnawed their tongues in agony 11and cursed[j] the God of heaven[k] because of their pains and their sores,[l] but they refused to repent of what they had done.[m] 12The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates,[n] and its water was dried up to prepare the way[o] for the kings from the East.[p] 13Then I saw three evil[s] spirits[q] that looked like frogs;[r] they came out of the mouth of the dragon,[s] out of the mouth of the beast[t] and out of the mouth of the false prophet.[u] 14They are spirits of demons[v] performing miraculous signs,[w] and they go out to the kings of the whole world,[x] to gather them for the battle[y] on the great day[z] of God Almighty.
15"Behold, I come like a thief![a] Blessed is he who stays awake[b] and keeps his clothes with him, so that he [r]20 That is, about 180 miles (about 300 kilometers) may not go naked and be shamefully exposed."[a] 16 Then they gathered the kings together[b] to the place that in Hebrew[c] is called Armageddon.[d] 17 The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air,[e] and out of the temple[f] came a loud voice[g] from the throne, saying, "It is done!"[h] 18 Then there came flashes of lightning, rum-blings, peals of thunder[i] and a severe earthquake.[j] No earthquake like it has ever occurred since man has been on earth,[k] so tremendous was the quake.

19 The great city[l] split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed.
God remembered[m] Babylon the Great[n] and gave her the cup filled with the wine of the fury of his wrath.[o] 20 Every island fled away and the mountains could not be found.[p] 21 From the sky huge hailstones[q] of about a hundred pounds each fell upon men. And they cursed God[r] on account of the plague of hail,[s] because the plague was so terrible.

The Woman on the Beast

17 One of the seven angels[t] who had the seven bowls[u] came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the punishment[v] of the great prostitute,[w] who sits on many waters.[x] 2 With her the kings of the earth committed adultery and the inhabitants of the earth were intoxicated with the wine of her adulteries."[y] 3 Then the angel carried me away in the Spirit[z] into a desert.[a] There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet[b] beast that was covered with blasphemous names[c] and had seven heads and ten horns.[d] 4 The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and was glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls.[e] She held a golden cup[f] in her hand, filled with abominable things and the filth of her adulteries.[g] 5 This title was written on her forehead:

MYSTERY[h]
BABYLON THE GREAT[i]
THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES[j] AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints,[k] the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus.
When I saw her, I was greatly astonished. 7 Then the angel said to me:
"Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery[l] of the woman and of the beast she rides, which has the seven heads and ten horns.[m] 8 The beast, which you saw, once was, now is not, and will come up out of the Abyss[n] and go to his destruction.[o] The inhabitants of the earth[p] whose names have not been written in the book of life[q] from the creation of the world will be astonished[r] when they see the beast, because he once was, now is not, and yet will come.
9 "This calls for a mind with wisdom.[s] The seven heads[t] are seven hills on which the woman sits. 10 They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain for a little while. 11 The beast who once was, and now is not,[u] is an eighth king. He belongs to the seven and is going to his destruction.
12 "The ten horns[v] you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour[w] will receive authority as kings along with the beast. 13 They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast.[x] 14 They will make war[y] against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome[z] them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings[a]—and with him will be his called, chosen[b] and faithful followers." 15 Then the angel said to me, "The waters[c] you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations and languages.[d] 16 The beast and the ten horns[e] you saw will hate the prostitute.[f] They will bring her to ruin[g] and leave her naked;[h] they will eat her flesh[i] and burn her with fire.[j] 17 For God has put it into their hearts[k] to accomplish his purpose by agreeing to give the beast their power to rule,[l] until God's words are fulfilled.[m] 18 The woman you saw is the great city[n] that rules over the kings of the earth."

The Fall of Babylon

18 After this I saw another angel[o] coming down from heaven.[p] He had great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendor.[q] 2 With a mighty voice he shouted:

"Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great![r] She has become a home for demons and a haunt for every evil[a] spirit,[s] a haunt for every unclean and detestable bird.[t]

[a]2 Greek unclean

3For all the nations have drunk the maddening wine of her adulteries.[a]
The kings of the earth committed adultery with her,[b] and the merchants of the earth grew rich[c] from her excessive luxuries."[d]

4Then I heard another voice from heaven say:

"Come out of her, my people,[e] so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues;[f] 5for her sins are piled up to heaven,[g] and God has remembered[h] her crimes.
6Give back to her as she has given; pay her back[i] double[j] for what she has done.
Mix her a double portion from her own cup.[k] 7Give her as much torture and grief as the glory and luxury she gave herself.[l]
In her heart she boasts,
'I sit as queen; I am not a widow, and I will never mourn.'[m] 8Therefore in one day[n] her plagues will overtake her:
death, mourning and famine.
She will be consumed by fire,[o] for mighty is the Lord God who judges her.

9"When the kings of the earth who committed adultery with her[p] and shared her luxury[q] see the smoke of her burning,[r] they will weep and mourn over her.[s] 10Terrified at her torment, they will stand far off[t] and cry:

" 'Woe! Woe, O great city,[u] O Babylon, city of power!
In one hour[v] your doom has come!'

11"The merchants[w] of the earth will weep and mourn[x] over her because no one buys their cargoes any more[y]— 12cargoes of gold, silver, precious stones and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet cloth; every sort of citron wood, and articles of every kind made of ivory, costly wood, bronze, iron and marble;[z] 13cargoes of cinnamon and spice, of incense, myrrh and frankincense, of wine and olive oil, of fine flour and wheat; cattle and sheep; horses and carriages; and bodies and souls of men.[a] 14"They will say, 'The fruit you longed for is gone from you. All your riches and splendor have vanished, never to be recovered.' 15The merchants who sold these things and gained their wealth from her[b] will stand far off,[c] terrified at her torment.
They will weep and mourn[d] 16and cry
out:

" 'Woe! Woe, O great city,[e] dressed in fine linen, purple and scarlet, and glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls![f] 17In one hour[g] such great wealth has been brought to ruin!'[h]

"Every sea captain, and all who travel by ship, the sailors, and all who earn their living from the sea,[i] will stand far off.[j] 18When they see the smoke of her burning,[k] they will exclaim, 'Was there ever a city like this great city[l]?'[m] 19They will throw dust on their heads,[n] and with weeping and mourning[o] cry out:

" 'Woe! Woe, O great city,[p] where all who had ships on the sea
became rich through her wealth!
In one hour she has been brought to ruin![q] 20Rejoice over her, O heaven![r] Rejoice, saints and apostles and prophets!
God has judged her for the way she treated you.' "[s]

21Then a mighty angel[t] picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea,[u] and said:

"With such violence the great city[v] of Babylon will be thrown down,
never to be found again.
22The music of harpists and musicians, flute players and trumpeters, will never be heard in you again.[w] No workman of any trade will ever be found in you again.
The sound of a millstone will never be heard in you again.[x] 23The light of a lamp will never shine in you again.
The voice of bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again.[y] Your merchants were the world's great men.[z]
By your magic spell[a] all the nations were led astray.
24In her was found the blood of prophets and of the saints,[b]

Hallelujah!

19 After this I heard what sounded like the roar of a great multitude[b] in heaven shouting:

"Hallelujah![c] Salvation[d] and glory and power[e] belong to our God, 2 for true and just are his judgments.[f]
He has condemned the great prostitute[g] who corrupted the earth by her adulteries.
He has avenged on her the blood of his servants."[h]

3And again they shouted:

"Hallelujah![i]
The smoke from her goes up for ever and ever."[j]

4The twenty-four elders[k] and the four living creatures[l] fell down[m] and worshiped God, who was seated on the throne. And they cried:

"Amen, Hallelujah!"[n]

5Then a voice came from the throne, saying:

"Praise our God, all you his servants,[o] you who fear him, both small and great!"[p] 6Then I heard what sounded like a great multitude,[q] like the roar of rushing waters[r] and like loud peals of thunder, shouting:

"Hallelujah![s]
For our Lord God Almighty[t] reigns.[u] 7Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory![v] For the wedding of the Lamb[w] has
come,
and his bride[x] has made herself ready.
8Fine linen,[y] bright and clean, was given her to wear."

(Fine linen stands for the righteous acts[z] of the saints.)

9Then the angel said to me,[a] "Write:[b] 'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!'"[c] And he added, "These are the true words of God."[d] 10At this I fell at his feet to worship him.[e] But he said to me, "Do not do it!

I am a fellow servant with you and with your brothers who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God![f] For the testimony of Jesus[g] is the spirit of prophecy."

The Rider on the White Horse

11I saw heaven standing open[h] and there before me was a white horse, whose rider[i] is called Faithful and True.[j] With justice he judges and makes war.[k] 12His eyes are like blazing fire,[l] and on his head are many crowns.[m] He has a name written on him[n] that no one knows but he himself.[o] 13He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood,[p] and his name is the Word of God.[q] 14The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen,[r] white[s] and clean. 15Out of his mouth comes a sharp sword[t] with which to strike down[u] the nations. "He will rule them with an iron scepter."[w][v] He treads the winepress[w] of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. 16On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written:[x]

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.[y]

17And I saw an angel standing in the sun, who cried in a loud voice to all the birds[z] flying in midair,[a] "Come,[b] gather together for the great supper of God,[c] 18so that you may eat the flesh of kings, generals, and mighty men, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all people,[d] free and slave,[e] small and great."[f]

19Then I saw the beast[g] and the kings of the earth[h] and their armies gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse[i] and his army.
20But the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet[j] who had performed the miraculous signs[k] on his behalf.[l] With these signs he had deluded[m] those who had received the mark of the beast[n] and worshiped his image.[o] The two of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake[p] of burning sulfur.[q] 21The rest of them were killed with the sword[r] that came out of the mouth of the rider on the horse,[s] and all the birds[t] gorged themselves on their flesh.

[w]15 Psalm 2:9

The Thousand Years

20 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven,[a] having the key[b] to the Abyss[c] and holding in his hand a great chain. 2He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil, or Satan,[d] and bound him for a thousand years.[e] 3He threw him into the Abyss,[f] and locked and sealed[g] it over him, to keep him from deceiving the nations[h] anymore until the thousand years were ended. After that, he must be set free for a short time.
4I saw thrones[i] on which were seated those who had been given authority to judge.[j] And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded[k] because of their testimony for Jesus[l] and because of the word of God.[m] They had not worshiped the beast[n] or his image and had not received his mark on their fore-heads or their hands.[o] They came to life and reigned[p] with Christ a thousand years. 5(The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended.) This is the first resurrection.[q] 6Blessed[r] and holy are those who have part in the first resurrection. The second death[s] has no power over them, but they will be priests[t] of God and of Christ and will reign with him[u] for a thousand years.

Satan's Doom

7When the thousand years are over,[v] Satan will be released from his prison 8and will go out to deceive the nations[w] in the four corners of the earth[x]—Gog and Magog[y]—to gather them for battle.[z] In number they are like the sand on the seashore.[a] 9They marched across the breadth of the earth and surrounded[b] the camp of God's people, the city he loves.[c] But fire came down from heaven[d] and devoured them.
10And the devil, who deceived them,[e] was thrown into the lake of burning sulfur,[f] where the beast[g] and the false prophet[h] had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.[i]

The Dead Are Judged

11Then I saw a great white throne[j] and him who was seated on it. Earth and sky fled from his presence,[k] and there was no place for them. 12And I saw the dead, great and small,[l] standing before the throne, and books were opened.[m] Another book was opened, which is the book of life.[n] The dead were judged[o] according to what they had done[p] as recorded in the books.
13The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades[q] gave up the dead[r] that were in them, and each person was judged according to what he had done.[s] 14Then death[t] and Hades[u] were thrown into the lake of fire.[v] The lake of fire is the second death.[w] 15If anyone's name was not found written in the book of life,[x] he was thrown into the lake of fire.

The New Jerusalem

21 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth,[y] for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away,[z] and there was no longer any sea. 2I saw the Holy City,[a] the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,[b] prepared as a bride[c] beautifully dressed for her husband. 3And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them.[d] They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God.[e] 4He will wipe every tear from their eyes.[f] There will be no more death[g] or mourning or crying or pain,[h] for the old order of things has passed away."[i] 5He who was seated on the throne[j] said, "I am making everything new!"[k] Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."[l] 6He said to me: "It is done.[m] I am the Alpha and the Omega,[n] the Beginning and the End. To him who is thirsty I will give to drink without cost[o] from the spring of the water of life.[p] 7He who overcomes[q] will inherit all this, and I will be his God and he will be my son.[r] 8But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars[s]—their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulfur.[t] This is the second death."[u] 9One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues[v] came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride,[w] the wife of the Lamb." 10And he carried me away[x] in the Spirit[y] to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.[a] 11It shone with the glory of God,[b] and its brilliance was like that of a very precious jewel, like a jasper,[c] clear as crystal.[d] 12It had a great, high wall with twelve gates,[e] and with twelve angels at the gates. On the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel.[f] 13There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south and three on the west. 14The wall of the city had twelve foundations,[g] and on them were the names of the twelve apostles[h] of the Lamb.

15The angel who talked with me had a measuring rod[i] of gold to measure the city, its gates[j] and its walls. 16The city was laid out like a square, as long as it was wide. He measured the city with the rod and found it to be 12,000 stadia[v] in length, and as wide and high as it is long. 17He measured its wall and it was 144 cubits[w] thick,[x] by man's[k] measurement, which the angel was using. 18The wall was made of jasper,[l] and the city of pure gold, as pure as glass.[m] 19The foundations of the city walls were decorated with every kind of precious stone.[n] The first foundation was jasper,[o] the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, 20the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian,[p] the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.[y] 21The twelve gates[q] were twelve pearls,[r] each gate made of a single pearl. The great street of the city was of pure gold, like transparent glass.[s]

22I did not see a temple[t] in the city, because the Lord God Almighty[u] and the Lamb[v] are its temple. 23The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God[w] gives it light,[x] and the Lamb[y] is its lamp.
24The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their splendor into it.[z] 25On no day will its gates[a] ever be shut,[b] for there will be no night there.[c] 26The glory and honor of the nations will be brought into it.[d] 27Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful,[e] but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.[f]

The River of Life

22 Then the angel showed me the river[g] of the water of life,[h] as clear as crystal,[i] flowing[j] from the throne of God and of the Lamb 2down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life,[k] bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month.
And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.[l] 3No longer will there be any curse.[m] The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him.[n] 4They will see his face,[o] and his name will be on their foreheads.[p] 5There will be no more night.[q] They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light.[r] And they will reign for ever and ever.[s] 6The angel said to me,[t] "These words are trustworthy and true.[u] The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets,[v] sent his angel[w] to show his servants the things that must soon take place."

Jesus Is Coming

7"Behold, I am coming soon![x] Blessed[y] is he who keeps the words of the prophecy in this book."[z]

8I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things.[a] And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet[b] of the angel who had been showing them to me. 9But he said to me, "Do not do it! I am a fellow servant with you and with your brothers the prophets and of all who keep the words of this book.[c] Worship God!"[d]

10Then he told me, "Do not seal up[e] the words of the prophecy of this book,[f] because the time is near.[g] 11Let him who does wrong continue to do wrong; let him who is vile continue to be vile; let him who does right continue to do right; and let him who is holy continue to be holy."[h]

12"Behold, I am coming soon![i] My reward is with me,[j] and I will give to everyone according to what he has done.[k] 13I am the Alpha and the Omega,[l] the First and the Last,[m] the Beginning and the End.[n]

14"Blessed are those who wash their robes,[o] that they may have the right to the tree of life[p] and may go through give you[a] this testimony for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the bright Morn-17The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say,

"Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.
18I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book:[n] If anyone adds anything to them,[o] God will add to him the plagues described in this book.[p] 19And if anyone takes words away[q] from this book of prophecy,[r] God will take away from him his share in the tree of life[s] and in the holy city, which are described in this book.
